EIGHTY FOUR YEARS OF THE C. S. A.

Wherever you glance, wherever you go, whatever you read, it's the same old and now familiar story: the C.S.A. "Czechoslovak Society of America" is on the upgrade movement, going higher and higher, accomplishing things never heard of before. It is upheaval, complete change of minds and happy admission of the fact that things are being done for and to the old C.S.A., things that entice that happy smile into the faces of the old as well as the young generation. And why not? In the bygone days we were accustomed to see the old members striving to make this organization just what it was destined to be and to do for our unfortunate widows and orphans of our members. You know my friends when those 29 men met at the Mottl home in the city of Saint Louis on that memorable day in March 1854 their only desire to unite and merge into a protective society, their only thought and most sacred aim was to protect the evils of want, sickness and death their families, wives and children. It was the undisputed act adhered to in most primitive way, guided by the experience of the world from which they emigrated and being influenced by the close proximity of the German settlement which our forefathers and pioneers of this great society of ours selected, because some of them knew and understood German, while they were completely lost when the English language was spoken. And so they lived together, some of our best people of that decade were members of the I. O. O. F.'s (Independent Order of Odd Fellows). The early rituals and laws of our Society breathe with secrecy and mysteries of secret order of that period and for decades and decades were the guiding spirit in the progress of the old C. S. P. S. which now stands as the foundation for ever stronger combination of five similar organizations - the "C. S. A." as we now call it in abbreviated form.

And so it progressed, it spread its protective wings into many other states and cities where Czech population was strong enough to support a lodge. And the organization prospered, especially after the Civil war, when our heroes and members of the original Society returned from the fields of battle and resumed their prospective positions in every-day life in community. The Society at one time numbered more than twenty five thousand members, something no other Czech Society ever accomplished in those days. Since then few crisis left depressive marks on the body of the fraternal institution and when firm order to reorganize on safe basis came and was complied with, the result of the reconstruction was all but disastrous. The organization lost hundreds and thousands of members due to the radical readjustment which dealt the oldest members the hardest blow. And with father and mother out of the organization the Society suffered double loss: that of their son or daughter and loss of their children. This was a heavy blow, something that shook the entire foundation of fraternal endeavor, strife, sacrifice and brotherly love. But for that very foundation the organization withstood all the attacks of depressive periods and now that a miracle has happened we have perfect right to smile and smile broadly and happy - our troubles are over, our grey heads are black in the lineup, our older members seeing the results inflicted upon the organization through their indifferent attitude, came back willing to help. This is the happiest episode in the life of a fraternal order.

And why should it not be the happiest period when one considers EIGHTY FOUR YEARS of untiring efforts of such splendid organization. Why? Simply because the organization not only benefits by the return of the old members into the active field of the honest efforts then existing but benefited chiefly and to the greatest extent by securing the young element, the sons and daughters of the old members - and it was just this old member who turned away in the stenuous days of unhappy conflict between the membership at large and firm laws of states that made the impossible one glorious dream coming to realization. Our younger generation in its own English speaking lodges of the C. S. A. In the last few years the organization accomplished very, very much through organized efforts and chiefly through application of such effective medium as our organizers proved to be.

Whether you believe it or not, or whether you care to acknowledge it, the old spirit of brotherhood and sisterhood is still there - and the spirit of those twenty-nine men as they stood around that table at the home of brother Mottl promising help to fellow members and their families in time of need, that spirit is among the members of the C. S. A. today, growing stronger with each and every new lodge initiated today or tomorrow. We stand for Equality, Harmony and Brotherhood - for three greatest lights in human endeavor and brotherly love.

You must be happy to smile, you shall do so by participating in our meetings and other enterprises.

Theo. B. Hlubucek.

H MEETING E

HO Hum,,, Another month gone by and nothing to write..... at least nothing unusual.

The meeting was well attended, it being the new presidents first presiding.

More out of curiosity than anything else.

Well he started out alright. (Gee I hate to admit it).

I noticed Doc, had a far away look in his eyes during the meeting. As I sat there and watched him I wondered what his thoughts were,

Did he feel lonesome for the gavel and chair?

