THE CANDID CAMERA REVEALS:

Mrs. Anne Landa Zvacek

This time we have devoted the camera to our blonde and vivacious woman member, Mrs. Edward V. Zvacek, born, Anne Landa, on May 26, 1905 in this city. She is the only child of Mrs. Mary Loufek Landa and the late Ralph Landa, who was in the grocery business here for many years. She received her early education at Van Buren School and graduated in '23 from Washington high school. For the following 2 years, Anne attended Coe college where she majored in music and preparatory nursing. During high school, she prepared herself for secretarial work. At Coe she was active in the Delta Sigma literary society and took piano of Prof. Crawford, voice from Prof. Mansfield. Her early musical education was begun with Eleanore Svoboda Hilborn, Anne being her first pupil, and then followed 5 years training with Prof. Grace Swab.

One of the turning points of her life, so she speaks, came the summer of '25, when 6 local girls went to Pine Point resort, Elkarte, Wis., to "hash" at the lodge. The group returned late for the regular college enrollment so Anne took a job with the C.R. Gas Co. as bookkeeper through '25-'26, then transferring to a secretarial position with the Iowa Electric Light Co. where she worked 2 years or until she was married to Ed. Zvacek at the Little Brown Church at Nashua. Since her marriage she has been making a very cozy home at 1206 First St. SW for her family which now includes Dorothy Anne, 8, and Marlene May, 2.

Anne is an example of a person who can do many things well. Besides being a good home manager, she has continued her piano studio at home. During her school days she began teaching piano and now has taught over 10 years. She modestly asserts that she now has "only" 14 pupils, having resumed teaching only a few months ago, since closing her studio after the birth of Marlene. Besides the vocation of housewife, avocation of music teacher, she has a hobby of raising German Roller canaries, as many as 45 at once, and 120 chickens, gold fish, and a cat for good measure. They attend Hus Memorial Presby. church and Anne is active in the Ladies Aid Society.

MEMBERS OF JUNIOR AMERICAN CZECHS:

Sunday is the big day of our annual benefit picnic to be held at 6SA-Miller Pk. The feature of our picnic will be the softball game between Thomas A. Edison lodge, No. 375 of CSA, from Chicago and our own team in charge of Coach Bill Lana, scheduled to start at 2 p.m. Arrange a picnic with your crowd and spend the day. Everyone is welcome as there will be dancing, bowling, and a refreshment stand.

This group of 20 or 22 players and Edison members will be our guests over the weekend. They are arriving in private cars at the CSPS at 2 p.m. Saturday. All members are asked to be on hand to welcome them, then the remaining part of the afternoon will be devoted to a sightseeing tour of the city. In honor of these visitors we will be hosts to a picnic basket supper at 6:30 p.m. at the River pavilion at Ellis Park. All J.A.C. requested to bring bread and butter sandwiches, covered dish, own dishes and silver. The coffee will be furnished. The single fellows can bring a donation of silver instead of the covered dish. Directly following the supper, there will be an informal reception given by our lodge at the CSPS for the Chicago visitors. All CSA members are invited. There will be dancing to Frank Carey's music, entertainment, and "liquids". Overnight headquarters of the guests will be the Montrose hotel. Then on Sunday the big picnic! See you all there.

Her 'likes' are a good book (mysteries) a comfy chair with the light just right; movies touring, dancing, cooking, new dishes, favorite color is coral, ice-cream sundaes, and candy. The latter, comes from the days when her father had the store and Anne was papa's chief candy sampler when new confectionery stock would arrive and who would have those kinds sent back that didn't suit her fancy!

Her characteristics are her lovely blonde locks, her modesty on her accomplishments, hospitality and good cooking, good sense of humor, always a good sport with a crowd, and lastly her ability to say "whce-ce-e" when excited. We'd say that Bro. Zvacek has a "find" in that There woman of his!

SOCIETY NEWS

WITH THE VACATION SEASON IN FULL SWING AND, NO DOUBT, THOSE WHO HAVE LEFT OUR CITY DURING THIS HOT MONTH OF JULY WITH TEMPERATURES SOARING WELL OVER THE 100 DEGREE MARK ALMOST EVERY DAY CONSIDER THEMSELVES LUCKY. THOSE WHO LEFT THEIR "HOME, SWEET HOME" TO ENJOY THE COOL BREEZES OF THE STREAMS, RIVERS, LAKES, AND OCEAN WERE:

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mach and family were at Cedar Lake, Minn. for ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fottal are enjoying the delightful ocean breezes at Long Island, N.Y.

Hugo Sindelar and his two sons are vacationing in the northern part of the state on a fishing trip.

