Karl Rove's Stepfather Was Gay

A new book from the authors of a previous tome about the life and work of Bush political adviser Karl Rove claims that Rove's stepfather was gay, the American-Statesman newspaper of Austin, Texas, reported.

In "The Architect: Karl Rove and the Master Plan for Absolute Power," James Moore and Wayne Slater dedicate two chapters to the touchier side of the Republican Party's exploitation of antigay sentiment.

In Chapter 9, "A Few Simple Questions: What's in Karl's Closet?" the authors draw on interviews with gay acquaintances of Rove's stepfather, Louis Rove, as well as an interview with a circumspect Karl Rove, to reveal that Louis came out as gay after divorcing Rove's mother, according to the American-Statesman.

The chapter jabs hard at Rove, pointing out that Louis Rove, who was clearly Rove's primary father figure, died in Palm Springs, Calif., just as "his son was in the midst of launching the anti-gay issues campaign that was to lead to the re-election of George W. Bush."

The authors quote Rove and friends of Rove's stepfather to illustrate that Rove was close to him throughout his life and seemed not to judge his sexuality. This, and Rove's self-professed agnosticism, are major exhibits in Moore and Slater's claim of hypocrisy.

Moore, an Austin-based journalist, and Slater, senior political writer for the Dallas Morning News, paint a sharp portrait of an intelligent, ruthless, and deeply cynical Karl Rove.

Though this is their second book on Rove (after 2003's "Bush's Brain"), there's little overlap. Bush's Brain focused on Rove's rise and the development of his association with George W. Bush; "The Architect" focuses on how he pursued the creation of an enduring Republican hegemony. (The Advocate)

Ugandan Paper's Listing of Alleged Gay Men Assailed

NEW YORK, New York (Reuters) -- A Ugandan newspaper's decision to publish the names of alleged gay men is a chilling development in the African country's vilification of homosexuals, a U.S.-based human rights watchdog said Thursday.

Human Rights Watch said the publication of the first names, workplaces and other identifying information of the 45 men could be foreshadowing a government crackdown in the country, where sodomy is a crime punishable by life in prison.

"For years, President Yoweri Museveni's government routinely threatens and vilifies lesbians and gays, and subjects sexual rights activists to harassment," Human Rights Watch researcher Jessica Stern said in a statement.

"At a moment when sensational publicity has spread fear among a whole community, the authorities must exercise their responsibility to protect, not persecute."

The rights group said the list of names was published last month in the tabloid newspaper Red Pepper and that the paper has since told activists that it plans to publish a similar list of alleged lesbians.

Similar allegations by the newspaper have led to police action, Human Rights Watch said.

In Memoriam

Memorial Services were held Monday Sept. 11th for William "Billy" Bohannon, a dear friend of Omaha and our community, who passed away quietly after a lengthy illness.

His "passion in life" was theatre. Known often for the roles he played on stage, Billy was also a talented director, choreographer and costumer. Over the past years the Omaha Community Playhouse, Bellevue Little Theatre, Dundee Dinner Theatre and Center Stage to name just a few, were much richer for his talents. Most recently, his contributions were visible at SNAP Productions and the Chanticleer Community Theatre in Council Bluffs. He last directed "Six Dance Lessons in Six Weeks" for SNAP, which earned both Best Costume Design and Best Comedy at the 2006 Theatre Arts Guild Awards (TAG).

Bill Bohannon

His talents and contributions to the Omaha Theatre Community were acknowledged in 2005, when he received the prestigious TAG Lifetime Achievement Award. That same year, his reprisal of the role of Hoke Colburn in "Driving Miss Daisy" drew critical acclaim and rave reviews at The Bellevue Little Theatre.

Billy's contributions were also very visible in the Gay community. The Imperial Court of Nebraska (ICON) benefited from his set design and choreography talents on countless occasions. Billy also held titles on several Royal Families. The Omaha Meatpackers valued his contributions as well, for the staging and direction of many of their shows. He was a valuable asset to the MCC Choir and a past Show Director at THE MAX. He did outreach work for the Nebraska Aids Project (NAP) by directing educational skits for AIDS Awareness.

His ability to put an entire production together with hot glue and duct tape, his willingness "to help" no matter what, and his uncompromising vision and spirit will be greatly missed by all. Thank you Billy.

Pope Chastises Canada on Gay Marriage, Abortion

VATICAN CITY (AP) -- Pope Benedict XVI hit out Friday at Canada's laws allowing same-sex marriage and abortion, saying they result from Catholic politicians ignoring the values of their religion.

