Iowa Lawmakers Can't Meddle in Marriage Case

A judge in Des Moines, Iowa, has denied a request by 25 lawmakers to intervene in a legal battle over the state's ban on same-sex marriages.

Judge Robert Hanson on Wednesday overruled several arguments made by the lawmakers, including how allowing same-sex marriages would have a sweeping impact on the state's budget and several other laws.

"Whether or not constitutional claims are valid is a matter of judicial determination, not legislative," Hanson said in his ruling.

"The separation of powers between legislative and judicial authority is not endangered by this case. Nor will any determination by this court limit the legislature's authority to make laws," he ruled.

Said Camilla Taylor, staff attorney in Lambda Legal's Chicago office: "We are thrilled that the court has stopped this effort at meddling and allowed these couples to seek these important rights for their families without interference or grandstanding by politicians."

"Unlike the politicians who sought to intervene, plaintiffs have a direct stake in the case. Plaintiffs and their children need the vital supports and protections that come only with marriage, such as the ability to visit each other in the hospital, or take bereavement leave if they suffer a death in the family," Taylor said.

The lawmakers, all but one of whom are Republicans, wanted to be included as defendants in a lawsuit filed by six gay and lesbian couples who contend the state's marriage laws are unconstitutional.

State Rep. Carmine Boal, R-Ankeny, said legislators were disappointed in the decision but are not convinced the couples will win.

"We've seen some court decisions in other states that we believe strengthen our case," Boal said.

State supreme courts in Washington and New York issued defeats for same-sex marriage proponents in decisions released last month.

Iowa's lawsuit, filed in December, contends that the gay couples were treated unfairly when Polk County Recorder Tim Brien improperly denied them marriage licenses. The lawsuit argues that Iowa's marriage law is unconstitutional because it draws "impermissible distinctions based on sex and sexual orientation."

The trial is scheduled to begin Oct. 23. (AP contributed to this story.)

Gateses Pledge $500 Million More for AIDS Care

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation took its support of AIDS-related research and care to a new level Wednesday, announcing a half-billion-dollar grant to a global fund that provides AIDS assistance in poor countries.

The Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis, and Malaria, based in Geneva, Switzerland, will receive the grant over five years.

The gift dwarfs the $150 million the Microsoft founder's foundation has given since the fund was created four years ago as well as the additional $287 million Gates announced last month to speed development of an HIV vaccine.

"The Global Fund is one of the most important health initiatives in the world today," Bill Gates said in a statement announcing the gift. "The fund has an excellent track record, and we need to do everything we can to support its continued success, which will save millions of lives."

The announcement comes as nearly 25,000 scientists, advocates, and policymakers prepare to meet in Toronto this weekend for the International AIDS Conference. (AP)

MCC Hosts Estate Planning Workshop

Bradley Z. Haumont, an openly gay attorney practicing in Omaha, will conduct a program on Estate Planning for GLBT Families on Sunday, September 17, from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Social Hall of Metropolitan Community Church of Omaha, 819 South 22 Street.

The program will include review of Nebraska inheritance rules for persons who die without a will, planning for after-death transfers of property, inheritance taxes, life insurance and joint ownership of property, and numerous other topics.

The public is invited to join the congregation of MCC-Omaha for this program. They are also welcome to join the congregation for worship at 11 a.m. and for a potluck dinner which will precede the program. For more information, contact Mary Riley, Minister of Health and Wellness for MCC. She may be reached through the church office at 345-2563.

Rainbow Celebrations Executive Board Meeting

The Executive Board of Rainbow Celebrations will be meeting on Wednesday, 23 August, 2006 at 7pm. The meeting will be at the RC office 1105 Howard Street in the Old Market. This meeting is open to the public and everyone is invited to attend.

There are several openings on the Executive Board. If anyone has a desire to run for a board position, email kevin@rainbowcelebrations.org with a letter of intent. Current openings include: Vice-President, Secretary and Member at Large. The board meetings usually meet once a month and are held on Tuesday nights at 7pm.

The Executive Board of Rainbow Celebrations oversees the Nebraska Pride and National Coming Out Day Festivals. Along with these two events Rainbow Celebrations works with other organizations in the GLBT community.

President, Rainbow Celebrations

RAINBOW CELEBRATIONS To Host Open House

Everyone is cordially invited to an Open House to learn more about the organization Rainbow Celebrations. This event will take place on 26 August 2006 from 4-7pm at the Dixie Quick's Magnolia Room located at 1915 Leavenworth St in Omaha Nebraska.

