It's very easy to immerse yourself in the complete and time-consuming world of Niles North. It's comfortable to lose yourself in assignments and activities and friends. It's securing to close yourself off and forget everything but tonight's homework or tomorrow's test. Going to this high school takes up so much time that we like to forget that anything else can or does exist.

It's not often when the outside world confronts us, but it does happen every now and then. A glimpse of a headline about the filth we breathe, a WLS newscast about Pinkville or Woodstock, a filmed report on the 10 o'clock news about hunger in Chicago or a landing on the moon — sometimes these images can stir feelings untouched in school. We listen, we hear, we ponder, but we always return to the reality of our needs or pleasures. We secure ourselves in the knowledge that we are safe, we are immune and somehow apart.

But we are not apart, not really. That's somehow hard to realize when school is made so much a part of us. It's so easy to lose yourself in trivia and forget everything else. Perhaps that's part of being young. But in our minds, behind all the joys and sadnesses of day-to-day life, behind all the memorized facts and the frustrating moods, there is the disturbing knowledge that there is another world beside our own, a world in which we become minute and alone.

A large part of this book is devoted to the peaceful world in which Niles North engulfs us — the world of football games and science projects and 3:30 meetings.

The first 25 pages of this book deal with our ambivalence for that other world — the world we all brush against but never touch, the world we like to conveniently forget exists, the real world of life and death, promise and protest, of which Niles North, and all of us, are a very insignificant part.

Laura,
 I am really
 going to miss you.
 Remember in 6th and friends. Mrs. Olyphant and all her homework. We really had some fun times. All my you parties you came to. Laura I hope are really a sweet person. I hope anything you do in life is successful.
 If you come back to visit be sure to come and see me. I have fun in Florida get a good tan. HA! Most of all God Bless you always.

Superintendent aims for quality education

Preparing for long-range program planning and budgeting are Mr. Charles Szuberla, Superintendent, and Mr. Robert Gara, Business Manager.

Striving to attain a more adaptable educational program at Niles, Superintendent Charles Szuberla has dealt with the expansion of independent study, work study programs, and pass-fail grading. His means for achieving this objective at Northi is the modular scheduling plan which will provide for a more flexible schedule of time and space. Through such efforts as project Wing-spread, he assists the Urban Center in solving the problems of inner city education and cultural isolation. Developing student interest in the community, the Superintendent has encouraged a more aware and active student body.

Mr. Charles Szuberla, Superintendent of Schools

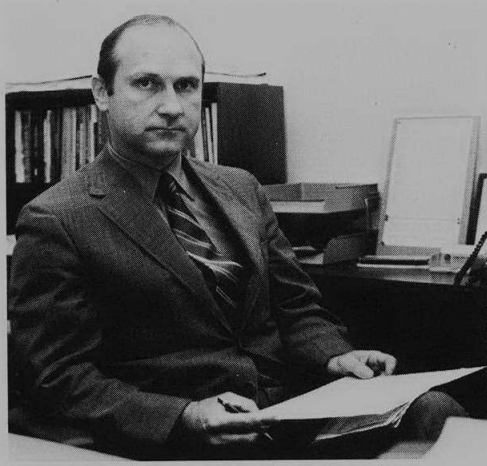

Mr. Szuberla attends periodic meetings with the Board and the Citizen's Advisory Committee.

Dr. Merton Haynes, Assistant Superintendent for Administrative Services.

Mr. John Bristol, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction.

Mr. Robert Gara
Business Manager.

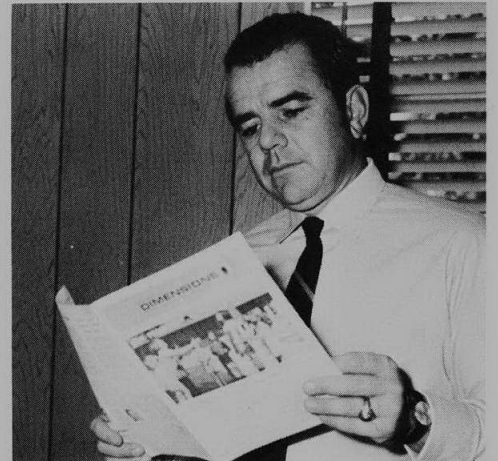

Discussing administrative affairs and progress at Niles are Dr. Merton Haynes, Assistant Superintendent for Administrative Services, Mr. Paul Jagielski, Security Officer at North, and Mr. James Swanson, Assistant Principal at East Division.

Dr. Thomas Koerner, Administrative Assistant for Special Projects.

Mr. Ray Tyler
Director of Personnel.

School Board, students work together

NILES TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL BOARD OF EDUCATION —
STANDING: Mr. Fred Lifton, Mr. Lionel Gilbert, Mr. Angelos Poulakidas,

Mr. James Moore. SEATED: Mrs. Herman Medak (Secretary), Dr. Irwin Ginsburgh (President), Mr. Verne Loeppert.

SCHOOL BOARD PRESIDENT Dr. Irwin Ginsburgh confers on a district-wide issue with Superintendent Charles Szuberla prior to a board meeting.

The Niles Township Community High School Board of Education seeks to develop a truly individualized and personalized educational opportunity for all students. By improving communication with students and parents, the Board has provided a significant step forward in meeting the challenges of establishing the more responsive school. The Board is responsible for textbook use, manipulation of curriculum, the presentation of the annual budget, and the employment of new personnel. By providing for meaningful involvement of the community in the educational program, the School Board has upheld the high standards of the three Niles high schools.

Dr. Weldy directs Northi's modular plan

DISPLAYING their pride in the school during the homecoming parade are Mr. Jack Morris (Hall D Director), Mrs. Sara Belson (PTA President), and Dr. Gilbert Weldy (Principal).

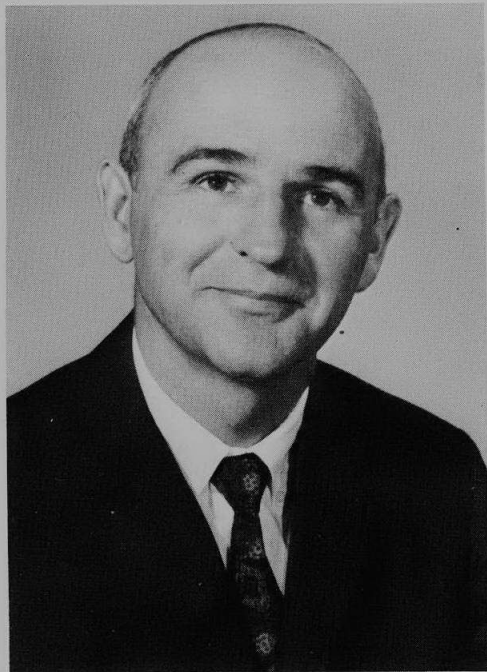

Preparation for the transition to modular scheduling occupied much of Dr. Gilbert Weldy's time this past year. Curriculum changes were incorporated to better adapt courses for modular scheduling and programs were prepared to make the change to the modular system more effective. Optimistic about the new scheduling system, Dr. Weldy feels that the change will allow for better use of teachers' and students' time and provide for more flexibility, establishing a better school system at Niles North.

Northi Hall Directors face tasks head on

Mr. Jack Morris
Hall D Director

Mr. Charles Thompson
Administrative Intern

Attempting to create faculty and student ties and preparing next year's modular system were tasks facing Northi Hall Directors this year. To help mold modular scheduling to student needs, each Hall Director served on planning committees with other faculty members. Mr. Raymond Carrell was concerned with lunch schedules, cafeteria procedure, and usage of lay supervisors. Mr. George Baptist worked to schedule special activities and plan class loads. Homeroom and guidance procedures were studied by Mr. Harold Trapp, who also helped to plan attendance and pass procedures. Mr. Jack Morris dealt closely with the use of unscheduled time. Mr. Charles Thompson, who joined Northi's staff as an administrative intern, coordinated the work of faculty members aiming to put the proposed modular system into effect next year.

Ample opportunity to create, investigate

PARAMECIUM and their reactions to different kinds of stimuli provide a research topic for senior Irene Suzukida.

provided in sciences, English, the arts

CREATIVE WRITING students develop their talents by writing essays, poems, and short prose.

BEGINNING to build a chess set, freshman Steve Berns planes a piece of wood.

WITH a piece of paper, a brush, and an idea, senior Jack Korn creates a human figure.

Creativity: the ability of the individual to produce, invent, or imagine a totally new idea, concept, or physical object . . . a science project conceived and developed by a student . . . a new design in living room furniture created from a slab of birch during woods class . . . a creative arrangement of the English language suggesting the most in meaning and interest . . . inventive students use the mind to delve into the creative . . .

PROSPECTS of a crucial test usually bring fear and dread to most students.

Apprehension occurs in scholastic life

Apprehension: the expectation of evil, fear, dread . . . "I can't really remember what I added, but I hope it turns out to be creamed soup" . . . students reluctant to take the next test, dreading the outcome . . . driver education students wondering if they will get to the end of the movie . . . apprehension . . .

DRIVER EDUCATION MOVIES teach students to expect danger to be just around the corner. Junior Mitchell Brachman improves his driving skills by practicing in a simulator.

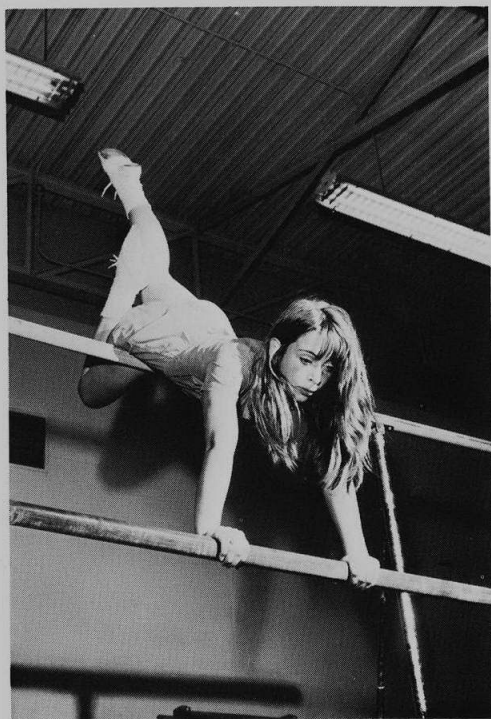

CREATING a bowl of soup often brings uncertainty about the outcome.

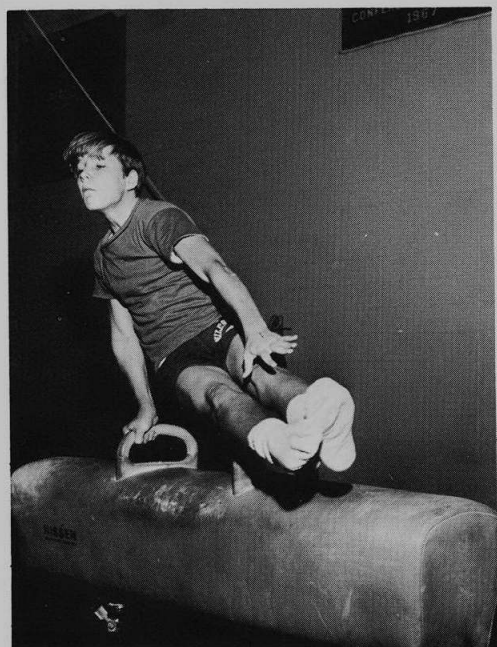

A STUDENT wonders about his fate and reinstatement into the class.

