DEDICATION

The death of Ivan M. Paroubek last September 24 brought an end to a long career of service to Niles Township High School.

Mr. Paroubek was a leader in the organization of the school district and served as a member of the Niles Township High School Board of Education from its beginning in 1936.

He was chairman of the building committee of the Board throughout the planning and construction of the present Nilehi building and for nine of his 13 years as a Board member. He was Board president in 1946, and secretary in 1940, 1943, and 1948.

In deep appreciation of his constant efforts and continual service we dedicate this book . . .

To the Board of Education:

As June draws near and graduation approaches, memories come thronging into the spotlight of each senior's attention—the first all-school assembly, the Homecoming weekend, semester exams, the Junior Prom, the See Chicago trips, and—most important of all, perhaps, the friends we made.

It is of such as these each senior will be thinking when the last rose is pinned, the last tassel adjusted, and the procession begins.

The class of 1950 wishes to thank the Board of Education for every effort it has made to make our school one of which we can say with pride, "I went to Nilehi."

ADVISERS

To the Class of the Mid-Century:

Loyalty, unity, sincerity, and enterprise — these are your qualities that we have marked well, these the traits that have won our admiration and commanded our respect.

Ahead looms a world of uncertainties and unknowns, and our times call for high courage and rare wisdom. But, in your brave sureness and in your young understanding, hope thrives; and through your eyes we can glimpse what shines so brightly for you: fulfillment of a golden dream.

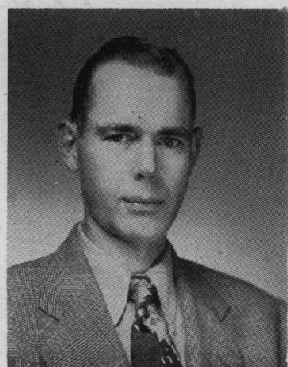

We salute you for what you are, for what you represent, and for the promise in your destiny. Good journeying, good fortune, and a good life!

Homecoming Dance

Miss Stemp, first rehearsal.

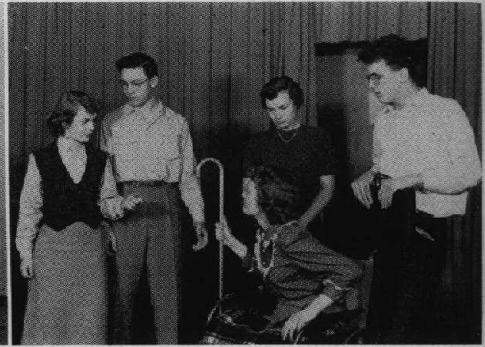

SPOTLIGHT ON

One of the tense moments in "Minor Miracle," the all-boy one-act play, that found, left to right: Wally Alexander wishing he hadn't lost the oars, Neil Adams cursing the whole situation, Jack Kirkby praying for rain, and Greg Wold trying to spot the distant shore.

"The dog's dead, ma'm!" This astounding statement, uttered by Barbara Banghart, was the turning point of the one-act play, "Mushrooms Coming Up." Beattie Bornemeier, left, and her guests, seated left to right, Barbara Olson, Nancy Lane and Mary Netwig were much disturbed over the calm announcement! It seems the dog had devoured some of the same mushrooms that they had had for lunch!

Suspense, drama, and mystery were the formula for the one-act play, "High Window." Lois Lenberg, left, solved the mystery and helped Jack Brown, center, find out the truth about his supposedly crippled aunt, Dorothy Hartigan. Geri Dodge and Bob Jaeger were also under the domination of Dorothy.

Even Pixie, who played the part of Bonnie Bell in the one-act "Mushrooms Coming Up," had to prepare for her entrance with Margie Kirscht applying the powder, and Doris Lyde fixing her tresses.

Grease paint, rouge, eyebrow pencil, liner—all that and more goes into makeup for a play. Left, Mary Donnell applies the powder to Nancy Lane, Lois Lenberg is having her eyebrows dusted by Barbara Kokum, and Joan Lacey puts the finishing touches on Dorothy Hartigan.

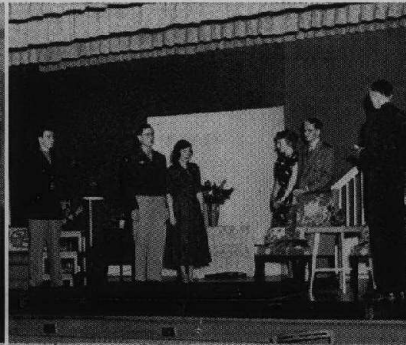

DRAMATICS

Miss Stemp, last rehearsal.

