BOARD OF EDUCATION:
BOARD MEETS ONCE
A WEEK TO DISCUSS
CURRENT ISSUES

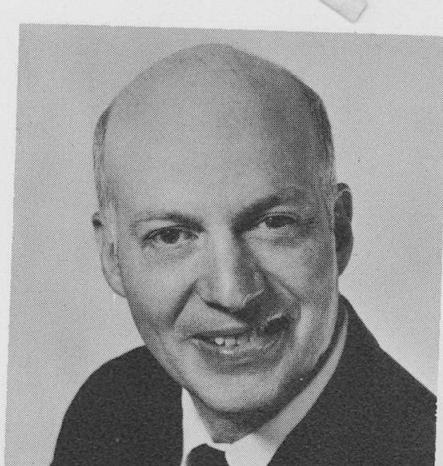

Determining school policies, planning the budget, and hiring personnel exemplify the difficult tasks of the Board of Education of the Niles Township High Schools. They must decide how the district will stand on contemporary issues, such as curriculum standards and student privileges, and enter into collective bargaining negotiations with the teacher's union. The seven board members, outstanding members of the community, are elected to serve the people of the district for three-year terms. They meet once a week to discuss and act on the various issues essential to the three schools, striving to eliminate various problems and offer solutions in order to better the Niles Township Community High Schools.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS:

DR. PARKER RETIRES AFTER NINE YEARS OF DEDICATED SERVICE

As Superintendent of Niles West, Niles East, and Niles North, Dr. Clyde Parker is indispensable to the functioning of the schools.

During Dr. Parker's administration, much has been done to improve the school district. Niles North has been built to alleviate the number of students at each school. Niles West has been born, matured, and flourished in the ever-growing communities of the area. The numerous accomplishments of the three schools have been rewarded with much prestige and national recognition.

Dr. Parker deserves much credit for these achievements. He has maintained an extremely busy schedule. His job has called him across the nation and sometimes around the world. Last November Dr. Parker was chosen as a member of the "Comparative Education Seminar," an honor which enabled him to travel behind the Iron Curtain and make an administrative study and comparison of Eastern Europe's educational systems. The township is proud of Dr. Parker's outstanding achievements and sincerely regrets his retirement after nine years of dedicated service.

CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION: ADMINISTRATORS DIRECT ALL ASPECTS OF SCHOOL LIFE

Co-ordinating the various tasks of a large school is essential to the efficient operation of that system. This is the role of the central administration; a job which requires competence, knowledge of the many aspects of education, and experience. These men study problems that concern all aspects of school life: including regulating food service, bus transportation, the total curriculum, and the annual budget. The primary task, however, is to modify their decisions in concurrence with the needs and wants of the community.

WEST ADMINISTRATION:

DR. MANNOS CONTINUES TO GENERATE SCHOOL SPIRIT

As a government cannot be effective without the enforcement of its laws, a school cannot effectively function without enforcement of and respect for its policies. This enforcement is one of the main duties of Dr. Nicholas T. Mannos, principal of Niles West. His job requires understanding of both the students and faculty, as well as a strong insight into educational problems and their solutions. Dr. Mannos's enthusiasm helps to generate school spirit, and his attitude toward school participation emphasizes the role of the individual student at Niles West. He has been essential to the progress of the school, and deserves much credit for the outstanding reputation Niles West has achieved in recent years.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPALS:

NEW ATTENDANCE PROCEDURES ADOPTED

Working with Dr. Mannos, the four West Division administrators further the smooth operation of school affairs. They are constantly striving for progress at Niles West, evident in many of the new programs instituted this past year. Junior Cabinet in conjunction with junior principal Mr. Thomas Shnepper, also the new head of Guidance, worked to stress the importance of college and its careful selection to the junior class. Mr. Orland Ruyle experimented with a successful attendance procedure. Mr. Dale Flick, a capable new administrator, entered the scene as freshman principal, while Mr. Peter Egan continued as Director of Student Activities. The administrators also supervise the issuance of textbooks, schedule assemblies, and supervise athletic events, in addition to each being responsible for the students in a particular class level.

ART:

STUDENTS EXPLORE THE MYSTERY OF SHAPE

An outlet for expression through diversified artistic forms such as sculpture, sketching, water color, oil painting and exercises in wood, clay and metal was exemplified by the Art Department. These courses not only enable development of the student's artistic ability, but also stimulate imagination, perception and sensitivity.

