HGRA SELLING TREES

The Heartland Rodeo is selling shade, flowering, and nut trees as a fund-raising and beautification project. The tree sales will help provide funds for selected 501c3 charities. "Trees do much for our community. They provide beauty and shade, help reduce heating and cooling costs, and increase property values," Shelley Foster said. "We feel this will be a very worthwhile fund-raising project for our organization and the community."

The trees will be supplied by The National Arbor Day Foundation which will mail them directly to the homes of purchasers at an appropriate time for Spring planting. The trees will be sent postage paid and will include complete planting instructions. The trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free by the Foundation.

Eight trees will be provided through the program; Red Maple, Black Walnut, Weeping Willow, Sugar Maple, American Redbud, White Dogwood, Tulip tree and Red Oak. They cost only $3.50 per tree. People who would like to purchase trees can contact Shelley at 800-561-6918 or P.O. Box 3354, Omaha, NE 68103-0354

An American Family

by Jon and Michael Galluccio
With David Groff

When Jon and Michael Galluccio decided to foster a child, they had no idea that their decision would land them a place in history. After years in a committed relationship, the two gay men from New Jersey became foster parents to Adam, a premature infant born with the HIV virus and addictions to heroin, marijuana, cocaine and alcohol. Their story is chronicled in AN AMERICAN FAMILY (SMP, February, 2001).

Caring for an infant with as many problems as Adam, was a long and often heartbreaking process, but the most challenging and rewarding experience the two men had ever shared. Day after day Jon and Michael watched Adam struggle as they administered a laundry list of medications designed not only to ease his addictions but also to keep him alive. As Jon and Michael nursed him back to health, Adam was ultimately freed from the addictions and showed no trace of the HIV virus.

Knowing that there was no way they could give up the baby they brought back from the brink of death, the two foster dads, like many couples before them, decided to apply for adoption. But when they applied for adoption as a couple, the state of New Jersey refused, citing a state policy that said it was illegal for unmarried couples in the state to adopt. Rather than have only one partner recognized as Adam's legal guardian, the Galluccios took their case to court through a class action lawsuit against the state of New Jersey. After a tense legal battle, the Galluccios emerged victorious and the ruling paved the way for all unmarried couples in the state to adopt children jointly.

Yet, as they strove for acceptance as parents on the state level, a more personal struggle was going on within their own families. Michael Galluccio's parents were at first uneasy with their son's decision but after one look at their new grandson, were as proud as any grandparents could be. And fighting to be recognized as Adam's adoptive father inspired Jon Galluccio to search for his birth mother who had given him up for adoption so many years before.

Since their legal victory, the Galluccios have adopted Madison, a baby girl who, like Adam, was born with HIV, and her half-sister, Rosa, a once-troubled teenager who is now a mother herself. This unique and diverse American family has proven what perhaps many are still reluctant to acknowledge – that love is truly all it takes to make a family.

About the Authors: Jon and Michael Galluccio speak across the country as adoption advocates. They have been interviewed by scores of news organizations and have appeared on countless television and radio programs. The Galluccio family live in New Jersey.

BLESSINGS

for those days when you can't think of anything to be grateful for

Thanks to MCC-Omaha for passing along this thought from a pastor in Canada.

If you have food in the refrigerator, clothes on your back, a roof overhead and a place to sleep ... you are richer than 75% of this world.

If you have money in the bank, in your wallet, and spare change in a dish someplace ... you are among the top 8% of the world's wealthy.

If you woke up this morning with more health than illness ... you are more blessed than the million who will not survive this week.

If you have never experienced the danger of battle, the loneliness of imprisonment, the agony of torture, or the pangs of starvation...you are ahead of 500 million people in the world.

If you can attend a church meeting without fear of harassment, arrest, torture, or death ... you are more blessed than three billion people in the world.

If your parents are still alive and still married you are very rare, even in the United States.

If you hold up your head with a smile on your face and are truly thankful — you are blessed because the majority can, but most do not.

If you can hold someone's hand, hug them or even touch them on the shoulder ... you are blessed because you can offer healing touch.

If you can read this message, you just received a double blessing in that someone was thinking of you, and furthermore, you are more blessed than over two billion people in the world that cannot read at all.

Have a good day, count your blessings, and pass this along to remind everyone else how blessed we all are.

"Who Will Love Me As I Am?" An Evening of Music by Men, About Men

March 1-4, 7:30 p.m. at the Dundee Dinner
Theatre

Are you looking for something different to do? "Who Will Love Me As I Am?," promises to be that! An evening of cabaret style music featuring five of Omaha's Glorious male voices. Turning the tides on the music of Broadway, these five men will sing renditions of songs in untraditional settings. Join us for an evening of laughter, contemplation, and perhaps tears. Reservations are recommended as seating will be limited for these four shows! Tickets are $10.00 (cocktails and dessert available for an additional charge). March 1-4, 7:30 p.m. at the Dundee Dinner Theatre. Call 558-8535 for reservations. Come celebrate with an evening you won't soon forget!

South Dakota Events

By: Barb Himmel, SEGLC

PRIDE week in Sioux Falls is June 11 -17. Activities are planned throughout the week with the weekend (16&17) activities taking place at Riverdale Park in Sioux Falls. A number of Sioux Falls GLBT groups are becoming involved with the PRIDE on the Prairie committee working to coordinate the activities. Prior to June, PRIDE is working on a couple of fundraisers. The first being a chili cook-off to be held March 3 on the Augustana Campus. GLBT groups are invited to bring their best chili and those in attendance may vote for the best by placing a vote for a $1. All proceeds go to the PRIDE committee. The second is a sell of shirts with PRIDE logo. PRIDE will begin taking orders for clothing at the chili cook-off.

On February 23 from 8-10 pm at the local bar (Touchez), The Center for Alternative Lifestyles and the Sioux Empire Gay and Lesbian Coalition have joined together to have an AIDS awareness presentation. They have also invited other GLBT groups to set up tables and introduce themselves to those in attendance. The local Red Cross office is also involved providing particular information on HIV/AIDS. There will be free food and entertainment provided.

The SEGLC has lined up the following speakers for their monthly meetings. Feb 20 will feature USD professor Grace Mims talking about relationships. March 20 will bring a consumer credit counselor and on April 17 we will host Officer Don Rowe from the Sioux Falls police department. The Coalition meetings are open to everyone.
