Striving for a higher plateau for living
In the continuous learning process
That is life.

Controversy

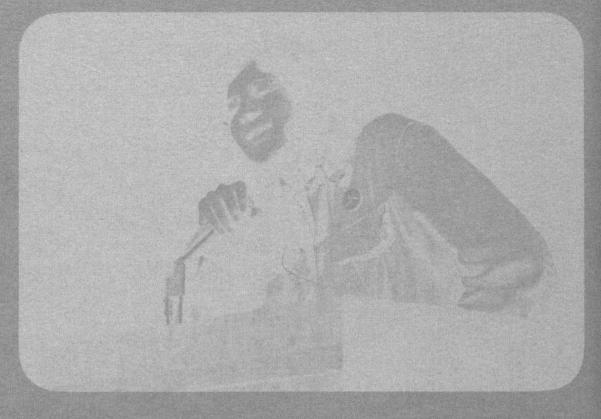

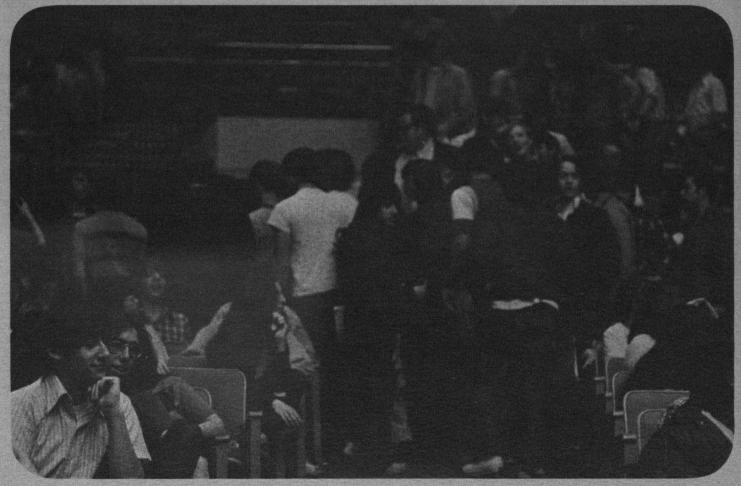

Innovation

Campaign speeches given by Scott Apton, in which he advocated changes both in the school and out, caused a violently negative reaction in some students.

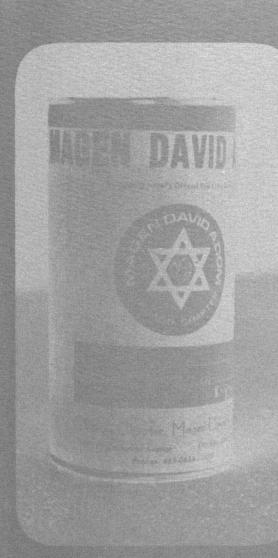

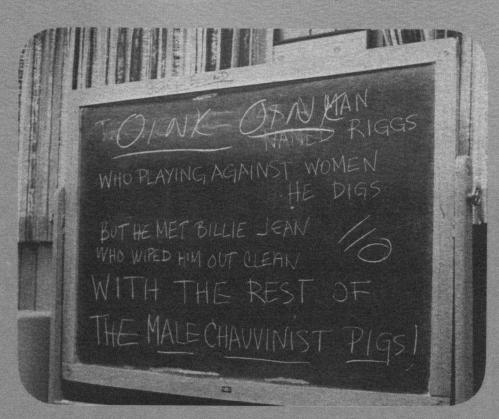

Changes implemented this year in the cafeteria unfortunately included higher food prices, reflecting the general inflation in the country. Also new was the CVE radio station which broadcasted music throughout the day, making the cafeteria and student ounge more pleasant.

Carpeting installed in the library and student lounge provided a more comfortable atmosphere for the students who visited these areas. However this purchase and the proposal for building a new pool created controversy as many felt the money could be better spent elsewhere.

Education is a social process . . .

Education is growth . . .

Education is not preparation for life;

Education is life itself.

SCIENCE

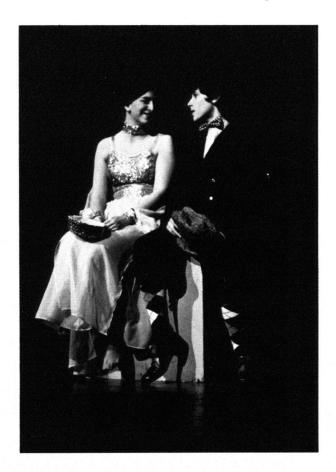

And It Came To Pass

Parallel to the anxieties of an opening night performance,
Analogous to the expectations of a long awaited dance,
Similar to the anticipation of Homecoming,
Commencement too, is the fusion of
Hopes, apprehensions and ambitions.

Life is full of opportunities
Enriching learning and enjoyment.
That certain time arrives
And the pieces are finally put together.
Suddenly everything is worthwhile
And It Came To Pass.
Now it's over, and only the memories remain.

Mame April 4 thru 7, 1973

Last year the theatre, dance, and music departments of Niles East combined to bring the musical "Mame" to the East stage.

Mother Burnside, Beauregard's mother (Cheryl Politzer '73) isn't in favor of the marriage and is very angry when Mame shows how talented she is (Center picture). Unfortunately Beauregard dies on the honeymoon, and Mame returns to her life of partying. Patrick by this time has grown up and fallen in love. Mame however, convinces Patrick to marry another girl and the play ends with Mame "adopting" Patrick's son as she had Patrick, and continuing her life of partying.

Art Show May 7 thru 10, 1973

The Art Show:

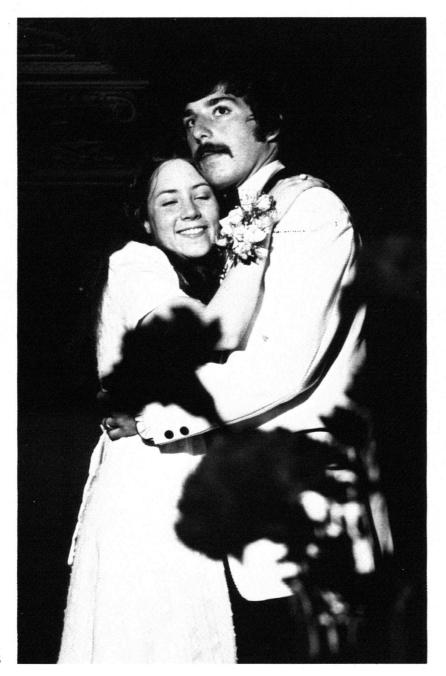

A Tremendous display of numerous forms of artwork

Painting
Macrame
Sculpture
Woodwork
Drawing

Products of the outstanding talent and creativity of our students. This year's Prom, "Moments to Remember", was filled with all the glamour and excitement that the tradition holds.

It was held in the Gold Room of the Pick Congress Hotel. The couples checked in (top center), danced to the music of Ernie Nordeen and the Versatones, and had a really great evening (below).

The court consisted of John Nikitow and Theresa Noesen, Gregg Krech and Lynn Irving, and Prom King and Queen: Dave Thomas and Janice Theodore (far right). It was truly a "Moment to Remember".

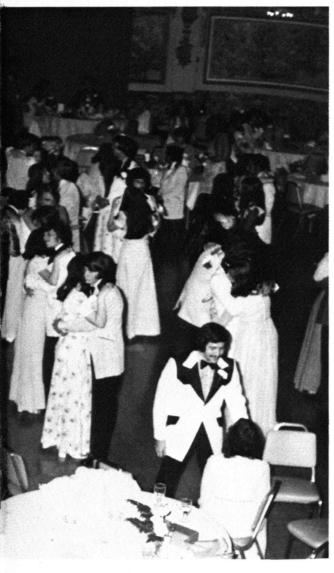

Prom May 25, 1973

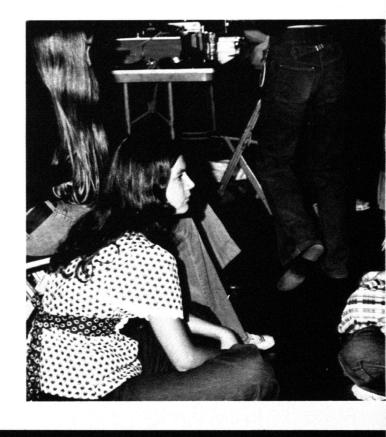

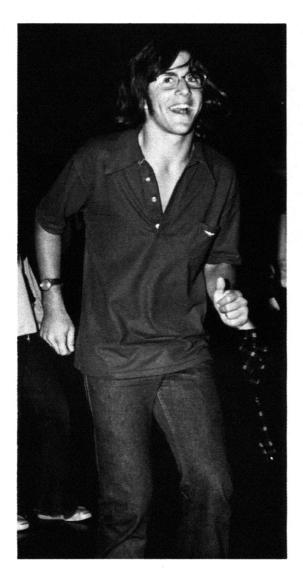

The group Source introduced the Freshman Class to their first social event of the school year. The Freshmen Mixer provided everyone with an opportunity to establish new friendships, as well as perpetuating old ties.

