News and Events for the GLBTA Communities

News from CFEP

Citizens For Equal Protection is a statewide non-profit organization that advocates equity for the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender families of Nebraska.

Bullying Awareness Week

Senator Dennis Byars, from Beatrice introduced a resolution declaring September 12-16 as bullying awareness week. CFEP is working with many organizations and several senators offices, to promote this event and bring awareness to the need for protections for all children.

A rally is scheduled for 4 PM on September 12th at the capitol in Lincoln. We are encouraging all students, parents, teachers and allies to attend.

Also, on September 7th, a representative from our coalition will be talking about the event on the 11:30 news show on KMTV. If you would like to learn more about the events, volunteer or get involved, call our office at 398-3027 or email us at info@cfep-ne.org.

Seriously Funny

This year, our third annual Seriously Funny will be held on October 1st at Hot Shops. Hot Shops is located at 1301 Nicholas Street, just north of the Qwest center. We will have a silent auction, appetizers and cash bar. Tickets are $25. Doors open at 6:30 and the show will begin at 7:30. Our comedienne is T. Marni Voss, a local talent from Lincoln. To RSVP, not required-but nice, call our office at 398-3027.

Log Cabin Republicans are coming!

On Friday, August 19th, CFEP will co-host a meet and greet with the Log Cabin Republicans. Patrick Guerriero, the Executive Director of the Log Cabin Republicans, will be the guest speaker. Again, call our office at 398-3027 for more information.

Gay TV Landmark Shows Coming to An End

By Damon Romine

Defamation

It's been quite a queer summer. And I mean that in a good way.

MTV Networks made history in June with the launch of Logo, the first basic cable channel specifically for a lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) audience. In the cable spectrum, Logo joins pay channels here! and Q Television, which both went to round-the-clock LGBT programming last year.

QAF characters Michael and Ben

Also this summer, we've been treated to new seasons of Showtime's "Queer as Folk" and HBO's "Six Feet Under." They are, sadly, the final episodes as each comes to an end this month.

The tremendous hours of new programs on the gay cable networks may help fill the void left by the departures of "QAF" and "SFU", but it won't make saying goodbye any easier. In their own ways, each show was historic television, holding up a mirror which allowed gays and lesbians to REALLY see ourselves on TV.

Jeremy & James
Will be hosting Game Day at the Center
1719 Leavenworth St
 Sundays: 1:00pm – 3:00pm

Come down and check out the games we have available or bring your favorite game and show us how to play.

Ages 5 – 105.

Parents bring the kids down and play or read some of the books in our Library while they play.

Since its premiere in 2000, "QAF" has been an unabashed and unashamed depiction of relationships amongst a group of Pittsburgh friends. The show presented their world with an honesty and candor never before seen on television.

With "QAF", executive producers Ron Cowen and Dan Lipman—partners both personally and professionally for over 25 years ("An Early Frost," "Sisters")—not only brought the word "queer" back into vogue, but gave us a series wherein gays and lesbians are multi-dimensional characters who work, love, create families, and have sex. This was a series where gay characters were not relegated to the role of wisecracking neighbor or supportive best friend.

An unflinching slice of gay life, the show never purported to represent our entire community, but "QAF" still polarized the very audience it portrayed. Some viewers loved the show's soap opera-like elements. Some hated the fact that at times drugs and promiscuous sex seemed glamorized. Many appreciated the fact the show included lesbian characters. And others argued the series belied its Pittsburgh locale with an all-white cast.

Love it or hate it, the show has evolved over five seasons to provide something for almost everyone. The freewheeling bedroom antics remain intact, but the characters have grown and faced many complex issues affecting our community: relationships, commitment, discrimination, hate crimes, adoption, custody battles, HIV, drug addiction, and death, to name a few. Heading into the finale, the characters find themselves embroiled in the debate over marriage equality as they lobby against an anti-gay referendum.

After "QAF's" somewhat shocking debut—audiences had never seen depictions of sex between men on series television before—a new drama the following year about life and death seemed almost tame by comparison. But "Six Feet Under" was groundbreaking in its own right. Created by Alan Ball ("American Beauty") in 2001, the show at its core is a family drama where two of the main characters happen to be gay.

People tuned in to watch a series that broke convention and took them on a journey with quirky and engrossing stories. The saga about the funeral-home-owning Fisher family includes gay son David and his African American partner Keith—three-dimensional characters who showcase the complexity and diversity of our community.

HEY... IS RICHARD AROUND?

I THINK HE'S IN THE SHOWER.

OH, GREAT. I'M DROPPIN' OFF HIS CAR. HE WAS SUPPOSED TO GIVE ME A RIDE BACK TO MY GARAGE.

SORRY I CAN'T HELP YOU OUT.

I MAY BE ON WHEELS, BUT THIS IS A ONE-PASSENGER VEHICLE.

CUTE. YOU HAVE A NAME?

DAVE.

I'M NICK.

SO, NICK... HOW MANY SPARK PLUGS DID YOU HAVE TO REPLACE IN RICHARD'S CAR? 2 OR 3?

