We invite you to join us for a weekend celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of C.S.P.S. Hall, and the reopening of the building as Iowa's new center for contemporary arts and performance.

8:00 pm
 Opening and artist's reception for Tours 1A, 2A (1991), photographs of Eastern Iowa by Steve Harp, inspired by The WPA Guide to 1930s Iowa.

9:00 pm
 A brand-new performance by The Tape-beatles—a provocative audio-visual extravaganza based on their recent CD release Music with Sound.

FRIDAY
 JUNE 7

3:00 to 6:00 pm
 Gala rededication, featuring special invited guests, music by some of the area's outstanding musicians, and free refreshments.

Suggested dress: formal, informal, ethnic, or period.

SATURDAY
 JUNE 8

The renovation of CSPS is a project of The Drawing Legion, Inc., a nonprofit arts and performance organization. Support for the project comes from a Community Cultural Grant awarded by the Iowa Department of Cultural Affairs, and from individuals like yourself.

11:30 am
 Centennial Luncheon, co-sponsored by the Czech Heritage Foundation. Bring a dish or dessert to share—beverages and tableware will be provided. If you have photos, stories, or memories of C.S.P.S. Hall, bring those too.
