THE PRESIDENT SAYS:

Only one more meeting, which is probably the most important one of the year - Election of officers will be held, so come and help pick out those who you want to be your leaders. Let's make our December meeting one of the best in the year. Think about it - Talk about it - and "BE THERE".

Leo B. Sedlacek.

A SMILE - A smile costs nothing, but gives much. It enriches those who receive without making poorer those who give. It takes but a moment, but the memory of it some time lasts forever. None is so rich or mighty that he can get along without it, and none is so poor but that he can be made rich by it. A smile creates happiness in the home, and is the countersign of friendship. It brings rest to the weary, cheer to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad, and it is Nature's best antidote for trouble. Yet it cannot be bought, begged or borrowed or stolen, for it is something that is of no value to any one until it is given away. Some people are too tired to give you a smile. Give them one of yours, as none needs a smile so much as he who has none to give.

-Author Unknown-

BANK NIGHT

Once again we extend our condolence but this time it is to Millard Buchanan as he was not present at the October meeting when his name was drawn. Better luck next time!

GATHERED IN THE BARNYARD

Ain't Love Just Too, Too Grand?
(after six months of married bliss)
TIME: Morning.

SETTING: Breakfast nook of the Stanley Kriz home in Wisconsin.
CHARACTERS: Dorothy and Stanley Kriz. Curtain rises upon Stanley seated at the table in a meditative mood.

DOROTHY: A penny for your thoughts!
STAN: Well dear, I've just been thinking, I've stood you for six months so I should be able to get along with you the rest of my life.

(After 15 years of married bliss)
TIME: One evening
SETTING: Softly lighted, cozy living room.

CHARACTERS: Hugo and his Dearly Beloved. Curtain rises upon the cast seated upon the divan, in 1922 manner.

HUGO: You're nice - if you were'nt so lazy; you're sweet - if you were better looking; you're desirable - if you were younger; you're O.K. - if you were only rich.

D.B. (yawning) So what?

SPECIAL NOTICE

Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Kriz stopped off in Cedar Rapids on their way home from their second honeymoon. While here Stan., told us some very interesting things, Ain't so, Dot.

WANNA BUY A DUCK?

Geo. Hajny went duck hunting. The weather was too warm, or dry or wet or cold or something. Anyway he enjoyed a swell dinner and stuff - at Bill Dytrts - 35 cents a plate.

Bob Smith: "I've used our famous hair tonic on your head for the twentieth time and you're still bald.

Doc Sedlacek: "Well, why rub it in

Hylites From the Get-To-Gether "Blowout"

'Sa funny thing, but even a FREE blowout doesn't have a 100% attendance. (Some of the members must have thought there was a catch to it.

Well, maybe we didn't have 100% attendance, but we did have Bro. Janda of Berwyn, Ill. Thats Something.

By the way,.. how does that Janda feller rate,.. all of the women going for him the way they do? (Wonder if he could use an Understudy.)

Oh yes, the barroom was open. (Nor much business????? mmm??)

Maybe we didn't have Wayne King or Jan Garber, but we danced. (Ask Jerry Fottral Or Henrietta Seabrooke

Not many wallflowers.

Adeline Sindelar appreciated the piece of dental floss she got with her supper but upon closer inspection it turned out to be a hair.

Due to a cold Edith Pierce could n't speak above a whisper. (Her husband apprediated that.)

Alma Mach & Irene Poula trying to sing baritone.

You could tell it was an English speaking Lodge, half of the members couldn't even sing Sveskova Alej.

When the janitor came out with a broom we wondered if he was going to sweep the singers out or just some of the sour notes.

Geo Svec sits among his relation and eats off of everybodys plate.

Thomas Edison was the smartest inventor. He invented the phonograph and radio so people stay up nights and use his light bulbs.

Daisy's Column

Dear Daisy:

Is it true that love is like a poker game?

Anne Hobota

Dear Anne:

Yes except that in love, one pair beats a full house.

Dear Daisy:

Do bachelors have as many problems to face as married men.

Emil Mikulas

Dearest Emil:

Yes, and one of his greatest problems is to fall into a woman's arms but not into her hands.

Dear Daisy:

What is your idea of a perfect husband? (If such a thing is possible.)

Agnes Novak

Dear Aggie:

The closest thing to a perfect husband is one who knows how to grwl but won't.

If you haven't already bought your tickets to the 4th Annual JAC Armistice Frolic, do so now to avoid disappointment. The committee will follow the custom started 3 years ago, that is: all tickets to be sold by members prior to the dance and positively no tickets sold at the dorr, thereby making it a private affair.