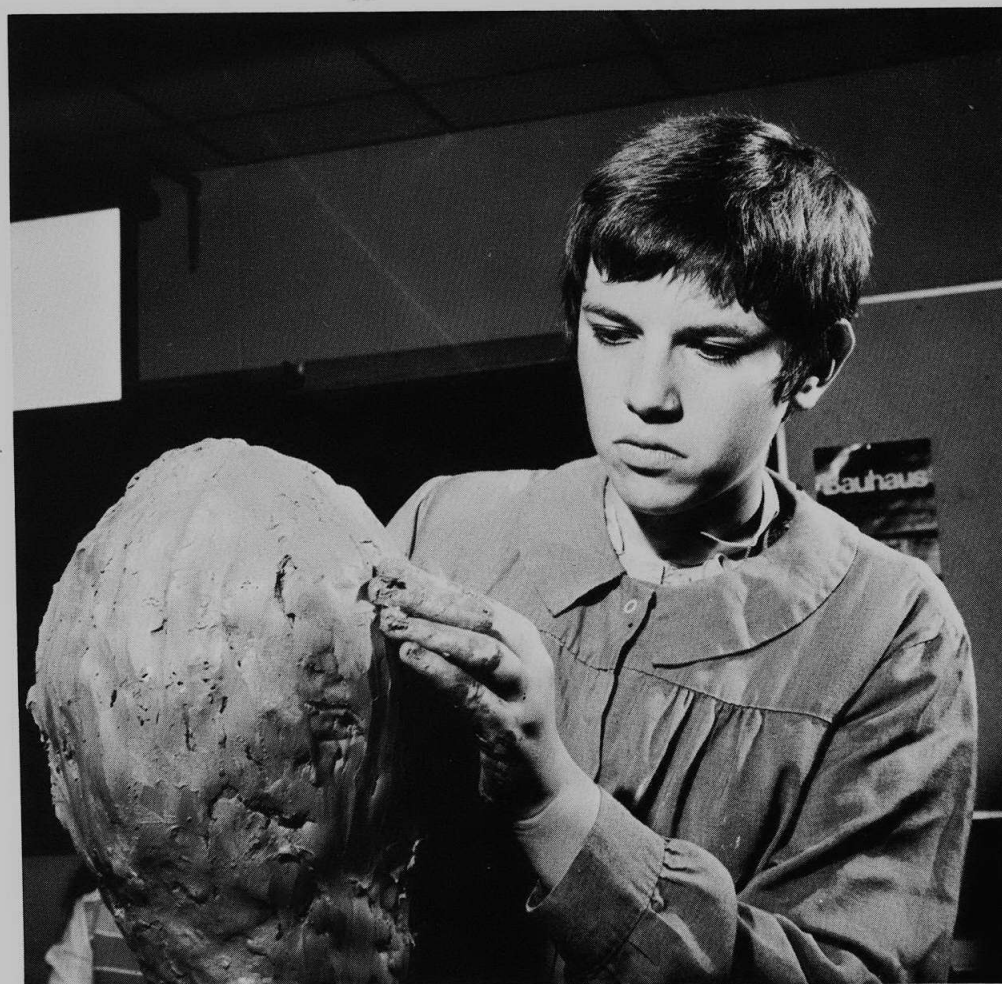

UNCERTAINTY sometimes prevents students from volunteering answers in class.

SENIOR Nancy Schy and sophomore Ronald Koonce use their ability to perform gym routines.

SCULPTURE, painting, photography, drawing, and graphics are among new art courses offered this year. Junior Amy Rubin expresses her individuality by modeling clay.

Curriculums urge student individuality

ART APPRECIATION is one area taught in humanities. Students try to express their inner selves through fingerpainting.

GETTING READY to put the finishing touches on a sewing project is junior Denise Rouleau.

Individuality: the character or qualities which make a person a distinct entity in society ... directed independent study, providing a student-initiated course in a subject of his own interest ... the human body strained to the perfection of a gym routine created by the individual ... an individual's direct inquiry into the realm of the unknown in science labs ... a new art curriculum with the students' individual interest the foremost consideration ... a large school striving for individualized education ...

Drills, exercises essential to education

BEFORE beginning their first sewing projects, clothing students learn to thread a machine.

Conformity: oral and/or physical agreement or similarity with others ... "repetez, je voudrais te presenter" ... everyone learning to thread a bobbin ... "begin dribbling to the other end of the gym when I say go" ... "turn to page 211 and do exercise 13A" ... the drills and exercises of academic life are the inescapable tools of learning ...

STUDENTS orally conform to the repetition

of drills and exercises in the language lab.

GYM is a class in which all students do similar physical movements with slight variations according to skill and motivation. Accuracy in dribbling is being tested in this gym class.

Commitment —

SPENDING HOURS of time on the chair in front of the easel, senior Donna Tadelman paints her image of society.

total student involvement in education

COUNTING MONEY at the Old Orchard Bank, senior Howard Ronz participates in a work-study program. Work-study junior Dave Newman arranges window displays at Marshall Field and Company.

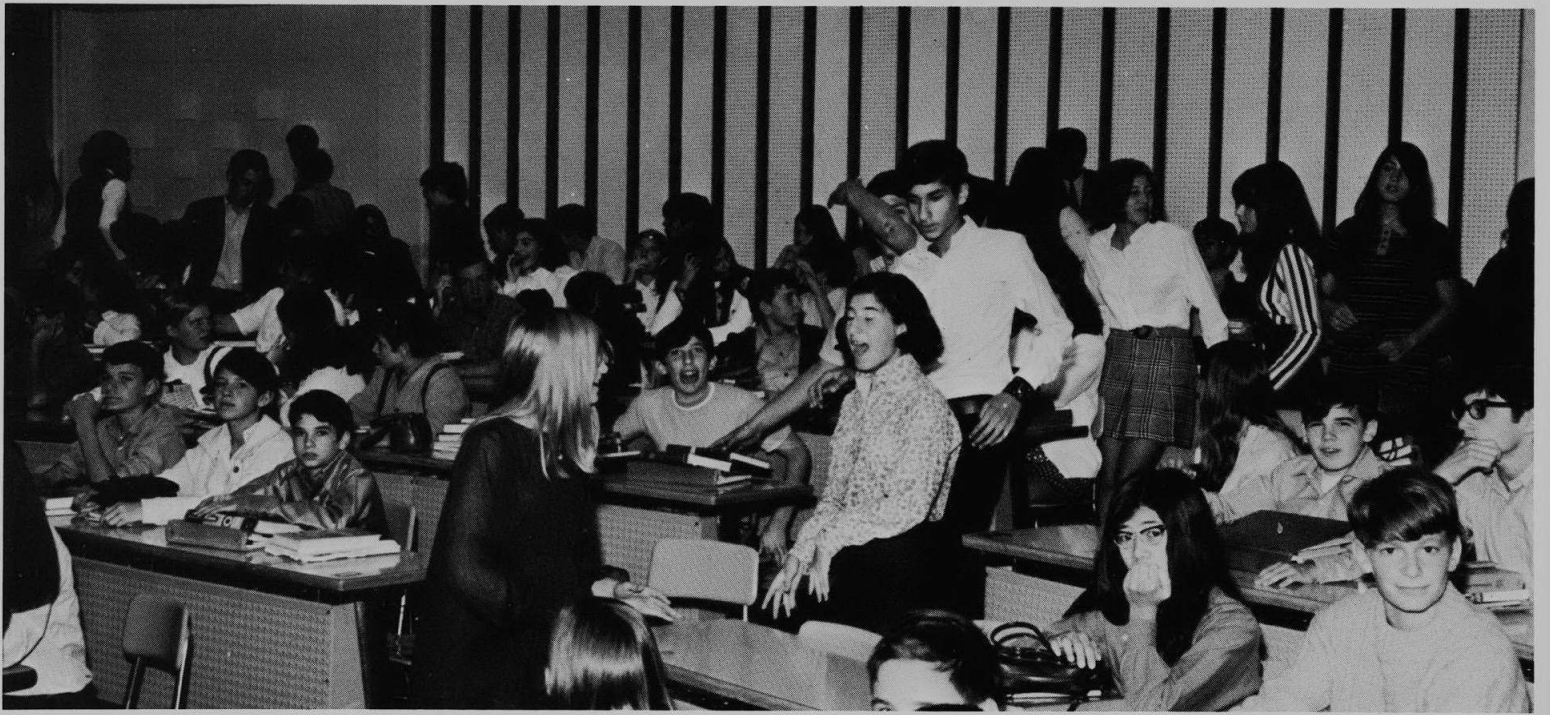

LIFE which is invisible without the aid of a microscope is searched by senior Carey Weiss.

LEARNING RUSSIAN by use of the language lab, junior Jaymes Ann Rohrer gains oral precision.

Commitment: the immovable spirit of the individual to do what he is doing, study what he is studying, learn what he is learning ... a girl striving to learn a language ... the art student's devotion to his work ... a scientist searching for a new theory or concept ... an individual committed to work experience for educational goals occurring in work-study ... the ideal academic situation is one in which the student body is irrevocably committed to education and study ...

HOMEROOM is a place where indifference is abundant. Students talk, gossip, comb hair, and stare idly into nothingness.

Indifference: lack of interest or attention; not caring ... homeroom is often an area in which the student's indifference to study time is abundantly evident ... students found sleeping during study hall, class ... the wandering mind during a class lecture ... indifference — a physical area, a state of mind ...

STUDY HALL often becomes the place to catch up on sleep missed the night before.

Indifference evident during class, study hall, homeroom

LOCKERS provide support from the constant pressures of academic life.

STUDENT AWARENESS of man and his relationship to contemporary society is stressed in humanities. English, art, music, and social studies instructors teach the course.

Relevancy: direct bearing or influence on our lives; that which is essential to our development as people ... humanities, the study of man as he relates to contemporary society ... sociology, stressing student involvement ... war, prejudice, individuality — three new topic areas studied through literature during second semester freshman English ... home economics, teaching the domestic arts for the future homemaker ... a course giving future teachers experience with child learning ... books through which we see life ... much of modern education tries to be relevant to our lives — present and future ...

Modern education attempts relevancy

THE PROBLEM of a flat tire is solved by junior Merry Lauter during driver education.

studen

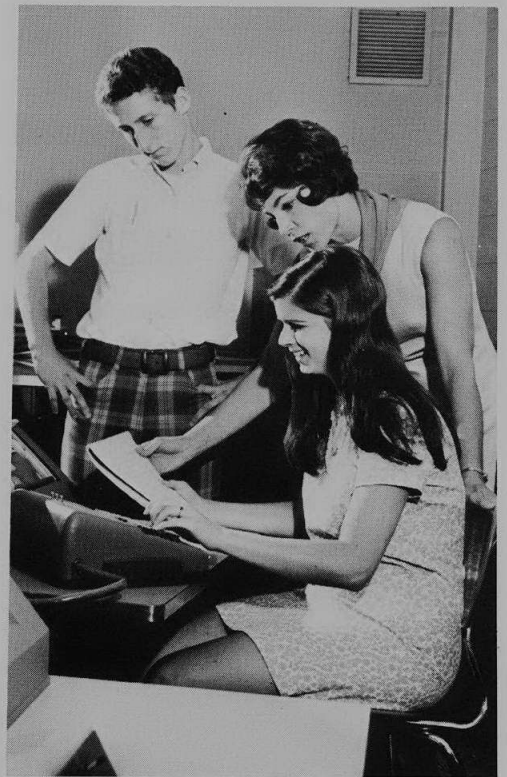

WHETHER history, science, math, English, business education, or the arts, books organize and stimulate our thoughts.

in contemporary student life

CHILD CARE practicum classes give students a chance to observe child behavior. Aiding grammar school students at Jane Stenson School helps senior Geri Lorber to learn about children.

COMPUTER PROGRAMMING teaches the skills necessary for the modern mechanized world.

Students learn

Communication: the oral, visual, and physical symbols which we use to express our emotions, thoughts, and feelings to each other . . . a semi-circle formation for discussion . . . "Parlez-vous francais? Oui, un peu" . . . a new freshman English curriculum with a semester of instruction in speech . . . theater as a means of expression explored in drama class . . . "since the triangle is a right triangle, the sum of the squares of the lengths of the legs is equal to the square of the length of the hypotenuse" . . . Resolved: That Congress should prohibit United States unilateral military intervention in foreign countries . . . communication — the essence of life . . .

RECITATION of the alphabet lays the basis for communicating in Russian.

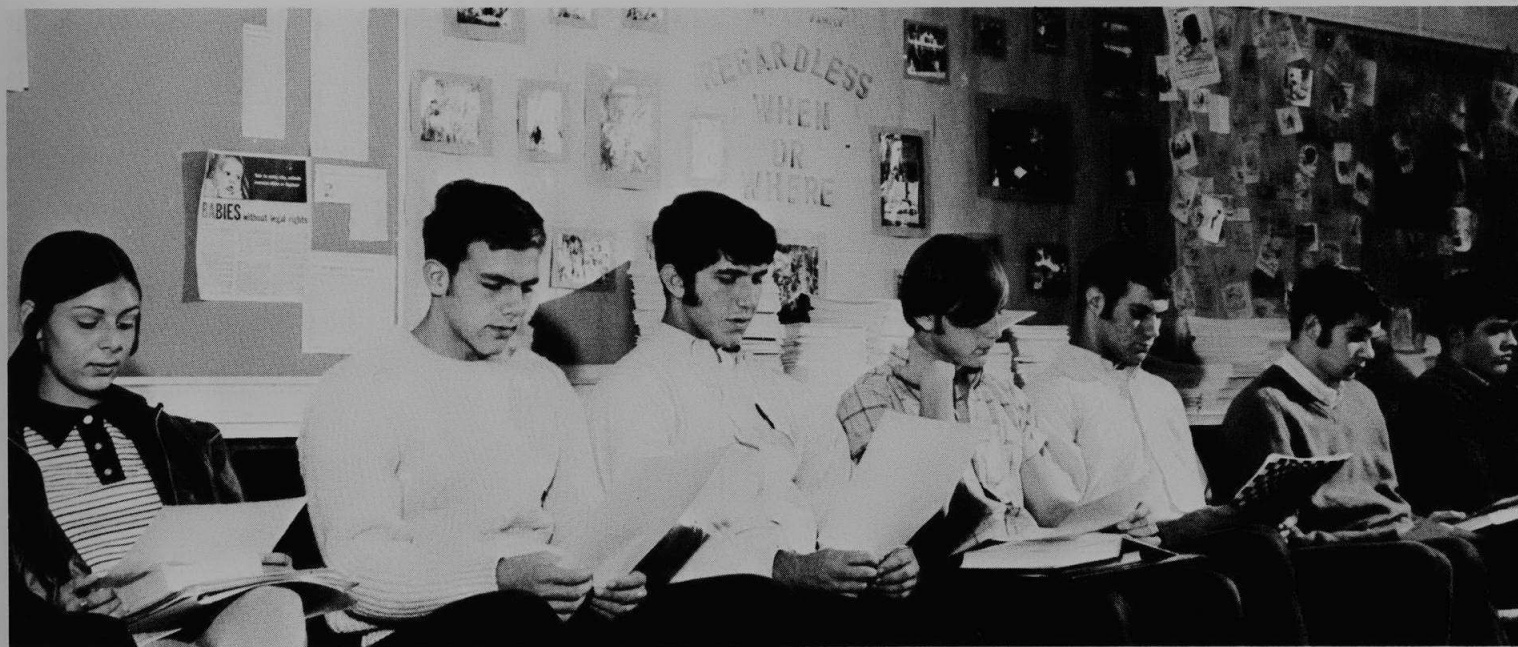

SEMI-CIRCLE seating arrangements improve communication during class discussions.

to communicate emotions, thoughts, feelings

FAMILY LIVING classes are conducted in a relaxed atmosphere. Students sit on couches and participate in informal discussions.

