Rev. Thomas Emmett Pastoral Candidate at MCC-Omaha

Metropolitan Community Church of Omaha is pleased to announce that Rev. Thomas Emmett of Longmont, Colorado, has been invited to come to Omaha Nov. 15-20 to candidate for the position of senior pastor.

Rev. Emmett first attended MCC of the Rockies in late 1997. When he later experienced a very clear calling to the pastorate, he applied to Iliff School of Theology in Denver, where he received his Master in Divinity degree in May of 2005. He is an ordained and licensed pastor with UFMCC.

Rev. Tom Emmett

Since 2004 he has served as Coordinator of Education for MCC of the Rockies. As part of that position, he served as the Boulder Extension Coordinator charged with opening a new church in Boulder. He is the founder and grant writer of JobStart, a program helping ex-offenders obtain employment.

In 2005, Rev. Emmett served as interim pastor of Family of Christ MCC in Ft. Collins, CO. As interim pastor he worked regularly with UFMCC's Church Revitalization Team, preached weekly, did hospital visitation and pastoral care, coordinated and facilitated a visioning and goal-setting event, organized educational events and men's & women's retreats, engaged in ecumenical work with area churches, worked through a Conflict Transformation process, and tripled the attendance.

Emmett served a two-month internship with Resurrection MCC in Houston, TX, in 2004. There he ran the food pantry, taught classes, had sound system training, did children's ministry work, attended budget development meetings, preached at the Spanish speaking service, and introduced Taize style worship.

Nebraska Pride 2007

By Nate Tedrow
PR Chairman

Nebraska Pride 2007 it seems like a long ways away but really we're making plans now for another great event. Who, What, When, Where, How. It all starts with you.

Rainbow Celebrations can't pull off a great event without great people. You make the difference, you bring your ideas to the table and we bring them to life. We are looking for people that can envision something new, something different.

Rainbow Celebrations has a new Pride chairman to lead us in the planning of this exciting event. Johnny Richards 2007 Pride Chairman has been a part of Rainbow Celebrations for several years and he will lead us in creating an outstanding event.

Creating an event of this size takes many people and their talents. We need people to chair positions like marketing, sales, merchandise and the list goes on and on. Do you want to be a part of the planning? Do you have time to give one evening a month 3 hours of your time?

That's all we ask, and in return we will grow as an organization and as a community. If you would like more information, meeting times and locations, log onto our website at rainbowcelebrations.org.

MAD ABOUT THE BOY! A WORLD PREMIERE LIP-SYNCD BEEFCAKE CHRISTMAS EXTRAVAGANZA!

STARRING Mr. Max 13 – Brandon Higdem and Jill Anderson, Nils Haaland, Joe Koll and “The Beefcakes”

Christmas, 1964. America is conservative, staid, repressed, and busting a nut. In a small Pacific Coast town, G. Dansforth Pettibottom, a milquetoast camera salesman is in love, a love that dares not say its name. In the most sensational and hilarious new musical to come along in years, MAD ABOUT THE BOY! is based on a series of gay-themed novelty albums put out by “Camp Records” in the 1960’s and sold through ads in the back of beefcake magazines of the time. Watch as the hapless Pettibottom dances and lip-syncs at the YMCA, with Biker Boys and Swingers and at the secret Tranny Bar in his quest for true love. With songs like Stanley, the Manly Transvestite, Old Fashioned Balls, I’d Rather Fight than Swish, and Mixed Nuts, MAD ABOUT THE BOY! is a “Holiday Treat” for the whole (adult) family.

Opening Night “MAD” Party! Friday, November 24th starting at 9pm at the Old Market Events Center, 10th and Pacific next to FLIXX, $1 off first drink! No Cover! See the show then PARTY WITH THE STARS!

Homeowner Alert!

Former Bank Auditor Says...

“Credit Card Users Are Paying Too Much...”

—Free Report Shows Omaha Gay and Lesbian Community How To Save Thousands Of Dollars On Unnecessary Interest Payments.

Homeowners with substantial credit card debts are missing important savings opportunities by failing to act immediately. Unknown to most financial planners and CPA's, this free consumer report reveals how to save thousands in unnecessary interest payments and finance charges.

“Unbelievable”, said one homeowner. “I can't believe how this simple little trick is able to save me thousands of dollars a year.” Banks and credit card companies hope you never read this report because they want to keep charging you interest on a balance that will take more than 30 years to pay off. Consumers have been fooled by offers of low teaser rates to induce them to transfer balances, only to see their rate double or triple a few months later. This report explains how to avoid being tricked by the tactics of these large banks and credit card companies and how to turn the table so you get the interest, not them.

NOTE: The revised version of this report was recently released and the response has been overwhelming. A toll-free 24hr/day recorded message hotline has been set up to handle the expected volume, but you are urged to call right away. Quantities are limited. Call 1-800-475-9610...press option 1...ext 8605, leave your name and address, and the report will be mailed to you.

The Fitness Corner

All I Really Need To Know I Learned in Kindergarten was a book written by Robert Fulgham. It is a superb read about simplicity. Everyone wants to make the world so complicated and that is why it becomes so complicated. When it comes to a sound and healthy body, let's adhere to some of these basic tenets that are presented in Mr. Fulgham's opus.