It's lilac time! These major dramatics students reported for "lilac duty" to help make dozens of them for the production of "Dear Ruth."

"Do you take this man for your lawful wedded husband?" was the question put before Barbara Kokum, center, during this scene in "Dear Ruth." Her husband to be was played by Jack Brown. The witness, left: Neil Adams. The witnesses, right: Dorothy Hartigan and Jack Kirkby. The judge: John Day.

The dramatics department received its greatest honor this year when it was accepted in the National Thespian Society, honorary high-school dramatics organization. Twenty students met the rigid requirements to become a lifetime Thespian. The officers, left to right: Barbara Kokum; Geri Dodge, acting treasurer in the absence of Joan Lacey; Barbara Olson; Barbara Banghart; Miss Stemp.

September 7—Opening day of fall term

Oh, that seven o'clock alarm!

September 16—First football game, Niles vs. Steinmetz

"Do they wear gold? Yeah man!" The Trojans made a good showing at our first home game, but Steinmetz won 7-6!

September 28—First See Chicago Club Trip, Railroad Fair

Even the rain and cold couldn't stop us that night. We serenaded the audience at the "Wheels-a-Rolling" pageant by standing and singing "Nilehi" at the top of our lungs . . . we had to do something to keep warm!

October 6—Magazine Sales Campaign Assembly

The start of the first magazine drive at Nilehi. We set our goal at $10,000 and everyone put his "shoulder to the wheel."

October 12—Columbus Day recess

Ah, sweet liberty! Love that guy Columbus.

October 15—See Chicago Club Trip, Brookfield Zoo

The question is, were there more monkeys inside or outside the cages?

October 19—Magazine Sales Campaign closes

Grand total $9,400 . . . we had a right to be proud of ourselves!

October 27—Homecoming Rally

The fellas looked so-o-o-o cute leading us in cheers with babushkas tied demurely around their heads. The snake dance? Well, who needs arms anyway?

October 28—Homecoming game with Leyden

"Go Niles; beat Leyden!" We did too, 7-0, and brought the season to a close with a total of five wins and three losses.

October 29—Homecoming dance, The Gridiron Glide

Personally autographed paper footballs signed by the senior players decorated the walls, while Buddy Mars furnished the music.

November 5—G.A.A. Jean Jump

"Swing your gal and promenade all!!

November 8—Parents' Night

Confused fathers and mothers dashed around for a couple of hours trying out the schedules of their bewildering offspring!

November 14—See Chicago Club Trip, Tribune Tower

We got a sneak preview of Dick Tracy's hunt for "Itchy" a week before it hit the newsstands. Some of the kids were lucky enough to get the official workman's paper hat as we saw the process involved in sending a big newspaper to press.

November 17—Three-Act Play, Dear Ruth

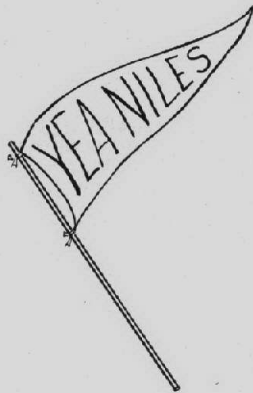

Miriam's "morale-building" activities got the whole Wilkins family in hot water as one of the year's funniest comedies was presented at Nilehi by the "Spotlighters."

November 18—First Basketball game, Niles vs. LaGrange

The cheerleaders' new uniforms were only one of the bright spots of the evening. Another was the terrific 50-41 score racked up against LaGrange. Cooley's here we come!

November 23—Football Athletic Awards assembly

Aw, come on, Mac . . . open the present!

November 24—First day of Thanksgiving recess

Three whole days to stuff ourselves and take it easy. Sigh, solid comfort!

December 4—See Chicago Club Trip, Maxwell Street, China Town

Can't say that Maxwell Street is the most attractive place in the world . . . In China Town we filled up on Chow Mein and Egg Foo Young while examining our purchases of the day.

December 11—Christmas Vespers

Gave us the first honest-to-goodness Christmasy feeling.

