

THE GAYZETTE

EVENTS OF INTEREST TO METROPOLITAN OMAHA & LINCOLN

TWO NEW "BAD" WEB SITES

There are two new web sites with information regarding the BAD (Bigotry and Discrimination) Amendment - Initiative 416. We would appreciate links to these web sites and getting the word out. The first is a fast-loading site, and covers only the initiative: <http://www.voteagainstdoma.com> The other site is an in-depth site devoted to our "parent" organization behind the effort, Nebraska Advocates for Justice and Equality. This site takes a little longer to load but has a lot more background information. <http://www.naje.org> If you have questions or want more information, contact the Nebraska Advocates for Justice and Equality.

WORLD HERALD POLL

If you've read the Sunday Omaha World-Herald you saw state-wide polling information reporting current perceptions on the BAD Amendment: of registered voters, 59% would vote FOR 416; and 34% would vote AGAINST 416. This is GOOD NEWS for Nebraskans AGAINST the BAD Amendment. Two weeks ago, the numbers were 62% FOR and 28% AGAINST. In two short weeks our campaign has turned 6% of the registered voters to our side. And our opponents have lost 3%. Remember, 416 is BAD—it's bigotry and discrimination. It's BAD for Business, BAD for People and BAD for Nebraska. Ask Nebraskans to be against discrimination on November 7!

"A PERFECT GANESH"

Snap Productions presents "A Perfect Ganesh" at the Dundee Dinner Theatre, Sept. 22 - Oct. 7. Set in the fabled land of India, this tale centers on the magical pilgrimage of two women. Both arrive with baggage no overhead compartment could handle. Ganesh, the golden elephant-headed god, remover of obstacles, is their guide. He is everywhere and everyone. As he oversees their travels, he draws upon the tragic and comic, beautiful and deplorable. Fantasy balances reality, hope evolves from heartbreak, intolerance is overcome by forgiveness and acceptance. "A Perfect Ganesh" features Ron Osborn, Barb Ross, Lois Nemec, and Ben Birkholtz. Curtain goes up at 8pm Thurs, Fri, and Sat and 2 pm on Sunday. Reservations call: 558.8535.

HGRA/FRONTRUNNERS

5TH ANNUAL BARN DANCE

Saturday, October 7th the Heartland Gay Rodeo Association and the Omaha Frontrunners will once again hold a barn dance and hayrack ride at Lakota Stables in Ashland, NE. Tickets include sloppy joes and chips with sodas, and one hayrack ride. There will be a campfire to roast marshmallows, some games and, of course, dancing. There will be a cash bar this year, serving your basic mixed drinks. Ms. IGRA 2000, Lonni LaBel, and former Ms IGRA, Tamara Marks, will be singing for your pleasure at 9:30pm and again at 11pm.

Cost in advance is $10 for members of HGRA and Frontrunners. For non-members the advance price is just $12. The tickets will cost $15 at the gate. Please see a member of HGRA or Frontrunners for your tickets. They are also available in the dj booth at DC's Saloon

SOFTBALL CHALLENGE

This is your last chance to respond to get together a softball team of at least 9 players and join in a slow pitch softball tournament (the Blossom Tournament) at 1 pm on Sunday, October 8, at Lynch Field, one block north of 21st & Martha. You don't need to be the best or even well prepared. Gloves, bats, and other equipment will be available. A traveling trophy will be presented to the team with the best record of wins for the day. Last year's winners were the Leather Engineers of Omaha. To register your team call MCC Omaha at 345-2563.

MEN OF LEATHER AT THE MAX

'The ALL MALE REVUE' featuring the Men of L.E.O. (The Leather Engineers of Omaha) will be held October 1st at The Max at 9:00 p.m. All of the performers in the show are Men or women in Male drag: Comedy, Sexual Fantasies, Dancing and more. The show will feature performers such as: The Men of LEO, Emperor XX Paco, past and current Mr Max's, Mr Pride 2000 Tom, former Mr Gay Nebraska's, the infamous Sharla, Vince Percy, former Mr Desert Plains Drummer Jim Gau, former ICON Emperors, and even a couple of female impersonators coming 'out' to perform as men. So come out and show your support for the Men of LEO. It should be a night full of fun, entertainment and hot men.

HOT BEARS! HOT FOOD!
(COOL PATIO)

Weekend events introducing the Max's newly expanded Patio are winding down, but the Bears are definitely up for what may be their last Patio Party of the season.