CHANGES in the English curriculum give all freshmen one semester of speech instruction.

Thinking, studying, learning, understanding

COMPETITION motivates students in gym as well as in other areas of academic life.

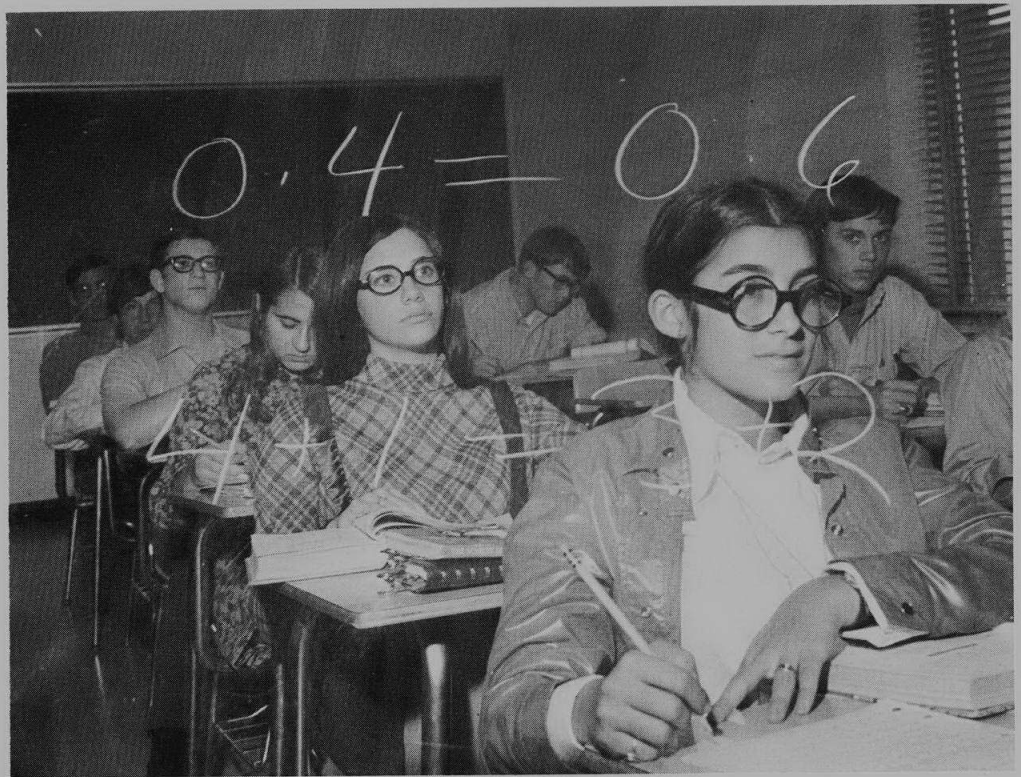

SPECIAL EDUCATION students listen to a lecture on possible future careers. Most special education

Academics

Creativity, apprehension, individuality, conformity, commitment, indifference, relevancy, communication: a few themes cannot possibly present the fullness and completeness of academic life at Northi ... academic life — not simply a case of  $0.4 = 0.6$  or  $4 + 1 = 3 + 2$  ... competition — a large phase of academic life which makes us strive for more than our fellow students ... special education — community efforts for education of all ... special education volunteers striving to learn ... Much of Northi's academic life has been presented in these pages. Some of it cannot be expressed through words or pictures but remains in our memories ...

FUNDAMENTAL mathematical properties can be illustrated by simple equations.

Antithesis theme accented in Saga '70

CO-EDITORS-IN-CHIEF Harry Hirsch and Marcy Schlocker discuss Saga '70's cover with the publisher's representative, Paul Clarkson.

STRAIGHTENING the sign outside her carrel is section editor Sharon Ogawa.

HELPING edit senior lists for portraits is general staff member Sheri Didech.

ROBYN COOPER records the completion of a yearbook section on Saga's progress chart.

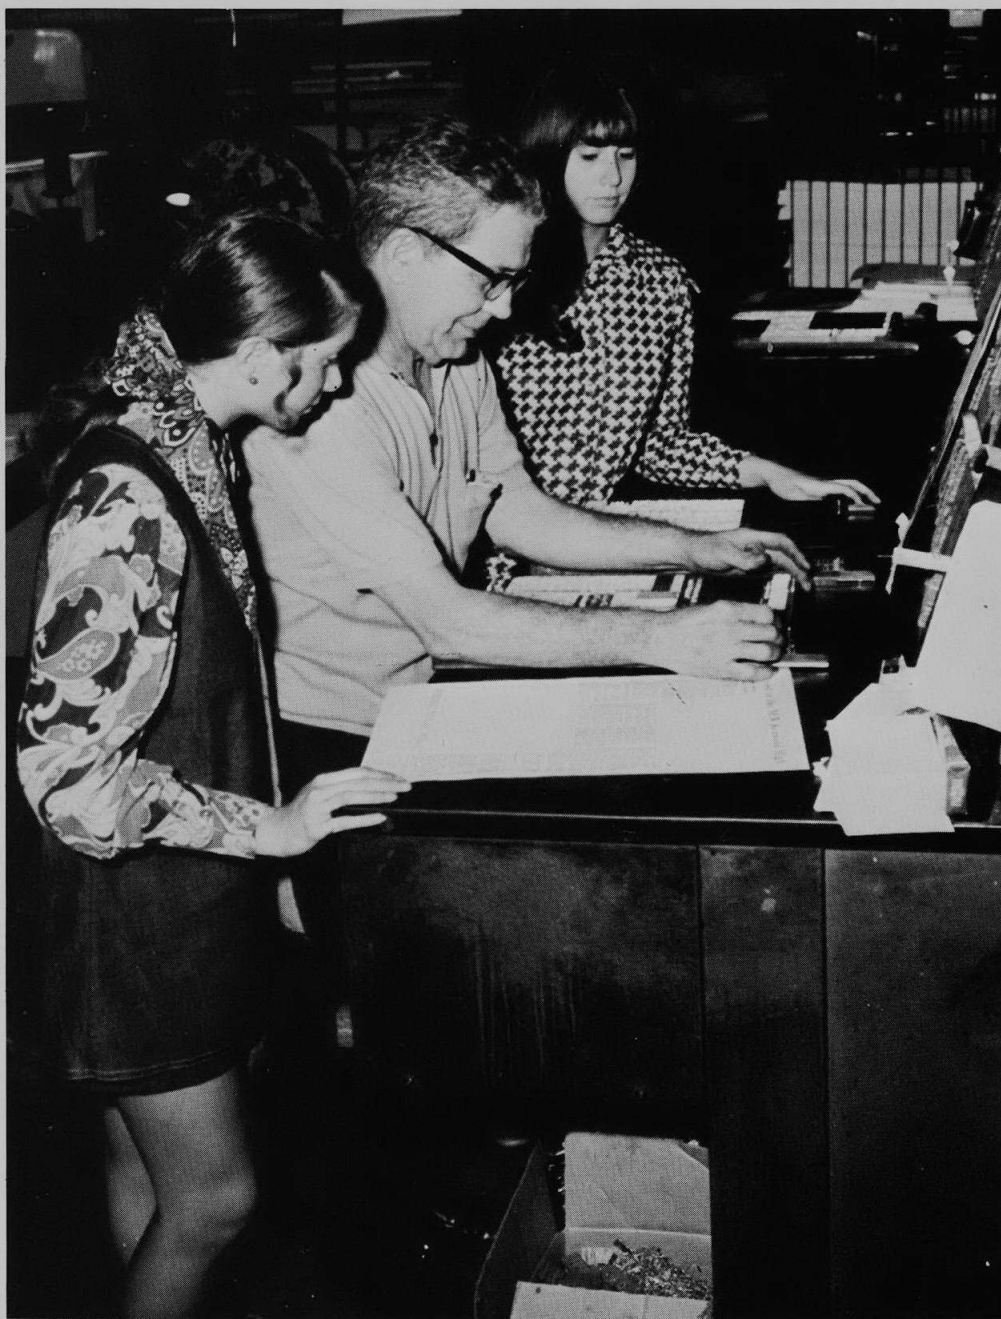

SPORTS EDITORS Mike Winter, Sandy Cohen and Jerry Levine ponder a picture's possibilities.

"Portraits needs typists! We need people to stay after school today! Don't all volunteer at once ... Where's the copy for wrestling? What, you can't put THAT picture in ... @#%e&*! The pictures didn't turn out ... We've lost all the grease pencils ... The deadline is Wednesday? ... You're kidding!" ... From the sounds emerging from the publications office this year, one might never have expected to see SAGA '70 come out in final form. It finally appeared, however, and not without several departures from previous yearbooks. Beginning with the opening section, SAGA '70 worked with the theme of antithesis to illustrate through pictures the contrasts existing within the school and society. Also new this year was the academics section, arranged by contrasting themes existing within academic life. The activities section departed from formal group shots of organizations to representative candid in an attempt to record the real activity of extracurricular clubs. With these changes, SAGA '70 endeavored to better portray the school year and its relationship to the students.

North Star expands coverage

WHILE on his distribution route, Ira Stover finds an opportunity to look over a new issue.

AFTER school in the printer's shop, North Star co-editors-in-chief Beth Greenberg and Bonnie Chavin take a final look at the pages with the printer, Mr. Joe Meier.

of community events

EXAMINING final copy for his page, sports editor Randy Hammett copyreads a story.

"Come on you guys! We got a deadline day today . . . Who copyread this story? It stinks! . . . A byline? Promise? . . . We need story ideas, ideas, ideas . . . What? A thirty-one inch hole on page one!" . . . Once again, the NORTH STAR found story ideas, got interviews, and tried to reach the truth of every story for each issue of the newspaper. And from the ordeal of making that deadline every two weeks, the NORTH STAR progressed to create more student awareness through its coverage. To acquaint students with aspects of urban living, the paper ran a series of articles on urban problems in Chicago. Included in this year's paper was a regular column which commented on school life. Movie and theater reviews headed the list of cultural enrichment articles informing students of places to go and see. Expanding its coverage of the city of Chicago, the NORTH STAR attempted to attract student interest.

Two seniors Calliope adds

North's chapter of the National Honor Society took an active role this year with the creation of an in-school tutoring project. Honor society members organized the project, recruiting students to tutor other students needing help in academic subjects. Over one hundred students participated in this project, showing that "there was a need that hadn't been filled before" as Mrs. Mary Murphy, advisor of the group, says. Restructuring its staff, CALLIOPE, North's literary magazine, included for the first time a layout editor and foreign language editors. Two Niles North seniors who took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test received scores high enough to make them National Merit semi-finalists this year. After further selection they may be eligible for college scholarships and other honorary awards.

NAMED AS North's National Merit semi-finalists are seniors Richard Rukin and Bob Olian.

Senate finds new avenues for involvement

DEBATE is frequent during Senate meetings as President Alan Jaffe and Nina Zolt demonstrate.

MORT SCHAFFNER and Linda Lorber load cartons of food for delivery to the Common Pantry.

DIRECTING business during a general meeting, vice-president Robert Freedman distributes supplementary material as Laura Metcoff helps out.

JOSH MILLER discusses plans for the Viet Nam teach-in with Senate advisor Mr. Joel Baker.

Robert's Rules of Order abandoned ... food for the Common Pantry ... money for the Crusade of Mercy ... a student-faculty-administrative committee planned ... poetry readings held ... teach-ins for a new kind of learning ... modular scheduling planned ... This year's Senate tried for a relaxed atmosphere at meetings and a purpose in its existence by contributing time, money, food and effort to feed, clothe and understand the impoverished. Senate also attempted meaningful communications knowing they hold the key to progress. Senate became "more involved, more attuned, more relevant, more responsible and more active," Mr. Joel Baker, Student Senate advisor, believes.

