PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Guild members,

AUTUMN 2004

And the fall is upon us! It'll never grow old how fast the seasons change through the year . . . wouldn't you agree? I love fall; and so did my dad. The colors, the fresh air after the rain, crunching sound of the fallen leaves, bright rays of an early-winter sun . . . I'm sure there are many of us who like this time of year. Fall in Czech is "podzim", and "jeseň" in Slovak (could not resist to throw it in here!).

First in order is "Velká vd'aka" (Big Thanks) to all those who baked a wonderful assortment (and amount too!) of cookies, helped to pack them, and then spent time at our stand during the Ethnic Fest on October 18th. The weather was great, perhaps too sunny and warm albeit windy (we had bees and wasps interested in our cookies all day . . .). Unfortunately, the attendance by public was not so great — we were not sure to what to attribute such a low turnout, but we made money to cover at least some minor expenses. The leftover cookies were frozen in order to be used at one of the upcoming Museum events.

Our Cookbook project continues to do very well. Kudos to Beula who keeps her eyes high enough to see beyond the pile of mail, and to watch for the light at the end of the tunnel. She mailed out letters to our Founding Five (or their relatives) asking them to submit their recipes and stories. At our past two meetings, the Committee members assisted Beula in transcribing the recipes, and sorting them out. Now we are reading the family (hi)stories and we will sort those too. It should be an interesting reading! I'm sad to repeat this again: but we urge those of you who have not yet submitted your family history, or recipes and their meaning in your family, please do so — we do care about having the materials in the cookbook from "our own", who grew up in this area and who helped preserve the Czech or Slovak heritage till this day.

It's time to say this too: we are having our ANNUAL COOKIE WALK on Saturday, December 11th. Please plan on making/ baking plenty of cookies as we ran out last year! I'm sure that for those of you who help serving cookies each year, it is so much fun to observe folks who come, pick and buy cookies, and how fast those cookies disappear! Our PR Committee will do their best in advertising this event to the public — but YOUR WORD has as much (if not more) weight and value as the advertisement in the paper or on the radio. So please begin spreading the word early!

It's been a great pleasure to serve you this past year as your President — thank you to the Guild Board and many other Guild members for all your great work! I've enjoyed working with, and for you. Let me wish you all a wonderful remainder of this year, and a fresh start in the new one!

S pozdravom,
Andrea Kováčová Siebenmann

Ask Me Party!

The volunteers who participated in the "Ask Me" Membership Campaign were treated to a wonderful evening on September 7. Just as the invitation stated — there was Fun, Food, Prizes and Surprises.

The NCSML staff had prepared wonderful food for our dinner. Then we were entertained with a fun program which included lots of laughter, applause and gifts.

ANN KLOUBEC

was crowned
2004 Grand Champion Salesperson

Meeting Minutes
The Museum Guild of the National Czech & Slovak
Museum & Library
October 2, 2004

A brief meeting was held on the bus during the "Czech Guild Mystery Tour". The road trip was organized and guided by Lavanda Woosley of Woosley Tours.

Gary Dvorak served as president pro tem.

There was not a quorum present therefore a Nominating Committee was not elected.

Officer Reports and Committee Reports will be presented at the regular meeting of November 6 to be held at NCSML.

The trip was very enjoyable as the tour included many interesting towns and places of interest in northern Linn County. At each stop we had guides explaining the sites we visited.

First we saw the refurbishing of a general store in Alburnett. It is now the new Alburnett Historical Society that displays memorabilia from the past local businesses in Alburnett. Our morning refreshments were served here.

The tour took us to the Frank Lloyd Wright built home at Cedar Rock, Quasqueton, Iowa. The lunch was at the Miller Dairy Farm. The tour guests enjoyed a home cooked meal. After the meal, we learned about the 44 head of milking cows on the farm and their diet of several different types of food which are raised on the farm with the exception of one of the food items. The little calves were fun to watch.

Other stops included Central City Pinicon Ridge Park, Knight's Pumpkin Farm and Friends Meeting House at Whittier, Matsell's Bridge Shooting Range at Viola, and our last stop was at Springville, Iowa.

