

Acknowledgements:

Hall-Ekfelt Inc.

C. J. Kosek Electric Co.

N. W. Bell Tel. Co.

"The Yellow Shadow"

A Mystery-Comedy in Three Acts

BY CLARK WILLARD

---

Presented By the Frolic Club

Of St. Ludmila's Church

In St Ludmila's Hall 21st Ave and J st S.W.

SUNDAY FEB. 19, 1933 at 7:30 P.M.

Presented by special arrangement with the Dramatic Publishing Company of Chicago.

Directed by Edward Kuba

Music by the Parish Orchestra

Cast Of Characters

Nell Travis,.....Housekeeper at Viewcrest
Josephine Letovsky
Gilbert Wright,....Attorney for the Marvin estate
Chas. Pochobradsky
Alice Perkins,.....Mildred's chum
Laura Rorick
Mildred Marvin,.....Heiress to the Marvin estate
Eloise Kuba
Hazel Wayne,.....Mildred's cousin
Bessie Elias
Jed Travis,Who appears to believe in gillelyoo birds
Lester Binko
Herbert Marvin,.....Who has lived in Singapore
Edward Marsoun
Sheriff Macklin,He has taken a "detekative course"
Ernest Womocil
J. Steel,.....The coroner
Lillian Suchan
Wong Song,.....His past is unknown
Leonard Brush

---

Place: Living-room in Viewcrest Lodge, on Puget Sound.

Time: The present.

Note: The action begins a few moments before the curtain rises.

The Drug Shop

J. C. Roushar, R, Ph.

80 16th Ave. S.W. Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Phone 2-1642

---

---

SYNOPSIS

Act I.—The living-room of Viewcrest Lodge, Puget Sound.

Act II.—The same, three minutes later.

Act III.—The same, five minutes later.

---

---

Frank J. Monahan

Funeral Home

Assistants

Wm. Knowles - Edw. R. Kuba