Dear Members;

It is with a glad heart and a ready spirit that I tackle the enormous position of being Co-President of the Museum Guild. Sylvia Rohlena and I have agreed to a division of labor that I believe will make this a workable position for each of us. But to the advantage of the Guild it provides two of us instead of one. Feel free to call either of us for concerns or ideas you have about the Guild. We will be working closely in a schedule of phone calls and meetings.

We want to recognize and thank Marilyn Tucker for her outstanding leadership. This has been another outstanding year for the Guild thanks to the leadership of Marilyn and the officers she worked with. Hats off to you for continuing the excellent work of the Guild.

The new Executive Board met Dec. 31, 1997. The planning began for the upcoming year. We will be requesting your input into establishing goals and plans for the coming year. Please help us through your support.

Looking forward to seeing you at Guild Meetings, on Volunteer duty, and at special events.

Sincerely,

Maridee Dugger and Sylvia Rohlena