Hall councils sponsor varied activities

LINDA LATIOLAIS and Randy Nelson of Hall C Council sell candy canes to Brad Schwartz.

Hosts for freshman orientation week, Hall C Council started early with its many activities. The annual Donkey Basketball Game was held in February and a boating regatta at Skokie Lagoon in the spring. A Hall C float, built by the council, was entered in the Homecoming parade. To raise more funds, council members sold candy canes for Christmas and lollipops for Valentine's Day. Hall D Council's major project this year was a clothing drive held in December for the George Howland School on the west side of Chicago. Members collected clothing and delivered them to the school, spending half a day playing with the children. Bake sales, including a donut sale, helped raise funds for Hall D's treasury.

HALL D COUNCIL members carry clothes collected for distribution at Howland School in Chicago.

HALL B COUNCIL members Sue Masters and Judy Slutsky attend Turnabout with their dates.

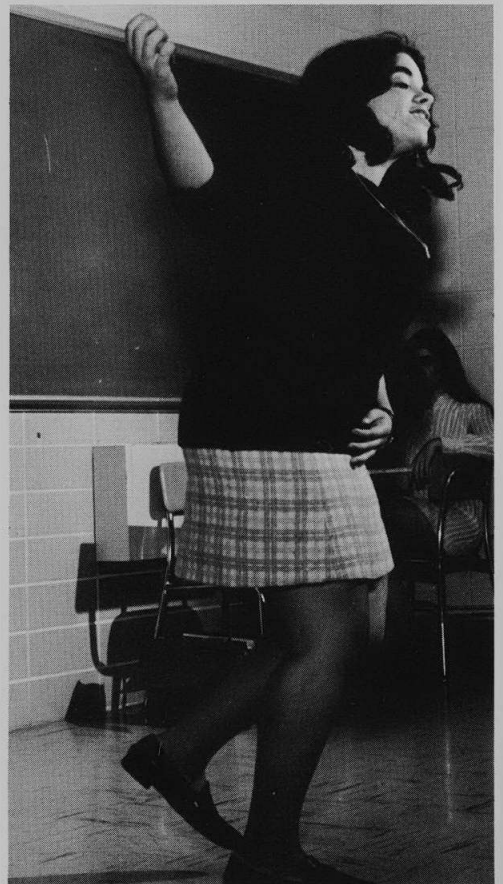

CINDY COHEN, Ann Hoffing and Karyn Israel of Hall A Council load candy to be sent to Viet Nam.

Hall A Council sponsored many activities this year beginning with a candy drive in November, during which they collected 80 pounds of Halloween candy for soldiers in Viet Nam. In February, a computer dance with Glenbrook North matched couples for an evening with the Bob Filler Blues Band. Hall A also sponsored Secret Admirers' Day, allowing people to send flowers and candy secretly to the ones they admired. The theme of Romeo and Juliet was chosen for the third annual Hall B Council Turnabout Dance held in December. Other projects for Hall B were a Chocolate Chip Cookie Day sale and a carnival booth.

IRA FIERSTEIN, Sue Wilson, Judy Tanner and Danny Simon eagerly check their tourney ratings.

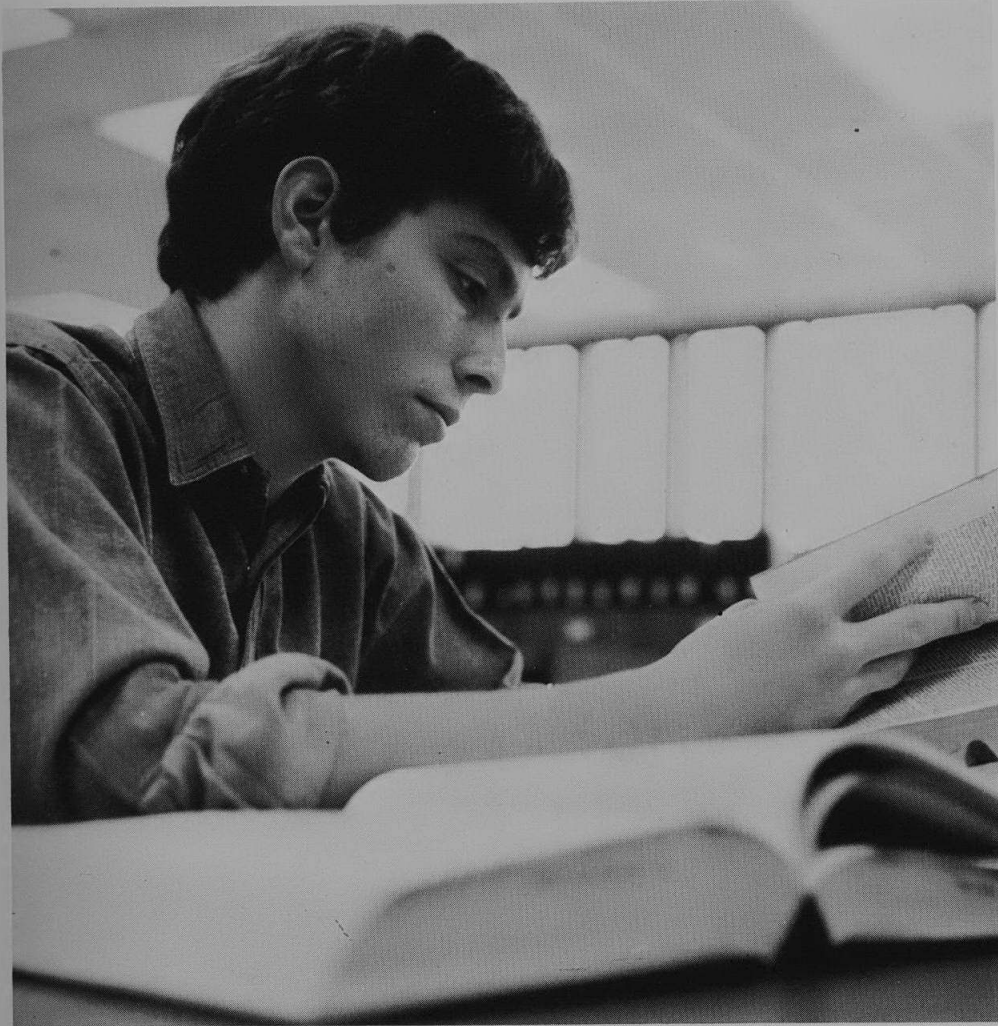

LISA RITTER demonstrates an Indian rain dance as a part of her original monologue.

"We compete once a week for blood, not for fun," says Mr. James Van-Delinder, debate coach, of the twenty meets that the debate team participates in each year. "It's the longest season of any interscholastic team, well over six months." This year the debate team had a nucleus of varsity debaters who had attended summer institutes. Thus they had advance preparation for the debate topic — Resolved: That Congress should prohibit unilateral military intervention in foreign countries. "You've got to be insane to be involved in forensics," Miss Lenore Peters, forensics coach, begins. "One Saturday we left at six in the morning and got back after six that night. The work involved in it is monumental. Of the ten events, six are memorized." The work paid off, as Niles North won trophies and was admitted to the National Forensics League, an honor which is given to only two Illinois schools each year.

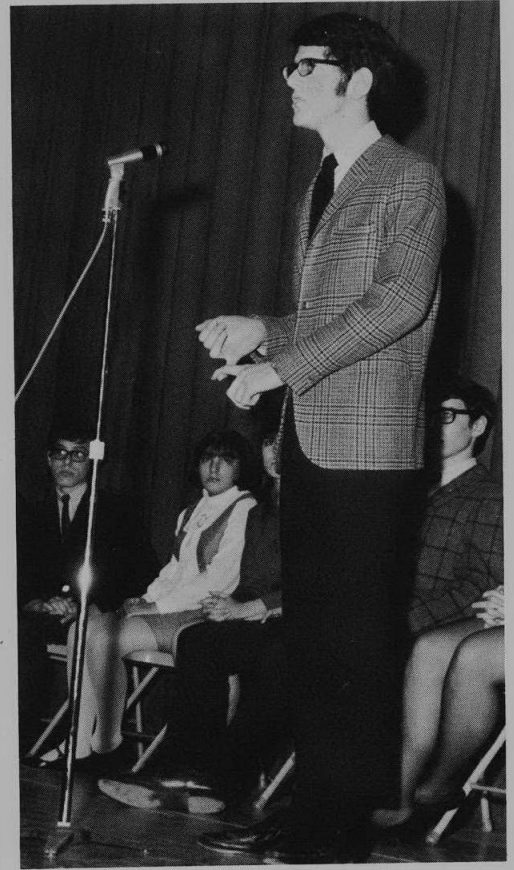

SHERRY TROOP, Lynda Cohen, Sharyn Lachman, John Thompson and Ira Fierstein practice cuttings.

Speech teams compete in statewide tourneys

REALIZING that research is a major part of debate, Richard Perlman studies in the library.

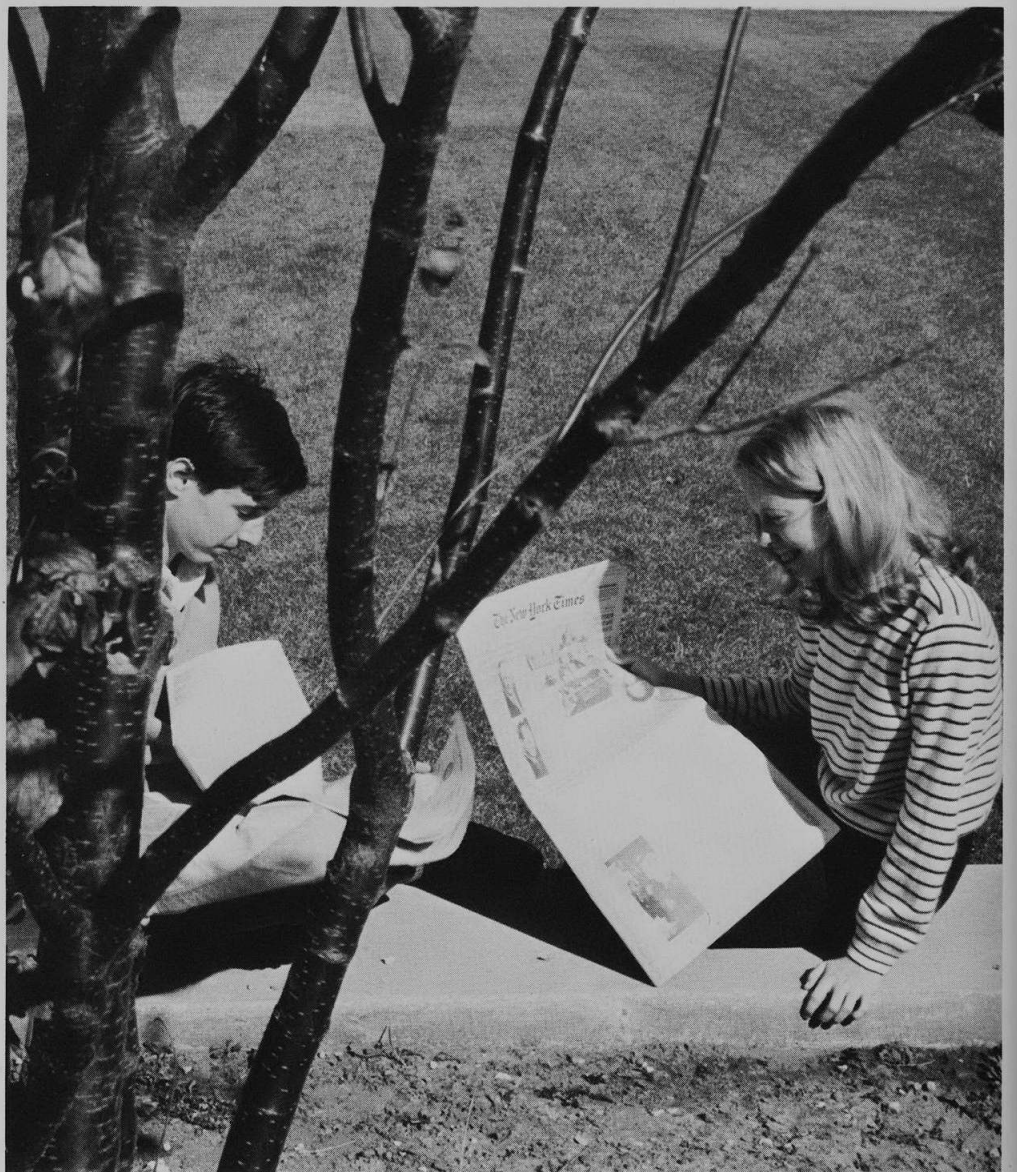

RICHARD GREEN recites the speech which took second place in the oratorical contest.

