

Performing Arts & Humanities Building

The arts and humanities connect us all by helping us understand the nature of the human condition and the broader cultural and social constructs that make up our lives. These disciplines have always played an important role in the lives of UMBC students, and in the scholarship, creative activity and teaching of UMBC's faculty.

The Performing Arts & Humanities Building will enhance UMBC's teaching, research and public outreach and will heighten the visibility of the arts and humanities as major components of campus and community life. Students representing every major and academic department will take classes there, making it a cornerstone of student and alumni experiences to come.
