LES MISERABLES

Orpheum theatre December 18—23.

Les Miserables, the legendary award-winning musical, makes a triumphant return engagement to the beautiful, historic, Orpheum Theatre for 8 performances only beginning Tuesday, December 18. Presented by Camerin Mackintosh, Les Miserables, is a musical by Alain Boublil and Claude-Michel Schonberg.

Based on Victor Hugo's classic novel, Les Miserables is an epic saga that sweeps through three turbulent decades of 19th century France. It is also the story of one man, the fugitive Jean Valjean, who is pitted against the cruel and self-righteous Inspector Javert in a lifelong struggle to evade capture. Now in its 16th year in London and 15th year on Broadway, Les Miserables, has won 50 major awards internationally, including the 1987 Tony Award for Best Musical.

The $4.2 million production coming to Omaha replicates the Broadway production in its entirety and has set numerous attendance records across the country. Seen by over 42 million people worldwide, Les Miserables, is one of the most successful musicals in theatre history.

Tickets are on sale now at all Ticketmaster Ticket Centers, at the Omaha Auditorium box office, or Ticketmaster.com.

STELLA DALLAS SPEAKS AN OPEN LETTER TO THE COMMUNITY:

As the public elected Empress XXI of the Imperial Court of Nebraska, I am both angered and saddened by the statement I must prepare.

Over the past several weeks, in forums both public and private, malicious and abusive attacks have been made against both my position as Empress and my reputation in this community. I have been informed by members of the community and the Imperial Court of Nebraska that an "old-fashioned witch hunt" and bounty have been placed on my head.

In my 16 years of involvement with the Imperial Court of Nebraska, a past Emperor and Princess Royal, I have raised thousands of dollars for the sake of those in need in our community. However, I cannot and will not continue my duties as Empress XXI when rumors and hearsay represent the foundation for corrective action and take precedence over factual information, my proven track record and upstanding reputation in this community.

I say to you, "enough is enough."

To those who have elected me and know me, I am a strong, true-spirited fighter. Fear not, I am not giving up, but merely stepping aside and letting those who feel they can walk in my shoes to step forward and do so.

To the businesses of our community, I appreciate those who have supported my Reign and the efforts of my Royal Family. To those who have chosen an alternate view point about my ability, moral code and ethics, it is with conviction that I debate your position and the arsenal of lies you have used to undermine my reputation.

The community will have its voice heard.

In closing, I would again like to thank those in our community who supported my campaign and Reign thus far. It is with a heavy heart that I submit my resignation as Empress XXI of the Imperial Court of Nebraska.

I remain in your hearts,
Empress XXI

TWO HGRA MEMBERS TAKE CHAMPIONSHIPS IN IGRA FINALS 2001

The IGRA Finals Rodeo was held in Palm Springs California and Team Heartland now has 2 new International Champions. Marge Wietzki is the new International Champion in chute dogging. Marge won her first International Title in 1995 in Steer Riding and has not competed since in IGRA until August of this year. A mere .24 seconds separated her from the second place finisher. Our other International Champion is Sheri Ralston who won her fourth consecutive title in pole bending. This is the first year she has been a member of HGRA. Our other members attending finals were Bryn Geerdes who finished 6th in wild drag and 6th in flag racing and Teeny Buckingham who finished 5th in wild drag. Team Heartland should be very proud of these members for bringing home the buckles!

My sincere thanks to all who make my benefit show "Inga Brings Out the Starts" at the MAX a success. We raised $200 from the door, $400 from tips, $183 from the raffle which goes toward computer software, and checks of $300 from the Imperial Court of Nebraska for a total of $1083 to Metropolitan Community Church of Omaha.

A special Thank You to the MAX and owners Don & Bruce for their continued support of our community and especially Metropolitan Community Church. You guys are the best and The MAX is still the best bar in the Midwest!! Thanks to the entire MAX staff and especially Dan Ostergard, show director.

To my performers I can't thank you enough for putting on such a fun show. First to my best friends RN Hedges and Greg Hicks for driving up from KC to perform and be there for me and the church. Thanks to my special guests: Laura Lee, Matt Finken from ICON and Anastasia Worthington, Miss Closet Ball. A big thank you to all my MCC family who performed: Dee, Karla Oliver, Carla Petersen, Sharon Van Butsel, and my "men" Tony, Monte, Bruce, Joe, and Scott. Thank you to Joe and Bruce for helping with the set and Joe, Carla, and Sharon for selling raffle tickets. Another special thank to my close friend and co-emcee Chris Alberico for his humor and support.

Finally my thanks goes out to all who came to the show and showed your support so generously to MCC and the performers. Until the next benefit show, God Bless and let's keep helping each other to be the best GLBT Community!

PRESENTS

Chocolate Babies

By Stephen Winter

An underground band of HIV-positive, queer, urban, transvestite, activists of color is making headlines in New York. In an effort to expose political corruption surrounding the AIDS epidemic, these urban guerrillas stage a series of surprise attacks against conservative politicians whom they believe are collecting secret lists of HIV-positive individuals. The masterminds behind the action include "to-the-death!" diva Max Mo-Freak; his determined sister, Jamela; Larva, a sex-crazed cross-dresser with attitude; Lady Marmalade, a junkie transvestite songstress; and Sam, an idealistic young Asian militant and Max Mo's lover. Caught up in their extreme methods of activism and self-destructive drug and alcohol binges, the group becomes torn by infighting and begins to lose sight of their mission and loyalty to each other. Will they find the peace and justice they seek? Between fantasy, tragedy and comedy, Chocolate Babies is a roller-coaster ride that is sure to provoke laughter and dialogue. 83 minutes color

Julia Pachoud, Director, The Laramie Project, announces that Augustana College in Sioux Falls South Dakota is doing a production entitled THE LARAMIE PROJECT, a multi-perspective play that chronicles the murder of University of Wyoming student Matt Shepard. Matt was gay and his murder was classified as a hate crime. We would like to extend an open invitation to anyone in your network of organizations to attend the final dress rehearsal of LARAMIE at no cost. The date is NOV 13 at 7:30 pm in the EDITH MORTENSON CENTER on AUGUSTANA'S CAMPUS. If you can provide a count of heads, that is fine, but unnecessary. Just show up! The show will run NOV 14-17 at 7:30 and NOV 18 at 2:00 pm. Cost is $7 for general public, $5 for seniors and $3 for students. Each show will be followed by a "Talk Back" on themed topics that change nightly.