HUH?! HOW'D YOU KNOW IT NEEDED NEW SPARK PLUGS?

IT WAS PRETTY OBVIOUS FROM THE WAY THE ENGINE WAS MISFIRING WHENEVER HE STARTED IT UP.

I... CAN'T BELIEVE YOU NOTICED THAT!

I'M IN A WHEEL-CHAIR, NICK... I'M NOT BRAIN DEAD.

NO, I MEANT...

...NOT MANY GAY GUYS I MEET KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT CAR REPAIR.

MAYBE YOU OUGHTA' GET OUT MORE.

MAYBE I SHOULD.

BY THE WAY, IF YOU DON'T WANT PEOPLE QUESTIONING YOUR BRAIN CAPACITY, YOU MIGHT WANNA' DITCH THE "DEEP SPACE NINE" T-SHIRT.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH "DEEP SPACE NINE"?

IT'S ONLY, LIKE, THE WORST OF THE FIVE STAR TREK SERIES.

IT'S NOT WORSE THAN "ENTERPRISE".

PLEASE. THE THIRD AND FOURTH SEASON OF "ENTERPRISE" KICK ASS.

SORRY TO INTERRUPT THE GEEK-FEST, GUYS... BUT I'M READY TO DRIVE YOU BACK TO EAST NORTHPORT, NICK.

FINALLY.

DON'T LET THIS GUY OVERCHARGE YOU, RICHARD.

OH, I WON'T. THE ONLY PLACE I LET MEN TAKE ADVANTAGE OF ME IS IN BED.

YEAH, WELL, WE DON'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT THAT HAPPENIN'.

WE CERTAINLY DON'T...

Every member of the Fisher clan has experienced romantic upheavals, but David and Keith have sustained a long-term relationship that is neither stereotypical nor perfect. The couple has dealt with real issues like religion, race, monogamy and violence. As the final episodes unfold, David and Keith are focused on having a family of their own, having spent this season looking at options such as surrogacy, foster care and adoption.

Anyone who questions the importance of having complex, textured characters like David and Keith on a successful show only has to look at a recent study out of the University of Minnesota. Researchers measured the attitudes of 150 students about gay men. After the students watched ten episodes of "SFU" and were tested again, there was a statistically significant reduction in their reported prejudice. That's the power of television in changing hearts and minds.

"QAF" will go down in history as TV's first gay drama that pushed through barriers and broke new ground. "SFU" will forever be an example of an ensemble show that successfully integrated our stories, depicting the diversity of our community and the value of our families. For many different reasons we're grateful to have had them as part of our lives. (Dare we dream of the reunion movies a decade from now: "Queer as Old Folk" and "Really Six Feet Under"?)

Long after they are gone, the influence of these two shows will continue. Would the triumvirate of Logo, here! and Q Television even exist without the success of these shows?

Would Bravo's "Queer Eye" or Showtime's "The L Word"?

Probably not.

It's been an amazing five years when it comes to the progress we've made on cable television, while our portrayals on the broadcast networks have declined over the same period of time. With the end of "QAF" and "SFU," and the series finale of "Will and Grace" on NBC in May, a huge void will be left when it comes to LGBT images on mainstream TV.

The magic of television is its power to offer a broad audience a glimpse of our lives, and show everyone that LGBT people have many of the same hopes and dreams (and hormones) as straight people. When our stories are not told, the implicit message is that our stories are not worth telling. But "Queer as Folk" and "Six Feet Under" have shown that our stories are interesting, engrossing and capable of transforming the way people see us.

The recent setbacks we've suffered in our quest for equality make it clear: we cannot take our visibility for granted. Having three niche networks devoted to us is a major leap forward, but the other cable and broadcast networks must continue to step up to the plate and share our stories. And we, in turn, need to support those shows whose commitment to inclusion is expanding acceptance and understanding of us in the larger culture.

 Damon Romine is the Entertainment Media Director for the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation (GLAAD). For more information, please visit <http://www.glaad.org>.

PROGRAM NOTES:

"Queer as Folk" will close its five-season run on Sunday, August 7 at 9:00 PM Central Time. The finale will be preceded by a half-hour special "Queer as Folk: Saying Goodbye" at 8:30 Central Time that same night.

"Six Feet Under" will air its series finale on Sunday, August 21 at 8:00 PM Central Time. The broadcast will be preceded by the one-hour special "Six Feet Under: 2001-2005" at 7:00 Central Time.

Reader's Letter to the editor

Come To Jesus at the MCC-Omaha Church

That's right. Come to Jesus! You can accomplish this through Reverend Wayne Moore of the Metropolitan Community Church of Omaha. Rev. Moore is positive, uplifting and full of the life. And you know that his words come from Jesus.

By listening to the words that flow from Rev. Moore's lips, you will believe that every person has the right to a presentation of the Gospel at his or her level of understanding. And you will understand what the true meaning of the Gospel is. If you believe that every person needs a Biblical moral compass to guide and protect him or her through life, you will want to hear Rev. Moore.