This plan has worked out successfully heretofore and we believe, with a little co-operation, it can be done again.

Any one who has not been contacted and wishing tickets call Joe or Alma Mach at 3-1458

CURRENT NEWS.

By Lillian Heral.

It is very encouraging to hear that our Sister Blanche Libal, who has been ill, is again quite well.

Brother Dan Novak had the misfortune to meet with an auto accident but we hope he is up and around.

Brother Anton Turek, Financial Secretary of the Executive Committee of Chicago has been seriously ill, but we are glad to hear he is feeling much better.

To Brother Leo Stolba we extend our sincere sympathy in the recent death of his brother.

We are happy to offer our congratulations to Brother Jerry Holicek whose marriage to Irene Kos took place at St. Wenceslaus Church, October 19th.

An approaching marriage is that of Bro. Frank Brejcha to Georgiann Hach, which is to take place on November 27th. Congratulations and best wishes!

Two little stars dropped from heaven to brighten the homes of two of our members - a son at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Frank Sturm on October 22nd, and a son at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Harold Smith on October 23rd.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Time marches on. Yes, time had marched on for forty years before a group of Gladys Sedlacek's closest friends decided to turn time back several years, if only for one night, which accounted for that scared expression on her smiling face when she turned on the front room light on the evening of Nov. 1st. From then on the night was a riot, with all the KIDS leaving for home when the Curfew rang at one A. M.

THE CANDID CAMERA

Focuses our attention upon an illusive vision of blonde daintiness in the person of Rosalind Gude Hinshaw.

Rosalind was born to Mr. & Mrs. Edward Gude at Webster City, Iowa, on April 13th, 1914. When Rosalind and her older sister were still very young, their parents moved to Des Moines where they are residing on an acreage, at the present time.

Rosalind received her education in the Des Moines schools (elementary and High), but her heart really lay in the terpsichorean field of art. At the age of nine she began studying dancing under Marjorie Young. This work or hobby, as you will, she continued for ten years, eventually landing a two year contract as specialty dancer at the Belvedere Club in Des Moines. Although she specialized in novelty toe and tap solo and duet numbers, she also danced in a small chorus of six girls, one of whom was the recently much publicized Eloise Martin.

On different occasions, such as the food shows at the Colosseum, when dancing talent was required, she appeared on the same program with celebrities such as Irene Rich, Pat Kennedy, Jackie Heller, and the Reddinger Twins (The twins had the privilege of dancing at the coronation this spring)

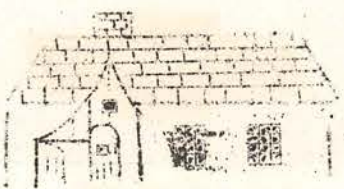

Rosalind met Don at the Belvedere Club (although he claims she went to the same high school with him but refused to speak to him). They had their first date on Thanksgiving eve and were married exactly two years later in 1935. They spent their honeymoon in St. Louis where Rosalind experienced her most embarrassing moment - No - No She saw her first and she swears her last, burlesque show. Yes!

In the theatrical field she enjoys far fetched comedies, such as those the Ritz Brothers cut capers in, and she prefers the legitimate plays to movies. She likes to read periodicals for mental nourishment, entertain her friends for relaxation, and sew for practical reasons.

Her favorite colors are blue and green, although we like her best in black or red. She always looks well groomed and chic in

Frank Novotny High Man

The high score for the first week was rolled by Frank Novotny of Junior American Czech #1, who rolled a total of 483. Joe Stepanek and Gus Sulcik were second high with a total of 411.

Much interest was shown in the first week of Bowling by the four teams who Bowled according to schedule. The four teams who have not Bowled are urged to roll off their games so that the Secretary can keep his records to date.

Teams that cannot bowl on their scheduled night should play their games off on either Friday night or Sunday morning or afternoon.

GIRLS ATTENTION

Word has been received that the girls of Edison Lodge in Chicago have quite a classy Bowling Team and are anxious to bowl the girls team of Junior American Czech.

How about it girls! Let's organize a team and show them just how good we are. Friday nights are open so lets get started.

clothes that she chooses with very good taste.

Contrary to our best guess Rosalind's favorite food is the good old substantial kind - meat and potatoes.

Her pet peeve is disorder of any kind. We venture a guess that it's the masculine kind - you know - socks on the chandelier, necktie on the radio, shoes in some strategic path blocking traffic. And she positively hates bow ties on her MAN. She also dislikes people whose heads are too large for their hats, if you guess what that means.

Her ambition is to have a nice home and that proverbial pattering of little feet inspired perhaps by her present capacity as "awnty" to three little children.