December 17—First day of the Christmas Vacation, Christmas Dance

Woke up at 7 o'clock, force of habit maybe. Santa himself presided at the dance. The place was so crowded we could hardly breathe. Oh, well . . . we didn't want to dance anyway.

January 2—First day after Christmas Vacation

And what did you do New Year's Eve? HmMMMMM?

January 4—Dental survey

Ouch!

January 26—First day of semester exams

Yawn-n-n-n! Now what general was that who was equal to the side of a triangle?

January 27—Last day of First Semester

Next semester I'm going to start studying. . .

February 11—Spotlighter's Dance, Cupid's Capers

The first dance in the history of the drama club. Hearts and cupids were the order of the evening, while a big rag-doll was queen of the ball.

February 18—See Chicago Club Trip, Cook County Jail

Maybe Miss Harbert had an ulterior motive for taking us here, 'spose? Did anyone make sure we came back with the same number we started out with?

February 22—Washington's Birthday

Who said we're backward at Nilehi? Just because the weatherman decided to give us a holiday February 14, we had to go to school on George's Birthday.

February 24—One-Act Plays

Ah, men! Nilehi's first all-boy cast in a number of years put on a terrific drama. Equally terrific were two other mixed casts presenting a comedy and a mystery.

March 1—Regional Tournament, Niles vs. Barrington

Nobody had a voice after this one! We won 42-41!! Cooley's will never be the same.

March 2—Regional Tournament, Niles vs. New Trier

Not even Mr. Hussey gave homework that night! We held our own most of the way, but just couldn't make it. The final score: Niles 39; New Trier 45. We closed the season with a total of 8 wins and 15 losses.

March 23—Water Carnival

"We're off to see the Wizard. . .the wonderful Wizard of Oz." Even the tin man and the scarecrow were there to see the bathing beauties. The swimmers did their usual good job.

April 2—Washington Trip begins

Grand Central Station was filled to the brim with excited students, anxious parents, and over-flowing suitcases as 182 Nilehi juniors and seniors started on one of the most awaited events of the year.

April 3—First day of Spring Vacation

Let's see, today I'll sleep. . .and tomorrow? Well, tomorrow I'll sleep too! And Wednesday. . .

April 7—Last day of Washington Trip

We had a (y-a-w-n) wonderful (y-a-w-n) trip (z-z-).

April 10—First day of school after vacation

Conversations such as these were never-ending: "Remember that first night on the train when we all got so much sleep?" "Yep, and what about those big state-rooms on the boat!" "Listen, that's nothing. . .remember the moron who walked all the way up and down the Washington Monument and didn't even look out the windows at the top?" (Un-huh, the Washington trip was definitely a success.)

April 21—Eighth Grade Night

Freshies-to-be got their first look-see of high school life. Gee, they get smaller every year!

April 22—G.A.A. Turnabout

We didn't mind as confused people stared stupidly at us when they saw the fella with the flower, the girl driving the car, and the girl paying the check. After all, customs are customs.

May 5—Spring Concert

"Some Enchanted Evening" is exactly what this was, with songs from "South Pacific" taking the spotlight.

May 12—Three-Act Play, Mother is a Freshman

Grease paint, powder, lights, good hard work all went into this, the last play of the year, to make it a smashing success.

May 27—See Chicago Club Trip, Starved Rock

Maybe it would have been a good idea to leave some of us down in Devil's Canyon. . .think so?

June 2—Spring Athletic Awards assembly

Aw, come on, Mac. . .open the present!

June 3—Junior Prom

Need I say more?

June 9—Senior Examinations

Why didn't I study harder these last four years?

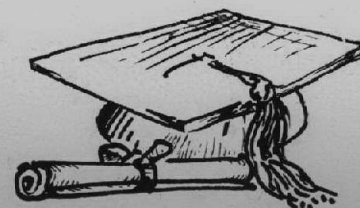

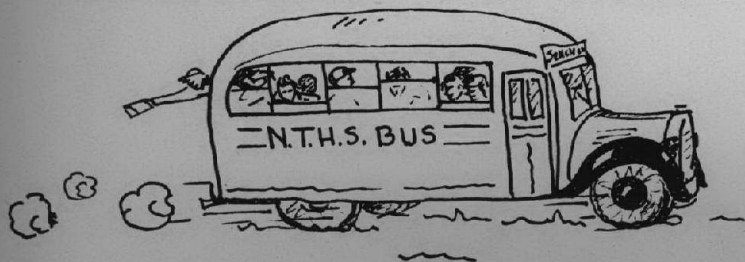

June 15—Senior Breakfast

We all found our destination in life and ate our last bit of Katie's swell cooking.