Dancing, talking, and sitting around was a familiar scene at the Mixer. The Class of '77 soon realized that this event paved the way for new experiences to enrich their lives.

The evening turned out to be a success with a record number of students participating in and enjoying the entertainment.

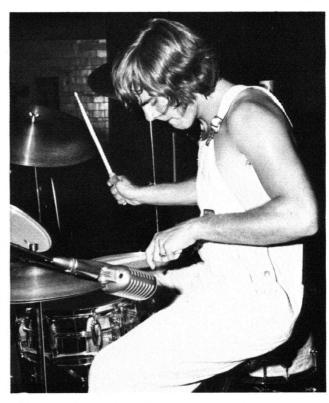

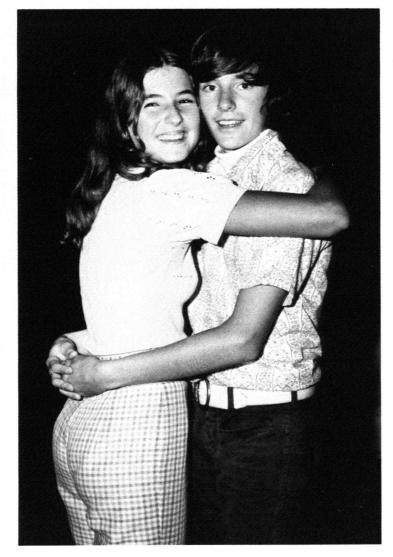

Freshman Mixer September 15, 1973

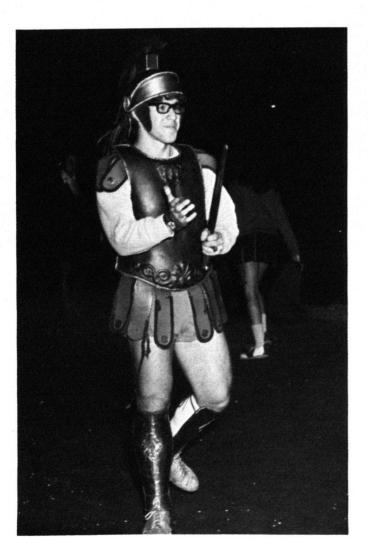

Though the weather was uncooperative, more school spirit was exhibited at this year's Homecoming by the Niles East students than in previous years. The Homecoming Committee was organized weeks in advance to prepare for the event-filled weekend. Friday night at the Twilight Pep Assembly, the small but enthusiastic crowd anxiously awaited the announcement of the new Homecoming Queen. The Court did their best to feign surprise, as Wendy Mendelssohn was declared the winner and crowned Queen (Direct Right). The Pom Pom Girls, the Cheerleaders, and the crowd led by the Trojan Mascot, Len Upin (Below), all cheered and joined in the excitement.

Afterwards participants scurried back to complete their floats for the parade the next morning. The varsity game against Maine South was a much anticipated disappointment, and although the rain poured throughout the day, the students' spirits were not dampened.

Homecoming October 27, 1973

It's a Circus World

The return of floats this year helped to bring out the enthusiasm of the students as preparation and orders were made for chicken wire, pedal paper, nails, and wood, as well as all the things that go into building a prizewinning float.

After weeks of planning and anticipation the final three days were marked with fervent activity and float building. The floats assembled at Niles East's parking lot, and were judged on creativity, originality, how well they were executed, and their relevance to the theme, "It's a Circus World." Junior Cabinet's float, "Stomp on Maine" (Above) won first place. Other prize-winning floats were: Varsity Cheerleaders, Junior Independent, Music Department, and Art Department.

The Niles East defeat: 12-6, was celebrated Saturday night in true East fashion with a Homecoming Concert-Dance. (Sue Goldstein and Henry Rollick, far lower right.) Eden Rock and Puzzle were the featured performers providing the listeners with the evening's entertainment.

Cast

Fall Play November 1 thru 3, 1973

Jean Anouilh's delightful and sophisticated comedy "Ring Round the Moon", was successfully presented last fall at Niles East. The scenery and costumes created by the student crews set the tone of this turn of the century charade.

The story centered around the attempts of a young man, Hugo, who schemed to break up the wedding engagement of his twin brother Frederic, to Diana Messerschmann, a rich society girl (Upper left). The intrigue began as Isabelle, a ballet dancer hired by Hugo, and her Mother arrived (Bottom left). Hugo's elaborate scheme backfired into success after a series of plots and sub-plots. Diana's father, his private secretary, and their common mistress (Patrice and Lady India pictured top center), a family friend Romainville, Hugo's Aunt Madame Desmortes, her faded companion Capulet (Madame Desmortes and Capulet along with Mother pictured above), and the butler Joshua, all added to the comedy.

The show was also performed at Riverside-Brookfield High School as part of the first annual Illinois Theater Drama Festival.

"Ring Round the Moon"

Madame Desmortes consoles the unhappy Frederic and Isabelle and suggests that they go off together and discuss the troubles they are having with their prospective lovers (Below left). Frederic and Isabelle announce their intent to get married, as the others look on happily surprised (Direct t right). Lady India expresses her love for Messerschmann and pleads to be allowed to follow him back to Cracow (Bottom center). Joshua, the crumbling old butler, looks puzzled as everyone makes their separate demands on him (Right center). As the show ends, Romainville is once again flustered when Isabelle announces she's going to marry Frederic (Far right).

Winter Festival December 16, 1973

The girls glee, mixed chorus, and choir together with the cadet, intermediate, and concert bands, and the orchestra have two major concerts each year: one in the spring and the other in the winter.

The Spring Music Festival took place on May 19, 1973, and consisted of fine performances by each of these groups. The choir (direct right) and the girls glee (far right) are seen as they performed various enjoyable songs.

The Winter Festival was a rather long program, featuring a number of different types of music. Instead of the traditional Christmas music, the bands and orchestra played classical as well as familiar show tunes. Among these were "The Sound of Music," played by the intermediate band, and "My Fair Lady," played by the concert band (lower left).

However the holiday spirit was not neglected and in spite of some problems due to a lack of proper preparation, the choral groups did provide a program of entertaining music, including several Christmas selections. The choir also sang, "Cabaret" and two negro spirituals: "Soon I Will Be Done," and "Ain't a That Good News."

Preparing and performing these semi-annual festivals provides interested students with an opportunity to demonstrate their talents and hard work to their fellow students and the community.