Dorothy Dvorak came back with all her sweet sixteen blush and school girl complexion revived after vacationing two weeks in Black River Falls, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Svec and John Lana spent a week at Spirit Lake and Lake Okoboji.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Felter are in Clear Lake the last week in July.

"Be sure to pack your fish in a fruit jar Rudy, so that you won't lose them when you slip off the bank!"

Milo Mitvelsky is spending the last two weeks in July in Fort Snelling, Minn.

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Sedlacek spent a week in Hutchinson, Kans. and a week in Marble Rock, Iowa.

Jerry Hamous and a party of men returned from a fishing trip in Ely, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lana spent a week in Denver, Colo.

Lillian Heral spent a restful ten-day vacation at Mercy Hospital after the arrival of sweet baby girl, Elaine Marie, 8 lb. 11 oz.

BLESSED EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. J Stepanek have been blessed with a new "Chevie".

Mr. and Mrs. Dvorak and daughter, Dorothy are the proud owners of a new "Olds".

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Sedlacek also have welcomed a new "Chevie" among their midst.

LOVE-ME, LOVE-ME-NOT

Dere Dazey:

I am a lonely mug wich can't got no dames. Whut do ya spose is rong, is it my tokneekue?

Bill Dvorak

Dear "Mug":

Why don't you come up and see me sometime and let me study your technique? Maybe you have an inferiority complex.

Dear Daisy:

Since my girl left me I have been going to the "dogs". Please advise.
Charles Vyskocil

Dear Chuck:

The Dog Pond is located at 700 C Ave. NE. Help yourself.

Dear Daisy:

My "Sweetie" has left me for someone else and I am just sick about it. In fact I'm all broken up over it. What shall I do?

Esther Makovsky

Dear Esther:

I'm afraid you will have to call on Dr. Sedlacek. This is no clinic.

---"THE ECHO PANTRY"--- (Echo tested recipes)

This is a new column for the ladies. We hope it will be of interest to all of you in view of the fact that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach"! We expect to receive a number of tested recipes each month and hope that every CSA sister (any lodge) will be anxious to send in her contribution in the form of a good tested recipe.

TEAM PLAYS TOP BALL THRU JULY

Due to the extremely hot weather during July the J.A.C. ball team was a little less active than usual; only 2 games were played.

On Thursday July 24, the J.A.C. team lost a very ragged game to the Sinclair Playground by the score of 7 to 3.

Batteries: Sinclair; Stodola and Kacere, CSA; Hamous and Svec.

J.A.C. TEAM PLAYS IN TOURNAMENT.

The J.A.C. team entered the District Soft Ball tournament at Ellis Park Sunday, August 2, but were unfortunate in drawing Beeson's, the team that eventually won the tournament.

Although Beeson's were the favorites, the J.A.C. team played a hard fought game and lost by the score of 1 to 0.

The game was a pitchers battle all the way through. Driscoll, of Beeson's, who was the sensation of the tournament allowed the J.A.C. only 1 hit.

Schrodermier, of the J.A.C. team, pitched equally well allowing Beesons only 2 hits.

Hollenbeck won the game in the 5th inning when he doubled to left center field, and scored when the ball was muffed in left field on the relay home. Thus eliminating the J.A.C. team from further competition.

The J.A.C. team deserves a big hand for the showing they made against such a top notch team as Beeson's.

More luck next time fellows!

Batteries: Beesons; Driscoll and K. McGuire, CSA; Schrodermier and Lana.

On Friday, July 25, the J.A.C. team nosed out the Skelly Oilers 4 to 3 in a close and hard fought game.

Schrodermier driving in the winning run in the last inning after 2 men were out.

Batteries: Skelly; Wells and Harford, CSA; Schrodermier and Lana.

The teams record for the season is Won 5--Lost 3.

ONE INJURED

First Aid Hospital at Progressive picnic rendered "first-aid" to Adeline Sindelar. Mrs. Sindelar, Alma Stanek, Bessie Novotny, Janet Stepanek attempted to make the Olympic Team by staging an Olympic race. Adeline was disqualified as she attempted to finish the race on her knees and elbows. She finished "feets up"! It is expected that Adeline will recover. She requests no flowers!

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stepanek, Jr., have recently moved to 2210 C St. SW.

"THROWING OF A GAME" AS SEEN FROM A HILLTOP By--Hugo Sindelar

On Tuesday August 21, while sitting on the top of a hill, I noticed much furore in the valley below me. Looking closely I saw that a ball-game was about to begin. Off to one side I "spotted" three men in a huddle, so I clamped on my long range microphone to "get in" on the conversation!

Just as I got my ear phones on, I heard, "You must throw the game, Doc."