Comparable to the dainty Gardenia of which she is so very fond, she is a well bred little aristocrat. "To the Manor born." Retiring and reserved, yet friendly, we wonder, "Do we know her - or do we?"

AN UNUSUAL BRAINSTORM

Mother's Birthday dawned beautifully one Sunday. Father arose, figuratively and actually, to the occasion. "Let's do what mother loves to do the best - let's go lazy for the day," he volunteered to the youngsters. The motions was seconded enthusiastically. So, immediately after Sunday School, the family car was Amana bound. Noon found the family formally seated in the quaint atmosphere of a Dutch dining room. With well brushed hair, shining faces and good manners working overtime, the younger members stowed away man-sized chicken dinners. "Well, we paid for it, didn't we?" apologized the little "Izzy" of the group, tenderly rubbing the outside of his dinner. "This is the first time I hardly ever say anyone talk German," marvelled the other "little man" as he watched the waitresses place orders.

A neighborly little chit of a girl chattered brightly. "We're eating dinner here, then we're going to Marongie for supper, and to a show in Cedar Rapids. My Awnty Faye has a fur coat just like yours. Where do you live? We live in Victor on a farm. My Grandma bought me this dress. Where do you live? Are those your children?"

Out of doors here and there, the feminine members of the colony were emerging from their homes enroute to Sabbath meeting. Mother wondered but not audibly, (because Father would have a snappy solution), about the conspicuous absence of the male population. THE SAINTS! The members of the older generation still cling to their black bonnets and their long full black dresses and aprons. The members of the younger generation emerging from their cocoons, wear modified versions of the black bonnets and black silk aprons over their modish, short frocks.

Cruising aimlessly, basking in the tranquility of the surroundings, in the crisp air and hazy, autumnal atmosphere, we found a road. It's a beautiful, well kept road winding leisurely along a ridge. On one side are wooded ravines with here and there a farmstead playing hide and seek with the travelers; on the other side far below, is a flat, table-top of fertile valley pattered ned modernistically with brown plowed fields, tawny cornfields and green nurse crops. Silhouetted in the background is a huge loaf cake of riotously colored woods. Mother exulted "Those trees didn't just happen to grow that way, someone with great vision and perspective and an eye for color must have deliberately planted them there!" Father unexpectedly agreed, "Yes, but it was no human being, you can lay to that".

At a particularly lovely spot the youngsters tumbled out of the car and disappeared into the timber, returning with clusters of Mother's beloved Bitter-sweet. "Yeh, ma, I took good care of my Sunday clothes, I took them off before I shinned up that tree for the Bitter-sweet, -that's the only place it grows, where only monkeys kin reach it," boasted the "baby".

Bitter-sweet, sumac, hazelnuts a car, lowering sun, a happy family homeward bound. We found a road. Ours to return to with each change of seasons; ours to visit, that we might gloat over the wonders and vagaries of nature -

A lovely rejuvenating Birthday!

HOW MANY DID YOU ANSWER?

Alfred Nobel was a Swede.

Benjamin Franklin wrote under the pen name of "Poor Richard".

The Anvil Chorus is from Ill Trovatore.

Light travels faster than sound.

Liquefy is the misspelled word.

The term of a U.S. Senator is six years.

The Pyrenees mountains are between France and Spain.

"Bulls" are stock market traders who try to drive stocks and bonds up; "Bears" drive them down.

The capital city of Canada is Ottawa.

The city of Washington is on the Potomac River.

The first thing to learn about driving an automobile is how to stop. The same applies to making a speech.

"Ye Editor", answered, "Dig up some and we will print them. If the reaction is favorable, you have a job, if not it will be just too bad".

Below is a sample or two, let the editor know whether to make this a permanent feature or not.

UNCLE SAM.

The practice of calling the United States Government Uncle Sam is believed to have originated in the following manner.

During the American Revolution a man named Samuel Wilson was beef inspector at Troy N.Y., and was popular with the men in his employ, who always called him Uncle Sam. After the inspection of the beef, it was shipped to a contractor named Ebenezer Anderson and was always marked "E.A.U.S." A joking workman, being asked what the initials stood for, replied that he did not know, unless it stood for Ebenezer Anderson and Uncle Sam. The joke kept up and spread until it became common to refer to all packages marked U.S. as belonging to Uncle Sam.

The caricatures of Uncle Sam as U.S. are faithful reproductions of Samuel Wilson.

ARMISTICE DAY.

Observed on November 11th.

First celebrated in the year 1918

A memorial to the men who fell in the world war.

Set aside by the Junior American Czechs lodge of the C.S.A. for their annual carnival frolic.