"Hot Bears! Hot Food!" is the Bears group's theme scheduled 4-7 p.m. Saturday Sept 23 on the Patio at the Max. Munchies available will be Mexican-ish or tacoey: nachos, chips and salsa. Cost to cover the munchies will be $3 ($2 for Bears club members). "Hot Bears" will be serving the "Hot Food" and providing entertainment, camaraderie and fun as only Bears do. The group for hirsute persons and enthusiasts urges everyone to come. Help make a resounding turnout for the Patio and the Parties at the Max.

1ST UNITARIAN HOSTS G/L FILMS

The Film Fest at First Unitarian Church of Omaha continues with films on September 24, October 1 & 8 at 6pm in the Common Room downstairs, 3114 Harney, Omaha. There is a $2.00 charge per night for food and incidentals (no registration is required for this film series)

SEPTEMBER 24:

"A VERY NATURAL THING"

"A Very Natural Thing" (1971) is the story of Jason, a former seminary student and David, an advertising executive who discover passion and romance while learning to love and respect each other.

OCTOBER 1:

"THE HANGING GARDEN"

"The Hanging Garden" presents the most modern, lyrical and humorous approach to family reunions as a once inept William returns home now a confident, together, gay young man.

OCTOBER 8:

"WHEN NIGHT IS FALLING"

Camille is drawn into a world of hypnotic sensuality, rapturous self-discovery and exquisite erotic pleasure. Walking between the familiar past and the forbidden future, Camille must choose between the love she can't forget...and the desire she can't resist.

NETHERLANDS LEGALIZES SAME SEX MARRIAGE

As reported by the Associated Press, The Netherlands, is converting the country's "registered same-sex partnerships" into full-fledged marriages, complete with divorce guidelines and wider adoption rights for gays. The legislation will give Dutch gays rights beyond those offered in any other country. Lawmakers thumped their desks in approval when the vote passed 107-33, and some of the score of witnesses in the packed public gallery applauded and embraced. Only a few small Christian parties voiced opposition during an emotional and often heated three-day debate.

In Norway and Sweden, gay couples can already register their partnerships and Denmark was the first country to allow gay marriages in 1989. Two years ago, the Netherlands enacted a law allowing same-sex couples to register as partners and to claim pensions, social security and inheritance. But the new Dutch legislation goes farther, creating full equality for gays, activists said. Same-sex couples will be able to marry at city hall, adopt Dutch children and be able to divorce through the court system.

Displaying unusual solidarity, all three parliamentary factions in the governing coalition - the left-of-center Labor Party, the Liberal VVD and the smaller Democrats 66 - backed the proposal. Even a few members of the biggest opposition party, the largely traditional Christian Democratic Alliance, or CDA, have expressed support.

The plan hasn't been recognized by the dominant Protestant or Roman Catholic churches, but a few breakaway churches have sent encouraging letters to legislators. The Remonstrant Brethren, which broke from the Protestant church in 1619, was one step ahead of the Dutch parliament, having accepted gay marriages in 1986. The Remonstrants and a group called the Old Catholic Church are the best-known supporters of gay rights here.

While gays will enjoy new liberties in the Netherlands, they may run into trouble when they travel in countries where homosexuality remains illegal. The Foreign Affairs Ministry has proposed offering legal assistance to Dutch citizens in such cases.

BOB EWING HOSTS POOL TOURNAMENT

Grand Duke XX Bob Ewing invites you to come cheer on your favorite in the Pool Tournament to be held Saturday, September 30th at DC's.

The tournament is a single elimination event with the winner receiving a $100.00 cash prize. The tournament begins promptly at 6:00 p.m. All 16 spots in the tournament are filled, but you can be sure that the competitors will welcome your support and your cheers as they take aim and shoot.

Proceeds from the Pool Tournament will be split between ICON and the Metropolitan Community Church of Omaha.

NEBRASKA'S FIRST ANNUAL LIVING BETTER CONFERENCE

A compilation of three workshops designed to help us, the people of Nebraska's GLBT community, learn to live fuller, richer lives. The conference will be held October 28, 2000, from 9am to 4:30pm in Lincoln, Nebraska, at the Lincoln Unitarian Church located at 6300 "A" Street. A wide variety of workshop topics will include home ownership, relationship conflicts, how law, politics, and religion relate to us, current health issues facing women and men, and our place in contemporary culture. The cost to attend is $20 for the entire day and includes the workshops, a keynote and closing speaker, as well as lunch prepared by members of the Lincoln Unitarian Church's Social Action Committee. Individuals planning to attend should mail their name, address, day/evening phone number, along with their registration fee, to:

Omaha's National Coming Out Day Family Matters: Past, Present, Future; Social, Legal, Financial

OPPD Atrium 16th and Harney
October 7, 2000 Noon - 5

Saturday, October 7, has been designated Omaha's Coming Out Day to encourage and empower every gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered person, and their families to make a difference in educating our community, state & nation on who we are. Coming Out Day serves as a day to commemorate the importance of this individual act of courage.

