Dear Margie,
It's been lots of
in this year doubling th year. I hope and Howie stay rather and have many more good times.

Dora Kosmo

Dear Marge -
Can you remember when we first came into homeroom 102? Things haven't changed too much and I hope
they never will.
Betty Reuther

Margie,
Best of luck
in your last year
at Niles.
Jack Hewlin
P.S. Will never forget Betts.

Marge (Shag)
I remember (the first) a couple of years ago when it's just call me when some do. When you young it's in your spirit always!

The Board of Education

To the Class of 1948:

The members of the Board of Education congratulate the class of June, 1948, on its good record of scholarship and citizenship. They hope that the sincere efforts of teachers, advisers, and Superintendent Biehn have given this outstanding group such attitudes and abilities as will make the commencement of activities away from Niles Township High School equally worthwhile and enjoyable.

Our Superintendent

A. L. Biehn, A.B., A.M., Ph.D.

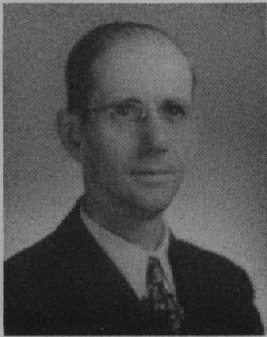

To the Seniors of 1948:

The pleasure which comes from four years of associating with you is equalled only by the satisfaction which results from witnessing your ascent up life's ladder of success. If you have developed some confidence, acquired the problem-solving technique, and discovered your personal aptitudes, your foundation stones have been well laid. Let me hasten to remind you that even the most rugged foundation will soon deteriorate if exposed and unused. It therefore behooves you to develop the skills and abilities which you have discovered, and to exercise your problem-solving technique, lest it become a lost art. Thus by planning wisely and acting quickly, your success is inevitable.

General Staff

Since the beginning of the school year, the General Staff, under Mr. Eberhardt's supervision, has spent several periods a week and many hours outside of school to complete this yearbook. A list of the many obstacles to be overcome by the staff would take more space than the reader would want us to use.

STANDING: Sam Boznos, Don Racine, Jim Schilling, Mr. Eberhardt.

SITTING: Adeline Bonaguro, Joan Harrer, Phyllis Yates, Kathy Russakov, Bonnie Webster, Barbara Votava, Mari Cysewski.

Senior-Faculty Staff

Under the direction of Miss Grace Pendleton, adviser, and Charlene Jacobson, chairman, the Senior-Faculty Staff of the yearbook took a big job upon themselves in scheduling the senior and faculty picture sittings, in arranging the pictures for the yearbook paste-ups, and in preparing the senior activity lists.

Financial Staff

Much credit should be given to the Financial Staff under the supervision of Mr. Van Arsdale. It was their endless job to raise funds to make your yearbook possible.

ROW 1 (left to right): Jane Arnold, Evelyn Cole, Barbara Gerhardt, Mr. Van Arsdale, Marcy Connell, Jean Votava, and Catherine Gerich.

Journalism

The Nilehilite was published by this group, which also wrote the stories about school activities appearing in the five local newspapers.

At table: Lyle Dye, Don Brown, Bill Comstock.

ROW TWO: Danna Barbour, Doris Bernges, Nancy Borneman, Phil La Veau, Ken Gregor, Lee Harrer, Rudy Schmid.

ROW THREE: Bill Fortman, Deane Liesveld, Patty Meyer, Mary Morse, Dick O'Brien, Bill Neuson, Ed Linskey, Roger Coverley.

ROW FOUR: Don Dadigan, Carol Schuler, Bill Wokoun, Jim Schilling, Eileen Rodley, Joanne Day, Sandra Ravencroft.

STANDING: Mr. Eberhardt.

Adult Evening Classes

During February and March of 1948, adult evening classes were held in Niles Township High School. In this, the first program of its kind to be held in our school, the subjects ranged from those of commercial value to those of value in the home. The classes were held from 7:30 to 9:30 every Monday evening.

A Date With Judy

Complicated, yet hilarious, was the play, "A Date With Judy," presented by Nilehi dramatists on November 21 and 22 in the Assembly Room. Coached by Miss Muriel Higgins, the play, adapted from the radio show of the same name, delighted capacity crowds at both performances with the adventures of the Foster family: Dora, Melvin, Randolph, and Judy.

