

QUAD MANIA

Photos by B. Wong

Over 600 people flocked to the Quad Saturday September 19, 1981 to party to the sounds of Skyhawk, Smile, Rave, The Emperors and Face Dancer. This free event served as an ice breaker in a renewed effort to bring concerts to UMBC.

Beer, sodas, hot dogs and popcorn were sold by the German club and SGA in order to raise money for future activities. Police from Public Safety and student marshals were on hand to watch over the crowds but there were no incidents.
