GLBT CENTER OPEN HOUSE

Hey all of you "Snowflakes & Snowpeople", come to the GLBT Center Open House. Join us for free cookies and cocoa at the GLBT Center Open House on Sunday, January 16, from 2-7PM.

Drop in, hang out, socialize, and snack. A variety of treats and beverages will be provided. The GLBT Center is located at 1719 Leavenworth in the Old Market District of Downtown Omaha. You can park anywhere in the Old Market and easily walk to the Center (which is less than 3 blocks from other GLBT establishments including the JOY, DC's Saloon, the MAX, Omaha Mining Company, the Diamond, and Connections). We look forward to seeing you at the Center Open House!

Thanks From L2EP

Even though the Christmas season is over the members of L2EP wish to thank all of the people who attended Toyz 4 Totz on Dec. 1st. Even though the event happen on the same time as Night of a Thousand Stars many people helped to make the night a success. From the performers who found the energy to entertain, the establishments that made donations for raffles and auctions, the Monarchs that found time between events to attend and to the people who paid a cover to see the show. All of this plus the generosity of D.C.'s to let the event be held there allowed L2EP to present $1700 to I.C.O.N. Thank you all for making Christmas happen for others.

Gay Organization Helps in Tsunami Relief Efforts

Larry Buhl, PlanetOut Network

As the death toll from Sunday's earthquake and tsunamis rockets past 100,000, dozens of relief organizations are working overtime to provide immediate and long-term relief to survivors. One of the organizations raising money is the Rainbow World Fund (www.rainbowfund.org), the first LGBT world relief agency.

Jeff Cotter, a San Francisco psychiatric social worker, says he started Rainbow World Fund (RWF) four years ago because none of the traditional relief organizations were developing philanthropy and consciousness in the LGBT community. It is that dual mission -- direct relief hand in hand with changing opinions and beliefs -- that moves RWF. Cotter calls it a solidarity model, rather than a charity model.

"As with our community's response to HIV, we can't wait for the rest of the world to take leadership," Cotter said. "And as a gay man, I thought, if I want to change the world, I should start where I'm at, in the community I live in. And the gay and lesbian community was a huge untapped market."

In the past year, RWF has teamed up with relief organizations to increase access to safe drinking water in Central America, eradicate land mines in Cambodia, provide food for victims of hurricane Jeanne in Haiti and save the next generation of Africans from HIV/AIDS. The group works closely with larger charity organizations (such as CARE) to give aid immediately, where it's needed.

Cotter balances his time between Rainbow and his "day job": counseling rape victims and gunshot wound survivors for the city of San Francisco. He has spent the past three years building the infrastructure for RWF, and has begun helping victims around the world this year.

Because administrative costs are covered by the board of directors and grants from various organizations (including the Catholic Church), RWF can ensure that 100 percent of every charitable dollar goes directly to field service work overseas. In the case of Sunday's quake and tsunami survivors, aid will go to food, water, vitamins and medical supplies for many months, and possibly years, to come.

But why doesn't an LGBT relief organization give to LGBT causes? Why enlist gays and lesbians to help victims they know nothing about? The question, Cotter says, should really be: why not?

"Suffering is universal, and the LGBT community knows more than a little bit about that," Cotter says. "When we took the aid trip to Guatemala earlier this year, it was clear that we (the LGBT community) had a shared history of oppression with the Mayan population there. There was a systematic genocide there, and the government invalidated their marriage relationships, among other atrocities."

The excursion to Guatemala had another benefit as well. In the primarily Catholic and socially conservative country, Rainbow's outreach was the first contact most citizens had with gays or lesbians. Promoting tolerance and understanding of differences among people and cultures, and at the same time providing much-needed assistance to impoverished and developing areas, is a win-win, according to Cotter.

"We're about changing attitudes toward gays and lesbians," Cotter said. "Many of the places we visit and help have very little LGBT presence. Everyone we've worked with has been surprised by our commitment, and very open and accepting to our presence."

Conversely, the organization, by encouraging "closet philanthropists" to move into action, is helping LGBT people see themselves in a different light, Cotter said.

"We have tended to define ourselves too narrowly in the LGBT community. The very act of giving helps reinforce the idea that we're not just about sex or partying, or Madonna. We are a community that cares about human suffering anywhere, and does something about it."

YMCA Scheduling Snafu Pits Tots Against Trannies

Associated Press

A Chicago YMCA director has been fired and overnight facility rentals banned after the parents of young children arriving for a morning swim meet clashed with participants in an overnight transgender fashion show and ball.