Early in the play, complications entangled the plot when Judy and her girl friend, Mitzi Hoffman, decided to enter a contest to sell subscriptions to the Community Relief Fund. However, other neighborhood girls soon proved tough competition, for the prize was an intriguing one—the winner to reign as queen of a dance.

Judy and Mitzi decided that their chances of winning would be increased if they themselves contributed generously to the fund. With the hope of winning the money necessary for this contest, they entered numerous other contests.

Complications and hilarity together shared the plot as Judy's true confession story, "I am a Bigamist," was confused with Mrs. Foster's address to the P. T. A. Judy's other attempts to win various contests resulted in situations equally as funny—and as embarrassing!

Mr. Foster received honorable mention for having "kissable lips." Mrs. Foster was duly favored with an award from Glints, "The Hair Dye for Lively Ladies."

Complication faded away and hilarity took over completely, as the conclusion found Queen Judy happily occupying the much coveted throne.

Kind Lady

The "Spotlighters," Nilehi's recently-formed dramatics club, has scored a triumph with its very first production—the drama, "Kind Lady," presented on March 12 and 13 in the Nilehi Assembly Room. Miss Muriel Higgins, dramatics teacher, sponsors the infant organization, which, after its first time in the "spotlight," shows definite possibilities of growing up fast!

Mary Herries, the "Kind Lady," was portrayed by Angela Vosnos.

At the beginning of the play, Mary permitted her generosity and Christmas spirit to overrule her common sense. She allowed a suspicious-looking stranger, Henry Abbott, to enter her house for the purpose of drinking a Christmas cup of tea, or so she was led to believe by the crafty intruder.

Abbott realized that he could easily move his family and his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and their daughter, Aggie, into Mary's house by imposing upon her kind nature. With this observance in mind, he told Mary the tragic story of his sick wife and baby who were homeless and without money.

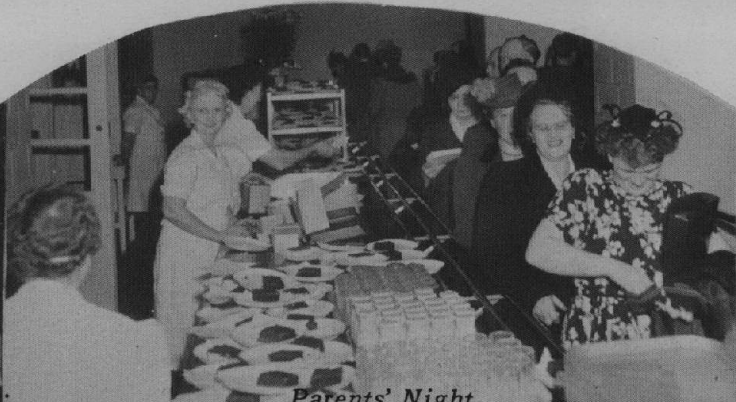

As Abbott planned, Mary opened her home to his supposedly ailing dependents. When the Edwards family also arrived, the house was taken over completely, and Mary was held prisoner by Abbott, who hoped he could force her to sign her property over to him.

Although Mary's first attempts to notify the police resulted in heartbreaking failure, she eventually succeeded; and the wealthy old lady, whose kindness nearly cost her her life, was rescued.

Art Miller's dependable consistency won him the title of Honorary Captain for the 1947 season. His fighting spirit and play was a big asset to the morale of the Trojan eleven.

Record

There was little doubt among Jim Heiniger's teammates concerning who should be elected Most Valuable Player. This honor climaxed Jim's three years as the first string, varsity right halfback.

TROJAN

Ray Batz, guard, senior

Ray's stocky build was a big asset to the center of the Trojan line. This year marks the end of a two-year varsity career for this dependable ball player.

Ed Beebe, end, junior

Being one of four excellent ends, Ed will probably see a lot of the Nilehi gridiron next fall. He is one of the nine lettermen who will return next year.

Tom Black, back, junior

Opponents found that Tommy's small size was not to be underestimated. The hard-hitting line backer played mostly on defense, but also proved to be an offensive sparkplug.

Jim Blessing, back, senior

When the Trojans were shy of a first down, Jim could always be depended on to pick up the necessary yardage. His flashing cleats will be missed next year by Nilehi rooters.

Don Carlson, end, senior

When the going was tough, Arne's aggressive spirit decidedly bolstered the Trojan morale. Injuries sidelined him in mid-season. Arne will always be a credit to any team.

