THE DOORWAY TO C. S. A. GET TO-GETHER

WELCOME.

Welcome to our city fair,
You CSA's from everywhere,
We sincerely hope your little stay,
Will prove worth while in every way.

Make yourselves to feel at home,
To other haunts don't plan
to roam,
There's lots of fun in store for you,
Just get acquainted with the crew.

May this event of true endeavor,
Within your hearts live on forever,
May love and fellowship
truly reign,
And all our efforts be a gain.

SOCIETY NEWS

VILLAGE VARIETIES By Nosey Nell

It seems that Lou. Jiricek lost a swell prospect. Hence the vinai-grous physiognomy.

Ed Zvacek is making a playground "for the kids". (No kids under 21 allowed).

Mr. & Mrs. Frank Sysel were entertained at a picnic supper in celebration of their 2nd month of matrimony. (Frank said the supper was the Nertz)

Milo Sedlacek was seen in a new "used" car. (No wonder our taxes are so darned high)

BELIEVE IT OR NUTS:
Lad Hamous prefers orange juice to beer.--free beer at that.

Orpha and Milo Mittvalsky blow their Bank Nite winnings on a steak dinner at May's.

Coming home at midnight (any night) used to wonder about a dark shadow flitting around the Suchan home, but now have found out it's only Godfrey sneaking home from next door (Why don't you sign her up, Bo?)

It has been rumored that Sykora's entry in the Jallopy Derby was "souped up." From what we saw of it, it must have been "turtle soup".

If "Ma" Hervert would learn to look where she's going, she wouldn't have to be going around with a bandaged ankle. (Jako maly dite)

Night after night Ann Stastny was seen trotting across the bridge, Aha! we surmised, Scandal! So one night we followed her and----- SHUCKS---She was only meeting her husband.

It seems that someone suggested a Get-together or some thing at one time or another or something, or am I mistaken, anyway, I think it would be a good idea. Maybe----

SHE-LOVES-ME SHE LOVES-ME-NOT My Daisy

Dear Daisy:
Is it true that Love thrives on opposition?
Verona Chalupnik

Dear Verona:
Certainly. Look, F'rinstancee the Windsor-Wallis affair. There are other cases just as important, if the public only knew.

Dear Daisy:
Do you think I made a mistake when I married Frank?
Alma Sysel

Dear Alma:
Of course not, I think you did the right thing, in fact, you could not have done better.
(Sess-tt- the old man is standing right behind me as I write this.)

Dear Daisy:
The question of Sex equality arises again. How can the men get ahead of the women, once and for all?

Bob Eckert

Dear Bob:
By going back to shin whiskers.

ECHO PANTRY

VANILLA PUDDING (four servings)

One Pt whole milk
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar
 $2\frac{1}{2}$ tblsp slour
 $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp salt
2 egg yolks
 $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp vanilla
Scald milk in top of double boiler. Add sugar, flour and salt thoroughly mixed. Stir until smooth and thickened. Cook several minutes until pudding is shiny. Combine small amount with beaten yolks and add to remainder in double boiler. Cook several minutes until eggs set. Remove from fire. Add vanilla. Stir occasionally, while cooling to prevent skin from forming on top.

THE CANDID CAMERA

Calls our attention, quite appropriately for the "get-together" issue of the Echo, to Milo F. MITVALSKY, the charter president of the Junior American Czech lodge. Milo was born on Feb. 6, 1908, in Cedar Rapids, to Frank S. and Catherine Mitvalsky.

Mr. Mitvalsky Sr. owns one of the largest raw fur dealing and manufacturing establishments in the country.

Milo was educated in public schools in Cedar Rapids, attended Western Military Academy in Alton, Illinois in 1924-1925 and came back to Washington High School to graduate in 1927. From there he went to the University of Iowa, getting his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1931 and his Juris Doctors degree in 1933.

At the University he was a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity and Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. In 1933 he was president of the Student Council, the student governing body, composed of representatives from all the colleges on the campus. He was a member of the U of I swimming team and a major letter man. In 1928 he qualified to the finals of the Olympic selections for the swimming team to go to Europe to represent the U.S., but as he states the competition was so fast that the only way he could have crossed with the swimming team was to hold the tow-line on Johnny Weismuller.

