BANQUET

This year the banquet instead of being held in January will be held in March. This event as you know is the celebration of the founding of our lodge - our first banquet was held in January 1935, and we have held one ever since. Since our lodge has grown so large, it is necessary that the committee be notified far in advance as to just what to expect. It can definitely be said that the banquet this year will be held on March 13, 1939 at the C. S. P. S. Hall. Definite announcements with regard to time and cost will be made in the Echo next month. Will every J.A.C. start making plans now and notify Dr. Sedlacek, if you are going to come. It is hoped that this year the banquet will be the best and plans are being made to take care of all who wish to attend.

WATCH FOR ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are told that the January Organ of the C. S. A. will bring a surprise to everyone. We advise everyone of you to find out what it is - pleasant or disappointing? we - wonder!

THAT DANCE

Every one of you be sure to go to Danceland, on February 3rd, 1939, because J.A.C. are going to put on their second dance at Danceland. This dance is in charge of Mr. & Mrs. A. Washburn. Other members of the committee are Miss E. Barbour, Mr. & Mrs. Petrick and Godfrey Suchan. The committee has been working hard and they have secured Ralph Slades W.M.T. Orchestra for the occasion. If you have not purchased your ticket as yet, please get in touch with some member of the committee, or be sure to get your ticket at the door at Danceland. Remember that your presence at this dance is necessary, for the success of this dance means the success of our annual banquet, which will be held March 13th, next.

There will be attendance prizes and a big floor show, so that regardless of how you feel you are bound to have a good time.

The price is only 25¢ so lets all get behind this dance and boost. Every little bit helps and as long as you want to go to the banquet, go to the dance and then we will have some thing to work on. If the J. A. C. can make some extra pennies this way, the committee will be glad to sponsor a few more dances this coming year so that we can bring up our treasury to where we can have better times. Junior American Czechs always have a good time and always make good in everything we do. Are you one of the ones that are always taking things, and not working for them, or do you work along with the others?

Central Committee Notes

The members of the Central Committee have elected as their officers for the coming year;

- Theodore Hlubucek - President
- Frank Klepach - Vice-Pres.
- Jerry Chalupnik - Rec.Sec'y.
- Frank Sysel - Treasurer.

H MEETING E

Last meeting, as usual, began a half hour late although I distinctly remember reading in the Echo that it would start at 7:30 (Oh well I wasn't very early myself)

Kongrachulations to our secretary (She was so happy to be re-elected that she celebrated by getting married)

Boy! Oh Boy! Did ya see the swell Xmas tree? (Almost like before the depression, Huh)

Judging from the way Brother Fred Petrick and Bro. Wencil Lippert acted at our Christmas party reminds us of that old saying, "Men descended from monkeys".

Bro. Frank Stanek must have been a bad boy 'cause he went and hid before Santa Claus came and we didn't see him till after Santa had left. (figure it out.)

Our Christmas party was educational to a certain extent. (We found out all about Mary and her little lamb)

Oh! Yes, we also have some swell vocal talent (You know, Bathroom Baritone - Cowpasture Bass - Tavern Tenor - Alley Alto, and last but not least, Mouse-under-the-chair Soprano)

Even Old Man Cvik was forgotten.
(Boy dat am sumpin)

The committee claims they had just as much fun decorating the tree that afternoon as they did in the evening (Well have to charge the next committee for the privilege)

No foolin' the Ham sandwiches were swell, and that goes for the rest of the eats.

But as usual all good times must end so it was after midnite when we finally decided to call it a day.

Don't fail to attend J.A.C. Dance Friday February 3rd, at Danceland, 25¢ per person.

Daisy's Column

Dear Daisy:

Could you give me the lowdown on Mary and her little Lamb? Tell me what really happened.

Chas. Rayman

Dear Chas:

I cannot tell you in cold print. It has to be heard to be appreciated. You should have been at the last meeting.

o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o

Dear Daisy:

Now that Christmas is over can I start being bad again?

Freddie Petrick

Dear Freddie:

Just what do you mean, START?

o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o

Dear Daisy:

Can a woman captain a ship?

Bob Smith

Dear Bob:

I have never heard of that but I know of many who command a smack.

o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o-o

Life is a show-shop,
Everybody "troupes",
A few of us are real stars,
The most of us are "supes".
But, it makes no difference whether,
We're starry queen of clown,
We'll all be together,
When the curtain comes down.

Love sinks low in a rumble seat.

Alma: "Who was that girl you just spoke to?"

Frank: "Never mind now, dear. I'll have enough trouble telling her who you are"

Read all of our Ads. They are inserted in this little paper for your benefit and profit.

JUNIOR-ECHO

BOOSTERS

The Echo approaches its fourth year and as it does we may look back with the idea of placing credit where credit is due. The Echo could not exist if it were not for two groups of individuals. The first group consists of our first business manager Mr. Reuben Stepan, who went out and broke the ice. It was he who sold an idea (at that time it was considered only one of those J.A.C. crazy ideas.), namely - a lodge newspaper. Much credit is due him and the Editors wish to pay him their tribute.

Next in this first group the members of the staff take their hats off to our present business manager, who has spent much time and effort in not only going out and selling Ads, but in building up the number of advertisers to such an extent that it has put the Echo on a sound financial footing. The staff and the J.A.C. lodge members take their hats off to Rudy for his untiring effort.