GETTING into a heated argument are debaters Steve Lazar and Doug Brenner.

Enlighteners extend scope, stay informal; Announcers, radio hams channel news

"Men are never so likely to settle a question rightly as when they discuss it freely," said a nineteenth century English writer. That is what Enlighteners is all about. Starting out as a discussion group with an informal atmosphere, they increased their scope of activities to include a field trip to the Montrose Urban Progress Center which resulted in a book, clothing and toy drive for the Center. They also had a guest speaker from the Brazilian operation of the Peace Corps. Enlighteners participated in Project '70, a community-wide operation enlisting volunteers to walk in a twenty-five mile march to raise funds for underdeveloped nations. Like Enlighteners, Radio-Electronics club is a place where people exchange ideas. Members undertook projects at home and came to meetings to discuss mutual interests or seek help on their projects. For the first time, Northi had four PA announcers. Tryouts were conducted by Miss Lenore Peters, forensics coach.

READING through the paper, Enlighteners Jeff Stokols and Marcie Sala keep up with the news.

Thespians stage productions with finesse

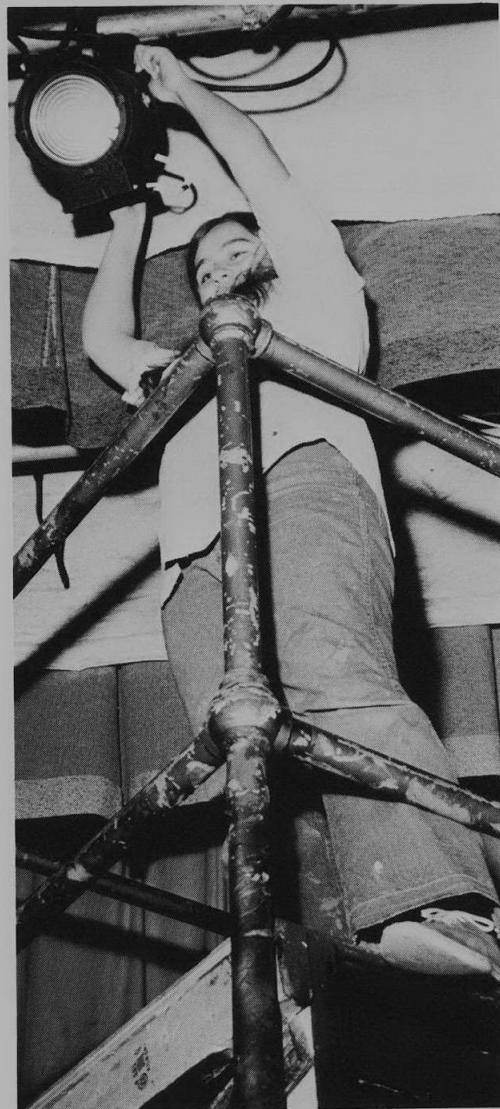

MARSHA YOUNG waits calmly in the wings for her debut in "The Emperor's New Clothes."

IN THESPIAN CIRCLES, drama callboard serves as an important medium of communication.

CYNDEE DALESMAN applies face makeup to Rona Buzil as Terry Sacks touches up her eye makeup.

BEFORE a performance of "Sleeping Beauty," Gudrun Mank checks the lighting on stage.

BARRY SUCHERMAN searches for the appropriate props for "The Odd Couple."

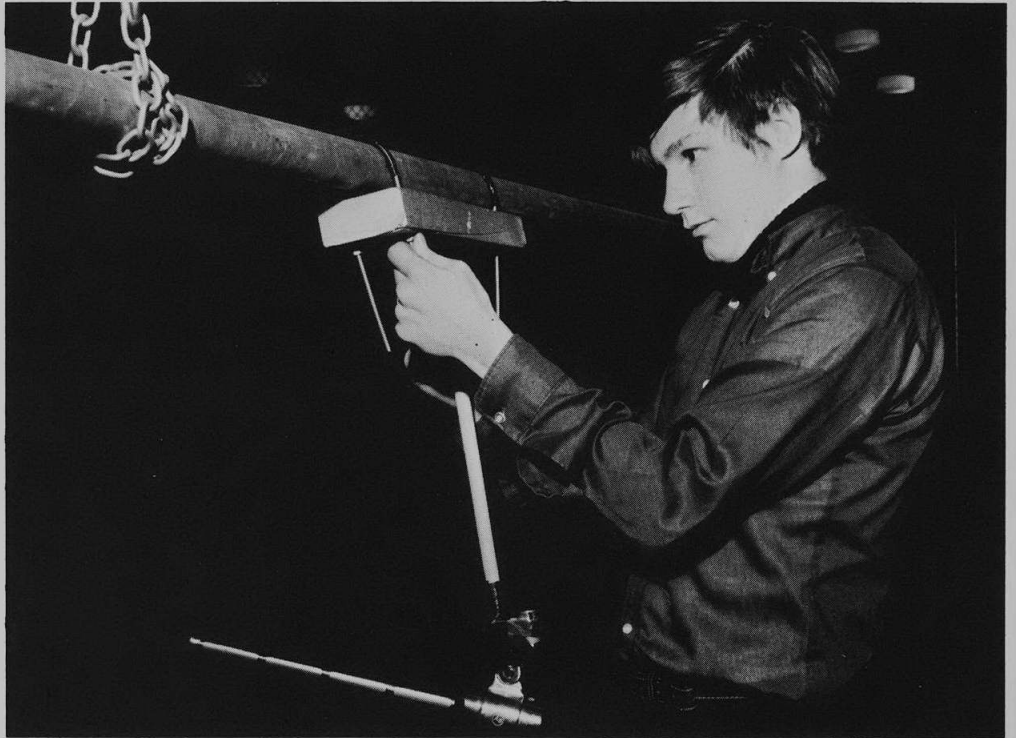

"We tried to make Thespians more than a yearly banquet," says Barb Rosenthal, president. For the first time, Thespians entered a float in Homecoming. Several fund raising projects, including a lollipop sale, were initiated in order to purchase tickets for a matinee and evening performance of two plays that Thespians went to see in downtown Chicago. A new policy was instituted by the group this year. Different maximums for Thespian points were set up, while points were also awarded for such things as writing original plays, television and radio shows.

Tech services club aids Northi; productions

JOE MEIS helps Steve Spielman adjust the lighting over a poker table for "The Odd Couple."

"We take a show from the start and work on all technical aspects — lighting, sound, curtains and stage movements, from the first light that goes up to the last set that comes down," says Steve Spielman, president of the Technical Services Club. "When anyone is using the auditorium, we're required to be there." Besides the four major school drama productions, there are band and choral concerts and outside groups who use the auditorium requiring the aid of Technical Services. "We do a lot of work, and we get very little credit for it, but we have a lot of fun doing it," says Steve.

ATTACHING a microphone to a crossbeam is Technical Service Club member John Graeff.

STAGE MANAGER Brad Weigel follows the script for lighting cues during a performance.

TRADING coins are Coin Club members Bob Antman, Mike Diganci and Richard Kappel.

Coin, stock clubs engage in active trading

STUDYING the Wall Street Journal is president of Stock Club Mark Glicksman.

Numismatists at Northi traded coins and conducted auctions. They discussed coin magazine articles to find out about coming coin shows and information about rare coins and mint errors. Engaged in another kind of trading were Niles North's future stock brokers. Members of the newly formed Stock Club divided into groups and chose stocks that they believed to be profitable. After charting their progress until the end of the year, the group that made the most money won a subscription to Fortune magazine.

Serious practice brings musical perfection

ELLEN WEBER, Melissa Wood, Rick Bromberg, Bill Chagares and Brad Price perform at a concert.

ORCHESTRA violinists concentrate on their performance of "The Nutcracker Suite."

DEEPLY intent on her music, celloist Deborah Slaton dutifully rehearses a number.

"Music is the universal language of mankind," says Longfellow, and Viking musicians found many outlets for musical expression this year. Concert band performed at eight concerts but "concerts are not the whole thing. We are looking for musical performance in practice sessions as well as in concerts. Our satisfaction comes when we come close to a perfect musical performance," says Dr. Lawrence Wathen, music department chairman. A cappella choir grew from a chamber ensemble of 27 to a large chorus of 67. Orchestra provided invaluable assistance to the spring musical. "You'd be surprised how much it adds to it," says Miss Thelma Wilcox, orchestra conductor. Miss Wilcox also directs Girls' Glee. "They arrange their own music — that's kind of unusual. It is music by committee. Kids make suggestions before a final form is decided upon," she says.

Choral groups perform for students, public

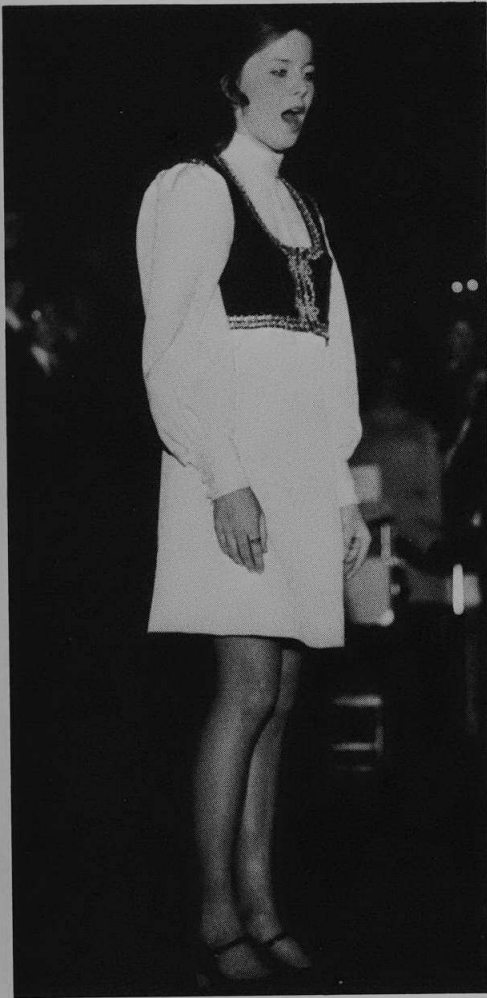

MR. JAMES WILSON directs A cappella choir singing "The Song of Norway" at the choir's "Triptych" concert.

HOWARD PINHASIK, Scott Sidell and Danny Simon rehearse a song during A cappella choir.

AT A CAPELLA CHOIR'S fall concert, soloist Sue Hope sings a selection entitled "Romance."

TWIRLERS Leslie Berman, Eva Bleier, Debbi Dworski and Carole Herter compose a star formation.

"We are the Vikings, mighty, mighty Vikings." . . . Pep Club, N-Club and the Twirlers, along with the cheerleaders and Vikettes, were responsible for building the spirit in Vikingdom. The Twirlers livened up half time by performing their original routines. To help eager Viking fans get to the away basketball games, Pep Club sponsored six free busses. N-Club started its activities with a dance after the Glenbrook North football game. They sold buttons and tickets for Booster Club's alumni-faculty game. They also sponsored the N-Club-faculty game. With the money they raised, N-Club bought equipment for the athletic department. Their goal for this year was the purchase of a stop action camera.

POSTING signs encouraging school spirit are Pep Club members Sue Friedman and Ruthie Metcuff.

Checkmate . . . As a member of the North Shore Chess League, Niles North's Chess Team plays a round robin of tournaments with seven other schools. For the benefit of novice players in the Chess Club, the team conducted small seminars on the basic ideas of improving chess play. "Every Friday we ski without fail," says Ski Club secretary Jerry Slutzky, "except if it's too warm or if the roads are closed." Skiing with the club had its advantages, saving each member eight to ten dollars per trip. Membership rose to 130 this year as the club increased its range of trips, including in its plans a seven-day holiday during spring vacation at Aspen, Colorado.

MARILYN WENGER gets ready to swat the pinata as Mitch Helfand lowers it.

SPANISH CLUB president Lynn Sadowski and Bonnie Chavin help Marilyn empty the pinata.

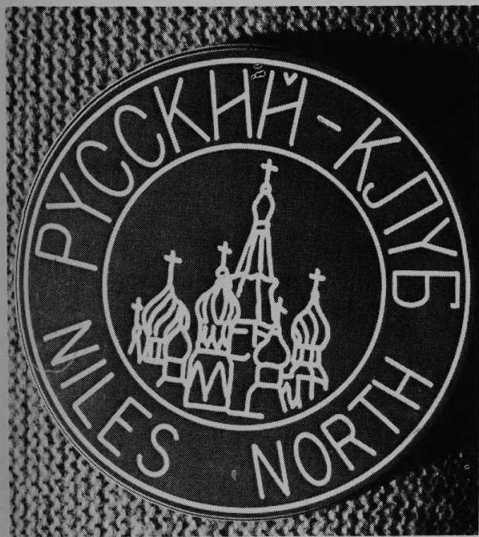

"We don't conduct meetings or activities in French. It's the influence of French ideas that makes our activities learning experiences for the members," says Martha Edelson, French club president. Club members attended French Day at the Museum of Science and Industry, sponsored a pot luck dinner and a three-week trip to France. Spanish Club held their annual pinata party at Christmas time while German, French, and Latin clubs participated in a joint Christmas party. To learn more about the German way of life, German Club saw slide presentations from visitors to the country and heard German music ranging from caroling to the German version of the musical "Hair."