One of the most interesting areas of study is the mysteries of shape and form. During the past year, students in Art 3-4 and Art 5-6 classes chose particular shapes and incorporated them into collages and 3-dimensional representations. Many of these reflected the ingenuity of the students. Rectangular shapes produced shoe box sculptures, cylinders offered pop-can constructions, and lines and circles appeared in a sculpture built of roller skates.

BUSINESS EDUCATION:

TYPING IS NOW OFFERED IN HALF-HOUR STUDY HALLS

Bookkeeping, typing, shorthand, and office machines offer the latest level of instruction to meet the demands of a more complex business world. These are only a few of the vast variety of Business Education courses offered to the Niles West student. The office-bound student may learn key punch and billing on office machines, maintaining financial records in bookkeeping, and speed and accuracy in typing and shorthand. In addition, a new program of typing in the half-hour study halls has been instituted.

Because business unlocks the door to the future, students should take advantage of the many opportunities offered by the department.

DRIVER EDUCATION: A BRIGHT ADDITION: THE MOTORCYCLE

Driving is indeed an invaluable skill in our society; it is almost a necessity. Its danger, however, should be recognized. Therefore, proper instruction is essential when learning to drive. The Niles West driver education program offers instruction in the fundamentals of driving as well as actual driving experience.

A three phase program of classroom study, driver-trainer and behind-the-wheel prepares the student to cope with any possible driving hazards.

Of added interest this year was the red motorcycle in room 136. Girls as well as boys will be given an opportunity to become acquainted with the integral parts of a smooth operating motorcycle. The increasing popularity of this vehicle adds in the enjoyment of defensive driving.

ENGLISH:

HUMANITIES FILMS A GREAT SUCCESS

Grammar and vocabulary are the building blocks of communication and once mastered, numerous fields of study are open to exploration. This is exemplified in the English Department where curriculum ranges from Contemporary American literature to The Iliad.

A stimulating variety of English programs was offered this past year. College level classes experimented in having the students teach fellow colleagues. Journalism aided the students in expressing ideas clearer through expository news writing. Speaking with poise and self-confidence was the focus in Public Speaking while Debate was geared toward thinking seriously about current issues and expressing views persuasively. Humanities, a new course, opened to seniors a stimulating and provocative area dealing with human thought and relations.

Four classic films were available this year as part of the culture program of the Humanities Department.

Thus, a program of fulfillment in specialized fields was organized for the students yearning for a better understanding and command of the basis of our culture.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE: LANGUAGE LAB TO BE REMODELED

As advanced means of transportation bring distant countries together, the knowledge of foreign language is of utmost importance. To appreciate the culture of others, it is necessary to have access to foreign language programs. At Niles West, developing the four skills of listening, speaking, writing, and reading are available in French, Latin, German, Spanish and the ever encompassing Russian.

Students have access to the excellent facilities of the Foreign Language Department: films, the language laboratory, which will shortly be remodeled, and the multifaceted foreign language clubs.

Through the study of a people's language, culture, and customs it is possible to gain understanding of their society, while developing a more intense international awareness.

HOME ARTS: STUDENTS DESIGN THE COSTUMES FOR POW WOW

It is an art and science to make the home a happy and comfortable place. In Niles West, the Home-Arts program includes the study of child care, nutrition and cooking, sewing skills, and home management. Each girl develops these domestic talents while preparing for the future.

Applying the knowledge gained in the Home Arts program creatively and in a practical manner, the students designed the costumes for Pow Wow.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS:

BOYS ACQUIRE VALUABLE VOCATIONAL SKILLS

Fulfillment of man's desire to work with his hands, to create, to explore and to understand the vital and complex working of machines is the aim of the Industrial Arts program. Experimenting with various tools and materials, a student in this course is able to "learn by doing" while also gaining valuable skills.

MATHEMATICS:

A CHALLENGING NEW COURSE: COMPUTERS

Emphasis on mathematics has increased in the past decade considerably with scientific research at a zenith. Space exploration calls for highly skilled mathematicians to bridge the gap between the rocket and blast-off and recovery. Basic training for these highly advanced math principles begins in Algebra and continues with Geometry courses, and just recently Calculus has been added to challenge the inquisitive, probing mind. Work with computers demands extreme concentration and thorough knowledge of mathematic theories.

The aim of the Mathematics Department is to provide a background and offer significant courses for the terminal math student and to light the fires of curiosity within the gifted.