At the University in 1928, he met Orpha Schuppert through fraternity and sorority open house gatherings and they were married in 1931 at Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Having worked from the age of ten, and being able to boast of holding as many as four or five different jobs at the same time, he became much interested in law and made up his mind to become a lawyer. In 1933 he opened his office in the Merchants National Bank Building, and practised by himself until 1935, when a partnership was formed with B.B. Hickenlooper, who was at that time and still is a representative from Linn County to the state legislature. He has specialized in corporation insurance and banking law, having had considerable experience in these fields, far beyond the usual experience gathered by a person his age. However, he is never too busy to assist any person who may need help in the legal field, no matter what the difficulty may be.

No matter how small the matter be, he believes in giving service to his clients and taking personal interest in their affairs.

He is a member of the Elk Club, and one of the officers of that organization; president of the South Side Civic Club; a member of the Reserve officers Association Waltonians; and the C.S.A. As we have stated before, he was the charter president for the Junior American Czech organization. He held office as such official for a period of two years, and then passed the presidency on to Dr. Leo B. Sedlacek. He is a great booster for Junior American Czech Lodge, his only regret being that he is not able to devote as much time as he would like to that organization.

In 1934 he attended the Grand Lodge Convention of the C.S.A. and was made a member of the Committee in respect to the financial holdings. As a member of that committee he made many suggestions, as to change of policies in purchase of bonds and financial holdings, which were adopted by the committee as a whole.

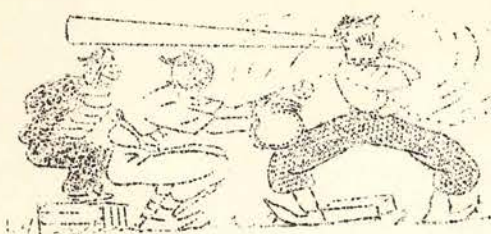

His hobbies are; fishing, swimming, riding and flying.

(Ed. note)--And now we are about to call Milo's bluff! In order to give a little intimate touch to these candid camera reviews we like to know the favorite food, flowers, color, movies and etc. of our subject. Milo says, he dont like food nohow, he dont like flowers, he dont--We happen to know that Milo is a very human and likable chap. So here goes.)

Orpha says that Milo's favorite food is Roast Beef--done just right-- favorite colors are grey and blue-- favorite flower is--poison Ivy (he planted some by mistake next to his beautiful new stone residence) He prefers mystery movies to any other kind and he likes to relax his mind with detective stories. (It's the lawyer in him.)

We neglected to inquire about his ambition in life, but judging from the start he already has made, coupled with his public speaking ability, we know that he will have little difficulty in attaining his goal.

One of our sisters chided her husband for his failure to assist her up the steps. "Jimmy, you ain't as gallant as when I was a gal". "No, Lottic, and you ain't as boyant as when I was a boy".

SPORT CHATTER

July Games

The CSA Cardinals won their 5th straight game on July 8th. by winning from the C.O.F. 5 to 4 on Manager Pep Stepanek's long hit into right in the last inning.

The game was close all the way, the Cardinals coming from behind to win.

On July 15 the Cardinals lost their first after winning five in a row. The Z.C.B.J., coming from behind in the last half of the 7th inning to run in two runs and nose out the CSA team 5 to 4.

The outfielders showed signs of a bad night out the night before the game.

Revenge Is Sweet!!

That's the way the team felt when they took the Comm House to a 7 to 2 triming on July 22.

Poole, the Comm. House fast ball pitcher was touched for 8 hits including a home run by Stroleny and a triple by Tepy.

Hamous, the CSA pitcher had the Comm. House batters puzzled.

The CSA Cardinals moved into 2nd place on July 29 by drubbing the K.of C. team 14 to 10 in a wild hitting and fielding game. Dyson, the K.of C. pitcher was touched for 12 hits; Polansky, Hamous and Sulcik each getting 2. Incidentally the first 2 hits of the season for our right fielder. (Keep it up Rudy).

Outside of 2 bad innings, Hamous kept the K. of C. hits well scattered.

August Games

On Aug. 5, the CSA team won their 3rd straight game in the second half of the Fraternal League race by winning from the Maccabees 6 to 2.

Nelson having a perfect day at bat getting 3 hits out of 3 trips to the plate, one of them being a home run in the first inning.

John Lana played a nice game in short field making several nice catches.

The CSA Cardinals won their 4th straight game on Aug. 12 defeating the M.W.A. team 11 to 5. The M.W.A. used three pitchers in an effort to halt the heavy hitting of the CSA, while Hamous of the Cards kept the M.W.A. hits well scattered.

George Svec hit a home run in the 1st inning and Hamous hit one in the 6th with the bases full.