In the town of Springville, our tour included a home which is a designated National Audubon Society Wildlife Habitat Registry site. The lawn was converted in 2000 from grass to gravel, rock and other natural grass habitat which enable wildlife and birds to live safely at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Thompson. The hosts served refreshments while we visited.

Museum Guild Program
August 9, 2004

"CEDAR RAPIDS MUSEUM OF ART"
Presented by Terry Pitts

Terry's presentation included the special exhibit "Art in Roman Life, Villa to Grave" which will remain at the Museum of Art until August 25, 2005. The "Roman Life" exhibit started with the donation of their collection of Roman sculpture by Tom and Nan Riley of Cedar Rapids. During September, October and November literature and film about Rome will be spotlighted and the movie "Ben Hur" will be shown.

He also told about the works of Grant Wood and Marvin Cone which are a permanent exhibit.

In 2005 the carriage house adjacent to the Turner Mortuary will be open for touring. Grant Wood was asked to help transform the Douglas Mansion into a mortuary and he was allowed to use the Carriage House as a studio from 1924 to 1934. The lower floor will be a visitors center.

My Volunteer Experience at the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library Testimonials

Dobrý den,

I began my volunteer experience in 1996 when reading in the Gazette, a plea for volunteers to interact with museum attendees when touring the new exhibit from Prague entitled, "1000 Years of History". Deciding that since I am half Czech that might qualify me, I went to the phone and dialed. Thus began a new learning adventure! I felt rather insecure at first but soon found that I could always get information from Bob Stone, who often worked the gallery next to mine. After that great experience, I WAS HOOKED!

From there I ventured into other gallery experiences plus the immigrant house tours. Not stopping there, I have enjoyed meeting more new faces at the Information Desk and in the museum store. I even helped Stephanie for a few months enter new acquisitions into their recently purchased computerized system. Then, joining the Guild seemed to be the next step in my new learning, especially since at the time the Guild president was not Czech, but rather, of Swedish decent. Being one fourth German and one fourth Swiss no longer seemed a deterrent.

More recently I have worked with the Museum Education Committee setting up a curriculum for the third grade students who seem to visit in droves. (The Cedar Rapids School system starts students studying Immigration at the third grade level.) Having spent 25 years teaching at the senior high level, I again was a little unsure of myself. With help from Jan Stoffer, I very quickly squelched that fear. Third graders are WONDERFUL and I have wondered from time to time if I "missed my calling" by signing for the high school certificate. Having several grandchildren of that age, I can readily see their faces within a new group as we meet them on the steps of the museum and Jan asks them some questions before entering.

Do we form friendships before the brief two hours are over ?? You bet we do!

I am hoping that more of you will consider making your day a little "brighter" by investing some time at the Czech and Slovak museum as a volunteer.

— Shirley Alexander

Editors Note: Thank you Shirley Alexander and Lenora Watson for sharing your volunteer experiences.

There will more testimonials in the next issue so please submit yours.

Spring 2004

I'm proud to be able to be a volunteer. I've met some wonderful and very interesting people. I've enjoyed speaking Czech and upon request I have worn my "Kroj". After giving a guided tour, the visitors always thank you and tell you how much they appreciate your telling them details.

I had a group of Japanese students (college age) with their translator. They enjoyed it so much. After the tour they all hugged me and called me "Babe". This has happened many times and they all take pictures. After an experience like this it makes you feel so good that you can be a volunteer.

~ Thank You ~

I can't say thank-you often enough to all the volunteers who supported the Museum with their hard work and dedication to make the 2004 Dance Festival a wonderful success. If you didn't have the opportunity to participate this time, there is always next summer! Talk to this year's Dance Festival Committee chairpersons to find out what is involved in this endeavor and what kind of help, skills, and talents are needed.

Thank you to the Guild members who assisted the "Brewnost" Steering Committee in preparing for, staging and operating the NCSML's first "Brewnost" Fund-Raising Event. A special acknowledgment to the Guild members who diligently worked to get the Garden in shape for this event which primarily took place in our Garden setting. All of your time and effort was very much worth it.

A special thank-you to the Guild members who baked for the reception following the Red Cedar Chamber Music/Quartetto Telemann Concert on October 2nd. Thank you to Lydia Elias, Bette Kral, and Irma Rozek who assisted Irma Kelly in hosting the reception until a very late hour!