SCIENCE:

NEW FACILITIES FURTHER EXPERIMENTATION

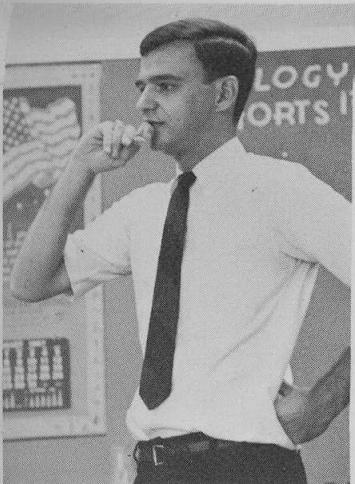

In an ever-changing society where scientific and technological advancement outpaces the fastest miler, a science curriculum must reflect the tremendous growth of knowledge and technique. Through examination of the basic principles of science, laboratory projects, research, and experiment, science students learn to develop reasoning powers. These are directed to encompass all phases of scientific study to prepare the Niles West student for success in a scientific world.

SOCIAL STUDIES:

A WIDE VARIETY OF COURSES HELP STUDENTS SEEK THEIR IDENTITY

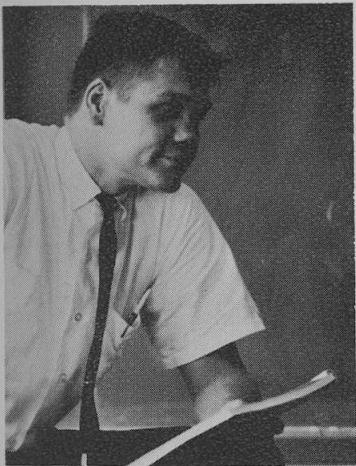

As Americans are not alone in this world it becomes necessary to depend on other peoples for existence. In order to live in harmony with others, it is necessary to have a complete understanding of their culture, values and customs. Through the history, sociology, psychology, political-science and economics courses the job is made easier. These provide the key to the goals for which we strive: a closer relationship with all peoples helps each man find an identity vital to self-improvement.

GIRL'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION:

EMPHASIS ON SPORTSMANSHIP, A KEY TO FUTURE SATISFACTION

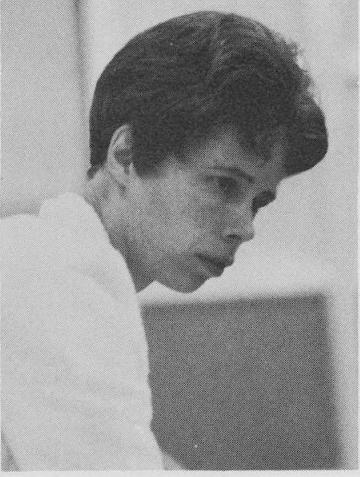

Experience in several sporting fields, through daily physical education class, increases the student's awareness and physical prowess. Appreciation for all sports as well as an understanding of the rules, guides girls to develop physical well-being and lays the groundwork for a lifetime of recreational activities.

A display of talent is evident in the Aquasprite water ballets and gymnastic demonstrations. Orchesis provides an outlet for the girl through dance. Sophomore, junior and senior girls, with highly developed skills and athletic ability are put through a leadership course covering all phases of teaching. The ultimate result is assistance to the individual teachers.

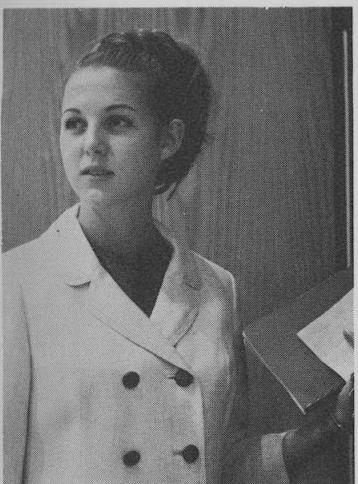

Sportsmanship, once mastered, is the key to the satisfaction of a strong body ready for meaningful leisure.

BOY'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION: PHYSICAL AND MENTAL AGILITY COORDINATED

Every period of the day red and white gym suits cover the playing field or Contest Gym. Boys dash madly for footballs and basketballs while constantly developing muscle tone and coordination.

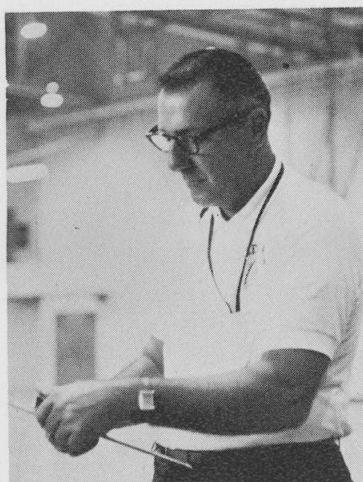

Young men of today need to exercise to be able to cope with various elements that challenge physical agility. Therefore, the Boy's Physical Education Department strives to instill a feeling of enthusiasm for sports in the minds of tomorrow's leaders and help develop a keen appreciation for a life of worthwhile recreation and leisure.