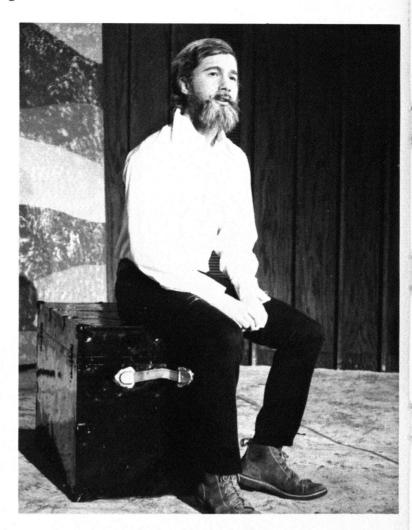

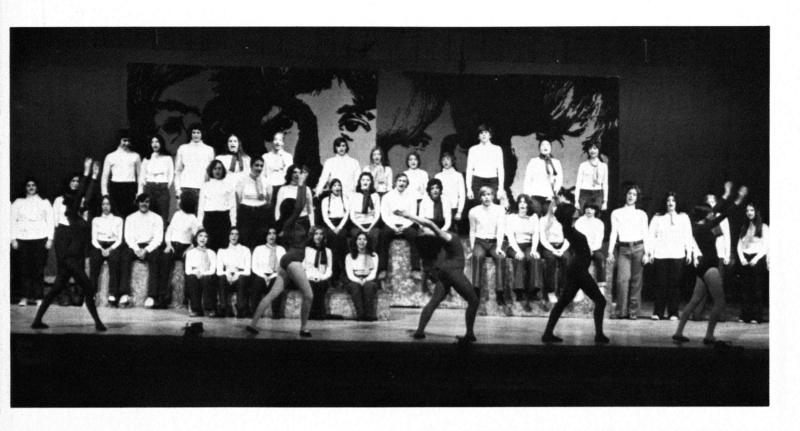

Reflections January 17 thru 19, 1974

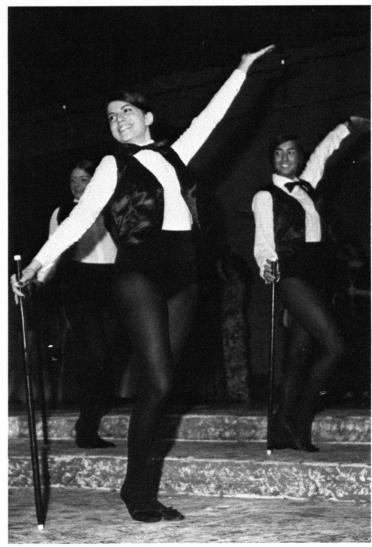

This year's Reflections previewed the work of many talented and dedicated individuals. The theme, "Yesterday and Today" seemed particularly relevant in light of the nostalgic crazes sweeping the country. Fifty years of American life - beginning with students producing and starring in a "Charlie Chaplin" movie, and ending with a ballad grieving over our countrymen lost in Southeast Asia — provided ample sources of material. The show's narrator, Daniel Rappoport (Direct Right), deftly guided the audience from one subject matter to another. The Directors - Stewart Figa and Noah Gilson, aided by Robin Bezark, Assistant; Nan Friedman and Ilene Korey, Choregraphers; Howard Pfeifer and Bruce Koestner, Musical; and Mike Jacobs, Technical (Lower Right) — blended together the acting, singing and dancing aspects of the performance. Musical numbers were varied ranging from Ed Goldstein's rendition of an old radio song (Lower Middle), to a medley of Beatle's hits (Top Right), to the charades of a "flapper" of the Golden 20's (Lower Right).

"Yesterday & Today"

Ellyce Glassner, Hillary Kramer, Jill Aronovitz, and Davi Hirsch sing of the strife of women's libbers in the 1900's in "Sister Suffregette" (Direct Right).

Marc Rush interviews Marsie Hass as she reveals the earth shattering news of her dental decay in "Interview," a farce on radio broadcasting (Opposite Left).

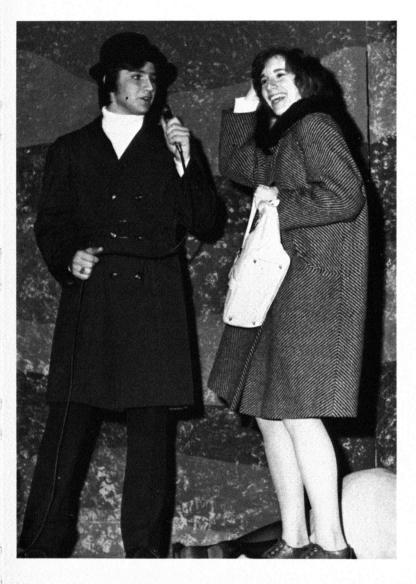

Mark Flitman as Groucho Marx promises everlasting devotion to his wealthy lover, Cheryl Esken, in "Groucho Lover" (Opposite Right).

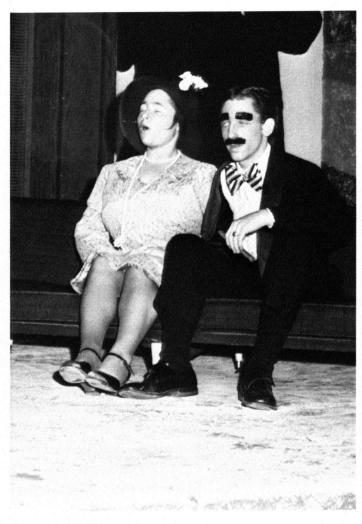

Judy Hoffman, Cheryl Esken, and Leslie Ament portray the Andrew Sisters as they sing the story of the "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" (Lower Left).

Karen Shrifter follows the advice of David Cole as she toasts living in "Gentleman Jimmy" (Lower Right).

Reflections

Bruce Brantman sings about the memories of the fifties in the number "Fabulous Fifties" (Opposite Top).

"West Side Story" a modern ballet depicting the tragedy of gang rivalry on New York's West Side touched the hearts of the entire theatre (Opposite Lower).

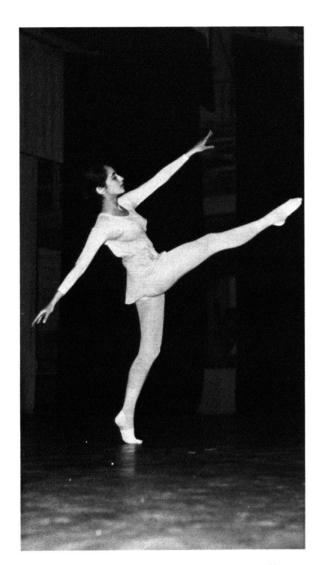

Without the help of all the behind-the-scenes crews, no show could ever go on. These hardworking, dedicated people combine their efforts to make each show a success (Top).

The band was a devoted group of musicians who remained hidden by the curtain during the entire show. The tremendous applause when they were revealed to the audience displayed the overwhelming approval of their hard work and effort (Below).

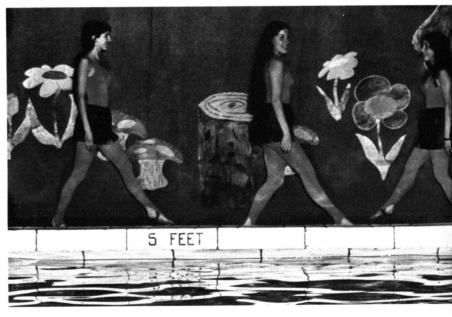

Special Events

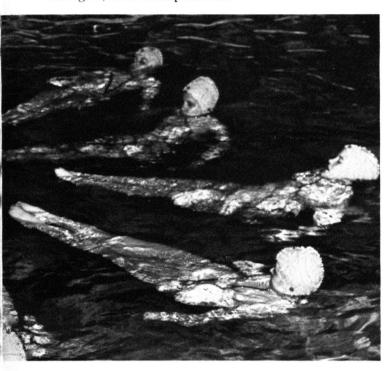

The Orchesis show, "Aesthetic Extensions" was held in the Niles East Auditorium on February 18, 1973. Nan Friedman shows the result of her hard work and practice needed to prepare for this fine show.

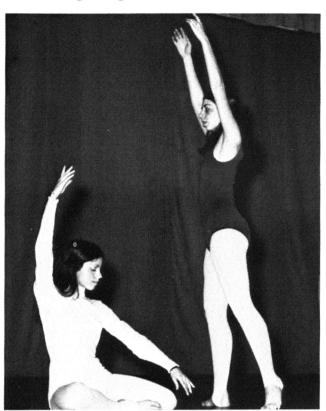

The Ripplette show was a success aided by the assistance of some members of Orchesis: Nancy Klehr, Caryn Goldstick, and Gina Salerno.

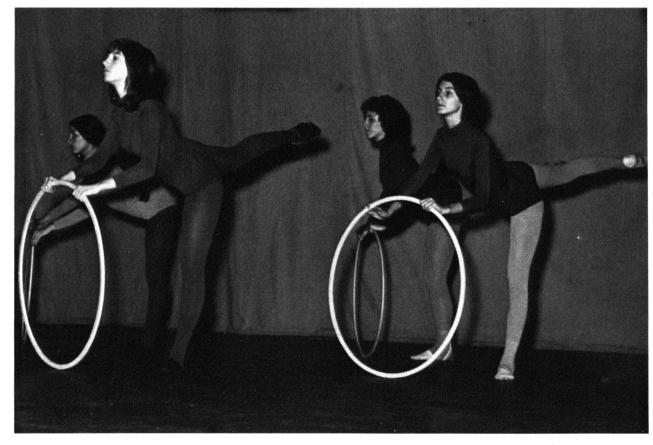

We all took a trip into "Never Never Land" as the Ripplettes produced its show, "Peter Pan" on May 5 through 7, 1973 in the pool area.