Greg Weider, who had been acting director of the New City YMCA for two years, was fired Wednesday. Programming manager Michael Horton, who oversaw scheduling at the center, resigned two days earlier.

"We've taken very swift, decisive action, and we will do everything we can in order to restore the integrity of our organization for those that we serve," said Steven Dahlin, executive vice president and chief operating officer of the YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago.

Authorities said a YMCA member had reserved the entire facility from 11 p.m. Saturday to 8 a.m. Sunday for the fashion show and ball. The YMCA rented out the rooms, although families were scheduled to arrive at 7 a.m. to use some of the same rooms for a swim meet.

Police and private security guards were called after some parents used sexual slurs and scuffling broke out, authorities said. No arrests were made.

Kyle's Bed & Breakfast by Greg Fox

SO... I HEAR BREYER HAS SHORT PENIS ISSUES.

GOOD LORD, RICHARD. HOW DO YOU KNOW ABOUT THAT?

REALLY, KYLE. DOES ANY GOSSIP EVER ESCAPE ME?

IT WAS A PRIVATE CONVERSATION.

NO SUCH THING IN THIS HOUSE.

WE WERE OUTSIDE.

EVER HEAR OF WINDOWS?

SO, TELL ME... HOW SHORT IS IT?

THAT IS NONE OF YOUR BUSINESS. BESIDES, I...

... HAVEN'T SEEN IT YET.

OH... I SHOULD'VE KNOWN.

GLACIERS MOVE FASTER THAN YOU DO IN REGARDS TO SEX, KYLE.

I WASN'T AWARE GLACIERS HAD SEX.

WHAT ABOUT LANCE?

OH, BUT HE'S ANYTHING BUT SLOW.

RICHARD...

ANYWAY... GETTING BACK TO BREYER'S PENIS...

CAN WE NOT?

AREN'T YOU DEVASTATED BY IT?

"DEVASTATED"? ARE YOU SERIOUS?

I COULDN'T CARE LESS HOW SHORT IT IS.

BE HONEST, KYLE.

RICHARD... I AM BEING HONEST.

I HAVE NEVER UNDERSTOOD WHY HAVING A BIG PENIS SHOULD MATTER. IT'S A NON-ISSUE TO ME.

LOOK AT ALL THE PAINTINGS AND SCULPTURES OF MALE NUDES BY THE GREAT MASTERS THROUGH HISTORY.

THEY ALL HAD TINY PENISES... YET THEY WERE CONSIDERED THE IDEAL MALE FIGURES.

THIS BIG PENIS FASCINATION IS A RELATIVELY RECENT DEVELOPMENT.

THANKS FOR THE HISTORY LESSON. AND YES, KYLE... I SUPPOSE THERE ARE SOME ADVANTAGES TO HAVING A BOYFRIEND WITH A SHORT PENIS.

SUCH AS?

LESS STRETCHING OF YOUR FACIAL MUSCLES DURING ORAL SEX.

WHICH MEANS, IN THE LONG RUN, LESS WRINKLES.

AMAZING THE THINGS YOU THINK OF.

WHAT CAN I SAY? I HAVE A GIFT...

Gay Chatroom Meeting Ends In Murder

by 365Gay.com Newscenter Staff

(Des Moines, Iowa) Des Moines police are searching for a motive in the killing of a Nebraska man who was found stabbed to death in suburban motel.

Terry Graham, 52, of South Sioux City, NE., was in Des Moines on business. A second man, Jon Matthew McGee, 23, of Urbandale, Iowa was arrested in Graham's room. Police said McGee had called 911. He has been charged with killing Graham, but police say what led up to the slaying is not known.

Investigators say that the men met that night in a popular internet chat site and arranged to meet.

McGee's attorney, Peter Berger, said his client had been invited to the hotel room by Graham.

Berger said McGee had been hospitalized at a U.S. Air Force base in Europe before being honorably discharged for psychological reasons.

Those psychological reasons have "a significant impact on what happened at the hotel and this case as a whole," Berger said.

Graham's brother-in-law, Ron Ellefson, arrived in town and picked up Graham's vehicle. He told the Des Moines Register that inside the vehicle he found papers downloaded from the Internet about homosexuality and religion.

Ellefson said Graham, a former minister, still worked as a counselor, and he thought that Graham may have been counseling McGee.

McGee is in Polk County Jail on $500,000 cash-only bond. He is scheduled to be arraigned on Feb. 11.