"Why-- -- you fellows cleaned us up in bowling and it would look like--if you beat us in the ball game."

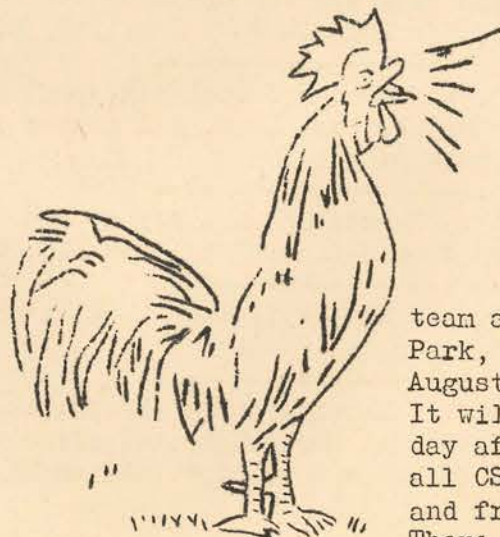

Placing my field glasses to my eyes I found that the group consisted of Louie Pochobradsky, Ed Ashenbrener and the "Judas", Doc Sedlacek. Still listening and watching I heard Louie say, "Pitch them easy Doc, for our fellows can't hit anything else since they are so soft from leading an easy life. By all means let Lumir Blahnik hit one, then he will brag all year, instead of complaining about being stiff from bowling."

Next the "traitor" shook hands and said, "I'll do it."

Strange as it may seem, that is just what happened. Doc even went so far as to allow the game to stop just before his heavy-hitting out-fielders got to bat.

HO-hum! possibly I will see a better game next year as I have heard roomers that Doc will not be the representative next year as he is too easy to get to.

SOMETHING TO CROW ABOUT

One of the biggest picnics of the season will be sponsored by the CSA Degree team at Miller Park, Sunday, August 23, 1936. It will be an all day affair, for all CSA members and friends only. There will be games, refreshments and dancing. Bring your baskets in the morning and stay all day. Music will be furnished by the Happy-Go-Lucky Orchestra.

Bro. County Treasurer Milo Sedlacek waiting for his assistant, Elsie Tefer, to go to work Sunday at Miller Park.

BRIDE ON HER WAY

Anonymous Contribution by J.A.C. Member

The villian lives again. This time in a story of today's newly-weds--and how the tears flow!

The Union Depot was in a turmoil. Men, women, and children were hurrying back and forth. Suit cases, grips, and hand-bags of every description were on parade. By the station clock it was 6:45, therefore, almost train time.

Among many others exchanging farewells was a young couple. Carl Heefner, tall--bulldog shouldered--pleaded with tears in his eyes, "Ducky, please--pretty please--don't leave me!" His extended arms--palms upward--depicted his feeling of despair. "Without you I'll never be the same. Give me just one more chance."

Letitia, the petite blonde object of his persuasive attempts, retorted sharply as she wrapped her new spring coat more snugly about her trim figure, "I'm going back to mother."

"All aboard!" shouted the conductor.

"At least, kiss me good-bye."

"No, no, a thousand times no!" was the reward for his final plea. She picked up her grip and made for the waiting Columbine Limited, leaving behind her bridegroom of two weeks.

The constant clickety-clack of rails and the occasional shriek of the whistle bored deeply into the nerves of the escaping heart-breaker.

A dark, hollow-eyed "villian", sitting across the aisle, was eyeing her continually. His little mustache made a poor attempt to adorn either a peaky red nose or four large protruding front teeth. She became exasperated, turning the smirk on her face into a chunk of ice.

However, the conductor--appearing in the doorway, making her forget the unwelcome attentions. Good heavens! She had omitted to have hubby purchase her ticket. Not only that, she had but a few coins in her possession.

Letitia's battle of words with the train-man ended abruptly when peaky-nose gave one big attempt to crash her friendship by paying her fare.

Though all the money in the world cannot buy love, yet a kind deed must be returned by kindness--mother had always told her that.

Therefore, when came the journey's end after three agonizing hours, the timely gentleman-friend with airy nonchalance suggested, "Lady fair, 'tis hard for lovely feet like thine to pace so rough a road at night, as leads to your mother's door. I'll rent a car and drive you home. May I?"

Those words chased shivers up and down her spine.

"Yes, I'll go. Gladly," she assured him with fingers crossed. She had heard that a lie isn't a lie if the fingers are held that way.

He hired a car and drove and drove. She at last told him that the road was "very much wrong."

"'Tis you, my heart's desire, 'tis you and not the road!" he contradicted. The car gave a spit and a spat and the motor stopped.