Gina Salerno and Pam Margules exhibit the grace and art of dancing during the Orchesis dance show.

Dancing can be performed in various styles as was exhibited by these Orchesis members: Caryn Goldstick, Laurie Greiman, Jill Kellner, and Nancy Klehr.

Special Events

Children's Theatre rehearses before their opening performance May 22, 1973.

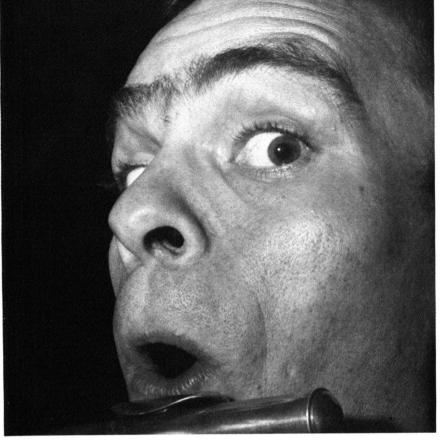

Huddled together, the teachers plan their strategy prior to the Student-Faculty Volleyball game of January, 1974, sponsored by the School Spirit Committee.

Henry Webb lends an eery tone to a benefit concert sponsored by the Special Ed. Department in November, 1973.

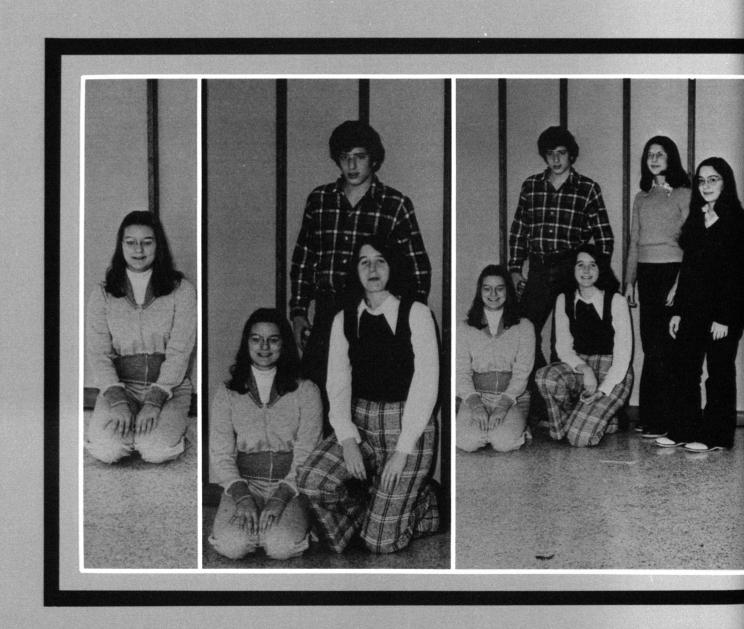

Lori Fagenholtz offers lemonade to an exchange student from Ghana at the A.F.S. International Day Luncheon held on April 6, 1973.

FOOTBALL

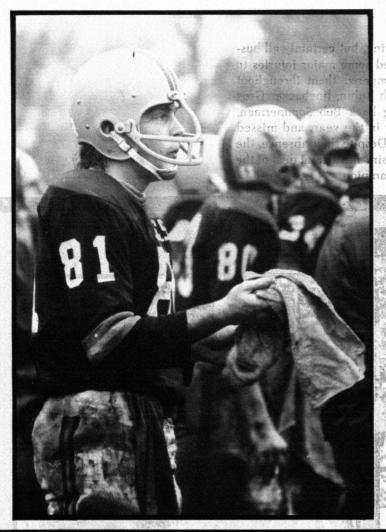

"We weren't exactly overpowering," smiled senior quarterback and captain of the Trojan football team, Leo Kelly, when asked about his 1973 team. "But we played hard and we stuck together. And when a team finished playing us — well they knew they were in a football game."

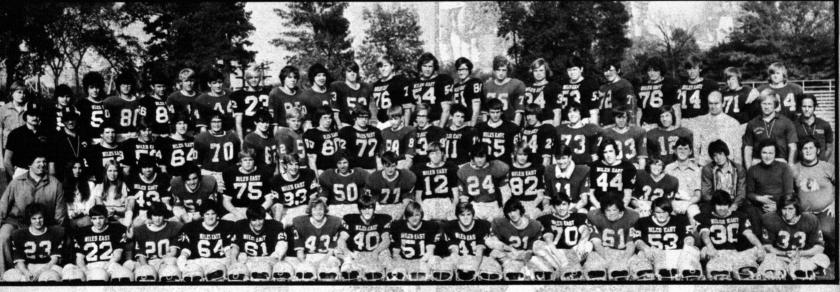

Perhaps not overpowering, but certainly all hustle, the Trojans suffered some major injuries to key players which hampered them throughout the season. Kicker Rich Rubin, linebacker Greg Saltarelli, and running back Bob Sommerman, all were injured early in the year, and missed several crucial games. Despite their absence, the Trojans played with desire and a great deal of the spirit which makes a champion.

There is more to athletics than winning. There is dedication, spirit, perseverance and above all — pride. There is more to football than the final score. It is a game of violence; it is a game of ferocity. From the time the opening whistle blows to the time the final horn sounds, the football field becomes a battlefield where each athlete must earn his respect.

In the sense that this year's Varsity Football Team earned respect from each and every team it battled, in the sense that it fought with pride, and in the sense that it possessed the spirit and attitude of a champion, Niles East produced a winning football team.

With the return of Juniors Henry Rollick, Adam Retzler, and Mike Lis and the addition of Sophomores Gary Wolf, Ralph DeBenedetto, and Jerome Alomia, next year's Varsity squad appears to have the nucleus of a team to be reckoned with.

Sadly, graduating Varsity standouts Leo Kelly, Ron Hagen, Bob Somerman, and John Cascino will never know the thrill of victory on the Varsity level. Likewise, All-Central Suburban League linebacker Bruce Brantman, whose awesome power and incredible quickness punished many a runner, All-Division guard Fred Albrecht, whose spirit and pride are insurmountable, and Honorable Mention tackle Ross Pollack, perhaps the most underrated player in the league, will never experience victory at the Varsity level either.

But they will know what it is to be a champion in the true sense — they will know what it is to have won respect.

CROSS COUNTRY

Injuries to key runners Monty Matlock and Omar Hernandez led to a disappointing conference record for the Varsity harriers. Despite this, there were many bright spots, especially Mark Scherfling, who ran consistently well. Other stars were Barry Hartman, Marty Golub and Terry Lee. The frosh-soph team was led by Mark Lichtenstein, Larry Bower and Rich Cope. Lichtenstein broke many sophomore records and was voted most valuable runner. The trio ran Varsity for part of the season. Along with returning Varsity lettermen Scherfling, Hartman and others, they make next year's Cross Country season look promising for Niles East.

Since Niles East began competing in soccer two years ago, Head Varsity Coach Sandstead has not failed to produce a marvelously exciting and successful squad. Led by Captain Phil Adelman, this year's Varsity team compiled a 9-2-1 record and at one point was ranked second in the state.

SOCCER

With a growing interest in soccer and the return next year of Varsity standouts Adelman and Hugo Donado and Sophomore Mark Brines, next year's team has a realistic chance of going downstate.

BASKETBALL

Varsity basketball captain Jim Cohn smiled with satisfaction. "We were tough this year," he said. "At one point, right after we had won our first five games in a row, the Tribune rated us second in the area, and, for the first time in a long time, people began to realize that the Trojan basketball team was for real. Even though we lost a few, we played good, hard-nosed ball."

Indeed, this year's basketball team did play with a spirit and a determination that has been absent for quite some time on the cager scene. Although Coach Gary Cook was a bit disappointed with the overall record of his Trojans, he has instilled a winning attitude at East that may make his future teams unbeatable.

To most observers this year's Niles East varsity cager season would appear rather unspectacular. Straddling the .500 mark most of the year, the Trojans played well on some nights and not at all on others. But this year's varsity team won more games than the teams of the last four years combined and they also put together the longest win streak since East finished third in the awesome Suburban League almost seven years ago.