The goal of National Coming Out Day is to increase the visibility of the gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered communities and to thereby encourage greater acceptance of our lives and families. We all have families in our past, present, and future that we define in different ways and that we love very much. Some of those families have serious issues concerning their rights and property that they wish to protect.

This year's Coming Out Day in Omaha celebrates all of those families and provides information on many of those issues.

Presentations on the following issues:

Coming out	Real estate
Supporting coming out	Wills and living wills
Youth	Partnerships
Transgender issues	and more

We hope you will join us in this celebration. Media are welcome and encouraged to attend.

For more information, please contact: Terri Ann Johnson 402-435-2065 or Marcella Bucknam 402-559-6728.

SHOWER OF STOLES DISPLAY IN LINCOLN

From Oct. 8-14 "Shower of Stoles" will be displayed on the UN-L campus. This display is a sampling from the complete collection of liturgical stoles made by glbt people of faith who are barred from leadership within their faith communities because of their sexual orientation.

This moving exhibit originated in Minnesota and now features stoles from across the country. The exhibit will be held in the Nebraska Union Art Gallery, UNL campus. The display is free and open to the public.

1st NATIONAL GLBT YEARS BOOK SEEKS PHOTOS

The Safe Schools Coalition of Nevada announces the first national Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgender Years Book, an on-line gallery of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender adults' middle and high school photos, presented anonymously on the Safe Schools website at <http://www.pflagreno.org/safeschools> to provide a counter to present-day gay & lesbian teens feelings of isolation and let them see 20th century generations of teenagers who grew up to be lesbian & gay adults, despite the traumas of adolescence. Along the way we'd also like to demonstrate that 1. 'Gay youth' aren't a new phenomenon; 2. Gay youth are faces behind those scary statistics such as "28% of gay teens will drop out of school" or "35% of gay teens will attempt suicide"; 3. Gay teens look just like other teens - and have for generation upon generation. If you identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual or transgender and are over 18 years old, send your formal school portrait taken between 7th & 12th grade, of any size, in either black & white or color. You can scan & e-mail your photo to us at years-book@pflagreno.org, or mail it to us, with a SASE, at PFLAG RENO Years Book, PO Box 20844, Reno, NY 89515. We'll put it on our web site (without your name) in 1.5" x 2" format, in order of graduation year. For more details, please visit our web site at <http://www.pflagreno.org/safeschools>

GALO

Just wanted to add our name to the list of what's going on in Omaha. We are the GALO organization at UNO, providing a GLBT presence on the campus at UNO. My name is April Christiansen and I am the President. If people see the name and want more information, they can reach me at Alchristi55@aol.com Otherwise they can contact SPO (Student Organizations) at 554-2711. Thanks!

A NIGHT OF 1000 FACES AT ROSE THEATRE

The Rose Theatre will be ablaze with the light from beaded gowns and sequins on Saturday, September 23, at 8pm as the nationally renowned Female Impersonator, Randy Roberts, takes to the stage for A Night of 1000 Faces. The show is a benefit for the Nebraska AIDS Project, sponsored by the Alan and Marcia Baer Foundation. For ticket information, call (402) 552-1095.

LINCOLN PLAG MEETING FEATURES G/L COUPLES COMMITMENT CEREMONIES

The PFLAG Cornhusker Chapter general meeting will be held on September 26 at 7pm at the Unitarian Church, 6300 "A" St., Lincoln. Support groups will be followed by a program on "Lesbian and Gay Unions." Three couples will share the stories of their weddings/commitment ceremonies--and their albums! For info call 434-9880.

PFLAG OMAHA NEW OFFICERS

At PFLAG Annual Meeting the following were elected to the Board for a two year term, April Timme, J Wright, Roy Wright, and Bob Dorr. Stephany Condon was elected to full a one year term. Betty Dorr and Darlene Sherman are the remaining members on the Board. It was also announced that the Westside High School newspaper, the Lance, will carry the ad for the Proud Horizons Youth Group for this year. The cost of the ad is being donated by the Rife family who have moved to Manchester, England.