GUIDANCE:

FOCUS ON COLLEGE AND THE FUTURE

Mr. Leo Hoosline

"Opportunity knocks" each time a student enters the counseling offices. Today's group oriented society is forgotten for a few minutes to allow for individual guidance. Ten counselors are available to help students know themselves and to develop their capabilities to the fullest.

Significant in group guidance has been the career seminars and visits from the college representatives. These lectures, films and group discussions give students the opportunity to explore and learn. They are assisted with the tools for making a meaningful decision that can lead to significant college and vocational careers.

Mrs. Phyllis Epstein

Miss Francis Williams, Miss Helen Porten, Department Head

Library is a busy workshop for enrichment and research where Niles West students can seek knowledge or escape into the boundless world of literature. A multitude of facilities this year are incorporated in both the Main Library and newly equipped Annex. Now it is quite easy to find out the electoral votes of the presidential election of 1936 with microfilm records dating back to 1914. The new Docustat machine this year added to the innovations and made it possible to duplicate sheets from microfilm for home study. Concentrated and intensive study was facilitated with the new study carrels similar to those in college libraries.

These signify the development of a research center outstanding in its design, usefulness, and value to students and faculty alike.

SPECIAL SERVICES: WORK-EXPERIENCE PROGRAM OFFERS VALUABLE EXPERIENCE

Most important in Niles West is the individual student and through the Special Services branch, the exceptional child is assisted in his quest for a significant position in society. These students are guided socially and helped to adjust emotionally for situations of the outside world. Confidence is developed in the work-experience program for juniors and seniors. Working on a part-time basis, these students can gain valuable experience that will enable them to become contributing members of a society that is prided on equal opportunity.

INFORMALITY IS KEY TO SPECTRUM

This year's yearbook staff strove to create a new, informal image for Spectrum '68. More candids, more pages, and a new arrangement of sections aided in accomplishing this goal. In order to handle the increased workload, apprentices were assigned to each section editor. In preparation for future years on the staff, the apprentices learned to crop pictures, lay out pages, and other procedures. Also new for Spectrum was its own artist. Senior Maury Killey designed both the yearbook cover and the division page lettering. The many hours of work devoted by the staff were rewarded by the successful publication of Spectrum '68.

WEST WORD ACCENTUATES STUDENT THOUGHT

WEST WORD, the bi-weekly publication which relates school events to the student body, has supplemented several additional columns this year, such as the initiation of a critique column. The sports coverage assumed various moods ranging from the hysterical to the somber. A great deal of emphasis was placed on student thought, as illustrated by the Student Forum section. Individuals were able to publicly express their opinions and be either challenged or supported by the responses from other students. WEST WORD was a continual source of humor, information, and controversy.

BOEING AIR FORCE BASE SITE OF ASTRONOMICAL AND AERONAUTICS COMPETITION

This year the group consisted of two divisions: The Rockets, which met weekly and planned a 'mock' Gemini flight craft and simulated flight; and The Aircraft, which held a contest for the most realistic scale models. In the spring, at Boeing Air Force Base, a joint event was held with Elgin High School. BEWARE OF SCHOOL STORE!

The school store is located in an obscure little corner of the school. Perhaps this is just as well, for some pretty weird things go on there! Oh, it appears to be an ordinary cubbyhole where students can purchase specified literary materials for various classes; but — BEWARE! The room is carefully screened by the glassy-stare of one Clark Gable poster. And the students are supervised by a man who thinks he is Alexander Hamilton! Now - does this seem like an ordinary cubbyhole to you??!

The Wednesday meetings inspired the witty and informative public address announcements. The organization, which is split into four divisions (entertainment, decorations, work assignment detail, and publicity) built the third place Class A homecoming float.

Speech, one of the basic forms of communication, adopts various characteristics when presented by the talented members of Forensics. The readings range from the humorous: comedy reading, original monologue, after dinner speaking, to the somber: original oratory, serious reading, and extemporaneous speaking. Students also participated in the areas of prose, poetry, radio, and oratorical declamation. This year Niles West sponsored the District Contest, inviting the top speaker from each category to compete with others from schools within the district. Students listened and criticized fellow members during the daily Forensics Workshop. This year two members of the Forensics team were invited to the Tournament of Champions at New Trier, Seniors Vicki Stone, for poetry, and Larry Kaplan for extemporaneous speaking and original oratory.