"In the name of 'tolerance' your country has had to endure the folly of the redefinition of spouse, and in the name of 'freedom of choice' it is confronted with the daily destruction of unborn children," the pope told a group of bishops from Ontario.

Such laws, he said, are the result of "the exclusion of God from the public sphere."

He lamented that Catholic politicians yielded to "ephemeral social trends and the spurious demands of opinion polls."

Benedict has made the defense of traditional family values a major goal of his papacy, speaking out often on the issue.

During a trip to Spain in July, he challenged that country's Socialist government for instituting liberal reforms such as gay marriage and fast-track divorce.

Same-sex marriage was recognized by Canada's parliament last year.

New Conservative Prime Minister Stephen Harper has pledged to hold a vote in the House of Commons later this year to determine whether the issue should be revisited.

Homeowner Alert!

Former Bank Auditor Says...

“Credit Card Users Are Paying Too Much...”

—Free Report Shows Omaha Gay and Lesbian Community How To Save Thousands Of Dollars On Unnecessary Interest Payments.

Homeowners with substantial credit card debts are missing important savings opportunities by failing to act immediately. Unknown to most financial planners and CPA's, this free consumer report reveals how to save thousands in unnecessary interest payments and finance charges.

“Unbelievable”, said one homeowner. “I can't believe how this simple little trick is able to save me thousands of dollars a year.” Banks and credit card companies hope you never read this report because they want to keep charging you interest on a balance that will take more than 30 years to pay off. Consumers have been fooled by offers of low teaser rates to induce them to transfer balances, only to see their rate double or triple a few months later. This report explains how to avoid being tricked by the tactics of these large banks and credit card companies and how to turn the table so you get the interest, not them.

NOTE: The revised version of this report was recently released and the response has been overwhelming. A toll-free 24hr/day recorded message hotline has been set up to handle the expected volume, but you are urged to call right away. Quantities are limited. Call 1-800-475-9610...press option 1...ext 8605, leave your name and address, and the report will be mailed to you.

The Fitness Corner

“And no one’s getting fat except Ma-ma Cass.” Everyone wants to lose weight. Many folks want something for nothing. Fad weight-loss diets are just the way to do this (could this be sarcasm). Just ask all the people who have lost weight by fad dieting. The problem is that no one checks the status of these people one year later. There are good odds that these individuals have regained the weight or have experienced health problems from nutritional deficits. I also only hear from the winners; if you can call them that. It’s exactly like gambling. I only hear from those who have won the big jackpot in Las Vegas. But where oh where are all those gamblers who have lost at the slot machines and the poker tables. The truth is that you will only hear the fad dieting “success” stories just like you will only hear from Dick and Jane when they bag a pelf of riches in Sin City. FAD DIETING DOESN’T WORK! Want to know why? Cue the music.

There are the carb diets that want you to restrict your intake of carbohydrates. Good idea until you realize that carbohydrates provide almost all the energy for your body and call me crazy but I’d like to have energy to go dancing, wash my Honda, and play Parcheesi.

Let’s spin the fad diet wheel again and Houston we’ve got a problem! We’ve landed on protein-restrictive diets. Muscle soreness, fatigue, and overall weakness are what you’ve won. Studies have shown that 98% of the atoms in your body are replaced within one year. These new atoms come from those pesky proteins. No proteins, no atoms. HMMMM. Guess that doesn’t work either. On to the next one.

Let’s give a warm welcome to fad diet #3. It’s the fad diet that eliminates almost all the fat. Now this sounds really good. What the devil could that killjoy fitness guy Ron say negative about this. Ron says that you need some fat in your diet. The saturated fat is the bad fat guy you can do without but you do need some of the unsaturated fat. The unsaturated fat is the stuff that acts as a carrier for the vitamins A, D, E, and K. Someone has to transport these little darlings around the body. So saturated is good; unsaturated is bad. Gotcha!

We’re climbing the charts and we’re now up to the extremely-low calorie fad diet. This diet cuts calories down below 1200 calories per day. These diets are called A) calorie-restrictive; B) stupid; C) ineffective; or D) dangerous. Of course the answer is all of the above or it wouldn’t fit with my theme of sarcasm. The body’s top priority is to obtain sufficient energy to carry on vital functions such as circulation, respiration, and digestion. You’re not gonna do it with a thousand calories a day.

Some of the top-selling diet plans on the market are: The Zone Diet, Atkins Diet, Fat Blocker Diet, Fit for Life, New Pritkin Diet, and the New Beverly Hills Diet. These are all fad diets and they don’t work properly. The only winners with all of these diet plans are the marketing and advertising firms that sell this dreck to the public and become wealthy doing so.

