New Directors Named

We are pleased to introduce six new members of the Board of Directors, and one addition to the Executive Committee. At the election on January 15, 1996 during the annual meeting, new board members appointed were: LeeAnn M. Ferry, Shuttleworth & Ingersoll; Janelle McLain, Corner House Gallery & Frame; James A. Novak, architect; Dean Spina, Bradley & Riley PC; Cookie Vanous, Czech Feather & Down Co.; and Virginia Wilts, Mercantile Bank. Alan Beach, Beach Consulting Group, former Interim Executive Director, was named to the Museum & Library's Executive Committee.

Change in Direction

In an effort to enlarge the scope of our leadership, one representative from Czech Heritage Foundation and one from the Museum & Library Guild, now serves on the Board of Directors of the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library. We welcome Frank Novotny, V.P. from Czech Heritage Foundation, and Frank Edmunds from the Museum & Library Guild to our Board of Directors.

Dedicated Volunteers

Two great supporters of the Museum & Library have recently moved off of the Board of Directors, Georgiann Brejcha and Leo Modracek. Georgiann and Leo have each contributed a great deal to the Museum & Library. Georgiann has volunteered here since the very beginning, and Leo has devoted countless hours to the Building Committee. Thank you for years of devoted service.

MOST (The Bridge)

The National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library is located at the west end of the Bridge of Lions in Czech Village. The Museum & Library has an outstanding collection of national costumes and fully restored immigrant home. It demonstrates Old World arts and crafts, and celebrates ethnic customs and traditions. The Museum & Library serves to "bridge" the gap between the culture of Czech and Slovak homelands and the culture of Americans of Czech and Slovak ancestry. For those of European ancestry, a visit to the Museum & Library is like a walk across the "Most," that imaginary bridge that leads back to the land and culture of their ancestors.

Daniela Sipkova-Mahoney

The cover of this issue features a remarkable and accomplished folk artist. Daniela Sipkova-Mahoney was born in Prague, where she studied international business and foreign languages. Later she worked as a receptionist and secretary for a hotel in Prague.

While working for an automobile trade show in Frankfurt in 1982, she met Patrick Mahoney, a businessman from Portland, Oregon. In the fall of 1982, she came to visit him in the United States and in the spring of 1983, they married. In February 1983, six months after her arrival to the United States, she started egg decorating as a hobby.

Gradually she developed the egg decorating into a business, participating in major art and craft shows nationwide. Every year Daniela added something new, postcards, informational booklets, posters, and innovative egg designs. She captured the attention of local galleries and gift stores. Before long, convention planners, schools and churches, and other groups were hiring her as a guest speaker.

By 1987, her business was well established. She even began workshops in people's private homes to accommodate their busy schedules. In 1988 she was accepted into The Artists in Education Program with Portland Public Schools, offering a multi-cultural program. The objective was to increase students interest in geography, foreign languages and international studies through the art of attractive egg decorating and other folk art forms.

The highlight of her artistic career was an assignment with Epcot Center in Walt Disney World in Florida. In April, 1989, at the occasion of the grand opening of MGM Studios, Daniela was invited to demonstrate the art of egg decorating in one of their gift stores.

Mahoney also submitted her work to the White House under the Bush, as well as Clinton administrations.

In August, 1992, Daniela staged a large exhibit of Czech and Slovak folk arts and ethnic clothing in the Central Library of Portland. In conjunction with the exhibit, two lectures were presented, being sponsored by the Oregon Council for the Humanities.

Also in Portland, Daniela organized a large Czech and Slovak Mayfest Celebration dinner dance in Masonic Temple in 1992 and in Paesano Club in 1993. These events were joint fund raising efforts of Autistic Children's Activity Program and Ivy Bear Czech Restaurant. Part of the proceeds benefited the Autistic Children's Activity Program.

She is very interested in working with the disabled, since she has an autistic son, Patrick. The goal of her work is to educate the public about life in Eastern Europe, yesterday and today. She enjoys sharing her talent with others.

Daniela resides with her husband, Patrick and two children in Portland.

Meet Daniela Sipkova-Mahoney

Learn the art of "old world" egg decorating and have a great time! Beginners are more than welcome to join Daniela as she teaches the batik method of egg decorating during her visit to the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library. The 3 hour classes are designed to teach the novice. Daniela incorporates music, language, and delightful stories into her workshops! Call today, there is still time to reserve your place for a great learning experience.

19th Annual Houby Days Festival

What could be more exciting than finding that award winning mushroom? Showing it off on the Avenue!

The City of Cedar Rapids is holding its city wide celebration "Every Bloomin' Thing" and the Czech Village Association is excited to be a part of it, by presenting for the 19th consecutive year, "Houby Days." That time of year when we search for the elusive morel. The entire schedule is published on the next page. Talk it up, join your friends, and most of all, have a great time!

Houby Days Dinner Dance

Join the celebration in WFLA Heritage Hall on Friday, May 17. This is one event you won't want to miss! There's limited seating, so call now to reserve your place. The evening will start off with a delicious traditional Czech dinner served by Dostal's at 7 p.m. Music provided by Czech Heritage Band 8:30 to midnight. Free beer and wine 6 p.m. to midnight. Tickets $32.

