

2013.70.63

5th Regt Georgia Vols
near Kennesaw Mountan [sic]
July 2d 64

Yanks

We leave your front to night [sic] have fun We shall retire I knew not We hearby [sic] extend to you A [sic] cordial invitation to dine in our beautifull [sic] City of Atlanta on the 4th day of July provided you can penetrate our invinceble [sic] line Which you will have to confront go whare [sic] you will your leaders have led you to think that we are demoralized never before have we been in better Spirits Woe be to you all when you again butt at our works which by the way We have learned to build to perfection come on We will Welcome you all with bloody hands to hospitable graves

Page 2

Con feds

Tell the dutch [sic] that we have an abundance Supply of leager [sic] beer and shall share with all who come over

This was found Written on A Board throone [sic] from the Rebs lines over to ours the day that our men toock [sic] the Reb works at this Mountain

George

Please show this to Mother after you you [sic] have read it George