South Africa Legalizes Gay Marriage

CAPE TOWN, South Africa -- With the deputy president's signature on a new law, South Africa on Thursday became the first country in Africa and only the fifth in the world to legalize same sex marriages.

The Civil Union Act entered into force on the eve of a Dec. 1 deadline set by the Constitutional Court for the government to change its marriage legislation to ensure full equality for gays and lesbians.

Gay rights groups have welcomed the law, although they criticized provisions allowing clergy and civil marriage officers to turn away gay couples if their consciences prevented them from marrying them.

Deputy President Phumzile Mlambo-Ngcuka signed the law in her capacity as acting president because President Thabo Mbeki is in Nigeria.

South Africa recognized the rights of gay people in the constitution adopted after apartheid ended in 1994, at a time when leaders were determined to bury all kinds of legal discrimination a thing. The constitution, the first in the world to prohibit discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, providing a powerful legal tool for gay rights activists even though South Africa remains conservative on such issues.

The governing African National Congress had to push the legislation through despite reservations from some of its own members. Influential traditional leaders said the legislation violated African cultural norms. The Roman Catholic Church and Muslim groups -- and many other religious organizations -- denounced it as violating the sanctity of marriage between a man and a woman.

The Anglican church said it was up to individual ministers to decide whether to use the "opt out" clause, while liberal churches like the Metropolitan Churches Community were in favor.

South African Gay Marriage Story Continues from Page 1....

The National Assembly passed the legislation earlier this month and the National Council of Provinces approved it on Tuesday. Mlambo-Ngcuka's signature was the final legal step.

"There will be a huge response from same-sex couples who have waited such a long time for their relationship to be recognized," predicted Melanie Judge of the lesbian and gay project, OUT.

Janine Pressman, a pastor with the Glorious Light Metropolitan Community Churches in the capital, Pretoria, said she hoped to marry a couple on Saturday, provided the paperwork could be rushed through.

Priests wanting to wed same-sex couples at a religious ceremony have to apply for permission from the Home Affairs Ministry and possibly undergo exams in order to get their license, said ministry spokesman Jacky Mashapu.

This could take two to three weeks, he said. But he added that the ministry wanted to speed through the applications.

Civil unions, without a religious component, could be performed virtually on the spot, subject to completion of the proper paperwork, he said.

"We are ready to go," Mashapu said.

The Civil Union Act provides for the "voluntary union of two persons, which is solemnized and registered by either a marriage or civil union."

Radio talk shows and newspaper columns have highlighted opposition to same-sex marriages in a country where gays and lesbians are victims of violent attacks because of their sexual orientation.

South Africa is only the fifth country in the world to legalize gay marriages. It is the first in Africa, where homosexuality is illegal in Zimbabwe, Kenya, Uganda, Nigeria, Tanzania, Ghana and most other sub-Saharan countries.

Ms. Judge, from OUT, said the public reaction had "forced us to confront the deep-seated prejudice and intolerance against gays and lesbians. It's a day to day reality," she said.

"It's been quite a frightening process to see the level of hatred that has been openly expressed against this minority," she said. (Clare Nullis, AP)

L2EP Benefit Story Continues from Front Page... ..

Donations are also received from vendors and local retailers. We will gladly accept raffle/auction items before or during the event.

At 6PM, Saturday, Dec. 9, L2EP will host a streamlined fundraising event for "Toyz 4 Totz", featuring a show and dungeon party at DC's in Omaha. This event will provide toys and gifts for approximately 125 children served by the Nebraska AIDS Project. There will be a hot leather show, female impersonation, raffles and auctions.

If you would like to support this worthwhile cause, but will not be able to attend the event, donations may be sent to PO Box 11341, Omaha, NE 68111. All funds raised will be presented to ICON Toyz 4 Totz show on Dec 10th and combined will give the children with or affected by AIDS a better Christmas.

A Very Merry Christmas Wish from Mr. HGRA

I want to thank everyone in the Heartland for supporting my reign these past 2 years, as I represented the Heartland Gay Rodeo Association. It has been a wonderful ride, attending rodeos around the country and performing at fundraisers for different rodeo associations and other local fundraisers.

I'd like to invite you all to attend my last show, as the current MR. HGRA. It will be held on Saturday December 16th at DC's Saloon in Omaha. The show runs from 8 - 10 pm. Besides myself, some of the performers are: Wayne Moore, Johnnie Richards, Aretha Spanklin, Miss Trina Tabloid, Fantasy and many more.