Did he feel like a has been?

Did he feel old and forsaken?

Did he feel the J.A.C. slipping away from him?

OR.....

Did he feel relieved and satisfied and that it was probably worth the effort after all, did he feel like a man should, after a job thats been well done?

The latter is most likely his true feeling.

If it isn't it should be.

It promised to be a long meeting but no one had their reports ready, so it wasn't so bad.

Well, the meeting is over, lots go down stairs.

Boyoboy! Look! We're gonna play Bingo, Syscl isn't starting out with a Bang, he's starting out with a Bingo.

Who is the guy that said he didn't know how to play the game until he learned it was free (that FREE is a magic word).

Plenty of prizes too. Winners choice.

I was so busy enjoying myself that I didn't get to thank or commend the president.

Dear Daisy:

Is it true that red headed girls always marry meek men. If so, why?

Frank Novotny.

Dear Frank:

No, the men just naturally get that way after the wedding.

Dere Dazy -

Whuts becum uv the good old hambres thet allwase wanted tu dy wit ther boots on?

Hubert Kaplan.

Dear Hubert:

The "good old hambres" are no longer here but their grandchildren are aiming to die with their boots on the accelerater.

Dear Daisy:

Do you suppose that if all the girls wore cotton stockings, it would eliminate the cotton surplus?

Henrietta Seabrooke

Dear Henrietta:

Yes I do, B U T after inquiring around the men folks, it seems they would rather see the surplus.

DID YOU KNOW THAT.....

The Junior American Czochs do other things besides attend meetings. F'rinstance,,,

Ed. Zvacek crawling on his hands and knees to deliver a Valentine to Marie Smith (evidently Bob was home)

Tillie Sedlacek ate so much at a recent Oriental supper that she could scarcely climb the stairs. (anyway thats what she claims.

Alma Stanek catches the eye of an old old man who feels sorry for her and wants to make life a little brighter for her. (Hows about a liddle dence Beby?)

From the looks of things, Louie Picek and Alma Janko are still 'that way' about each other.

Wonder who the guy is that escorted 'Emmka Hervertova' home from Czech Alliance meeting (better look out Joe)

JUNIOR ECHO

A WORD FROM "MA" HERVERT:

Disappointments come to us all I guess, but when one doesn't get an invitation to join J.A.C. in the manifestations of delight by being a year older and look back at the commendable record of the year, your accomplishments and what have you! - that was just one. With all the tears that I saw in the eyes of Doc., Pres. Sysel, Esther, Hugo, Adeline Milo and all the buck-passing, really took away part of the sting. I take this opportunity of congratulating you at this time. You have worked well and trust you will give Frank the same support as you gave Leo, even though he is a wee-bit bigger in stature. Frank will need it. No leader can accomplish anything unless he has the support of his members.

Now to my second disappointment - When Doc expired as your president, Czech Fine Arts felt a little too confident that there was still some good leadership left in him and elected him president for 1937 - 1938. I, for one, thought that he would be able to convince you the American Czech youth, that you need the Czech Fine Arts and that you could reap some benefit from its activities in furthering your knowledge of the traditions, culture of a people that you are descendants of. I am sure that the Czech Fine Arts would reap benefit by your interest. Its sole purpose is to promote as much as possible the higher arts of Czech Fine arts, which surely should include something to interest every one of you regardless of your likes. It was our desire to bring together the younger people of Czech origin in this community and to our regret we feel that we have failed. We would profit very much by your manifestations of likes and aid in promoting the things we should feel proud of. Can't we have a Junior American Czech day at some future meeting?

Hopes for your continued success,
"MA"

Editor's Note -

Since the above letter was received the Junior American Czechs have received an invitation from the Czech Fine Arts Society to participate in sponsoring a program at their meeting March 23rd at the Montrose Hotel. We are asked to contribute about 3 numbers for this program however the most important part of this program will be your attendance and I hope that every one of the Junior American Czechs will turn out and let others know that we are back of this. More information will be given out at the meeting Monday, March 14th, so let's get out and make a big showing. Lodge 262 of ZCJB is going to participate in this program and are going to have a large delegation - so let the J.A.C. be there 100%. Remember March 23rd at the Montrose Hotel!