No small factor in the Trojans' apparent turn toward success has been Head Coach Gary Cook. Completing just his fourth year at East, Cook has changed the complexion of basketball at East from dull and frustrating to rewarding and exciting. He engineered the Trojans to a Thanksgiving Holiday Tournament championship this year and is confident that next year holds even more wins in store.

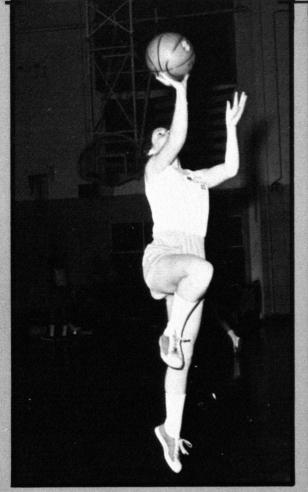

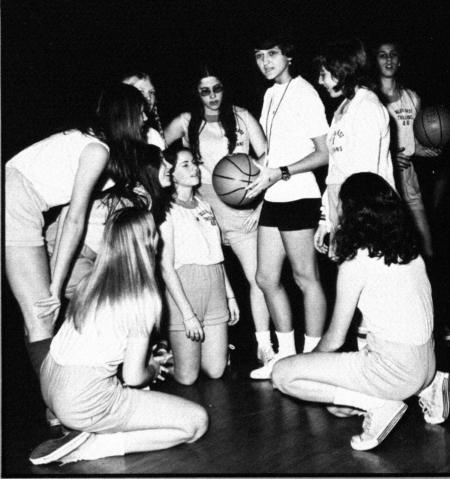

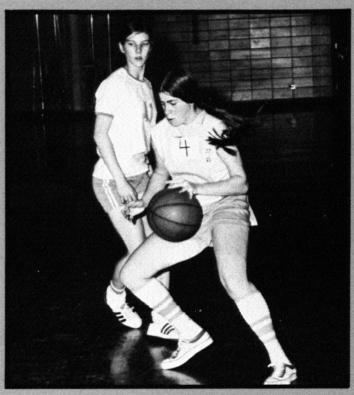

Part of Cook's optimism for the future lies in sophomores Neil Schreiber, Art Isaacs, and Mark Brines. They have the talent to form the nucleus of a Central Suburban League basketball power. Also with the improvement of Junior John Harles and the quickness of Sophomore Terry Greenberg, the Trojans, it seems, will have the depth necessary for a truly outstanding squad.

Probably, no group of people are pulling more for next year's cagers than the seven graduating players who have watched and helped Coach Cook rebuild and who have played some of the best basketball East has seen in quite sometime. Magically quick Jim Cohn, smooth Corey Levens, hustling Kurt Kiesel, powerful Len Weinstein, awesome Don Diamond, shifty Leo Kelly, and flashy Brad Lerman all will never know what it is to have dominated at the varsity level, but they will know what it is to have worked hard and to have achieved. That is something that no won and lost record can measure, it is a victory in itself.

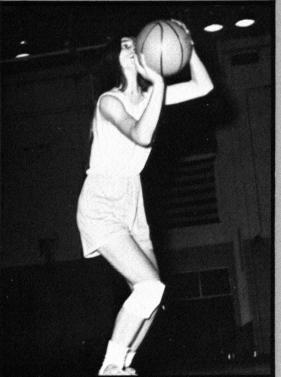

BASKETBALL

The Niles East Globetrotters, as the Girls' Basket-ball Team is fondly called, combined individual skill with teamwork to overwhelm their opponents. The girls had to develop stamina and quick reflexes in order to play the long, exerting game. They were able to take advantage of poor ball control by their opponents, and were consistent in completing successful fast-breaks, catching the other team completely off-guard. All in all, the girls proved their ability in a sport that was once limited to boys.

The volleyball season began in November with a victory over Glenbrook South. This win paved the way to an exciting season. The players were divided into a Varsity and a Junior Varsity level for competition, and both teams had the potential of playing a high caliber of power volleyball.

During a match, the girls moved quickly, jumped high, and dove after impossible balls. They also served, set, and spiked well when the pressure was on, and never gave up, even when the preceding play failed.

After a rigorous season, the Varsity team ended with a record of four wins, and three losses, and the JV wound up the season with five wins and two losses. Their optimism and skill resulted in a fine season.

GYMNASTICS

"We worked hard this year," Neal Sher, the varsity gymnasts' all-around man, stated proudly. "We thought this could be one of our best years ever and we just had to prove to ourselves that we could win."

But winning is not something unfamiliar to Coach Tom Sokalski's gymnastics teams. By far the school's most successful and well liked coach, Sokalski seems to feel that the success of his teams lies in the nature of the athletes with whom he works.

"The guys who compete in gymnastics have a pride that won't let them do anything half way. A gymnast strives for excellence — he can accept nothing less."

Over the years, pride has made Trojan gymnastics a consistent and powerful winner. Anyone who has ever competed against the Trojans knows it, but more importantly, the Trojans themselves know it. And that's what makes Coach Tom Sokalski so proud.

Finishing yet another superb season, the Niles East gymnastics squad not only captured first place in the Central Suburban League, but also first place in the hearts of many an appreciative fan. Losing only one dual meet the entire season to powerful York, the Trojans marched through a sensationally successful season which saw them beat arch-rival Niles West by a fraction of a point and crush defending champs Niles North in a stunning display of talent.

Led by Junior all-around man Neal Sher, whose versatility and grace are unsurpassed in the state, Junior Mike Burke, whose talents are awesome on the sidehorse, Senior Steve Kozub, whose dedication to the sport and self-discipline made him one of the best ring men in the school's history and Senior Scott Harrison, whose thrilling performances and incredible agility earned him the reputation of being an unparalleled tumbler, the Trojans marched on to achieve great success in state competition.

Although many outstanding seniors are graduating, among them Gary Siegel, Bill Bro, Dave Mayer, and Lorry Lichtenstein, next year's team appears to be shaping up well with the return of Sher and Burke, the addition of some remarkably capable Sophomores, and, of course, the felicitous and masterly coaching of Coach Tom Sokalaki.

The Girls' Interscholastic Gymnastics Squad had to combine rhythm and a keen sense of timing to be successful this year in the highly competitive league. In their nine meets, they learned to remain poised, even under the most tense conditions. All four events, beam, floor, horse, and uneven bars, proved exciting due to the outstanding performances turned in by the girls. Sue Kozub consistently placed high in all events, and other notable gymnasts included Carol Greenspahn, Shawn Moses, Robin Shore, Shirley Rifkind, Peg Krause, Terri Riskin, and Pam Goldberg.

Since none of the girls are seniors, they are looking forward to a one-hundred percent return next season and this should provide a strong, experienced team.

FENCING

"There has been a steady decline in interest in fencing at Niles East over the past few years. Not many boys realize how difficult fencing really is," explains fencing coach Robert Keen. "Quickness is as essential to the fencer as strength is to the football player. Fencing is no baby's game."

With not much more to say in regard to the Foilers disappointing season, Coach Keen praised captain Ron Rovner and senior Kurt Leipold, and expressed optimism for next year's squad. With the maturation of Junior Joe Jans and the increasing talents of Sophomore Jim Osness, next year's fencers may very well bring back the interest that fencing has deserved for quite some time.

BOWLING

Niles East's Bowling Team had a profitable season this year, placing consistently high in the league meets. The bowlers were divided into Varsity and Junior Varsity teams for competition, and as the Varsity team was without loss, the combined team rated first in the Central Suburban League. Special recognition must go to Lynn Dorman, whose outstanding performance merited a league trophy, and to Lisa Frank, who also had a phenomenal average.

BADMINTON

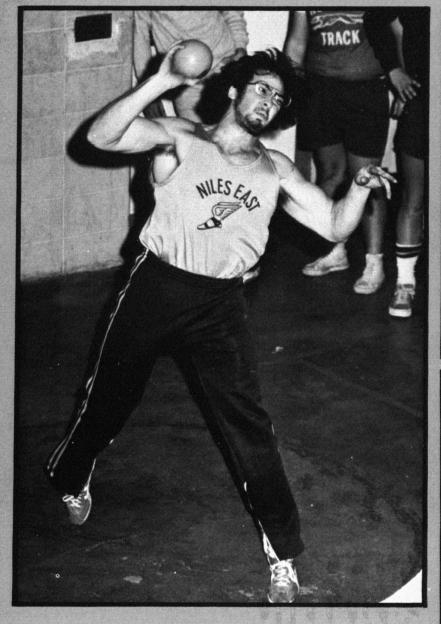

Badminton, as played by the Girls' Interscholastic Team, demands the utmost skill, speed and stamina. These highly competitive girls must have quick reflexes, and must be able to think faster than their opponents in order to have a successful season. They were an offensively strong team, but when they were forced into playing strictly defense, they were able to turn the tables, and come out on top. This is what separates a winning team from a losing team, and Niles East consistently proved their strength on the court.