The CSA are in second place in the Fraternal League with one more game remaining to be played.

JUNIOR-ECHO

With only one league game to be played, Hamous has hit his batting stride and has passed Polansky who has held the lead all season. A slight injury to his ribs a few weeks ago has taken a little pep out of Polansky and caused him to drop off a little. Both hitters however have been running neck and neck all season.

Nelson, who started out rather slow finally hit his stride and has moved into third place.

Svec, who has hit consistently all season, manages to hold on to fourth place.

One more game to play. Who will win that coveted trophy for the best batting average?????????

HI ! HUNTERS AND FISHERMEN

Well, brother Sportsmen and Nature Lovers, it won't be long now before the beautiful Autumn will soon be here. You know, it is truly wonderful to be out with Mother Nature and her colorful scenery; when the leaves on the trees begin to turn colors of golden brown and yellow once more, and once again we take a hand in gathering nuts and Fall mushrooms.

The Fall of the year brings with it plenty of amusement for the sportsman - fishing will soon be at its best as the game fish will be biting good in September. This is always a good fishing month and if you have neglected your fishing in the past, be sure to take advantage of it now.

Now is the time to go up into the attic and take a glance at the old 22 rifle, clean out the old grease and put her into good working order as the squirrel season is jut around the corner - the season opening September 15th.

I see where we duck hunters get a break this Fall. The duck season opens on the 7th of October which will give us a chance to get a few of the local ducks and jack-snipes. Before this the season would open too late to give us the benefit of shooting our own local ducks, by that, I mean our Iowa raised ducks such as Teal and pintails. This means a lot to us as the Northern Ducks usually pull in a day or so or over night on their Southern flight and then are too high to kill; result ----- no ducks. Don't forget your Federal Duck Stamp.

Milo Heral.

C.S.A. Golf Tournament.

The C.S.A. Golf Tournament is entering the quarter final round this week. A list of 16 entries having dwindled down to 5 players. In the first round Dr. Sedlacek won from Chas Polansky 2 up in a very close and exciting match. It was anybody's match up until the final hole. Bill Lana won from Richard Sedlacek 9 and 8 to go. Geo. Hajny won from Russel Sandercock 6 and 4. Frank Stanek came from behind to win his match from Don Hinshaw by 1 up.

In the second round of play Rudy Sulcik won from Dr. Severa by default after drawing a by in the first round. Bill Lana won from Milvoy Neprash by default. Dr. Sedlacek won from Hugo Sindelar 2 up, and Geo. Hajny took his match from Frank Stanek 6 and 5. After trailing Milo Teply during the early part of the round Lad Hamous tightened up and evened the match on the eighteenth green and went on to win the nineteenth for an exciting 1 up match.

The quarter finals find Lad Hamous playing Rudy Sulcik and Dr. Sedlacek mixing with Bill Lana. The winners of this round will play to decide which one will play Geo. Hajny in the finals.

Best of luck fellows and may the best man win.

CURRENT NEWS

What's this I hear? Our Sister Louise M. Shimek taking the marriage vows and changing her name to Mrs. George A. Kalous. We take this opportunity to wish the newly-weds much happiness and clear sailing on the Sea of Matrimony.

We missed Bro. Bill Lana at our last meeting, which, I believe is the first meeting Bill has missed since joining over a year ago. But orders are orders and the doctor knows best. Hope you are feeling better again, Bill.

Sister Jeanette Stepanek was, also among "the sick", but you can't keep that 'gal' down. I think the nickname "pep" rightfully belongs to Jeanette instead of her husband, for she is just chuck full of that and can't stay sick for long.

Sister Henrietta Seabrooke was back with us after being ill for several days. She was just too sick to attend a picnic, so that means 'she was sick'.

Brother Fred Zurka is getting along quite well and it is my understanding he was out on a fishing trip, so that is good news.

We wish Miriam Stehlik a speedy recovery from her recent operation. She is at St. Lukes Hospital.

Sister Marie Wokoun, a former member of ours, now with the Benjamin Franklin Lodge of New York, paid us a visit at our last meeting. We were mighty glad to see her and hope she comes back real soon.

Vacations! What a blessed word to the tired soul! Many of our members answered the call of the Northern woods and lakes. Among these are:

Mr. & Mrs. Max Deal and family vacationed in Minnesota.

Mr. & Mrs. Del Stanton at Cull Lake, Minnesota.

Mr. & Mrs. Joe Mach and family visited Demings resort at Cedar Lake, Minnesota.