A question was asked why it was that God made Eve out of Adam's rib instead of from some other part of his body. The answer, "She was not taken from the head of man, lest she should rule over him; nor from his feet, lest he should trample upon her; but she was taken from his side, that she might be his equal; from under his arm, that he might protect her; from near his heart, that he might cherish and love her."

Born to Mr. & Mrs. Wilfred Novak a son on February 8th. Congratulations to Mother, Dad and Baby!

Why keep it a secret, George? A New Year's Day wedding just announced is that of George Dvorak and Miss Ruby M. Ellett at Lancaster, Wis. Sincere good wishes Mr. & Mrs. Dvorak for a long life of Happiness!

Sister Libbie Nemecek suffered an infection in her hand, but is very much improved.

If bringin' Knittin' to meetin', is indicative of old age a creepin', then Bernice Lana is a gettin' there. Maybe tho, she's another Madame LeFargo and is knittin', knittin' and knittin' the affairs of the lodge into her work against that judgment day.

"MARCH"

(Month of Courage)

Shattered faith in friends we knew,
Shattered loves we can't renew,
Shattered dreams and shattered hope,
Shattered forms in illness grope.

Thus it seems that life consists,
Of disillusionments such as this,
But what can we so small so weak,
Ask of this world so cold and bleak?

Nothing friends--but "courage" strong,
To know the right and see the wrong,
To face life's battles with a smile,
And gather patience all the while.

By Martha Felter.

JUNIOR AMERICAN CZECHS - Don't fail to attend Lodge Meeting Monday March 14, 7:30 P.M.

THE HUMAN MIND

The most important things happen in our minds, and the problem of life is to control the mind and its workings! If you run, trouble will follow, but defy trouble and trouble will run from you.

Cultivate your mind, develop initiative, personality and experience. The power to do is within your mind. Make your contacts resulting in influence, take the "breaks" and remember the story of the successful business man who, when accused of being lucky, replied, "Yes, I am lucky, and you know I've noticed that the harder I work, the luckier I seem to get."

Mind controls fear, anger, hate, sorrow, joy, happiness and failure or success. School yourself to meet fear by doing what you are afraid to do. Discard anger, hate and failure from your make-up. Meet the problems of life with a smile; work hard mentally and physically.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

A man somewhat under the influence of good-fellow-ship attempted to pass through the revolving door of a restaurant. Each time he entered he made the complete round and found himself in the street again. After several unsuccessful attempts he sat down on the pavement to work things out. A moment later a young man walked rapidly up the street and went in, the door went around and a young woman came out. The inebriate was puzzled. "What get's me", he remarked, "is what the devil he did with his clothes".

SUGGESTIONS

When you entertain:

A few white flowers in every bouquet give emphasis to the color effect of the other blooms, and a few flowers are usually more attractive than a "bunch". Add a few sprigs of greenery to bring out their full charm.

Small flowers may be frozen in your ice cubes to carry out a color scheme.

The thoughtful hostess keeps a few grape leaves in the refrigerator as a garnish for the morning melon, grapefruit or bowl of fruit.

"Puffles", the trade name for a delicious product obtainable at your grocer's are beautiful as a fruit salad trimming or for desserts. After they are fried in deep fat they resemble rose petals in many colors. These are sold in boxes all ready to fry.

Flowers as well as lamps are more effective if placed in front of a mirror.

If you haven't a knife for making fancy cucumber slices, draw the tines of a fork the length of the cucumber, all the way around, then slice crosswise.

Pulverized stick candy is delicious sprinkled over ice cream. Pink is best.

Add a few bread crumbs to the milk in making omelets. This will insure a puffy omelet.

Poached eggs keep their shape if you drop them into a buttered frying pan and heat very slowly until the white starts to set. Then cover with boiling water.

Raw turnips cut into lily petals and grated carrots for the centers make a very realistic water lily. Use as a garnish for cold meat dishes.