There is a certain magic that flows through a trackman's body whenever he puts on a pair of sneakers. It is a thing of beauty this magic. It stirs many a runner's heart and tenses many a shot-putter's arms. It is the magic of desire; it is the magic of champions. Perhaps this year more than any other, that magic has proven its worth. The Trojan tracksters enjoyed one of the most outstanding seasons in a great while — running to victory after victory, hurdling past record after record, leaping to heights previously unattained.

But there was no magician who made Ross Pollack one of the most formidable shot-putters in the state, and there was no magician who made Al Johnson one of the swiftest sprinters in school history, and there was no magician who gave Bob Somerman the ability to run like a gazelle and shot-put like a giant. The talents of these stars all spring from honest effort and work.

So it is with pride that Omar Hernandez can recall his excellent running accomplishments and it is with pride that Coach Ristow and Coach Ferguson can look back on their 1974 track team.

For there is a magic in the way a Niles East trackman laces his shoes, it is the magic of victory.

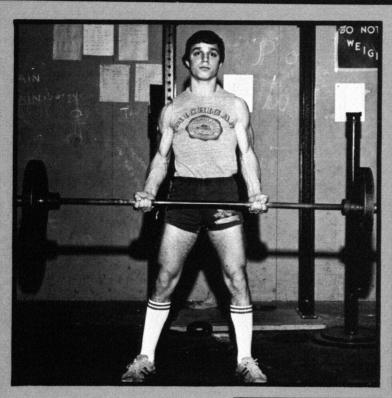

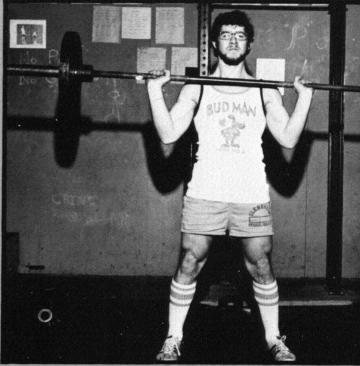

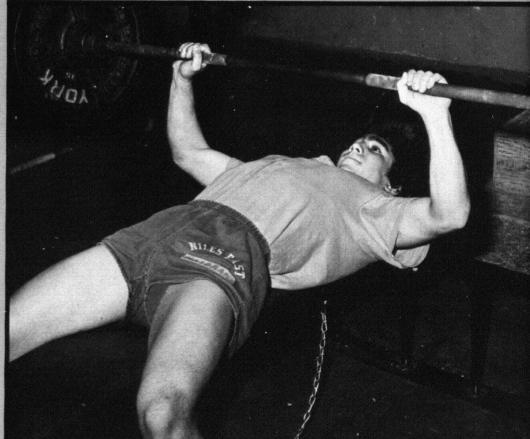

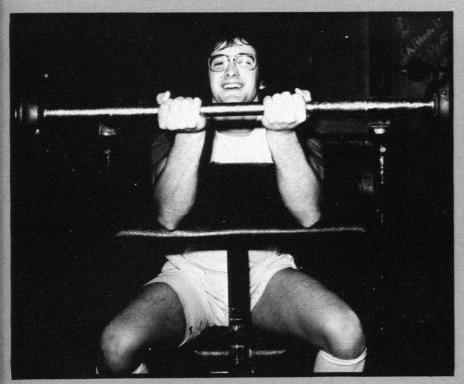

WEIGHTLIFTING

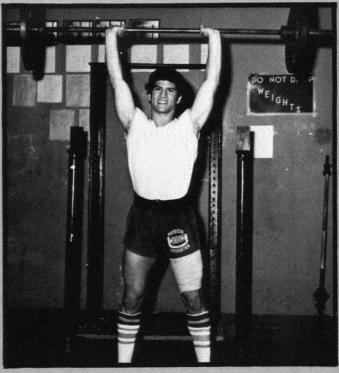

There are not too many sports fans who do a lot of talking about weightlifting. Over the years it has characteristically remained out of the limelight. But fame and renown are not what weightlifters seek and whether there are big crowds at crucial meets or not does not concern them. They lift for power and are occupied only with thoughts of individual and team achievement. It does not matter if the newspapers fail to report a new lifting record or a team victory. There is no glamour to weightlifting — only pride.