Those girls interested in synchronized swimming were given an opportunity to display their talents through Aquasprites. They combined their aqua-knowledge with grace and performing skills. The highlight of the year was the annual water show - this year's theme being "The Sites of the USA."

Boisterous sophomores, juniors, and seniors shared their knowledge of and experience in swimming with grade school students on Saturday mornings. They taught pupils the fundamentals at various ability levels. Thursday evenings, Guard's Club members became lifeguards for the weekly Family Nite Swim. Additional projects for the year included a homecoming float, and the annual Christmas and spring parties.

Attired in red shorts and white blouses, Niles West Timer's Club members provided an extra element of school spirit at the Varsity, sophomore and freshman swimming meets. Requirements for becoming a club member included a test consisting of reading a stop watch, memorizing facts concerning individual events and acquainting themselves with the rules of correct behavior. At the meets, the girls announced the events, timed the swimmers, and assisted the referees by watching for disqualifying actions by the swimmers.

After a trying season against Evanston, Deerfield, New Trier West and Niles East and North, the Niles West Girls' Interscholastic Tennis Team closed their 1967 season. The lack of experience was an extreme disadvantage to the team. The enthusiasm of the players helped pull the team through the dismal season.

28 vivacious girls; fiery red mod dresses; hundreds of tissue streamers; lively band accompaniment: Niles West proudly presents the 1967-1968 Pom-Pon Squad! This burst of enthusiasm began when an idea was needed on how to have a better homecoming half-time ceremony. This suggestion caught on rapidly as 90 girls attended three rehearsals to learn the original routine. Then selection of the finalists was made. The 28 girls rehearsed once a week and 2 hours previous to their debut at each home game half-time. Their colorful outfits are worn to school on the days or directly preceding home games. This organization further insures Niles West of continual enthusiasm and school spirit.

WESTONES PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT WITH A FRESH APPROACH

Westones, a musical organization, was established over the summer by students who enjoyed a variety of music. Their purpose was to perform for the community selections of popular tunes. Often they were accompanied by the Niles West Stage Band; although Westones had their own rhythm section. Their first performance was at the Morton House for a professional women's organization. They also participated in the annual Aquasprite Show.

It all began with a plan. Then a title-- how about . . . SKALP! . . . sounds good. Why not add a parade? Great! Crepe paper, wood and hard work galore, but . . . What a Parade! A close and hard fought game would be great, but . . . Sure! And let's have a glorious dance to complete the weekend! Sounds great? Here you have it--Homecoming '67!

This was the atmosphere and mood of the Vogues concert, with additional entertainment from Vic and the Versatiles. This combination of groups added up to a great evening's entertainment.

On February 10, the Niles West Student Council sponsored a Leadership Conference. This was the first such conference to be entirely conducted by a single Student Council. Approximately 1000 delegates and advisors from upstate Illinois high schools participated in discussions on group dynamics and management. The conference speakers were Dr. George Mathis, Director of numerous Leadership Conferences and Workshops, Mr. Dale Richmond, and the well-known news commentator and Daily News columnist, Norman Ross.

BROTHERHOOD ASSEMBLY:

This year's Student Council elected for the first time to allow all class levels to participate in the Brotherhood Assemblies. John Harwell of the Chicago Urban League was the speaker for the junior-senior assembly, while Billy Hollins, the Chicago Co-Ordinator for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's Poor People's Campaign, spoke to the freshmen and sophomores.

A Children's Theatre Standing Company is no longer a vision at Niles West. The company has greatly expanded itself, both in membership and in capabilities. Two highly professional plays were enacted by this troupe during the school year, including Hansel and Gretel and Alice in Wonderland. The bag lunchroom is the setting and the troupe caters particularly to grade school children from the entire Chicagoland area.

"I'll lay ya' 8 to 5, you'll be very happy!" This is typical dialogue from West's Spring Musical, Guys and Dolls. The show, presented on March 15 and 16, was a musical adaptation of Damon Runyan's "The Idyll of Sarah Brown," and centered around exciting Broadway characters, such as Nathan Detroit, Nicely-Nicely Johnson and Sky Masterson. The large men's chorus danced and sang enthusiastically, and Adelaide's Chorus Cuties created a lively atmosphere in the Broadway nightclub. The spirit presented on stage truly delighted the audience, making Guys and Dolls a wonderful presentation.