The second group of individuals are none other than the advertisers - Have you J.A.C.'s stopped to think just what they are doing for our lodge? They are making it possible for you to receive one of the best lodge papers without any cost to you. We ask you, have you been one of the loyal boosters, who has read the advertisements and then at the first opportunity patronize them?

Life after all is made up of helping the other fellow, they helped you, why not help them? Next time you have to buy some merchandise, stop and think, better yet, look over the list and then go to our patrons, the advertisers, and buy whatever you need. It will help US and it will make HIM feel a lot better if you say "Thank you for that Ad in the Junior Echo" - LETS ALL BE BETTER BOOSTERS IN 1939 THAN EVER BEFORE.

--ooOoo--

Reuben: "Well I had to give Susie the air, she turned out to be one of those "Iowa" girls.

Emil: "What daja mean, "Iowa" girls."

Reuben: "You know, - "Iowa dress bill, Iowa months rent, etc.

The census taker asked her what her husbands name was and she replied, "his name is Pat."

"What's his full name," the census taker demanded.

"Oh, when he is full he calls himself Jack Dempsey."

SECOND WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Elated (?) over the successful (Oh yeah) termination of two years of wedded, should we say, bliss, Dorothy and "Hunk" Kriz's brother celebrated the occasion with an Open House for their relatives and many friends, (January 2nd).

Dorothy's mother enhanced the attractiveness of the affair with appropriate decorations of Christmas greens, silver bells, white tapers and mistle-toe.

The attendants of two years ago Miss Anne Kriz, Mr. & Mrs. Adolph Topinka and Mr. and Mrs. Huston assisted with serving of refreshments. Mrs. Helen Kacena Stark presided at the tea table.

The home pooch and the visiting pooch were comfortably kenneled in the basement, the mule (under control) was stalled in the small office just off the dining room, and Stanley (out of control) cavorted "all through the house" decidedly unlike the poetic silence of that well known Xmas "Pome".

When he wasn't standing under the mistle-toe wistfully wishing - he was passing out a cigar or a cigarette (keeping count all the time and asking that the butts please be returned) or telling some of his Polly Anna stories.

The J.A.C. couples, running true to form, arrived a bit late and then were loath to bid Stan and Dorothy goodbye.

Sincerely and from the bottom of our hearts we wish this charming couple, many, many, (and then some) happy years together.

If Dot and Stan continue to live away from us we hope they will continue the charming custom of "Open House to our Friends" (wonder if I am still on the list) each January 2nd.

Wouldn't it be just "too Grand" to watch the years creep up on Stan? Will they weigh down or merely slither off?

P.P.S.S. This office has had several inquiries wondering whether any receipt is at hand for some of those nice butts. P.P.P.S.S.S. Oh Boy, if I could only describe the above as I would like to!

Ed. Note - The above was written by the Editors "Office Boy" who humbly apologizes (for his spasms) to Mr. and Mrs. J. Dvorak who sponsored the lovely affair for their daughters Second Wedding Anniversary.

Blonde Waitress: "I have stewed kidneys, boiled tongue, fried liver, and pigs feet."

Milvoy Horsky: "I'm no doctor, don't tell me your troubles, give me chicken pie."

Bob calls his fraternity pin "soldier" because it has been on so many fronts.

A color expert advises us to wear bright colors so that motorists can see them better. If a motorist can hit us in a grey suit, he needn't think we're going to help him.

Waitress: "What would you say to a little chicken?"

Jerry: "Shhhh!, nothing, I got my wife along this trip."

Office Boy: "There is a salesman outside with a mustache".

Milo S. - "Tell him I've got one."

"A moth spends an awful life.

"How come?"

"He spends the winter in a bathing suit, and the summer in a fur coat."

Jeanette S. - "How long have you been working?"

George Svec - "Ever since they threatened to fire me."

Frank Novotny - "Can anyone tell me what makes the Tower of Pisa lean?"

Lottie Hamous - "I'm sure I don't know, or I would take some myself."

Doc S. - "I'll wait until Don stops making a fool of himself, then I'll begin."

Mr. Hlubucek: "We want a girl to sell kisses at the Jarmark, have you had any experience?"

Dorothy Kriz: "I went to college."

Ted: - "Oh boy, youre hired."

HANDY ANDY ANSWERS!

Q. How can I remove the printing from flour sacks?

A. Cover the printing with a thin layer of lard, rolling up the bag and putting it away for a few days. Then wash in boiling water.

Q. How can I soften a used and hardened paint brush?

A. Try boiling it in vinegar. If one treatment is not satisfactory, repeat the operation.

Q. How can I relieve soft corns?

A. A treatment that is often effective is the use of camphor on absorbent cotton placed between the toes.

Q. How can I revive dried-out lemons?

A. Place them in very hot water for a while; this will freshen them and make them juicy again.

Q. How can I clean kid gloves?

A. Put the gloves on the hands, then wash in spirits of turpentine in the same manner as when washing the hands. When clean, hang the gloves in a warm place, or where there is a current of air.

Q. How can I prevent a small hole in the linoleum from enlarging?

A. If the hole is small, pour a little hot paraffin into it, smooth over evenly with a knife, and let it harden. Examine frequently for any tiny holes, as this treatment could hardly be used for a large hole.

Q. How can I remove a fresh fruit stain from a dress or tablecloth?

A. Cover the stain thoroughly with starch. Let it remain for about an hour. Then rub off with a clean cloth.

Miriam S. - "If a number of cattle is called a herd, a number of sheep flock, what would a number of camels be?"

Ed. Zvacek - A carton!