This will be a time to enjoy some refreshments with the Executive Board and ask questions about the organization. Rainbow Celebrations does produce the Annual Events of Nebraska Pride and The National Coming Out Day. Also available will be PRIDE merchandise for sale at really cheap prices.

This event is free to all interested and everyone that attends will receive a special prize.

“Attention: Omaha area GLBT homeowners in trouble! There is a solution!”

Candice Zoucha - Omaha, NE

Many Omaha area gay and lesbian homeowners who have had trouble with credit cards and so on have found that there is one place in Omaha where they can be treated with respect.

No “better than you” attitude, no “b.s.”, no guilt just for being gay or lesbian.

At last, finding financial help doesn't have to be like a “coming out” at Thanksgiving dinner with everyone pointing fingers, and finding fault.

Mindy Hahne, of Service First Home Mortgage in Omaha's Midtown area works at a GLBT friendly outfit that specializes in helping Omaha area GLBT homeowners in need.

Hahne says she takes great pride in being gay and lesbian friendly. And treating the folks she helps like family.

“A lot of people in the GLBT community don't realize that even without gay marriage, or civil unions, there are already several equal protections in place for gay and lesbians as real property owners! Maybe because no one else wants to tell you about them!” Mindy says.

“Being gay or lesbian doesn't have to be a barrier to equal treatment anymore!” Hahne says.

Hahne has helped many gays and lesbians over the years, many personal friends.

“I am the one person in town that specializes in helping gay and lesbian folks with debt consolidation, cash out, credit repair and so on!” Hahne says.

“These are good people with damaged credit reports and/or hard to prove income! Not through any fault of their own! I specialize in helping the gay and lesbian community get a fair shake from the financial industry!” Hahne says.

Hahne says she has a lot of connections to Wall Street money, “I have personal relationships with investors nationwide, even internationally! Fair-minded people who want to fund loans for people with past credit problems!” she says.

“Many of them have a social conscience! And they take pride in helping gay and lesbians in particular! Just like I do! They use my proprietary system as their own little bit of “social activism!” Hahne says.

These investors are people who buy ‘pools’ of mortgages of 50 million dollars at a whack! 50 million bucks! It's taken me 4 long years and it's been really hard to find these ‘fat cats!’ People who are ‘like-minded’ about what I do for the Omaha gay and lesbian community!” Mindy says.

“Not only is it illegal to discriminate against the GLBT community, it's just plain wrong!” Hahne says. “The self-limiting perceptions held by some in the community are just as much of a problem as the crooked people who perpetrate the discriminatory practices themselves!” she says.

Hahne says, “It's my personal mission to change the mindsets! And to liberate everyone from the restraints!”

“I grew up in a house where we didn't have much money! And my parents understood just how money really works even less! Nowadays, it's a lot of fun for me to help people get control over their money and their lives!” Mindy says.

Mindy Hahne can be reached at 934.9248 x1010. “I'm really busy, so those who don't get a live answer from me need to leave a detailed message and then give me at least 24 business hours to return the call!” Or to learn more, you can call 800-223-6724...option 1...then ext 8619. Just listen in to the free-recorded message.

SFHMI is a Nebraska Residential Mortgage Licensee, an Equal Opportunity Lender, an ‘Honor Roll’ member of the Heartland Better Business Bureau and Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

SNAP! Productions

The Princess and the Pee or Yolanda's Outstanding Plan

.....is a fable for anyone who thinks growing up is highly overrated. Who says fairy tales are just for kids? SNAP! Productions dispels that myth once and for all when they host the "World Premiere" of this high-energy romp through a very unique kingdom.

The Princess and the Pee or Yolanda's Outstanding Plan will run from August 24 thru September 17, 2006 at 3225 California Street. Curtain times are 8:00 pm, Thursday, Friday and Saturday; 6:00 pm on Sundays, except September 17 which is at 2:00 pm. The theater opens a half hour before curtain time. The Fitness Corner

As I sit here listening to the Pet Shop Boys Go West, I contemplate the proper way to begin this inaugural fitness column. It should begin with an introduction of myself. My name is Ron Blake and I am a personal fitness trainer/owner for Blake Fitness in Phoenix. I have been training individuals for ten years in Indiana, Illinois, California, and now the Grand Canyon State. My favorite color is blue, my favorite movie is Rear Window, and my favorite beer is Stella Artois. OK, so enough with the formalities. Go to my website at www.blakefitness.com and I'm sure I can bore you with more minutia.

