AT LAST ... TRAINING

It was the long awaited time for training. Saturday, September 9 and Monday, September 11, over thirty-five Guild members and guests gathered for training to be tour guides, receptionists and workers in the gift shop.

Zula Oujiri and Maridee Dugger presented general information about the guild, the museum and the history of the Czech/Slovak immigration. It was a lively discussion as many participants had first hand knowledge to share.

"Information Gives Confidence" was the main theme of the two hour sessions. Identical formats were used at both meetings. After the general information session, the group divided to discuss their main volunteer interest.

Barb Sherman had prepared a tape of her tour for us. It had been transcribed by Zula and reproduced into twenty copies by Sylvia Rohlena, Guild President. The study and preparation for becoming a tour guide is much easier thanks to their cooperation and coordination.

Thank-you for coming and participating in the training sessions. Now we are in a position to be of more help at the Museum. Call Zula or Barb today to make your volunteer schedule for October. We are really needed.

Sylvia's Notes

Dobre Den

Being an active member is the support network of the National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library Guild has been a goal for many members. Hats off to you!

The teamwork and cooperation shown this past year has made us succeed as a highly recognized organization.

How did you serve? Think about it, were you a Museum guide, a hostess, clerk, writer, organizer, or worker. All these jobs have been very important to our Guild and the Museum.

Once again we have a great opportunity shine and let our existence be known. During Dedication Week in October there is much to be done. I challenge each one of you to make this a priority in one way or another and take part in the variety of projects being planned ... details later.

We have approximately 90 members, could each of you contribute a minimum of four hours to the Dedication? Our 20 hours service is only a guide line, not a limit.

Volunteers will also be needed to clean, phone, or bake cookies.

Your enthusiasm and support is greatly appreciated and I know we will be out there again to enjoy, achieve and be recognized.