Language clubs discover foreign cultures

The accent was on activity for Russian club this year. Members attended a variety of events to stimulate their awareness of Russian culture and history. First on the agenda was a trip to the Lyric Opera for a presentation of the Russian opera "Khovanshchina." Next, the club viewed the Russian version of "War and Peace." Through the help of club advisor Mr. Paul Lendway, a native Russian, many activities were made more authentically Russian. The pot luck dinner featured a great variety of Russian foods, including prioskis and caviar. At their Christmas party, Russian customs were closely observed.

RUSSIAN club members wear this button as a distinguishing feature of club membership.

extracurricular science activities

If it's green or it wiggles, it's biology ... If it stinks or explodes, it's chemistry ... If it's intuitively obvious, it's math ... Science buffs at Northi pursued their interests this year by joining traditional extracurricular clubs. Biology Club toured the Mitchell Park Conservatory in Milwaukee, observing plants in three different controlled atmospheres. To illustrate the world population problem, the club prepared a visual display. A model map of the world was constructed and the population growth until the year 2001 was represented by placing meal worms on the respective areas of the map. Also responsible for demonstrations in the science display case was Chemistry Club. Club members prepared experiments for the exhibit to demonstrate various scientific principles. Lab assistants served the science department by washing test tubes, mixing solutions and taking care of equipment. Math enthusiasts spent the year working on problems in preparation for the annual math contest held in March. Other activities of the club included presentations on topology and films.

"Some girls think that home economics is simply cooking. Many vocational and job opportunities are available in the field of home ec," explains Mrs. Marian Behr, Home Ec Club advisor. To expose club members to these various opportunities, guest speakers from Northern Illinois Gas Company and the Skokie Beauty School came to discuss such topics as "What To Do With Your Home Ec Education" and "Hairstyling." A year of new projects highlighted FTA's activities, including organizing the Danny Thomas Teen-age March for research at St. Jude's Hospital in Memphis. The club also corresponded with Viet Nam soldiers without families. FTA took its annual field trip to visit the education department at Northern Illinois University in De Kalb, Illinois.

Girls usher for school, study business life

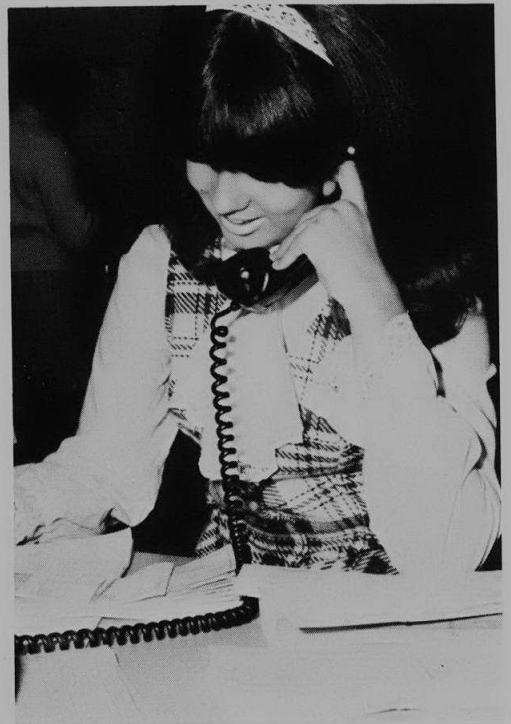

After high school, many students face the business world. To learn more about it, FBLA took a field trip to the Sawyer College of Business in Evanston. Office Occupations Club members have already had a taste of business since they are all involved in the work-study program. They had many speakers and an activities day when they attended seminars on such topics as advertising, makeup and drugs. Girls' Service Organization members act as the hosts of Niles North, ushering at dramatic productions and other school functions.

Poznansky, D. Rosengard, S. Brin, J. Rosenquist, P. Kelley, J. Arden, R. Calamari, M. Zimmerman, P. Peterson, A. Poznansky, G. Hershenhouse.

Tradition was broken this year as the varsity football team won three games for the first time in the school's history. The team was in contention for the conference crown until the second to last game when only a touchdown in the final seconds enabled the Deerfield players to escape with a victory. Showing a potent offense and the usual strong Viking defense, the success of the team lay in its versatility. Other significant factors in the success of the team were the five members who were voted to all-conference status — Neal Goldstein, Jeff Epstein, Scott Byram, Marc Pozan and Howie Klein. The addition of many outstanding juniors and seniors made the 3-5 record possible and promises further improvement in the future.

RANDY POZNANSKY charges through the line for a long gain against Niles West.

ALL-CONFERENCE BACK Howie Klein looks for an opening against the tough Glenbrook defense.

SCOTT BROWN proves to be a top receiver as he breaks away from his Niles West opponents.

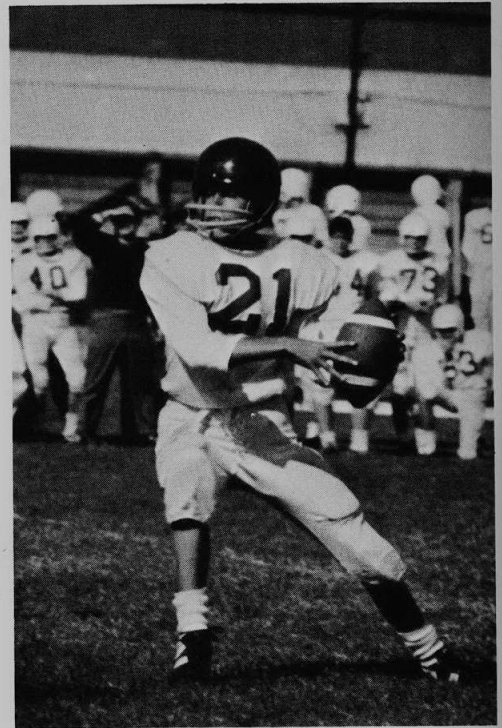

REVEALING an adeptness in broken field running is halfback Steve Serra.

Football on the sophomore level was marked by a keen opposition and a winning year of five wins and three losses. A second place in the conference was taken by the team with the help of the dedicated coaching staff of coaches Browning and Lorenz and head coach Richardson. Anticipating success in future years, the coaches helped to ready the players for varsity level action. Outstanding players on the sophomore team were Keith and Kent Schirmer, Dennis Cooper, and Steve Serra.

EXEMPLIFYING the bright hope of the future is Curt Johnson, who led his team to a league title.

Frosh tackle foes; B-team wins conference

Despite injuries to many key players, the freshman A-football team ended the season with a respectable 3-4 record. Co-captain and most valuable player Ron Shaffel scored eight touchdowns while co-captains Craig Goldstein and Wayne Cohen paced the defense. Quarterback Curt Johnson and halfback Gary Rosenberg, who scored ten touchdowns, led the frosh B to a 6-1 record and helped to capture the conference championship. A new innovation in Viking football was the addition of a freshman C-football team which enabled more players to gain valuable game experience. The frosh C registered a 2-1 record and revealed promising prospects for future seasons.

FROSH B FOOTBALL TEAM — BACK ROW: J. Fox, R. Norman, M. Rosenquist, S. Behrman, S. Aron, M. Behr, T. Charter, M. Litrofsky, S. Doroff, C. Johnson, F. Eyer, H. Rojas, B. Lepp, C. Davies, G. Azus. DETERMINATION is shown on the face of Steve Dennen as he strains to achieve a top performance.

Mitch Brachman enters the chutes only steps ahead of his nearest competitor.

Long, tedious hours of hard work key noted the preparation undertaken by the varsity cross-country team. Inspired by the success of teams in the surrounding area, the roadrunners took it upon themselves to spend many days of individual practice through the long spring and summer months planning for success in the fall. The culmination of the success came in the form of victory at the Glenbrook North Invitational. Consistently placing high in both dual and multi-team meets were juniors Roger Kuhnle and Mitch Brachman and senior Bob Friedman. These runners paced other Viking harriers to a 6-3 dual meet record and an eventual fourth place finish in the conference meet.

Sophs take township title

WEATHERING the low temperature in his cold weather gear is soph harrier Steve Siegel.

DISCOVERING that the last leg of the race is the toughest is top soph runner Rory Packer.

Cross-Country on the frosh-soph level was very successful with the team's final slate resting at seven wins and only two defeats. With the help of Coach Powell the team earned a fourth place finish in the conference meet. Two outstanding runners for the underclass harriers were sophomores Steve Siegal and Rory Packer, who returned from the conference meet with a seventh place.

Viking CSL goals hindered by injuries

Coach Florence's varsity cagers were hindered by injuries to key players throughout the year. Mike Sachs, Steve Huscher, Ron Lapping, Pat Keefe, and Randy Bassuk were injured at times throughout the season. The team did show how effective it could be with everyone healthy in its romp over Niles East. Returning lettermen Sachs and Huscher provided the team with necessary leadership and fine play. Other senior standouts were Lapping, Keefe, and Neal Goldstein. With juniors Mark Katz and Dan Rosenthal and sophomore Keith Schirmer returning, prospects look good for next year.

HEAVILY GUARDED, Ron Lapping searches for an opening between two Deerfield opponents.

JV BASKETBALL — Coach Zook, J. Brown, M. Goldman, D. Rosenthal, R. Carlson, M. Katz, D. Nonnemacher, J. Kohn.

JV team hustles; sophs develop skills

Coach Zook's junior varsity team was hurt by injuries and sophomores had to be brought up to play by the end of the season. The team did have three stand-outs in Jeff Kohn, Mark Katz, and Dan Rosenthal. Sophomore guards Dennis Cooper and Kent Schirmer were the top players on Coach Lund's team, which also experienced some bad luck. Lack of tall forwards gave the team a deficiency in rebounds. The frosh A-team, led by Coach Ackman, and Coach Wolf's frosh B-team showed good hustle and determination in their games.

STU KADETZ seeks an adequate move to gain advantage over his opponent.

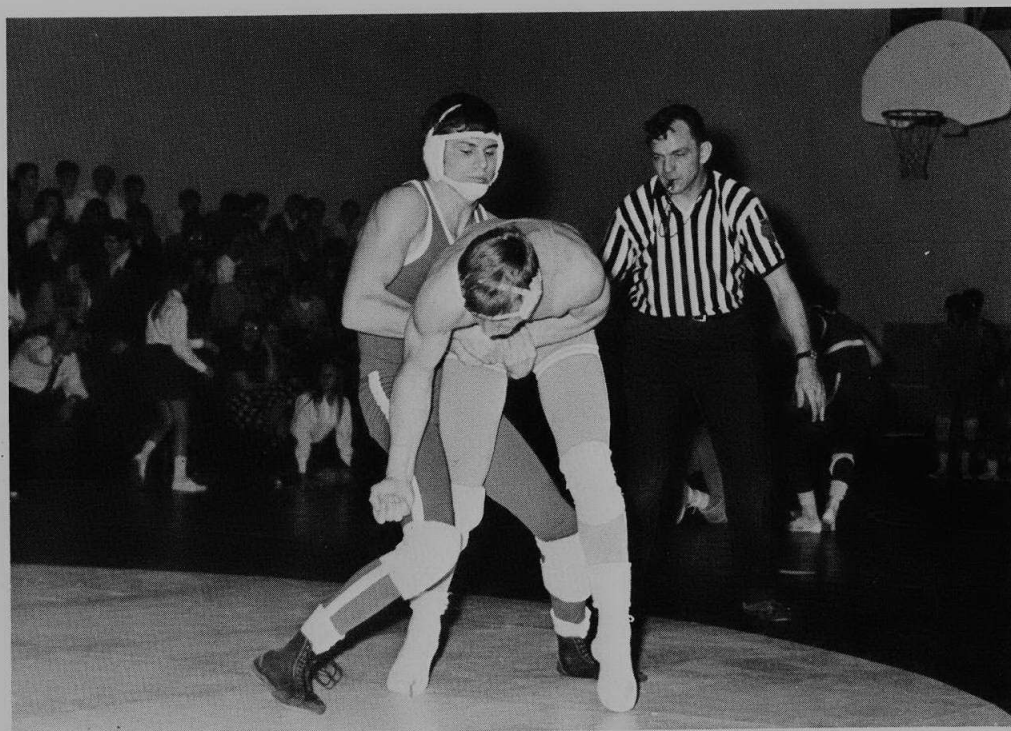

Led by captain and all-conference heavyweight Scott Byram and all-conference 137-pounder Bob Dictor, the varsity wrestling squad defended their conference title by tying Niles West for the championship. Despite the fact that the Central Suburban League was well balanced this year with six teams vying for the title, the grapplers ended an exciting season by winning the title in their last meet. The team turned in a 6-5 overall record with a 5-2 record in conference action. Outstanding records were held by senior Jim Bethmann and juniors Wayne Schulman and Ted Phelus. The matmen, with eight returning lettermen next year, have hopes for a repetition of the excellence demonstrated this season.