Now that I have your attention, let's get on with it. So how do I NOW begin? The same way that I've always done it with everything in life and especially my fitness training. It starts with levity and fun. The key to life is to enjoy that very thing... life. How to do that? Fun. Fun with moderate doses of responsibility. As a fitness trainer, my job is to encourage you to take responsibility for your life. Maybe not quite to the degree of your friendly neighborhood preacher who pounds the pulpit and proclaims all homosexuals doomed to kiss the conflagration of hell because of their evil and irresponsible ways. I'm a kinder, gentler more compassionate kind of fitness trainer. At least that's what they taught me when I was still a straight boy in college. Then I saw the light when I ran into this self-absorbed fitness enthusiast who converted me into a rainbow flag-waving, Prada dressing extrovert and taught me that I too could earn a free toaster if I could just convert three breeder boys to the dark side. No more tangent thoughts or digressions. This is a fitness column and I've gotta save you heathens from your licentious and hedonistic lifestyles.

So as I was saying... any fitness program you embrace should involve fun. Yeah, working out does involve hard work and dedication. We all know that. It should also be something you look forward to and get excited about. Otherwise, why do it. But yes there is hard work involved and I would be remiss if I didn't mention that. After all I come from a corn-fed Midwestern background that is engrained with a great work ethic. Why else do you think fellow Hoosiers like David Letterman, Orville Redenbacher, Kurt Vonnegut, and Michael Jackson would be so successful.

During my ten years of training clients and coaching high school athletes, I have stressed one thing and that is for them to simply enjoy the ride as each day passes. I involve trivia contests, singing, motivational handouts, music, vocabulary lessons, and endless anecdotes about my life into my training programs. In many ways I feel like an entertainer who tries to regale my clients with the lighter side of life. Fitness training should be a method of escaping the harsh realities of the daily grind. It makes a perfect opportunity to channel any frustrations or aggressions in an appropriate manner.

I have informed my clients that they might not have control over what goes on in life but that they certainly have the power to control what goes on in their lives. This control exists in workouts, training runs, bike rides, yoga classes, and other exercise routines. This control should be used when deciding the who and where of your workout. First who will you workout with. Choose someone who will motivate you, make you laugh, and validate the quality person that you are. Choose someone who is reliable, trustworthy, and goal-oriented. Choose someone who will help you change your life for the better.

Then where will you work out? Choose someplace that has pretty curtains, Tiffany lamps, and leather recumbent sofas. What? I'm just being a smartass. It's not really my cup o' tea but hey if it works for you then do it! You need to choose a place that fits your style and personality and a place that will allow you to have fun during your workout sessions. Find that place where you can adjust the radio to any station and any volume. Find that place where you can take off your shirt and walk around flexing in front of the mirrors like you would at your favorite gay haunt on a Saturday night. Find someplace that is relaxed and understanding.

We all want results when we begin a fitness routine. It just doesn't need to be approached as a dreaded task. You have the power. You have the control. You can have fun. Two of my favorite motivational sayings that I give to my clients are from Victor Borge and Mary Pettibone Poole respectively: "Laughter is the shortest distance between two people" and "He who laughs, lasts."

ASSOCIATED ARTISTS OF OMAHA EXHIBIT AT READING GROUNDS

During the month of September, The Reading Grounds bookstore/coffeehouse will exhibit the works of the Associated Artists of Omaha (AA). Organized in 1946, the groups' purpose is to promote art in our community, to exhibit with other artists and to learn more about art.

The exhibit is free and open during Reading Grounds' store hours. On Saturday, September 16, 7-10pm, the featured artists will be on hand to meet visitors at a free wine/dessert reception. Artwork will be on sale during the entire month's exhibit.

The Reading Grounds is located on the corner of 40th & Farnam Sts. (one block south of Dodge on 40th) 502-2008, www.readinggrounds.com. Parking in rear.

August 1st Game Highlights

With the GLBT Softball League hitting its midpoint of the season both teams are closely matched for wins with the Ballerz wanting to pull farther ahead.

Lots of collisions at the game tonight. Many players forgetting to slide or sliding to late running each other over. Many foul balls to going out and over almost making it to the street making it exciting for vehicle owners. With the rain it had kept the field kind of wetted down so sand and dust was not flying everywhere.