VARSITY FOOTBALL:

GRIDDERS HAVE WINNING SEASON

The 1967 Varsity gridders compiled a five win, two loss record, earning the third place slot in the Central Suburban League.

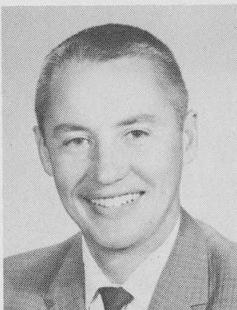

Coach Mike Basrak's team was led by Co-Captains Mike Grejbowski and Dick Salon and aided by Halfbacks Donn Simon and Paul Gans, End Ed Hirsch, and Fullback Nester Bordon. Grejbowski, Hirsch, Salon, and Simon were selected to the All-Conference team.

The Indians played in an expanded league this year, with the addition of a strong team from Maine West.

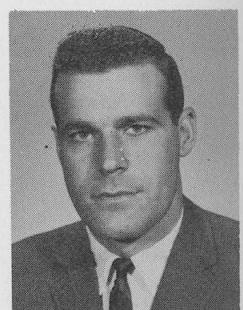

Highlighting the season was the Indian's twenty to nothing victory over the Deerfield Warriors, who, last year, defeated our gridders fourteen to nothing and went on to an undefeated season and the conference championship.

Leading off the team were team captain Jeff Schroder and most valuable player Alan Oberrotman, who compiled a .731 bout percentage in competition. It was a story of victories and defeats for the undergraduate teams this season.

The Freshman team, although high in ability, were low in their record. Overall their record was 3-7-1 and in conference 2-4-1.

High point of their season was the West Leyden Quadrangular Meet at which the matmen earned a second.

Sandor Nagy with a 10-1 record and Pete Witt with a 12-1 record, and co-captain Scott Perz with a 10-1 record were standouts this season.