My friends and I had heard that Rev. Moore was a blast of happiness and joy. We also know how this community tends to exaggerate as well. Everything is fabulous. So we had to hear him for ourselves. All of us were thrilled at his words and enthusiasm. He preaches from the heart and soul. As he stood in the middle of the sanctuary allowing the word of God to flow freely, you could feel the power of God in his every word. Everyone there was captivated by His word. Please come and listen to Rev. Moore on Sunday at 11:00 am. You will leave praising God and wondering why you had not heard Rev. Moore before that day.

Rodeo Date Change

The Heartland Gay Rodeo Assn. Has Changed the Date of the Rodeo for 2006

The Date change has been made because the date that was set is the same time as the College World Series. Hotel rooms and rates would make it very difficult For HGRA to insure accommodations for the competitors as well as spectators that would come for the rodeo. The new date is now, May 19-21st. The rodeo will still be at the Sarpy county fair grounds. Please spread the word and plan on attending HGRA Rodeo 2006. See you all there!

You Might Be a Redneck Jedi If...

You have ever heard the phrase, "May the force be with y'all."

Your Jedi robe is camouflage.

You have ever used your light saber to open a bottle of Bud Light.

At least one wing of your X-Wings is primer colored.

You can easily describe the taste of an Ewok.

You have ever had a land-speeder up on blocks in your yard.

You have ever used the force to get yourself another beer so you didn't have to wait for a commercial.

You have ever used the force in conjunction with fishing or bowling.

Your father has ever said to you, "Shoot, son, come on over to the dark side...it'll be a hoot."

You have ever had your R-2 unit use its self-defense electro-shock thingy to get the barbecue grill to light up.

You have a confederate flag painted on the hood of your land-speeder.

You ever fantasized about Princess Leah wearing Daisy Duke shorts.

You have the doors of your X-wing welded shut and you have to get in through the window.

Although you had to kill him, you kinda thought that Jabba the Hutt had a pretty good handle on how to treat his women.

You suggested that they outfit the Millennium Falcon with red-wood deck.

If you hear, "Luke, I am your father... and your uncle"

“Attention: Omaha area GLBT Homeowners in Trouble! There is a Solution!”

Candice Zoucha - Omaha, NE

Many Omaha area gay and lesbian homeowners who have had trouble with credit cards and so on have found that there is one place in Omaha where they can be treated with respect.

No “better than you” attitude, no “b.s.,” no guilt just for being gay or lesbian.

At last, finding financial help doesn't have to be like a “coming out” at Thanksgiving dinner with everyone pointing fingers, and finding fault.

Mindy Hahne, of Service First Home Mortgage in Omaha's Midtown area works at a GLBT friendly outfit that specializes in helping Omaha area GLBT homeowners in need.

Hahne says she takes great pride in being gay and lesbian friendly. And treating the folks she helps like family.

“A lot of people in the GLBT community don't realize that even without gay marriage, or civil unions, there are already several equal protections in place for gay and lesbians as real property owners! Maybe because no one else wants to tell you about them!” Mindy says.

“Being gay or lesbian doesn't have to be a barrier to equal treatment anymore!” Hahne says.

Hahne has helped many gays and lesbians over the years, many personal friends.

“I am the one person in town that specializes in helping gay and lesbian folks with debt consolidation, cash out, credit repair and so on!” Hahne says.

“These are good people with damaged credit reports and/or hard to prove income! Not through any fault of their own! I specialize in helping the gay and lesbian community get a fair shake from the financial industry!” Hahne says.

Hahne says she has a lot of connections to Wall Street money, “I have personal relationships with investors nationwide, even internationally! Fair-minded people who want to fund loans for people with past credit problems!” she says.

“Many of them have a social conscience! And they take pride in helping gay and lesbians in particular! Just like I do! They use my proprietary system as their own little bit of “social activism!” Hahne says.

These investors are people who buy ‘pools’ of mortgages of 50 million dollars at a whack! 50 million bucks! It's taken me 4 long years and it's been really hard to find these ‘fat cats!’ People who are ‘like-minded’ about what I do for the Omaha gay and lesbian community!” Mindy says.

“Not only is it illegal to discriminate against the GLBT community, it's just plain wrong!” Hahne says. “The self-limiting perceptions held by some in the community are just as much of a problem as the crooked people who perpetrate the discriminatory practices themselves!” she says.

Hahne says, “It's my personal mission to change the mindsets! And to liberate everyone from the restraints!”

“I grew up in a house where we didn't have much money! And my parents understood just how money really works even less! Nowadays, it's a lot of fun for me to help people get control over their money and their lives!” Mindy says.

Mindy Hahne can be reached at 402.934.9248 x1010. “I'm really busy, so those who don't get a live answer from me need to leave a detailed message and then give me at least 24 business hours to return the call!”

SFHMI is a Nebraska Residential Mortgage Licensee, an Equal Opportunity Lender, a member of the Heartland Better Business Bureau and Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce.