Bill Comstock, end, senior

The Soergel-to-Comstock passing combination was a familiar touchdown-maker for the Trojan eleven. Also a great defensive end, Bill was named to the All-Conference team and was given honorable mention in the All-State ratings.

Tom Fitzgerald, guard, senior

Tom was just developing into an outstanding lineman when injuries benched him for the remainder of the season.

Bill Fotsch, tackle, senior

The coaches could always depend on Bill to give his best when it was needed. Bill is one of the seventeen graduates who will be absent from next year's grid season.

Lee Garner, back, senior

Lee's rugged tackling proved to be a menace to opposing players. His superior offensive play also contributed to his status as a sixty-minute man.

Laurence Hall, tackle, senior

One of the biggest men in a Trojan uniform, Laurence's dependable play was much feared by opposing linemen. Many OH'S and AH'S were drawn from the crowd by his ferocious tackles.

Jim Heiniger, back, senior

Any school that is fortunate to get Jim's talent next year will truly have the services of a potential All-American. His selection to the All-Conference team and his All-State honorable mention proved to his teammates that they had made no mistake in electing Jim "Most Valuable Player."

WARRIORS

Ed Kutz, back, senior

Eddy's speed and ability to think quickly made up for what he lacked in size. Northeast Conference competition never knew what play was coming next when he was in at quarterback.

Lenny Lange, back, sophomore

Being promoted from the Junior Varsity in mid-season, Lenny filled in well when Soergel was injured. His passing arm will spell t-r-o-u-b-l-e for opponents in the next two seasons.

Ed Linskey, guard, senior

Ed carried his fighting Irish spirit to the gridiron where it decidedly helped the Trojans out of many tough spots.

Pete Heiniger, back, sophomore

Pete represents the last of the Heinigers, and his alert play this season lived up to family standards. He was one of the three sophomores who made the varsity squad.

Herb Jones, end, senior

This powerful end was often seen crashing through the opposition's interference to spill ball carriers for considerable losses. Herb worked into a starting position in the latter part of the season.

Ed Kadlec, center, senior

Ed switched from guard to center this year, but the change had no effect on the superior quality of his play. His fierce line-backing was a menace to opposing quarterbacks.

Jim Kennedy, tackle, sophomore

Along with size, Jim had speed, which was sometimes used by moving him to the halfback spot. He shows plenty of promise for the next two years at Niles.

Noel Kiefer, tackle, senior

Another big man, Noel's equally big spirit was decidedly advantageous to the morale of the team.

Art Miller, tackle, senior

Although his brother Al was missing this year, the consistently outstanding play of this tackle was every bit as good, if not better. Art's teammates elected him Honorary Captain for the season.

Ward Nipper, end, junior

Ward's size and dependability will be put to good use next year when the Trojans take the field against new opposition.

Dick Norman, tackle, junior

Much of the credit for yardage gained this year should go to Dick, who paved the way for Trojan ball carriers by ripping big holes in the opposing line. A lot is expected from Dick next year.

Don Siegel, back, junior

"Little Red" composed one-half of the speedy brother combination that was always a scoring threat. This versatile half-back is another returning letterman.

Howard Siegel, back, junior

"Big Red's" amazing speed and dodging ability contributed much to the scoring column. Once he cut loose from the opposing line, he was as good as gone.