"Goldfish and white mice and hamsters all die. So do we." That's quite a mother load to throw at a kindergartener but it needs to be addressed sometime. The sooner, the better. This gives Johnny or Susie the time to prepare for the inevitable passing of grandma but also the pondering as to why some lucky squares live much longer than others. Why mommy? Because some folks treat their bodies like dumpsters while others treat them like cathedrals. Nix the nicotine, go easy on the booze, exercise frequently, and eat more than Lindsey Lohan but less than Bruce Vilanch.

"Warm cookies and cold milk are good for you." Another profound morsel of advice. However, let's wave the wand and transmogrify those delicious cookies into Snackwells or wheat crackers and reintroduce that dairy product as a skim milk variety. Mmmmm. Thank you sir, can I have another?

"Take a nap every afternoon." A smashing and dare I say brilliant concept. Don't you even think of working through that afternoon break or engaging in that nonsensical gossip with your colleagues. Find a quiet office space or your Nissan Maxima and entertain a siesta for fifteen to twenty minutes. It's a devil of a lot better for you than that Pepsi, a cancer stick, or that proliferation of a vicious canard about ugly Betty in the loss prevention department.

"Wash your hands before you eat." Germs are omnipresent and seeking their opportunity to invade and infect you. There are many places you go and many things you touch that are laden with bad guys. Don't go Mommy Dearest on me and obsess about the horror of it all. Just lather up the Lifebuoy or the Lever 2000 and wash away those microbial monsters before your eating events.

"Put things back where you found them." If you have a health club membership then you know the importance of this lode-star. The conspicuous signs adorning the fitness room walls should provide ample reinforcement for those of you that are deficient in this category. Put your dumbbells back on the weight rack when you complete that grueling bicep exercise. Everyone achieves more when we work together to keep an organized environment.

"Live a balanced life." Author Fulgham reminds us to learn some and think some and draw and paint and sing and dance and play and work every day some. He reminds us that life is an exquisite tapestry of a to z and one to ten. Go ahead and mix the alphas with the numerics. Variety is most definitely the spice of life and a key ingredient for salubrity. At my sendoff to the great beyond, I want my eulogist to extol the secret of my ninety-six years as a mortal to the three dimensional and kaleidoscopic lifestyle that I maintained. Here's looking at you kid!

"When you go out into the world, watch for traffic, hold hands, and stick together." Find that close relationship with that most significant other. Life is a lot easier and much healthier when you have two instead of one. Stacy Q had it all right in her one hit wonder lyrics from those golden 1980's. Two of hearts, two hearts that beat as one, I need you! I need you! But don't despair if you are without a partner and your lonely heart beats as one. Friends are the family you choose and they are just as important to have and to hold. Choose them wisely and stick together like that Queer as Folk gang or that St. Elmo's Fire band of buddies.

"Share everything. Play fair. Don't hit people. Say sorry when you hurt somebody. Flush. Clean up your mess." There is so much to remember but thank golly goodness that it's so bloody easy to remember. It is the application of these astute words that creates havoc for our lives. It shouldn't. Break life down into pieces of sage advice from that kindergarten year. It is much easier to eat a piece of pie rather than a whole slice or even an entire pie itself. Keep it simple in life and your overall health will reflect your efforts. I really do owe it all to that morning class with Mrs. Cervantes at Webster School back in 1974.

The Omaha Community Playhouse would like you to join us for our next "Night Out" party and performance on Thursday, November 16. The pre-show party is from 6:30-7:15pm and the performance of Mrs. Bob Cratchit's Wild Christmas Binge starts at 7:30pm. Tickets are $30 and include the pre-show party.

In this departure from Dickens, Mrs. Bob Cratchit, a minor character in A Christmas Carol, takes center stage in this rollicking parody. No longer loving and long-suffering, Mrs. Bob is in a rage! The plot morphs into parodies of Oliver Twist, The Gift of the Magi and It's a Wonderful Life. The show goes into many wonderfully loony directions at once and Scrooge's tale of redemption and gentle grace is placed squarely on its head.

This GLBT social series started in June and continues through the conclusion of our 2006-2007 Season. The parties are scheduled for a Thursday or Sunday night during each regular season production.

The ticket price includes the pre-show party and "Night Out" participants sit in a block of premium seats to see the show. The next party will be held in January during Always...Patsy Cline.

Contact Karli Newman at 402-553-4890 x147 to purchase your "Night Out" tickets.

The Shelterbelt/SNAP! Gallery is Looking for Artists to Exhibit During 2007

The gallery is a small (8'x8') alternative space located in the lobby of the Shelterbelt/SNAP! Theatre at 3225 California Street, Omaha, NE and is open during productions (3-4 week run, Thursday - Sunday evenings).

Selected artists are normally given one-person shows for the run of the production, although on occasion small group shows might be presented.

The gallery will consider all types of 2-dimensional work, and is actively looking for unique, experimental work considered "out-of-the-mainstream". Although we are not looking for themes to accompany the productions, one of the considerations in selecting artwork will be if it reflects the mood of the production.

The Shelterbelt and SNAP! production companies are known for producing critically acclaimed, award-winning productions by local and national playwrights on topical subjects.

Quote, Unquote

I didn't choose [to be gay] - I was chosen! Are you serious? I get to be queer? Oh, thank you. I didn't even fill out the application, I am soooo thrilled. No, I did. I bought the ticket, I scratched it off ... Look, I'm a lesbian! I won!
