

APPRAISAL

August 18, 1999

1999.01.12

RUG, wool.

With a large center panel incorporating a repeating organic motif. The border with a repeating geometric motif. Blue and red fields, with gray. Well worn.

42 3/4" x 29 1/4"

Origin unknown.

$250.00

PAUL E. STERNBERG, SR.

APPRAISER

2120 Cornerstone Lane

Marietta, Georgia 30064

Member - Appraisers Association of America

APPRAISAL

August 18, 1999

L1999.01.10

RUG, wool.

A central panel with floral and foliage motifs. Three border bands with similar repeating motifs. Red and blue fields with other colors. Worn.

80 1/2" x 41"

Iran, ca. 1920.

$900.00

Paul E. Sternberg
PAUL E. STERNBERG, SR.
APPRAISER
2120 Cornerstone Lane
Marietta, Georgia 30064
Member - Appraisers Association of America

APPRAISAL

August 18, 1999

L1999.02.48

RUG, wool.

With a hexagonal panel, central medallion and corner triangular panels - all surrounded by three border bands. Each with a repeating combination of organic and geometric motifs. Blue, red and white fields.

7'5" x 5' 4".

Iran, ca. 1935.

$350.00

PAUL E. STERNBERG, SR.
APPRAISER
2120 Cornerstone Lane
Marietta, Georgia 30064

APPRAISAL

August 18, 1999

L1999.02.47

CARPET, wool.

A large Karastan "Sarouk" carpet on a red field, which is a blending of persian and Turkoman styles. It features a variety of complicated floral motifs, both in the central panel and borders. The ends with a fringe.

14' x 10'.

American, Karastan, ca. 1960.

$1,600.00

Paul E. Sternberg, Sr.
PAUL E. STERNBERG, SR.
APPRAISER
2120 Cornerstone Lane
Marietta, Georgia 30064

APPRAISAL

August 18, 1999

L1999.03

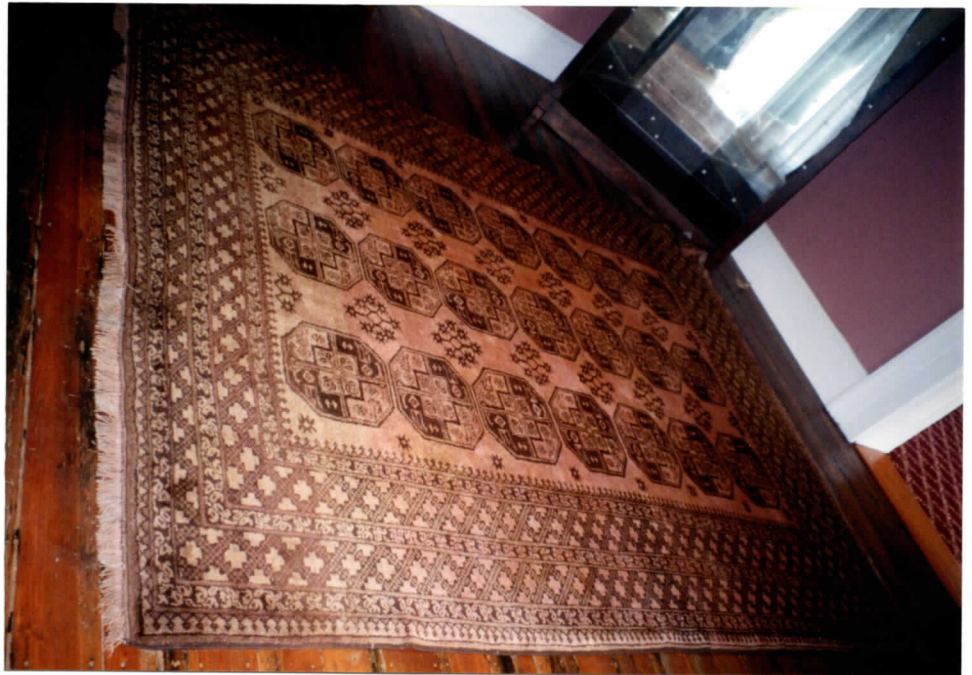

CARPET, wool and/or goat hair.

A large Afghan Ersari carpet with deep pile and end fringes. The carpet with central rectangular panel incorporating three columns of six octagonal guls separated by star motifs typical of this style. The wide border with three narrow bands of a vine motif and two wider bands of a cruciform motif. All currently in wine to plum coloring on an off-white field. Some transference of color to the white areas. A few reinforcement patches on the reverse.

11' 6" x 8' 6".

Afghanistan, Ersari, ca. 1900.

$3,500.00

PAUL E. STERNBERG, SR.
APPRAISER
Paul E. Sternberg
2120 Cornerstone Lane
Marietta, Georgia 30064