Mr. & Mrs. Evan Poula and family toured Wisconsin and Minnesota and it is reported Evan is quite a snake charmer.

Mr. & Mrs. Rudy Felter and family at Minneapolis and Clear Lake, Minnesota, details--Gathered in the Barnyard.

Mr. & Mrs. Ion Hinshaw visited Spirit Lake and Des Moines and were also a part of the "tribe" that invaded Chicago July 4th, together with the Geo. Svecs, Joe Stepaneks, Bill Lanans, Sindelars, Hamous and the rest of the Ball Team.

Mr. & Mrs. Milo Sedlacek vacationed at Rockford, Illinois.

Mr. & Mrs. Hubert Kaplan succumbed to the lures of the Niagara Cave and the Dells of Wisconsin.

Mr. & Mrs. Milo Mitvalsky spent a couple weeks in California.

We are still to hear about the wonderful trip west Doc. Sedlacek and family took in June.

Mr. & Mrs. Milo Simanek chose Minnesota as their fishing spot.

We would like to know what the rest of our members did for excitement this summer.

Milo Heral: "Did you fish with flies?"
Milo Simanek: "Fish with them? We fished with them, camped with them, ate with them and slept with them."

LIFE

Life is a pedlar--
Old gypsy hag--
Selling us treasure
From a patched bag;
Laughter for strong hearts,
Comfort for weak,
Dreams for the lovers--
All that we seek
She has to sell, but
She takes as pay
Minutes from our lives
Till we grow gray,
Weary and old and
Plead: "money back"--
She goes away then,
Dragging her sack.

HOW TO BE AN ORGANIZER

Sometime in your life, you have been or will be asked to serve as chairman of a committee and pick whoever you want to work with you. The proper procedure in such an emergency is to protest that there are others who could handle the job much better than you could, probable and that you would be glad to work as a member of the committee but would rather not head it up. This obviously insincere dodge never works and you will wind up by saying you will be the chairman and do the best you can.

The best you can isn't so much. A chairman without a committee is a forlorn figure. Doubtless there are books on what you should do next, but what committee chairman has time to study books? Whoever appointed you chairman wants to Get Some Action On This.

The first thing to do, therefore, is to think who among your acquaintances would be good on the committee. Make a list of the likely prospects. Then telephone one of them. If he doesn't answer before you can count to ten, hang up, breathe a sigh of relief and conclude that he probably is out of town. If he answers, tell him what your committee is supposed to do and ask him if he'd be willing to help. He will advance two or three alibis but finally say he will serve if it doesn't take too much time and just to let him know when you have a meeting. The others will do likewise.

You now have completed your organization. This will seem like quite enough of an accomplishment to justify your resting a few days. Presently whoever appointed you will call up and ask how you are coming with, That Matter. You will clear your throat and say you have been working on it but have nothing definite to report as yet. Thereupon you will put in some hasty calls to see if the members of your committee can meet the next day at 3 o'clock. They Can't. At any rate, not enough of them can to make it worth while. So you don't have the meeting.

Instead, you go ahead and do the job yourself. Then you call the members again and tell them that as the time is getting short you are contacting them by phone instead of calling a meeting. You say it has been suggested that the committee do whatever it is you already have done and ask if that meets with their approval. They say it does, but on the other hand it might be better to do so and so. You say that is something to consider, all right, and maybe their way would be better.

Then you promptly forget what they said, call up your superior and report that such and such is the consensus of your committee, and forthwith resolve never to be chairman of a committee again as long as you live, so help you. It's all very simple after the first 100 times.

Now hain't that the truth.

H.R. Sindelar

SPEAKING OF SAFETY!!!

When a democrat and a republican meet,--you have an argument.
When two lovers get together,--you have a wedding.
When a cat and dog get together,--you have a fight.
AND when a driver and booze get together,--you have an Accident.

Lippert asks Pep Stepanek, name five things that contain milk.
Pep:-- Butter n'cheese n'ice cream n'two cows.

Dr. Sedlacek: "Now, don't worry about your wife Sindelar! You'll have a different woman when she gets back."

Sindelar: "But what will I do, if she finds that out, Doc?"

There may not be as much to see in a small town, but it is much easier to see.

Poised high upon the diving board,
Her yellow suit all dripping,
She shrieked and fell, when someone cried,
"By Jove! Her suit is ripping?"

CAMOUFLAGE

Anger at another's Fault
I cannot honestly condone-- It's nearly always just a way
we turn attention from our own.