Ed Soergel, back, senior

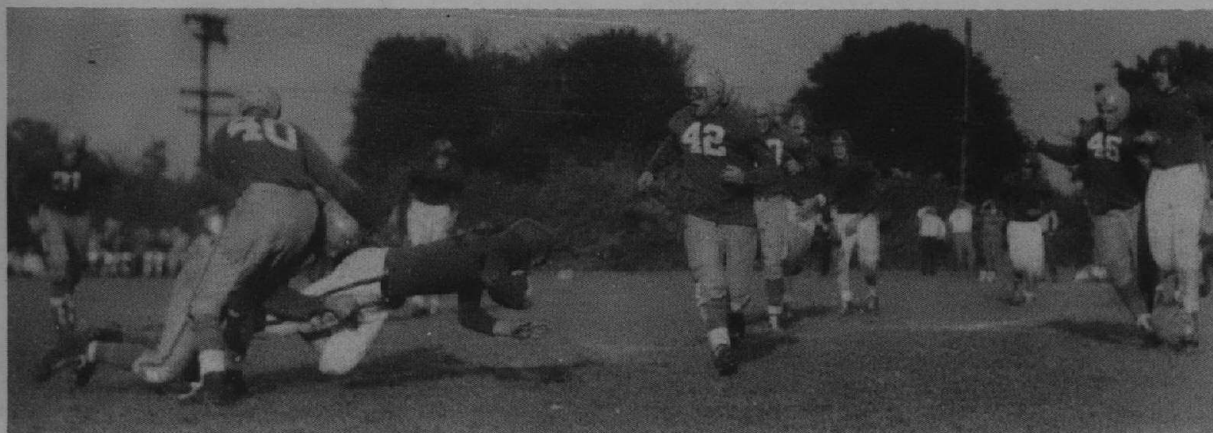

Ed's loss was deeply felt in the Lake Forest game. He was put out of commission late in the season, but "Crazy-legs" will long be remembered by the Northeast Conference coaches.

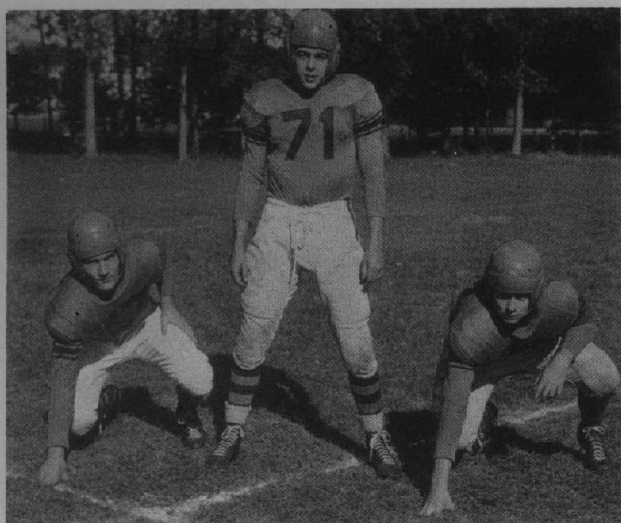

Ralph Walberg, center, junior

The size and power of this tow-headed junior will be very valuable to the 1948 eleven. He was one of the most dependable players on the field.

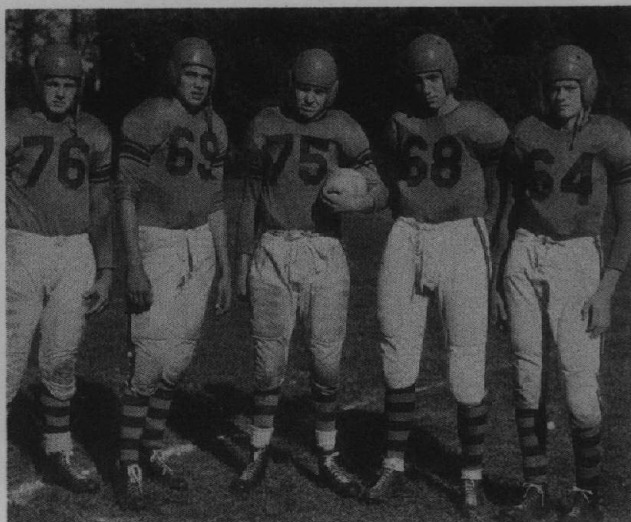

Jim Wead, center, senior

A high-spirited sub, Jim was always eager to take over the football chores when he got the chance.

VARSITY HOOPSTERS

Gordon Anderson, center, senior

One of the coolest players on the team, Gordy had to play most of the season against men who were much taller than he. His dead eye was also a great asset to the Trojan quintet.

Ed Beebe, center, junior

Ed's excellent rebounding ability pulled more than one game out of the fire for the Trojans.

Jim Blessing, forward, senior

Jim reached his peak in the all-important Leyden game, in which he tallied 24 points. His amazing shots will be greatly missed next year.

Don Brown, forward, senior

Staying out for four years, Don was always ready to lift the spirit of the team when the chance came.

Bill Comstock, guard, senior

Bill was switched to the guard position this year, and performed equally well in this position. He was a unanimous choice for the All-Conference team.

Roger Coverley, guard, senior

Another good sub, Rog had the ability to pour in points just when they were needed.

Don Carlson, guard, senior

When the Trojan five needed a steadying hand and some points. Arne was a welcome sight on the floor.