This special fund raising event will be the First Annual Houby Days Dinner Dance at the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library. Don't be left out!

Consider a donation in lieu of flowers as a way to commemorate a loved ones' passing. To honor your heritage and remember a family member or friend, please send your donations to: National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library, "In Memorium" 30 - 16th Avenue SW, Cedar Rapids, IA 52404-5904

Is Your Name on the Kiosk?

There is still time to add your name to the Presidents Kiosk. Now is the time to make your important contribution. Hundreds from across the country have "pitched in" to create this beautiful new landmark dedicated on October 21, 1995, by Presidents Clinton, Havel and Kovac.

When the weather clears, landscaping and the garden will be tacked. There is still a great deal of work to do. Quite a bit of the work will be donated, but materials still need to be purchased.

The exhibit area is still under development as well. For more information on how you, or a loved one, can be permanently recognized on the Presidents Kiosk, call the Museum & Library and talk to John or Dolores.

Deferred Gifts

By remembering the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library in your will, you are protecting and preserving your heritage in a very special way.

Deferred gifts through bequests or life-income trusts offer many advantages for contributors who wish to provide future support to the Museum & Library. For information on how both your heirs and the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library benefit, call John Rocarek, Development Director, today at 319-362-8500.

Interest in Elderhostel

Five parties wrote, expressing an interest in attending an Elderhostel if hosted by the Museum & Library. Elderhostels are growing in popularity, and are a great way to educate and entertain at the same time. The perfect combination of vacation and learning experience. Thank you for contacting us. Maybe we can plan one for 1997. Any others interested? Write to us at 30 - 16th Ave. SW, Cedar Rapids, IA 52404-5904

Welcome Esther White

Our new Administrative Assistant is Cedar Rapids native, Esther White. She brings many years of experience to the Museum & Library. Esther's duties include bookkeeping, arranging tour groups and special events, and answering countless letters and telephone inquiries. Esther accepted the position in January after Jody Nolte resigned to work full time for Comfort Inn. We wish Jody all the best in her new position, and welcome Esther to the team.

A Banner Year!

Museum Gift Shop sales exceeded all expectations in 1995. Sheryl is adding new and unique items almost every day! If you aren't doing your birthday, anniversary, and special occasion gift shopping at the Museum & Library, you are missing out.

For exceptional, hard to find items, stop into the Museum Store. Don't forget, when you patronize the Museum & Library, you are helping to support the protection and preservation of our valued Czech heritage.

JAN AMOS KOMENSKÝ

The life and many accomplishments of visionary Jan Amos Komenský will be shared by Robert Stone on April 17, at 7 pm, at the Museum & Library Cultural Center. Komenský was an advocate for co-educational learning long before it was popular.

He is also credited with using pictures in books as an educational tool. This discussion and special exhibit is held in commemoration of National Library Week, and in celebration of the 100 year anniversary of our own Cedar Rapids Public Library.

The Museum & Library Guild will serve refreshments following. Free to the public.

Exciting New Exhibit

The photography of three great artists, loaned to us from the Slovak National Museum in Bratislava, is making a big noise in Cedar Rapids. Slovakia In Pictures is ninety-five combined works of Pavol Sochan, Karol Plicka and Martin Martinec, three photographers of merit who have captured the folklife and beautiful rural landscape of Slovakia.

Slovakia In Pictures

At Work in the Fields, P. Sochan.

The exhibit, researched and compiled by Dr. Jan Botik, a research fellow in ethnic studies at the Slovak National Museum, opened on March 9, and will be shown through the month of April.

Dr. Botik personally installed the fascinating exhibit with assistance from Museum & Library volunteer, Stan Kosek.

Slovakia In Pictures
Whitewashing Chapel Walls, Liptov County, North Slovakia, M. Martincek

Slovakia In Pictures explores the history and ethnic life of the Slovak people from approximately 1890 to 1960. Dr. Botik has delivered to Cedar Rapids a collection of never before assembled works, representing folk life in "the old country." In the Dr.'s words, "They show the landscape and its people, and how connected they've been to their professions, customs and rituals."

Stan Kosek preparing collection for installation

The Museum & Library learned of the exhibit from Dr. Eva Kellerova, wife of Slovakia's Ambassador to the United States, Branislav Lichardus, M.D. A grant from Cargill, Inc. made it possible to bring Slovakia In Pictures to the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library.

Help From Slovakia

Professor Botik is eager to assist in the development of the Museum & Library. Not only did Dr. Botik bring a prominent collection of photographs to display, he brought over sixty pounds of books and resource materials for our library and archives. The new items, half of which are in the English language, are donated by publishers in Slovakia and come to us via Comenius University and the Slovak National Museum.

The Dr. stayed in Iowa four days and was the guest of Milan and Jitka Sonka in Iowa City, and Louis and Millie Jedlicka, Cedar Rapids.
