

TWO DEFINITIONS OF HOME

"Home is the blossom of which Heaven is the fruit," "The golden setting in which the brightest jewel is Mother," "The place where the great are sometimes small, and the small sometimes great," "Where you are treated best and grumble most."

-----o-----

"Home is a domestic sanctuary-- wrought out of desire--built in a memory--where kindred bonds unite the family in sharing labors, leisure, joys and sorrows."