Lee Garner, guard, senior

Wherever cooler heads prevailed, Lee was on the spot. He was a valuable man, both on offense and on defense.

Jim Heiniger, guard, senior

Jim's competitive spirit carried over from the gridiron to the basketball court. Jim was a very steady player, and usually could be counted on to score from eight to twelve points a game.

Ed Kutz, guard, senior

Ed's speed and clever ball handling were greatly missed after February 1, when he broke his ankle.

Wayne Piehler, center, senior

One of the tallest men on the squad, Wayne was always ready to take over the pivot spot when he was given the chance.

Howard Siegel, forward, senior

Red's amazing speed was put to good use on the fast-breaking offense. He also stood out on defense, and was the second Trojan named on the All-Conference team.

After losing six of the first eight games, the Nilehi Jay Vees, under the leadership of Charles Hussey, won the next and last twelve games of the season, thereby annexing the conference crown. The Freshman squad, coached by James Phipps, wasn't quite as impressive as they managed to win three out of the ten scheduled games.

The Melting Pot

This year's Water Carnival, again under the direction of Anton Schubert, was the usual success. Sellout crowds attended the six performances, two each night, on March 18, 19, 20. Louis Hilfer and Leslie Meyer were elected by the rest of the cast to do the duet number, the climax of the show. It was a Water Carnival of the Nations, and it included the customs of Ireland, America, Holland, Hawaii, Spain, Austria (Vienna), and also a number entitled "The Virginia Reel." If a better show is eventually produced, it will be a notable year in Nilehi productions.

The Nilehi swimming team, coached by Anton Schubert, completed a good season by winning five meets, losing six, and tying one. Herb Jones, Bob Lindahl, and Dick Provost were the pace-setters during most of the season, and Provost placed sixth in the state diving finals. The loss of Rudy Schmid, who underwent an appendectomy, handicapped the team before the season was half over. Also this year, for the first time, a Junior Varsity swimming team was organized.

The Men Behind the Guns

Harold Isaacson, Football

The oldest man on the coaching staff, Ike also takes care of the athletic duties. He has been a favorite of Nilehi boys for sixteen years and has shown this from the caliber of the boys he has turned out in athletics.

Arthur Ryden, Cross-Country

This is Mr. Ryden's second year at Niles and already he has proved himself to be one of the most energetic of all the coaches. He also coached Freshman football and track this year.

L. R. Mackey, Basketball

Once again Mac proved his excellent coaching ability by molding a not-highly-rated Trojan team into the conference champions. That made three out of three for Mac who coached the varsity only two other times before 1948.

Anton Schubert, Swimming

If you were asked what figure was seen most often in the Nilehi swimming pool, there would only be one answer: Mr. Schubert. He coached the team, directed the Water Carnival, and had charge of the underclass swim periods, besides being the lifeguard on the recreational swimming nights.

Thomas Kiviluoma, Golf

Mr. Kiviluoma, who is more popularly referred to as "T. J.," only coached in this one sport, but he did a very commendable job, if you'll remember the star he turned out last year, Bob Dombrowski, who averaged 72 for the season.

Charles Hussey, Track

In his third year here, Mr. "Huss" was trying for his third Northeast Conference championship. After his Jay Vee basketball team had dropped six of their first eight games, they won the next twelve and the conference crown.

James Phipps, Baseball

A former member of the New York Yankees, Mr. Phipps is the only freshman of the coaching staff. He became popular with the students very rapidly, and it looks as though he will want to remain at Niles for quite a while.

Coach Jim Phipps, newest addition to the coaching staff, welcomed the return of the two capable left handers, Don Biehn and Dick Eichelberg, and also the return of Bill Comstock, Don Carlson, and Ed Soergel. After the first two games had been completed, the Trojans had a .500 average, losing to New Trier, 4 to 2, and beating Taft High School, 4 to 3. Seasonal Review

Last Conference Year

The Trojan athletic teams were keyed up for almost every conference game this year because it was the last year of the Northeast Conference. Lake Forest, Warren, Woodstock, Crystal Lake, and Libertyville withdrew and became members of the new North Suburban League, while Niles, Arlington, and Leyden were left holding the bag. Up until spring, basketball had the best record. Both teams won the conference championship, under the leadership of Mr. Mackey and Mr. Hussey. Harold Isaacson's football team started out with a string of shutouts, but then they were upset by Arlington, 13 to 6, and beaten by Lake Forest in the final game, 14 to 0.
