

London Office,

43, Bedford Street, N. C.

ROGERS & HUDSON,

B. W. SMURTHWAITE,
A. B. HUDSON.

Richmond, Yorks.

19th May. 1892.

My dear Sir

I am very pleased to inform you that after many lengthy searches I have at last succeeded in finding the Street Books relating to the said Congregational Chapel, West Abchurch Lane, London E.C. 4. I will send you a copy with me to Mr. Brown on Wednesday next when I hope Mr. Hudson may be able to admit the new Swetes

If you have any other admissions or other papers relating to the matter

I shall be most obliged if you will kindly bring them with you. I should also be desirous for an inventory of the new Swetes to be present as possible in order to take their admissions but this is not material so long as one or two are there. With regards.

Yours faithfully,

J. Cooke

For Messrs. Rogers & Hudson

The Old
77th Bowry.