Remember that it’s better to win the war and lose a few battles than it is to win some battles and lose the war. These fad diets only allow you to grab some quick battles. Your ultimate goal should be to win that war by losing weight gradually and keeping healthy throughout. The correct way to do this is very simple: expend more calories than you take in daily, eat soundly, exercise regularly and give some time to lose the weight. “And California Dreaming is becoming a reality.”

Ron Blake is a Certified Personal Fitness Trainer and Owner of Blake Fitness, LLC. He can be reached on the web at www.blakefitness.com.

Just for Laughs....

A guy goes to the supermarket and notices a beautiful blond woman wave at him and say hello. He’s rather taken aback, because he can’t place where he knows her from. So he says, “Do you Know me?” To which she replies, “I think you’re the father of one of my kids.” Now his mind travels back to the only time he has ever been unfaithful to his wife and says, “My God, are you the stripper from my bachelor party that I laid on the pool table with all my buddies watching, while your partner whipped my butt with wet celery and then stuck a carrot up my butt????” She looks into his eyes and calmly says, “No, I’m your son’s math teacher.”

Retirement Planning

If you had purchased $1000.00 of Nortel stock one year ago, it would now be worth $49.00.

With Enron, you would have had $16.50 left of the original $1000.00.

With WorldCom, you would have had less than $5.00 left.

If you had purchased $1000 of Delta Air Lines stock you would have $49.00 left

But, if you had purchased $1,000.00 worth of beer one year ago, drank all the beer, then turned in the cans for the aluminum recycling REFUND, You would have had $214.00.

Based on the above, the best current investment advice is to drink heavily and recycle.

It’s called the 401-Keg Plan.

Let's Play Ball !!!

August 29th Game Highlights

It was a mix up of team members for this game. Drawing out of a bag was the fate of the team. It was a good mix up with 4 Ballerz being traded to the Snatchers and 5 Snatchers to the Ballerz.

Some great plays happened in the game as follows. Becky, being a sub for the game, caught two pop flies in the last inning. Jill got an out when she zipped a pop fly but AJ did not let it get by her on third. Chris G. tackled Chad to be safe on home plate. Windell hit a triple to score in three runs. Tamara, being a lefty, fooled everyone when she knocked it out into left field. Michael hit a double scoring a run. Telly sank it far into the outfield a couple times and Jesse made a great effort to tag out a player or two at third base.

Jen was chopped down by an opponent half way through the game and Ed. S. struck out a player which was the only strike out during the game. Chad made a great foul pop catch at home.

Join us next week as the teams go through another scramble. Games are at 34th Leavenworth Park. Please join us for our final game September 24th at 1:00 PM.

The league would like to thank volunteers Jackie, Brady, and Sarah and, of course, all the people who come to watch us as well.

September 5th Game Highlights

The game went back to normal teams for the night. The Ballerz VS. the Snatchers in game 12. It was a wonderful night to play and the bleachers were filling fast.

The first inning didn't deliver any runs for either team. Some players had trouble straightening out the ball. Others just sent it backwards into the crowd as a foul ball.

Other highlights from the game.

The Ballerz got many pop flies sent to them with most all of them getting caught. Windell hit for a triple. Chris G. hit a home run scoring 2 other players. Ed S. got a pop fly right off of the pitchers mound. Brian got a pop fly directly to him on third. Justin got a double after fouling twice. Hank also scored a double and got a couple of forced outs on second. Dave was covering first and got around the bases a few times. Michael and Chad defended the outfield while getting single base hits. The Snatchers were having a hard time staying on bases for the evening. Leana, though getting a great pop fly, was caught on home plate. Ashleigh provided very good defense in left field. Jenni was covering center but the ball fell short of her a few times and it got back to the infield fast. Becky was covering second later on but was replaced, with Kristin going out to the right field. Jesse and Telly tried to pickle Chris G from the Ballerz but he says he didn't want to play that game. A.J. made great catches on first for defense while Jill did the same over at short stop.

The league would like to thank the entire crowd for their attendance. We appreciate it. Thank you also to our volunteer umps Jackie, Brady, and Kathy as well as our scorekeeper Sarah.

The final game will be Sunday September 24th at 1 PM at 34th Leavenworth Park. The next sport offered by the Omaha Metro GLBT Sports League will be indoor volleyball. Sign up dates will be in October. Play will be Sundays in November at the Downtown Y from 2PM - 4PM