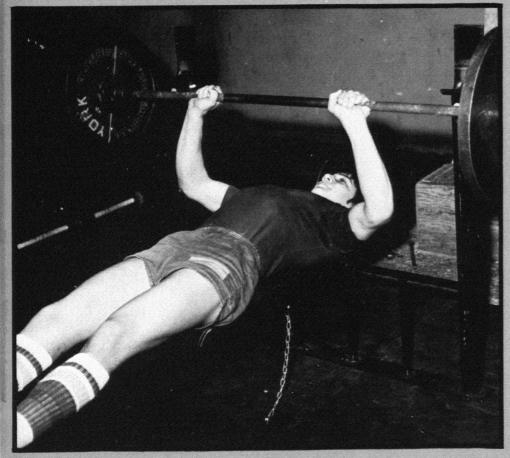

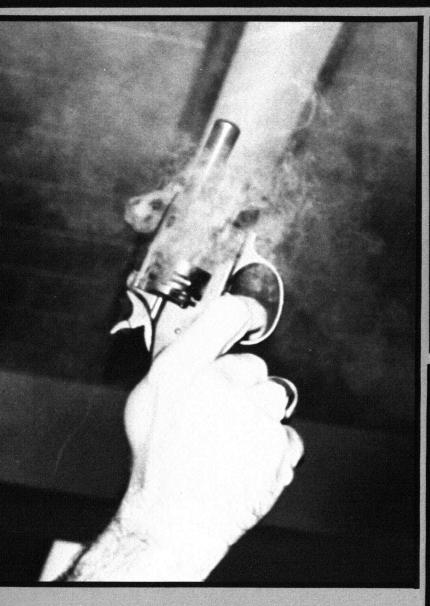

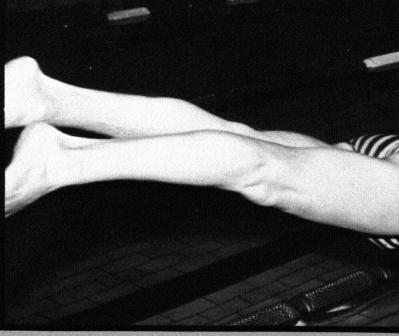

SWIIMMING

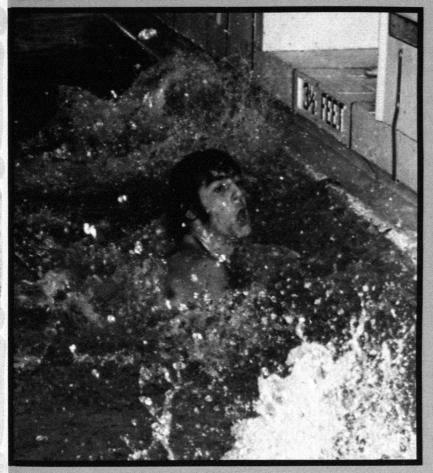

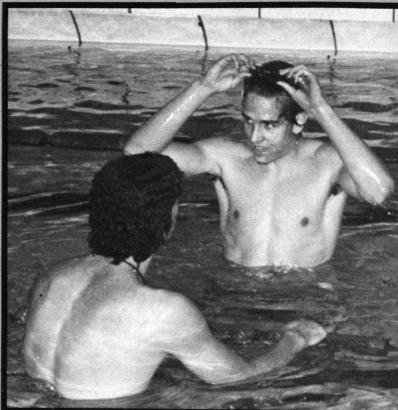

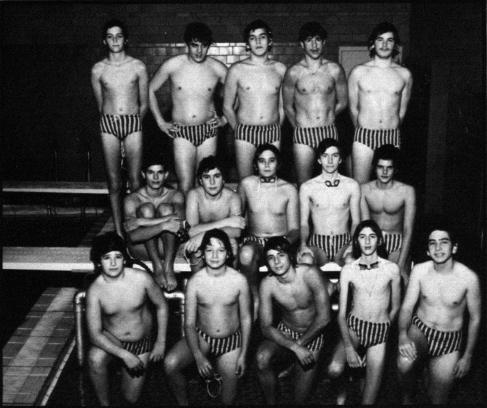

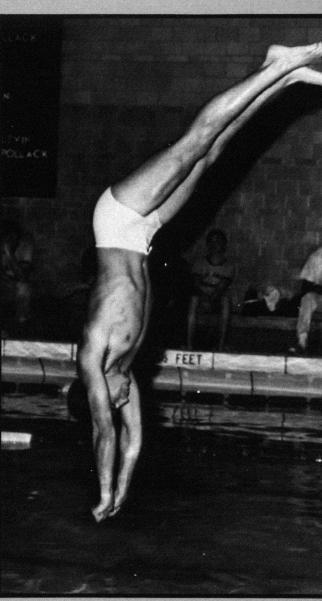

Though the Varsity swimming team was not large this year, Coach Larson can be proud of the individual performances turned in by many of the swimmers. Senior Andy Ruttenberg came close to breaking the school 100 yard freestyle record. He swam consistently well all season, as did breast-stroker Keith Baker. Juniors Ed Naumes and butterfly specialist Rich Berkowitz also excelled. The varsity swimmers had a disappointing record, but managed to exhibit some fine performances during this season.

The sophomores fared little better, but provide hope for next year due to the fine swimming of Phil Auerbach, Howard Nelson and superstar Bob Torstensson. Torstensson set a school varsity 500 yard freestyle record and a sophomore 200 yard individual medley record. The freshmen finished with a near .500 season and were led by Dan Projansky, Brad Goldenberg, and Ed Levine. Together with the sophomores, they make the future of swimming at Niles East look bright indeed.

The Girls' Swimming Team plunged right into their second season with a tri-meet at Maine East. During the season they competed in a total of six meets, each consisting of eleven swimming events and a series of dives. Even though their coach worked them hard and systematically, their win-loss record left plenty of foom for improvement.

Since most of the team members were underclassmen, there is much promise for a future winning team.

TRACK

Spring 1973 saw another first in Niles East sports history — a Girls' Interscholastic track team. The four meet season ended with the big event of each year, district competition. The top two scorers from each school in each of the fourteen events were invited to the meet. Out of fifteen teams competing, the girls finished eighth.

The team worked hard all season long, not only battling against four tough Central Suburban League teams, but running the meets in cold, rainy weather. Their dedication and enthusiasm made up for the season's poor standings. The track and field team includes (Top Row, Left to Right): J. Sochacki, K. Klein, M. Binnall, S. Krause, M. May, S. Uhle, P. Winans (co-captain), D. Solberg, K. Lee, Coach Totemeier. (Second Row): R. Leff, D. Loeser, S. Kozub. (Third Row): E. Zannis, N. Seiden, L. Friedman, C. Jones, M. Helfgott, N. Ekstrom. (Fourth Row): C. Mitchell, J. Lettick, A. Stern, T. Kokotek, T. Huepfl. (Bottom Row): S. Krupnick, M. Brzozowski, and P. Krause.

ARCHERY

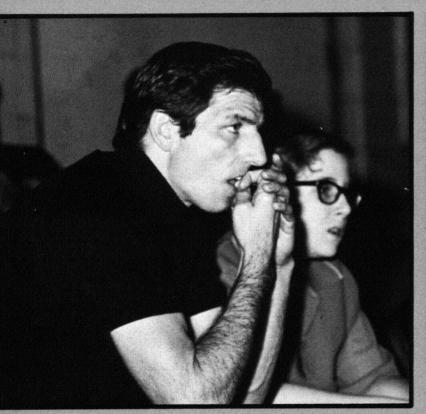

This was only the second year for the girls' Interscholastic Archery Team; yet, there was a big turnout, showing the interest that these two years developed. The twenty-one hard working girls earned their right to participate in each of the seven meets by their scores in the practice session. Even though the team's losses outnumbered their wins, the year was a success considering the competition they faced.

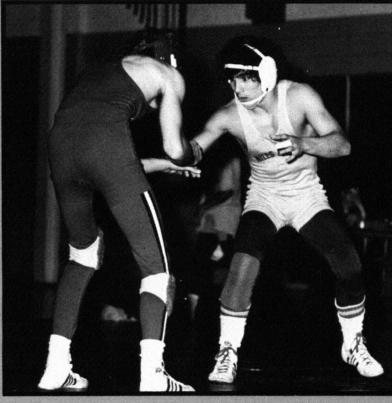

The team members were (Bottom Row, Left to Right): S. Hamer, M. Achimovich, E. Masover, F. Shapiro, M. Metzger, C. Jacobson, D. McCormack, S. Fox (co-captain). (Second Row): Coach Aradi, L. Graff, E. Gill, J. Schwartz, G. Kogan, K. Rian, Coach Whyman. (Third Row): M. McCracken, K. Lee, P. Schoenwolf, L. Maylahn (Captain), A. Berg, L. Cole, B. Maierhofer, and M. Williams.

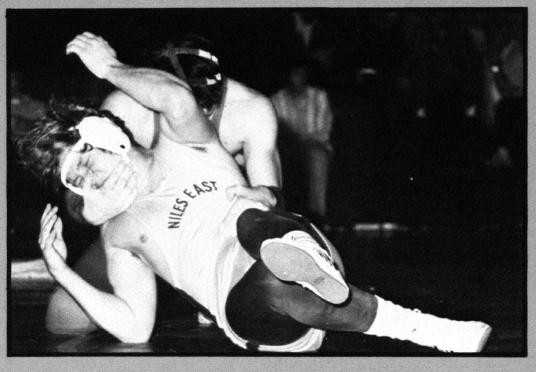

The 1973-1974 wrestling campaign was not what everyone had hoped for. Injuries to key grapplers and training problems plagued Coach Fred Richardi's matmen from the start. Despite their unspectacular finish this year, the Trojans did demonstrate some of the qualities upon which championships are built.

WRESTLING

Senior Len Upin, although hampered by leg injuries, time and again lifted the spirits of his fellow teammates with his honest enthusiasm and spirit. Graduating powerhouse Fred Albrecht demonstrated an unparalleled pride which brought him victory even in defeat. Junior Jeff Rock, a definite contender for the state crown next year, dazzled his opponents with speed and quickness while roaring through an almost flawless season. Senior Larry Yale showed not only dedication but talent and power as he enjoyed his most rewarding season ever.

As for the future of wrestling — it seems to be in good hands. Sophomore Joe Colucci seems headed for stardom and Juniors Dave Mamot and Scott Hite look to be fine, strong and sharp wrestlers. Of course Rock will be back next year and so also may be the victories that proved so elusive in the past year.

The Freshmen team members are (Bottom Picture, Top Row, L. to R.): Coach Schuesteff, S. Rosen, B. Cohen, S. Ediden, T. Tiagonce, B. Hoffman, D. Ullberg, M. Michaels. (Middle Row): J. Schimann, M. Barenbaum, D. Stone, D. Liv, B. Blumenthal, S. Sonderman, J. Stoneberg, M. Gotthelf. (Bottom Row): S. Niguts, G. Tonsul, M. Dorman, D. Hinske, J. Strauss, R. Politzer, M. Sunshine, D. Lutz.

Once again the Niles East Tennis squad established itself as a major force in the League. With doubles team Gene Guerrero and Jim Cohn, who last year finished eighth in the state tournament, and singles players Scott Skaletsky and Dennis Kaplan, Coach Winans' Netters proved to be capable winners.