June 15—Commencement

Thus, some of us with tears in our eyes and others with happy smiles step up to receive the piece of paper that marks the end of a long pull. . .one that was full of fun, sadness, and work. Good luck, kids!

Yearbook Staff

Nihilite Staff

"You have a story due Wednesday." "I'm sorry, this is too long; cut off that last paragraph!" Commands such as these were issued frequently by the above editors to the able reporters of the journalism class. First row, left to right: Barbara Kokum, Joyce Swartz, Pete Heiniger, Joan Lacey. Second row, left to right: Marcia Saar, Lois Lasher, Jack Netland, Lois Lenberg. Third row, left to right: Pat Walne, Dick Swanson, Mary O'Hara, Eleanor Smith, Dorothy Hartigan, Mr. Eberhardt, sponsor.

Financial Staff

Financing the yearbook is no snap, as this group well knows. The 1950 REFLECTIONS literally "went to press" through the leadership of this group and its successful magazine drive.
 Seated, left to right: Joan Searing, Ruth Wenzel, Joanne Van Horne.

Golden Galleon Staff

The GOLDEN GALLEON sails this year with a good crew of hard working editors under the supervision of Mrs. Rice.
 Seated, left to right: Dorothy Hartigan, Geri Dodge, Diane Coleman, Barb Gunsaulus, Barbara Black, John Young.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUBS

French Club Officers

Going to see French movies and visiting French restaurants are just a few of the activities of this club.

Sitting: Marilyn Martin, Barbara Olson.

Standing: Miss Small, sponsor, Mary Weimer.

Latin Club

These Latin students are dressed in the costumes in which they attended the Roman banquet which was given by the Latin Club.

Second-Year Spanish Class

These senores y señoritas are busy learning their ABC's in Spanish!

Fifth row, Bruno Dal Corobbo. Miss Hannum is at the board.

German Club Officers

This, one of Nilehi's most active Foreign Language Clubs, has many activities throughout the year, such as seeing German operas and visiting old German restaurants.

Photography Club

"... and I owe all my success in photography to the good start I got at Nilehi in the photo club." This could very easily be a remark made by any one of the following students:

Traffic Patrol

The Traffic Patrol, begun this year by Miss Harbert, has done a wonderful job in keeping the parking lots in order during the after-school rush!

Seated, left to right: Bill Straw, Dick Swanson, Lon Keeseey, Roger Schweger, Tom Brice.

Visual Aids Club Officers

These boys have a good loud "thanks" coming for their efforts in the showing of movies about science, English, and history in many different classes.

Sitting, Jay Dahm.

Ni Hi Sci Club Officers

100 Per Cent Club Officers

Red Cross Club Officers

Third row: Edith Brunt, Elaine Loeding.

National Honor Society

These seniors are holders of one of the highest awards a high-school student can receive, membership in the National Honor Society. The honor is based on the student's scholarship, service, leadership and character.

Forensic Club

This group was arguing all year long! The debate teams, under the supervision of Mr. Betts, took part in many inter-school debates and produced a very good record.

Seated, left to right: Junarden Williams, Joan Van Parys, Barbara Shields, Nancy Gerhardt, Marcia Saar, Joyce Van Parys.

See Chicago Club Captains

"We have to wait for Bob and Jim!" "Is Bev coming?" These are familiar cries to all See Chicago Club members when the captains check to see if all are "present and accounted for" on the numerous club trips.

Library Staff

Hearty applause is due these students who, under the able direction of Miss Walker, have helped us find material for themes, checked out our books, and performed many other useful services.

Ushers Club

Officers

Acknowledgements

In sincere appreciation we, the general staff, wish to thank the many people who gave us so much help and co-operation in the planning and production of this book: Mr. Paul M. Eberhardt, sponsor of the book; Mr. Ronald VanArsdale and the entire financial staff for their successful magazine drive; Mr. Carl Burgener and the photography class for their willing aid.

Credit must be given to Ken Nordlof for his special picture work, and to Root Studios for the general photography.

We wish to thank the Meier Press for the printing and composition, and all the others who made the 1950 REFLECTIONS possible.