Auditions for "A New Brain"

SNAP! productions will hold auditions for William Finn and James Lapine's musical "A New Brain", January 24 and 25 at 7PM at SNAP!/Shelterbelt Theatre, 3225 California St. The ensemble show is nearly completely sung, in a style similar to Finn's "Falsettos". This energetic, witty and touching tale takes us on a surreal semi-autobiographical tour of a songwriter's struggle to find meaning in his life when confronted with the possibility of terminal illness. As the songwriter fights to survive, he's supported by his lover and a neurotic best friend, doted on by his very Jewish mother, surrounded by disgruntled nurses and animated hospital staff, and tormented by a sadistic frog. Go figure. Ultimately, the songwriter finds salvation in art and music, allowing us to see that humor and joy co-exist in our darkest moments.

Please bring a prepared song. An accompanist will be provided. Cast includes adult roles for 5 men (2 of which can be cast African American), and 4 women (1 role is for a mature actress, 1 role can be cast African American/gospel-belter). The show will run Thurs.-Sun., March 3-27. For more info, email director, Roxanne Wach: roxwach@aol.com

Nebraska Pride Needs You!

In six short months, the GLBT Community of Nebraska will celebrate 20 years of Gay Pride! Nebraska Pride 2005 – the 20th Anniversary Celebration is fast approaching and Rainbow Celebrations' Nebraska Pride Committee needs your help.

If you've ever wanted to be involved with the planning and production of the biggest Gay Pride Celebration in the state, now is the time to step forward. Rainbow Celebrations invites you to attend the next meeting on Tuesday, January 11 at 7 pm. The committee meetings include discussions, votes and information about all of the events which will lead up to and encompass the Pride Celebration this June. The Planning Committee meets every two weeks beginning on January 11th through May 3rd (then meetings move to every week).

The Pride Committee also is actively involved in fundraising, benefits, Nebraska Pride IDOL and other special events which are related to Nebraska Pride. All are welcome, and everyone is encouraged to get involved. Nebraska Pride does not happen without the help and support of many people in our GLBT Communities. There are positions open on the fundraising, parade, festival, pride guide, volunteer committees and well as several Committee Chair positions.

Pride Committee meetings are now being held at the Citizen For Equal Protection offices in the Old Market. The NEW MEETING address is 1105 Howard Street, Suite 2 (go to the top of the stairs, turn left and go forward through the iron gates). There is also an elevator for those who would rather not use the stairs. If you need additional directions, please call 402.415.8769.

The 2005 meeting schedule is: January 11 & 25; February 8 & 22; March 8 & 22; April 5 & 19; May 3, 10, 17, 24 & 31; and June 7. As Nebraska Pride draws closer, some committees may meet outside the regularly scheduled Pride Committee meetings, but those dates and times have not been determined.

Nebraska Pride is a great event to become involved with throughout the year! The Planning Committee is made up of dedicated and valued volunteers – all of whom believe in helping to provide the best Pride Celebration as possible. We want YOU to get involved now! We look forward to seeing you at the January 11th meeting at 7 pm.

For more information regarding Nebraska Pride 2005, please email PRIDE@rainbowcelebrations.org or call 402.212.6302.

Spain: Cabinet OKs Gay Marriage Bill

Spain took another step toward equal marriage rights on Thursday, when the Socialist government approved a bill that would allow same-sex couples to marry.

The legislation was approved during a weekly Cabinet meeting under Prime Minister Jose Luis Rodriguez Zapatero. Members of Parliament will get a chance to debate the bill in February, according to European news reports.

The bill, which Spain's powerful Catholic Church opposes, would modify 14 articles of the 1889 Civil Code, Agence France-Presse reported. Same-sex couples would be allowed to adopt children and inherit retirement benefits, among all the other rights enjoyed by married heterosexual couples.

If the legislation is enacted next year, Spain will become the third country in Europe -- behind the Netherlands and Belgium -- to permit same-sex couples to marry.

"The right to marry is a right for everyone, without distinction. It cannot be understood as a privilege," Deputy Prime Minister Maria Teresa Fernandez de la Vega told reporters after the Cabinet meeting. "The recognition of homosexuals' rights eradicates an unjustified discrimination."

Prime Minister Zapatero has been the driving force behind the marriage bill, as he promised during his successful election campaign last spring that he would enact liberal social changes.

Catholic bishops in the country reserved last Sunday as a national day of protest against legalizing same-sex marriage. In a published statement, the bishops said that "homosexual tendencies, even if not a sin, must be considered objectively as troubling."