TENNIS

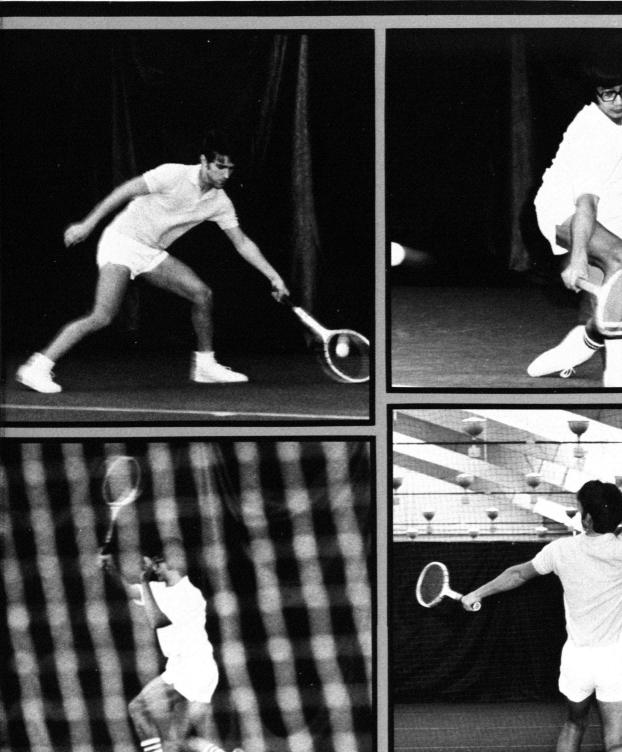

Next year's Varsity team appears to have even more promise with the addition of Sophomore star Jeff Epstein and the return of Guerrero.

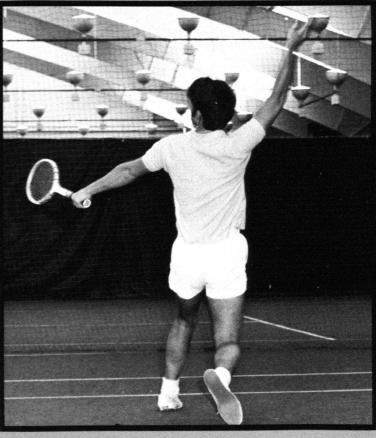

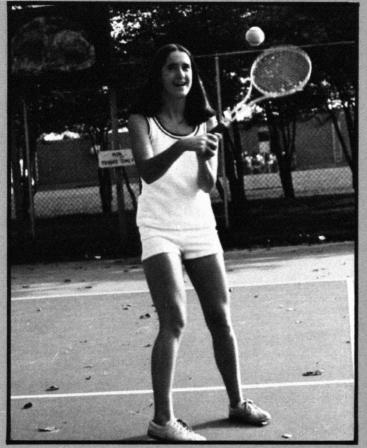

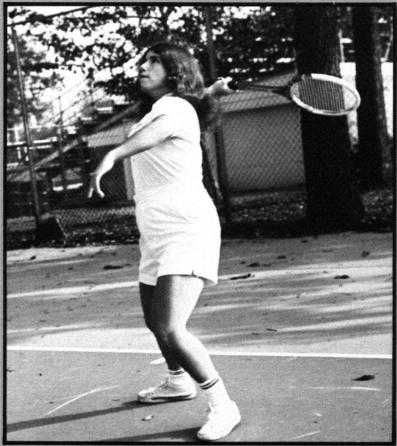

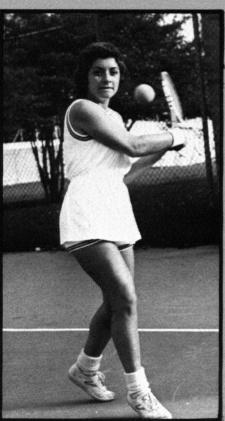

TENNIS

The Racketeers were aggressive as usual this year, placing second in the Central Suburban League with a record of 3-2.

Twenty-five girls participated during the season, six of whom were eligible to play in the district meet which was held at Niles North in October. These six participants were: Pam Winans, Marcy Helfgott, Sherrie Friedman, Tammy Lothan, Nancy Hirsh, and Sheryl Esken. The team placed third in the meet behind New Trier East and New Trier West.

The tennis season ended with the League meet in which Tammy Lothan and Sherrie Friedman took first place and Pam Winans took second.

A congratulations goes to the team for a terrific season despite the many obstacles in their way.

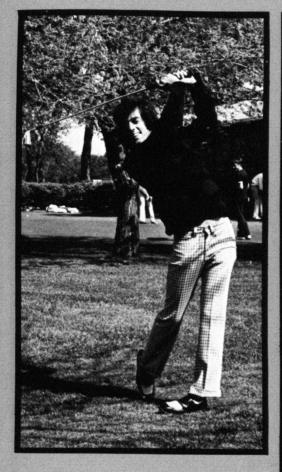

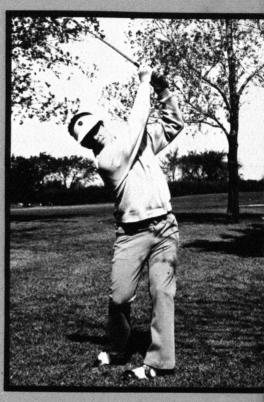

The participating team members were (First Row): R. Kempner, R. Davis, A. Stern, S. Friedman (captain), K. Ambrose, T. Lothan, J. Oif, A. Cohen, J. Fern, P. Winans, D. Solberg, D. Gerber. (Second Row): B. Dolnick, B. Spitz, M. Helfgott, D. Hirsch, and S. Esken.

GOLF

This year's Golf team rolled through one of its best seasons ever, winning decisively and with consistency. Finishing the year in style, Coach Jerry Oswald's golfers impressed their opponents, spectators, and coach alike. "This is one of the truly outstanding teams in quite a while," Coach Oswald bragged. "And this may only be the beginning.

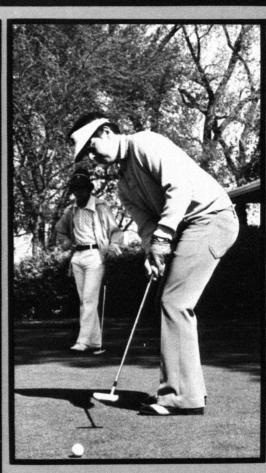

Indeed, with next year's return of Sophomore sensation Flip Gagerman, the sky may be the limit for the Trojan golfers. Gagerman, who won the district meet as a Freshman, may very well be the state champion before his East-Hi playing days are over. Complementing Flip this year were the top notch performances of Seniors Andy Rutenberg and Mike Rzadzski. They added a depth to the squad that made the Trojans a veritable golfing power.

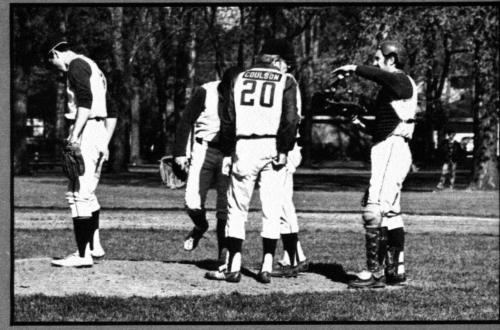

BASEBALL

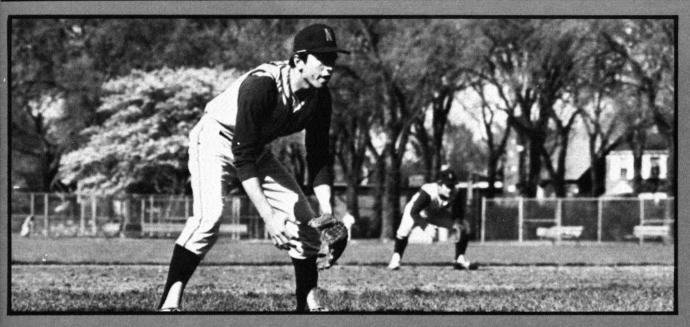

This year's baseball team, lead by Rich Rubin and Ronnie Kleinschmidt, proved to be more than capable and emerged as one of the truly great East teams in quite awhile. With the speed and defensive ability of Mark Zolt and the punch provided by Kurt Kiesal, the Trojans were the team to beat all season.

Teamwork and a positive mental attitude characterized the baseballers this year as it has in the past. Every player ended the season with the knowledge that it takes a full team to win, not just a few standouts. Hopefully, that philosophy will stay with East for a long time to come.

1973 was the first year for girls' interscholastic softball at Niles East. Charlotte Vanderwilt and student teacher Jean Adams together coached the "A" and "B" teams. Their season consisted of a total of eleven games. Returning to action in 1974 were the girls whom the teams voted as the most valuable players: shortstop Lynn Dorman and second baseman Linda Krysl. Also returning were pitchers Sue Arnopolin and Pat Sochacki, and relief pitchers Debbie Hausman and Melinda Metzger. Melinda was also used extensively in the infield. Donna Gerber rounded out the "A" team infield as third baseman. Although the teams' records were mediocre, they improved noticeably with practice and experience.