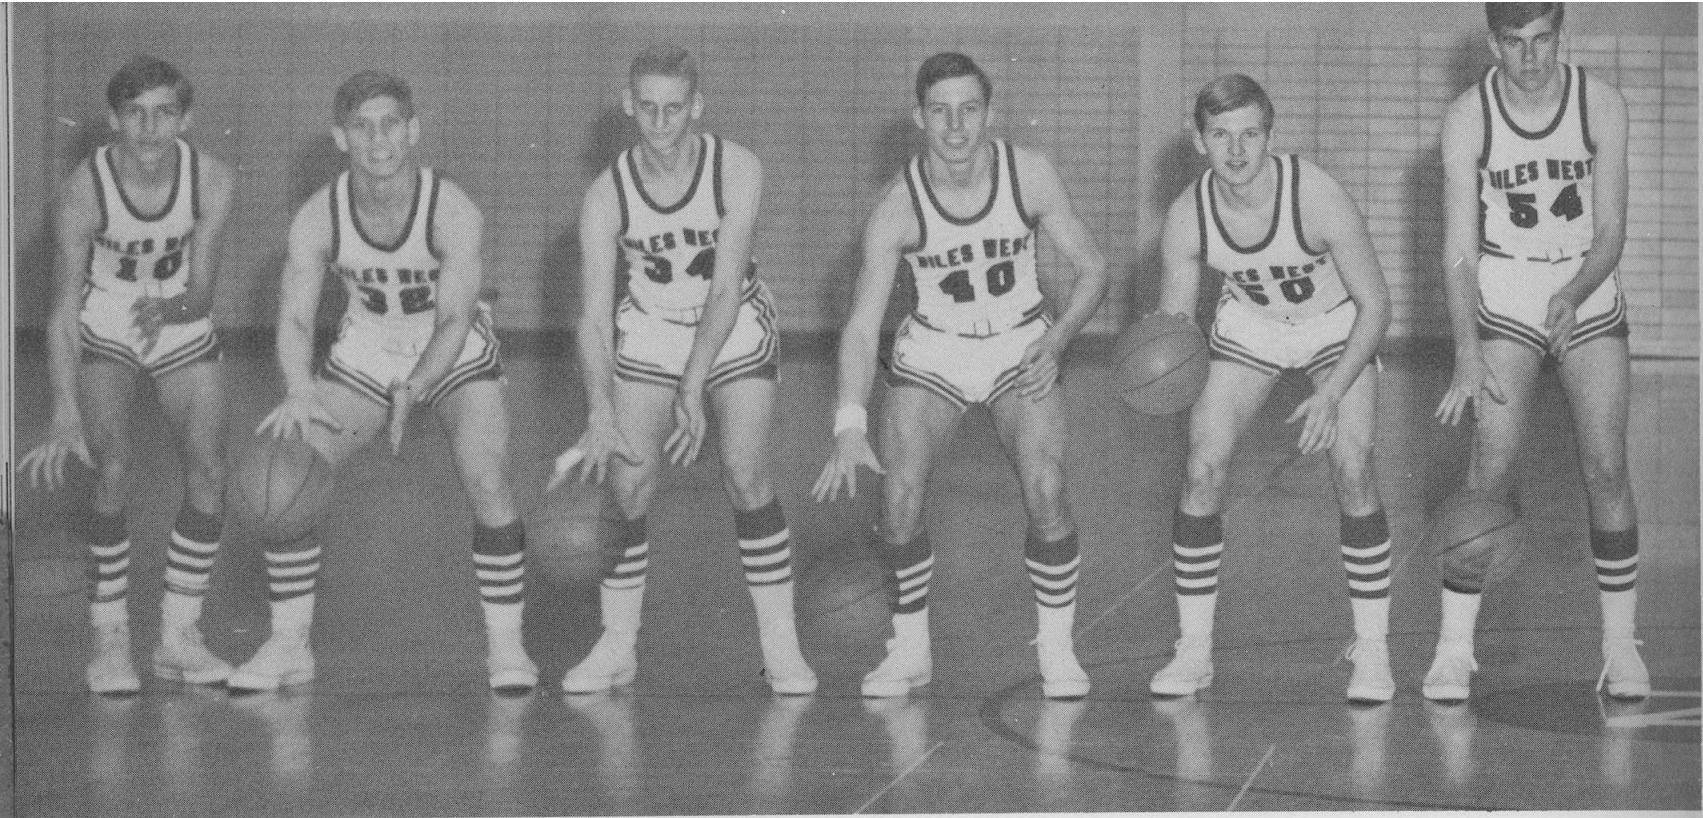

Barry Rosen works a pinning combination.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to thank all the people who devoted their energies to the production of Spectrum '68: first, sponsors Mr. Richard Manger and Miss Rita Stewart for their understanding, patience, and guidance; Mr. Richard Klein and Root Studio for their excellent photography; Mr. Ernie Rubak and the Norman King Publishing Company for their professional assistance. The section editors, Ronda Katz, Laurie Leader, Debbie Katz, Maureen Missner, Joan Levey, Lorel Zar, Alvin Katz, Wayne Chubin, Nancy Rochell, and Diane Zagoren, and their staffs deserve much credit for the time and effort they expended in editing and organizing their sections.

Special thanks go to Maury Kiley for his yearbook cover design and division page lettering, and to Kerry Leavitt for her excellent copy.

To these people and all the others who helped in the production of the 1968 Spectrum, my deepest appreciation.

Sincerely,
Judy Fried

"J.B."

The talent and maturity of both cast and crews were recognized when the Pulitzer-prize winning play "J.B." was presented on May 3rd and 4th. The play in verse questions man's faith in God by "testing" J.B., portrayed by Merrick Garland. Debating the strength of his belief were Spencer Dean and Danny Markoya, as Zuss and Nickles..