I would like to thank everyone at DC's, The Max, Connections, and The Panic for all their support during my reign. The Imperial Court of Nebraska has also been a lot of fun to work with. And thanks to all the people I've met along the way, for being such a big help in my endeavors.

Pete Canfield,
Mr. HGRA 2005-2006

Homeowner Alert!

Former Bank Auditor Says...

“Credit Card Users Are Paying Too Much...”

—Free Report Shows Omaha Gay and Lesbian Community How To Save Thousands Of Dollars On Unnecessary Interest Payments.

Homeowners with substantial credit card debts are missing important savings opportunities by failing to act immediately. Unknown to most financial planners and CPA's, this free consumer report reveals how to save thousands in unnecessary interest payments and finance charges.

“Unbelievable”, said one homeowner. “I can't believe how this simple little trick is able to save me thousands of dollars a year.” Banks and credit card companies hope you never read this report because they want to keep charging you interest on a balance that will take more than 30 years to pay off. Consumers have been fooled by offers of low teaser rates to induce them to transfer balances, only to see their rate double or triple a few months later. This report explains how to avoid being tricked by the tactics of these large banks and credit card companies and how to turn the table so you get the interest, not them.

NOTE: The revised version of this report was recently released and the response has been overwhelming. A toll-free 24hr/day recorded message hotline has been set up to handle the expected volume, but you are urged to call right away. Quantities are limited. Call 1-800-475-9610...press option 1...ext 8605, leave your name and address, and the report will be mailed to you.

The Fitness Corner

I have opted to be poetic this time with my foray into fitness. Enjoy this chef d'oeuvre titled "You Could."

YOU COULD!

You could run or bike on the sidewalk or street;
I'll relax instead and just put up my feet.

You could break a sweat from exercise and smell really bad;
No way! Not me! Do you fancy me for mad?

You could embrace cardio training until you're out of breath;
I know that's crazy and would be my death.

You could take the stairs and forget about the elevator;
That would require time and effort you meddling instigator.

You could watch a Richard Simmons video and perform an aerobics routine;
I'm not into exertion and certainly not with that queen.

You could play Frisbee or volleyball down at the beach;
I'm sorry could you hand me my beer; it's just out of reach.

You could watch what you eat and start losing a few pounds;
Just want to enjoy my cheeseburgers in paradise with Jimmy Buffet sounds.

You could take a walk on your lunch break and enjoy the weather;
I'm partial to kibitzing in the lounge with my best friend Heather.

You could burn calories in the gym while lifting those heavy weights;
If it were up to me that would be illegal in all fifty states.

You could begin stretching your muscles daily and make it a habit;
I've got a better chance of finding a hat and pulling out a rabbit.

You could find yourself a sports league and play adult soccer;
Not interested, I think I'll watch Meet the Parents with that adorable Focker.

You could! You could! You could!

Ex-governor Says He'll Wed Boyfriend if State Allows

TRENTON, New Jersey (AP) -- Former Gov. James McGreevey, who resigned after acknowledging a gay affair, said he would tie the knot with his partner if state lawmakers decide to allow gay marriage.

"Marriage would offer the ability to bless our relationship in a committed way," McGreevey, 49, told The New York Times.

McGreevey's comments followed a state Supreme Court ruling Wednesday that same-sex couples must be given the same rights as married people. The court left it up to the Legislature to decide whether to extend those rights under the structure of marriage or something else. (Watch gay couples explain why they want the right to wed -- 2:01 )

Some gay-rights advocates said the decision didn't go far enough. McGreevey, who told The Associated Press last month that he had publicly opposed gay marriage while in office as a way to keep his homosexuality hidden, hailed the ruling.

"I applaud the court's courage," McGreevey told the AP. "I regret not having had the fortitude to embrace this right during my tenure as governor."

The former governor stepped down in 2004 after announcing his homosexuality.

McGreevey now lives with Mark O'Donnell, a 43-year-old Australian businessman. Before they could marry, the former governor would have to finalize his divorce from his second wife.

SICK LEAVE:

"I'M NOT COMING TO WORK TODAY!!!"

Eddy calls into work and says, "Hey, I'm not coming in to work today, I'm really sick. I've got a headache, stomach ache and my legs hurt, so I'm not coming to work."

The boss says, "You know something Eddy, I really need you today. When I feel like this, I go to my wife and tell her to give me sex. That makes everything better and I go to work. You try that."

Two hours later Eddy calls again. "I did what you said and I feel great.

I'll be at work soon..... Oh, and you've got a nice house."