SCOTT BYRAM with a 22-4 overall record, adds another pin for a total of eighteen.

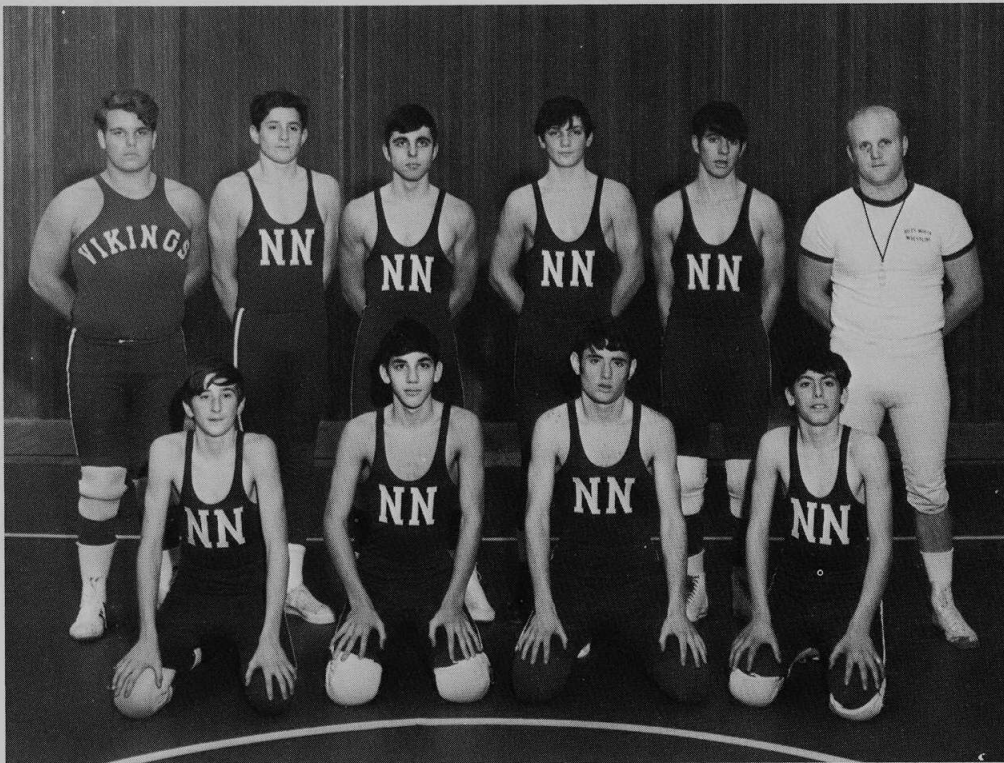

ATTEMPTING to execute a double leg takedown against his Niles West opponent is Ted Phelus.

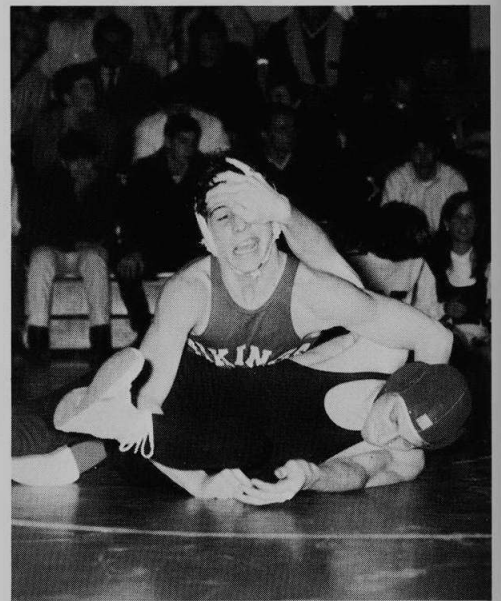

WORKING to control his opponent is Bob Dictor, who won his district and sectional meets, defeated his first opponent at the state meet, and had a season record of 23-5-1.

JV finish 2-9; frosh 3-8

JV wrestling compiled only a 2-9 record because of a lack of wrestlers in the heavier weight divisions. The outstanding wrestler was captain Howard Mueller. Coach Browning's freshman wrestling team compiled a 3-8 record. The highlight of the season was the 39-13 victory over New Trier East. Marty Zwick and Barry Brown led the team.

JUNIOR VARSITY WRESTLING TEAM — BACK ROW: D. David, J. Brumlik, H. Mueller, N. Neihaus, B. Terry, Coach Richardson. FRONT ROW: J. Kane, L. Corday, J. Kaplan, B. Freedman.

FRESHMAN WRESTLING TEAM — BACK ROW: Coach Browning, S. Behrman, C. Schiff, D. Neumark, K. Lozins, J. Young, L. Wineberg, Coach Richardson. THIRD ROW: R. Woldorf, B. Brown, I. Silverstein, D. THE REFEREE gets ready to slap the mat as Gary Kaiserman works toward a pin.

The sophomore wrestling team led by Gary Kaiserman, Steve Robinson, John Decorrevant and varsity-sophomore wrestler Dave Schwartz combined for a record of 4-7, with a 4-4 record in conference play. Some meets were lost because of forfeits in the heavier weight divisions. Highlights of the season were victories over New Trier West 43-18 and Deerfield 22-20.

swim teams

This year's Viking swimming team again proved to be one of the top squads in the area. With an overall record of 11-3 and a league slate of 5-2, the fish entered the conference meet with hopes of winning the championship. However, lack of depth separated the Vikings from their goal and the swimmers had to be content with a third place dual meet finish. Consistently leading the team to victory was senior Harold Gribow, freestyler, who won two conference championships. A group of juniors led by Greg Messerschmitt and Allan Gaynor added significantly to the success of the team. These swimmers plus successful underclassmen promise Purple Porpoise Power in future years.

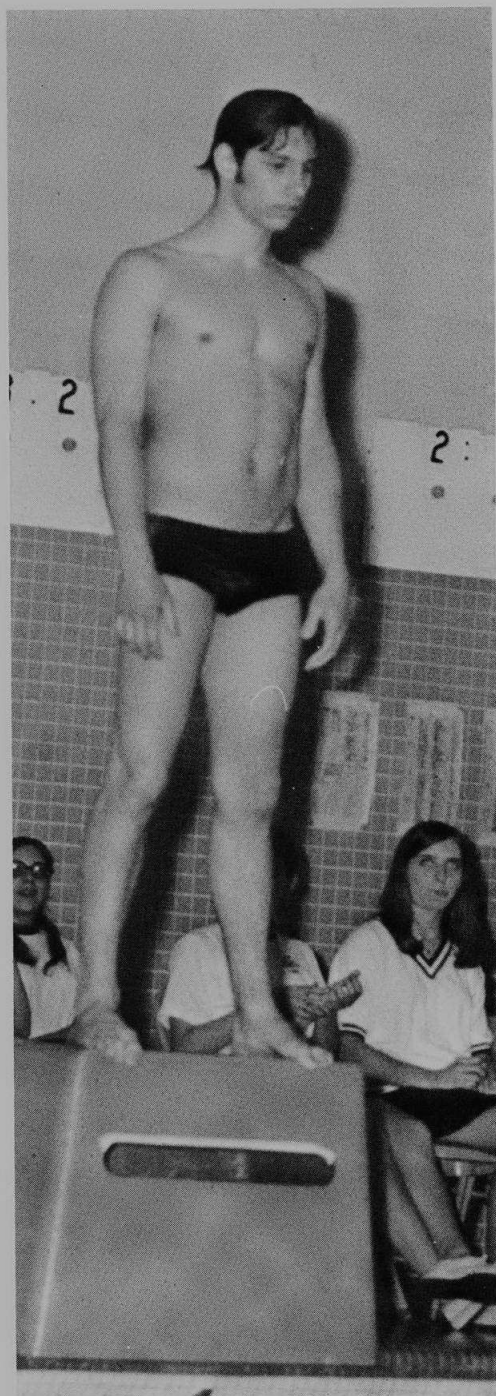

BACKSTROKERS Neal Apple and Fre Hankin start their race in a meet against New Trier West.

EXHIBITING the form that made him the most valuable Viking swimmer is senior Harold Gribow.

DISPLAYING the butterfly stroke is Allan Gaynor, who swam the individual medley event.

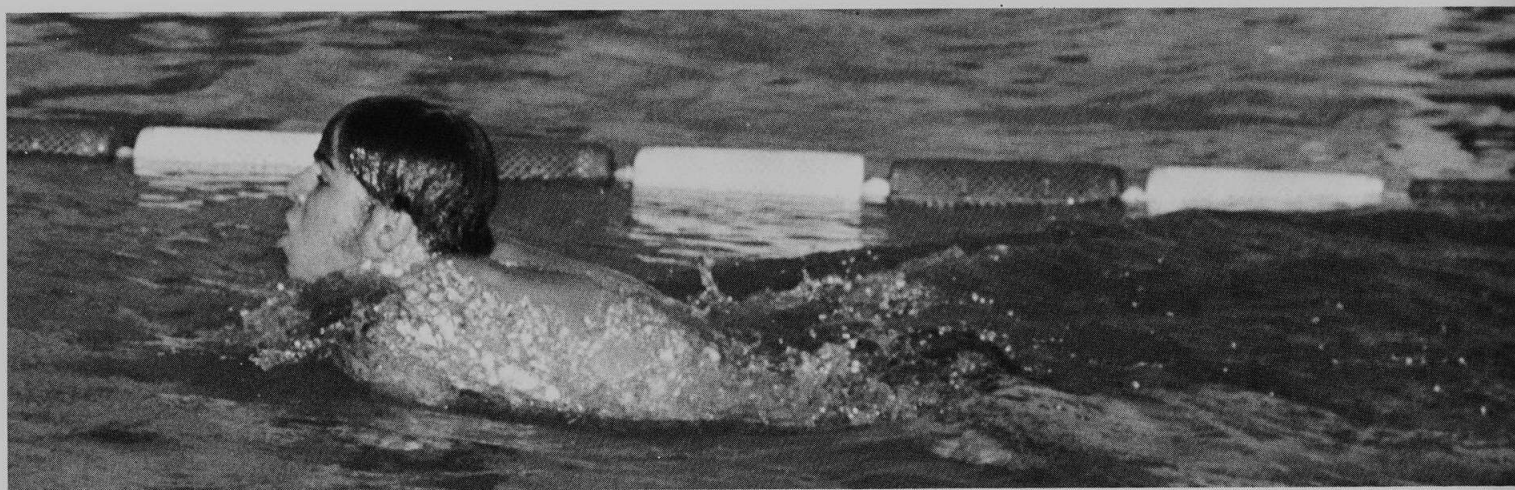

AWAITING the start of his race is Harold Gribow, who won two events in the conference meet.

Swimmers take third in CSL

LARRY NEMKOV swam in both the 100-yard butterfly race and the medley relay.

BREASTSTROKER Perry Wien was a member of the medley relay which was undefeated in dual meet competition and placed second in conference.

SPLASHING to victory in a freestyle race is Greg Messerschmitt, who also swam butterfly.

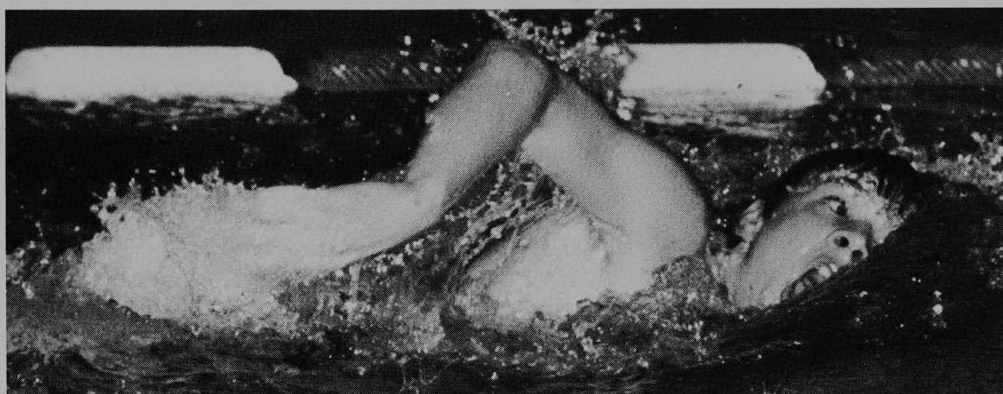

MAKING the relay exchange is Mike Molitor, who swam middle distance freestyle events.

Sophomores finish season at 11-3 mark

The sophomore swimming squad was fairly successful this year, finishing with a 4-3 conference record and an 11-3 overall slate. The record plus the performance in the conference meet gave the soph team a fourth place in the final league standings. Highlighting the year was the first place finish at the Main East Sophomore Invitational. Leading the sophs to success were Errol Chavin, John Mullenix, Clay Johnson and Mike Vender. The freshman swim team, due to a lack of experienced swimmers, was unable to post as good a record as the sophomores. Standout freshmen swimmers were Howie Ellman, Dave Netchin and Ron Schoos.