Snatchers had some subs in the game which played a great game. Telly pitcher for the Snatchers got herself an out by striking out Dave from the Ballerz. Roxanne had great defense on home plate by getting some force outs as well as getting ran over by a few Ballerz. Jill, shortstop, and Ashleigh, left field, still catching about every pop fly that comes their way and making great hustle to get the ball infield. Kristin playing first base tonight making great catches to force out players on first base. Heidi getting two out of three outs one inning by catching a pop and a force on second quickly getting to the bag. Jesse, third base, had good base hits moving players around the field and getting a few outs on third herself. Jenni knocking a few out of the park again getting a run or two in for the Snatchers. Snatchers allowing a goose egg in the 6th inning not allowing the Ballerz to score.

Ballerz showing defense skills tonight by not allowing the Snatchers to score 4 out of 7 innings. Justin, third base, hitting a triple to get a run in. Windell got an RBI with sending Matthew home and later on getting a couple pop flies to his glove. Chad doing great defense in the outfield by catching two pop flies while Michael doing great back up sending the ball infield. Chris G had hit a homerun scoring two runs later on getting injured by almost colliding with another player while the pop fly collided with Chris G. Ed, pitcher, had strike out two players for the evening. Matthew and Brian making great slides and getting around the plates on offense. Hank got some close call force outs on second base. Dave covering first getting many early catches and dropping a couple to to save the Snatchers an out.

Seven innings later the game final is Snatchers 4 and Ballerz 14.

The league would like to thank all the loyal and respectful fans who came to the game for the evening. We would like to see you next time. Thank you to our volunteer umps Brady and JP who did a good job!!!! And our volunteer scorekeeper Sara, thank you.

Join us every Tuesday at 7 PM at 34th and Leavenworth Park for a friendly fun game of softball. Don't forget the benefit show for the league on August 20th at 8 PM at Connections and our next sport will be indoor volleyball. Information about that will be announced at a later time.

August 8th Game Highlights

No one was afraid to get dirty for this softball game. That's only what the field was, mud. As players trudged out onto the field trying to keep their balance with out falling, the game went on. When batters hit the ball and took off for first base it was like watching slow motion as players had a hard time getting traction to get to base but then once they got going it was hard for them to stop usually sliding to a stop. Kristin, second base, from the Snatchers got first mud as she slid onto second being called safe. Telly, pitcher for Snatchers, taking a dive headfirst into home plate later in the game. A first for the Ballerz was a double play when Dave, second base, got the ball to him touching the plate then sending it over to Chad, first base, making that their first this season. Later on A.J., first base, showed them up when a direct grounder to her turning around quickly to tag out a player then jumping onto base making it a double play all on her own. Other highlights from the game. Snatchers playing some real tough defense only allowing the Ballerz to score one the first inning. On the Ballerz side, Chris G making outfield look easy by catching numerous pop flies as the same for Windell, but only getting singles while at bat because of the mud and movement. Michael, centerfield, making it the most around the bases on offense and zipping the ball back to the infield for defense. Jake, catcher, subbing for the the Ballerz tried hard to make a couple plays at home and later spraining his ankle in the last inning. Justin, short stop, making a great catch as a pop fly comes right to him and doing a great cover for second. Brian, third base, stopping the ball many times from entering the outfield but having many grounders hey hit snagged by Snatchers making it hard for him to get to base.

Snatchers having a hard time getting on the board the first couple innings. Ashley, third base, making great pop fly catches and almost decapitating the Ballerz pitcher. Jill, short stop, of course making a couple great pop fly catches and recovering the ball infield. Toney, right field, "glad not to strike out" during the game she says getting walked and hitting one to get to base safely. Kathleen making some strong grounders and some catches out in centerfield subbing for the game. Tamara getting some strong left hits in the game and hustle on defense in left field. Roxanne defending home getting a couple force outs while trying to keep her shoes on. Jenny knocking the ball clear out in the field usually scoring for 5 innings of the game and saying she "is not trying to get muddy and stay clean".

After this game of mud ball the final score is Snatchers 12 VS. Ballerz 10

Please join us every Tuesday at 34th and Leavenworth Park at 7 PM as the season moves on. The league would like to thank all who came to watch the game, hope to see you next time. Thank you to our volunteer umpires: Jackie, Brady, and Jean Paul as well as our scorekeeper Sarah.

Remember the benefit show to help support the league is August 20th at 8 PM at Connections.

The next sport offered by the league will be indoor volleyball. Sign up dates will be in October and league play will begin in November and end in February. Dates, times, and where the league will play will be announced at a later time.