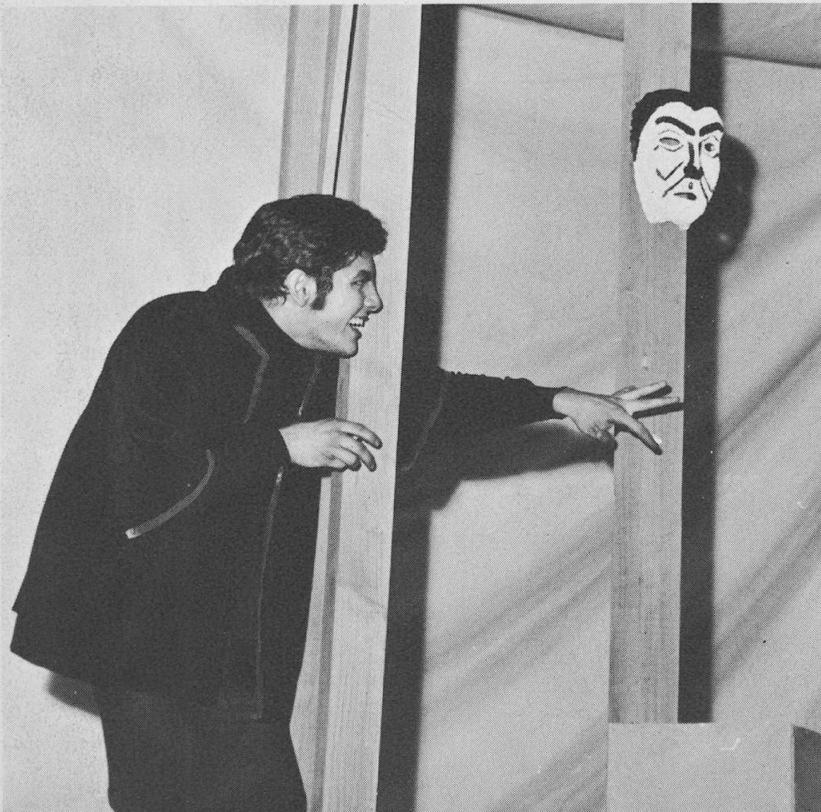

Outstanding technical innovations were created by construction, lighting, make-up, costume, prop, and stage crews, resulting in greater audience involvement.

Students, faculty directors, and audiences were forced to confront contemporary problems through the entertainment medium.

LAVINRAC '86

This year's Lavinrac '86, alias Carnival 1968, was a huge success. Introduced to the student body in an invasion of helium balloons, it brought a variety of fun to all ranging from the Caliverus County of Niles West's frog races and Mr. Gragg's flower power, to John Wilkes' Booth and Russian Roulette. Whether looked at frontwards or backwards, Lavinrac provided an exciting day of entertainment.

DANDELION WINE

The elegant Grand Ballroom of the Sherman House was the setting for Dandelion Wine, the prom honoring the class of 1968. On the evening of May 29th, couples danced to the music of both the Hudson Bay Company, and for the more conservative, Ralph Berger and His Orchestra.

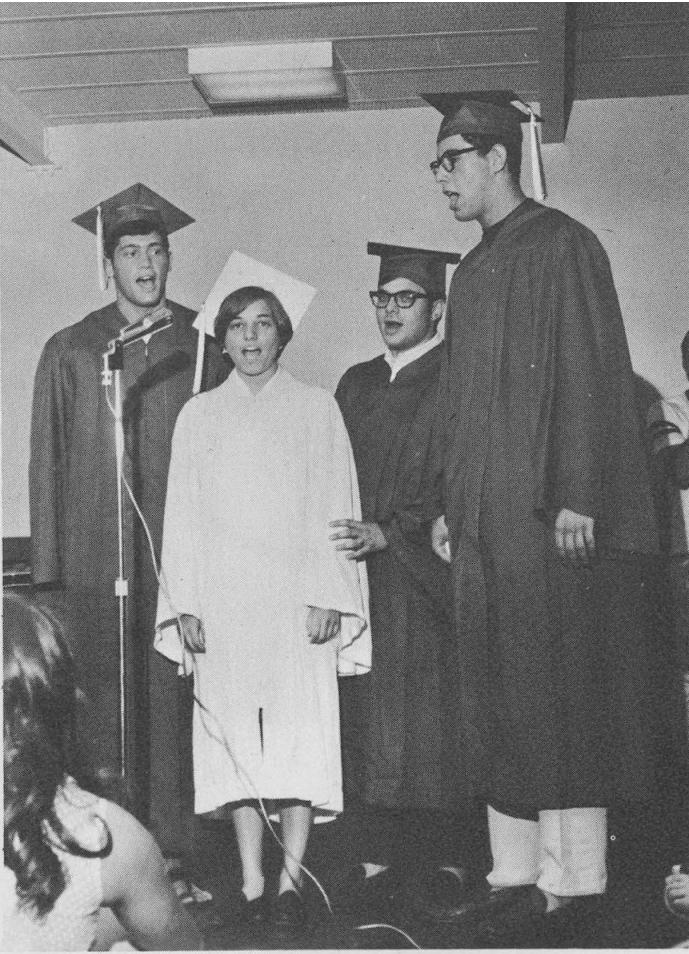

The culmination of the evening was attained at the crowning of King Jim Guenther and Queen Lonnie Taylor, reigning over their court of Barb Womer and Jim Leonard and Debbie Demeduc and John Ambrus. The dance was indeed as sweet and golden as its name--Dandelion Wine.

GRADUATION

MAN'S INHUMANITY TO MAN

"Many and sharp the numerous ills
Inwoven in our frame;
More pointed still, we make ourselves
Regret, remorse, and shame;
And man, whose heaven-erected face
The smiles of love adorn,
Man's inhumanity to man,
Makes countless thousands mourn."

Robert Burns