RINGMAN Richard Grossman executes a back lever.

The varsity gymnasts had another winning year as depth, balance, and great performing led them to second places in conference and districts. Coach Cress's Vikings were strong in every event and outstanding performances were displayed meet after meet by different gymnasts. All-around standout was senior Bruce Waldman. Bob Salstone was a consistent performer on the trampoline and in free exercise, taking first in nearly every meet. Other senior standouts were Loren Friedman on the high bar and Dean Scheck on the trampoline. Top juniors and many good sophomore performers offer a promising future for the Viking gymnastic team.

Indoor trackmen take second in league meet

LEADING the outdoor track team in its title campaign were captain Jeff Epstein, Steve Rose, Bob Powroznik, and sprinters Marty Zimmerman and Howie Klein.

This year's Viking cindermen again proved that they are members of one of the toughest squads in the area. Continually downing their opponents in dual and triangular competition, they moved into the indoor conference meet as the favorites to win. They finished, however, with only a respectable second place. Consistently placing high for the Vikings were Jeff Epstein, Steve Rose and the 880 yard relay team.

PUTTING the shot is senior Tom Walter as teammate Ira Hare studies his technique.

RUNNING in the distance events for the Vikings are Gil Berdine, Mitch Brachman, Fred Kuhn, Roger Kuhnle, Steve Dennen, and Bob Friedman.

Cooper, W. Cooper, M. Lorsch, Coach Kmet. FRONT ROW: D. Raymond, S. McKay, J. Kohn, J. Woldorf, F. Kochevar, J. Komaiko.

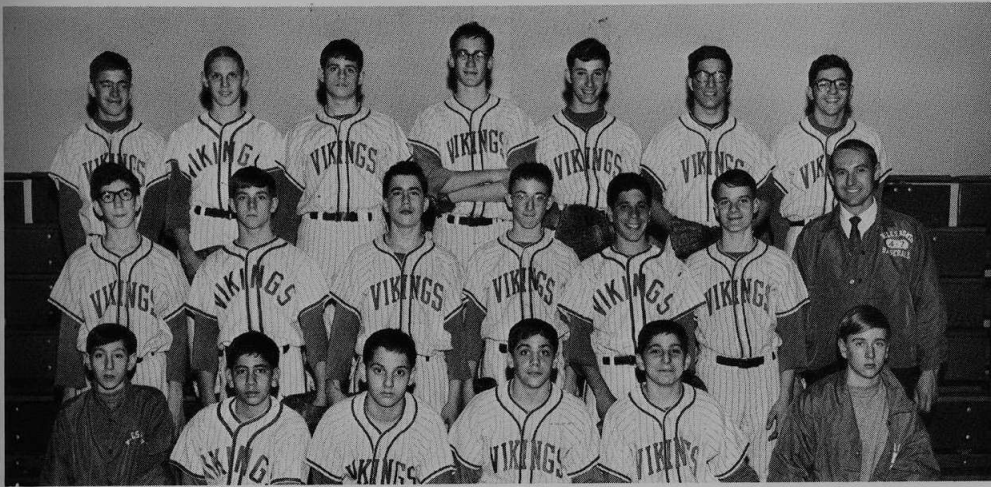

The varsity baseball team returned to practice this season hoping to improve last year's disappointing 1-17 record. The prospects looked bright as Coach Bauer had five returning lettermen. The other four positions were filled by a good crop of juniors and sophomores who showed that they could play at the varsity level during the summer baseball season.

Varsity team shows talent

KEEPING his eye on the ball, Randy Hammett works with an iron.

The varsity tennis team, led by Coach Grant, returned with five lettermen this year including singles player Steve Berman and doubles team Jeff Kaplan and Ron Lapping. Prospects for a winning season looked good as the team was experienced in all positions. Coach Eckhardt's golf team, on the other hand, faced a major rebuilding year as he had only one returning letterman. The addition of several underclass golfers, however, improved the team's chances for a successful season.

The Girls' Athletic Association sponsors recreational activities for the girls at Niles North. For the first time, horse-back riding lessons were offered. Bowling, after school volleyball and co-ed swimming continued to be sponsored. Clubs such as Cygnettes, Timers' Club, Auroris, and Gymnastics are also affiliated activities of GAA. Through after school participation, girls are encouraged to develop skills, enjoy sports and share in a common bond of purposeful activity. GAA-sponsored co-ed nights are an important part of the program for the year. These nights are designed to provide opportunity to participate in sports for fun outside of the regular school day. The GAA interscholastic program, which includes competition in tennis and badminton, and the intramurals program offer each girl a wide scope of activities.

Varsity Cheerleaders boost Viking spirit

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS — S. Rockowitz, B. Hammond, G. Katz, D. Jones, B. Goodfriend, S. Rambert, L. Lazarus.

Striving to promote school spirit, the Niles North cheerleaders tried to attend all sports events this year. The varsity squad was able to spend more time channeling excitement at various activities because the regional cheerleading competition was abolished. Northi cheerleaders sponsored their annual car wash to raise money to send members of the squads to cheerleading camp. This past summer, the varsity squad attended the United States Cheerleading Association camp and won two ribbons for a pom-pon routine and a cheer. The appearance of the cheerleading squads was changed with the purchase of new uniforms, and the freshmen cheerleaders were organized into A and B squads.

Cygnettes stress synchronization and style

The Vikettes, North's flag and pom-pom squad, marched with the band this year. They performed to songs such as "Windy," "Music to Watch Girls By," and "Up, Up, and Away" at pep assemblies and during half-time at football and basketball games. In their second year, the Vikettes altered their image by using pom-poms in their routines, changing their uniforms, and shortening their name from Vikingettes to Vikettes. The girls swim club, Cygnettes, diligently practiced to perfect their many different strokes and formations. Their spring show, "Hats Off," revealed the coordination and symmetry which they had strived for throughout the year.

JUNIOR CLASS BOARD — BACK ROW: W. Sowers, D. Haley (President), D. Elrod (Treasurer), J. Perbohner (Vice-President), R. Gabel (Secretary), R. Kahn, S. Goldberg. MIDDLE ROW: P. Weisberg, S. Share, J. Mendelson, S. Christian, E. Rasenick, A. Gaynor, M. Gartzman, A. Sher. FRONT ROW: S. Cohen, C. Weinstein, L. Head, J. Hambourger, N. Varveris, M. O'Connell, M. Harrison, A. Saltzman.

Our junior year . . . the day has come for organizing, planning and working toward a successful Prom . . . selling homecoming mums . . . only $1.25 and shatterproof . . . introducing Sadie Hawkins to North . . . playing bottles and spoons in the jug band . . . choosing a Daisy Mae . . . sitting in the junior section at all the games . . . 'Let's hear it from the junior crowd — Fight!! Fight!!' . . . finally holding Prom at the Knickerbocker Hotel on May 29 . . . dancing . . . the entire evening aglow . . . completing three years and realizing there is one more to go . . . Why are we here?

Our sophomore year ... the first chance to put class board to work on a specific project ... attempting a successful carwash ... dripping wet with the smell of soap in the air ... participating in bake sales ... the girls competing against the boys to see who can make the best brownies ... working toward the climax of our year, the annual carnival ... three tosses for a dime; break the plate ... getting fitted for a class ring ... finishing our second year of sex education ... How did we get here? ...

Our freshman year ... remembering the confusion of our first day in high school ... Is this Hall A,B,C, or D? ... having our lockers so big ... who can reach the top shelf? ... learning the proper way of studying ... using study halls to do homework so a pile of books won't be carried home ... experiencing final exams for the first time ... hours of study ... a whole semester in review ... organizing a freshman class board ... sponsoring a taffy apple sale ... collecting class dues ... taking Non-Western Civilization ... learning about the world's children ... Who are we?

“Nobody knows the trouble we’ve seen . . . ”

“I know you’ll find this hard to believe, but the index has to go to the printer before the last sixteen pages . . . If everyone on the staff gathers up empty coke bottles and cashes them in, we might have enough for another color picture . . . The headline? What headline? . . . If we eliminate the faculty section, we’ll have enough room for freshman portraits . . . What do you mean you left 23 pictures out of the sophomore section? . . . Some guy put down GAA on his senior list — should we type it up? . . . ”

It is very difficult for us to express our feelings at seeing this book completed. For almost twelve months, it has been a part of our lives, at times a burden, at times a joy. We have attempted in these months to produce a perfect yearbook. We have not. In the process of creating this book, we were faced with the imperfect reality of scheduling, taking and using hundreds of photographs, writing endless copy, cutlines and headlines, creating layouts, raising money, managing sales, dealing with the student body, the faculty and each other. In facing this labyrinth of problems we have probably lost sight of our perfect goal. If we have, we apologize. We hope this book can be taken in the spirit of perfection in which it was intended. In the process of producing this book, we have come in contact with certain people to whom we owe a special obligation. We must express our endless thanks to the people on our staff, listed below, who have patiently put up with our whims and changeable ideas. If the book is judged a success, it is their success; if the book is judged a failure, the failure was in our inability to use the talent of our staff.

We must also express our thanks to the following people, all of whom helped us create this book . . . Mr. Tony Morrow and American Yearbook Company for their help in creating a contemporary and sophisticated yearbook . . . Mr. Paul Clarkson, our personal publisher’s representative, for contributing not only his time but his concern . . . Root Studios for providing prompt service, outstanding photography and ten boxes of caramel corn . . . Mr. Dick Klein of Root for his striking academic and special events photography . . . Wide World Photos for supplying photos of world events for use in our opening section . . . The parents of all our staff members for putting up with late hours and missed meals . . . Mr. Ray Carrell for his cooperation and interest . . . Former editors Michele Dribin and Mark Jacobs for helping us get off the ground . . . Miss Maureen Armbruster, advisor and chief consultant, for her constant faith in our abilities and willingness to help out in times of need . . . We thank you all.

Hi Laura
Good Luck
Love Carol '72.

Dear Laura,
It's been fun knowing you.
I hope you make a lot of friends in Florida. I'll miss ya!
I wish you a lot of luck for next year. Well, you better write me, & we can keep in touch.
Maybe I can visit you sometime or another! One advantage of moving to Florida is getting a gorgeous sunset view! But, it's a disadvantage for me & a lot of other kids we be saying good-bye to a good kid.
Love,
Wendy

Hi Laura,
Didn't we have a riot in Glee, (talk about lies) See ya next year Good Luck

love

Dear Laura,
ITS really been great knowing you, but ITS a shame I didn't get to know you sooner.
Good Luck in Florida
& write to me, LOVE, Rob

Dear Laura,
It's been great knowing you this year! It's been fun in Math.
You're one of the greatest kids.
Love,

Laura,
you're one of the nicest kids that I have met this year and I'm glad. It's been fun having Glee
and English with you.
Good-Luck next year in Florida. Have a nice summer!

Love,
Julie

Dear Laura,
Have fun in Florida
It's been a lot of fun
knowing you for 3 years.
Love,

DEAR LAURA.
WHEN EVERYONE signs
your saga they always say "ITS been nice knowing you." I THINK THAT'S TERRIBLE
WELL I am going to be different than what I say. ITS been great knowing you
and I hope you HAVE A great new life living in Florida.
HAVE A nice summer.
P.s. I don't think I succeeded in being different. Oh-well!!!

Dear Laura,
You and I have been friends a mighty long time
I going to be sorry to see you go, but happy that you found happiness ~~was~~ where you are going to. The best of luck to you, and maybe fate will bring us together ~~some~~ Love,
Reid.

Laura,
It's really been
great knowing you
I hate to see you move.
It's been great cheering with you 8th grade and fresh year.
Love ya,
Ann

Laura,

I would just like to thank you for letting me copy your math tests.

Love,

St. Johns

Dear Laura,

See, it's really been great this year. Remember all those fun times we had? Like the lake, uptown, etc. It really has been great knowing you.
You have been a good friend.
I'm really sad that you have to move but you can still remember all the fun times we had.

Good luck in Florida!

Sob! Sob!

P.S. Write me

Love,

Dear Laura #2
I still haven't figured out if you're my namesake or I'm your namesake ok well. It's been fun knowing you this past year. It's too bad we didn't get to know each other better - Best o' luck always -

Dear Laura

I was so glad when you got a "C"
Ha! Ha! I hope you flunk next time.
Just kidding, but that brought a lot of pleasure to me. I liked being all those classes with you, but you raised the curve too much!
love,

Dear Laura,
It's been great knowing you. Lots of luck. get a great
ton. maybe I'll see you when I'm in Florida
you are right. Good or bad there are lots of memories from science.
Good luck love

Dear Laura,
I just can't believe that you're moving this summer. But I don't want to make you feel bad. I'll really miss you. But have a great time. It's been so a long time. You're a really sweet kid. Good luck in all you do.
always!
Love,
