HOW TO PLAY 219: A CHOOOL ODYSSEY

A Realistic Educational/Social GAME for ages 14-18, any number of players
OBJECT OF THE GAME: The object of the game is to be the first player to achieve his personal goal. By moving through the various areas of the board and accumulating the required points the players fulfill their individual goals.

THE PLAYING BOARD: The board consists of 3 areas: (1) THE OUTER TRACK (BLUE colored squares) involves the area of ACADEMICS and related activities; (2) THE GRADE LEVEL PATHS (RED colored squares) consist of the FRESHMAN, SOPHOMORE, JUNIOR, and SENIOR YEAR tracks and deal with SOCIAL activities; and (3) THE EXTRACURRICULAR PATHS, (GREEN colored tracks) consist of the SPORTS, CLUBS, and SCHOOL EVENTS tracks which involve out of class activities and events. ALL players must enter the 4 Grade Level Paths (exceptions — see DROPOUT and JUNIOR GRAD rules) and the Outer Track; the 3 activity paths are OPTIONAL.

SETTING THE GOAL: Before the game begins, each player sets his goal by writing it on his "PERMANENT RECORD" score sheet. Fill in the sheet as it applies to the goal. (see page 12 for illustration) Once chosen, THE GOAL CANNOT BE CHANGED. (exception — JUNIOR GRAD rule) ALL players must fulfill Graduation Requirement of 30 Grade Pts. in ENGLISH, SOC. STUDIES, SCIENCE, and MATHEMATICS CURRICULUM, 10 Grade pts. in PHYSICAL ED., and 30 pts. in other areas, total 70 Grade pts. Beyond this, players may choose from the following (NOTE — all Grade pts. include Graduation Requirements, and points are listed Grade, Social, Activity where applicable) Ivy League School: 110, 12, 50, SAT-1300, CEEB-1300. Private School: 100, 10, 40, SAT-1150, CEEB-1100. State University: 90, ACT-26. Jr. College: 80, ACT 23 or SAT 1000. Vocational School: 70. Job: 70 plus 1 year of WORK/STUDY.

SCORING: There are 3 types of points in the game: Grade points, Social points and Activity points. Each point type has a corresponding color and is found only in the area of the board that has that color. Grade points are found only on the Outer Track (BLUE) and are recorded in the Grade Points column of the score sheet. Social points are found only in the Grade Level Paths (RED) and are tallied in the Social points score sheet column, in the same manner as Grade points. Activity points are found only in the Extracurricular Paths (GREEN). These points are treated differently; for each and every activity square a player lands in, he makes a tally mark in the Activity Record column of the score sheet, for the respective path he is in (SPORTS, CLUBS, SCHOOL EVENTS). Each square = 1 tally.

GRADE POINTS — SPECIAL: For the CURRICULUM, FINALS, and COLLEGE TESTS squares, the following rule exists: players NEED NOT LAND IN these squares to participate or score points; they may pass over them, and on completion of their move score points, roll die, etc. For the CURRICULUM squares, there are 2 additional rules: first, a player may remain in a square for 1 turn and SCORE AN ADDITIONAL 1 GRADE POINT BEYOND THE PRINTED VALUE. THE ONE TURN ADDITION IS MAXIMUM — ON THE FOLLOWING TURN, THE PLAYER RESUMES MOVEMENT. THIS BONUS IS OPTIONAL. Second, a player is limited to scoring Grade points from any CURRICULUM SQUARES MAXIMUM PER YEAR (YEAR — ONCE AROUND BOARD). This is a maximum only — there is no minimum.

PLAYING THE GAME: The game consists of moving around the board 4 times (exception — JUNIOR GRAD or DROPOUT). Each Player MUST travel through all 4 Grade Levels Paths, subject to the following rule: BEFORE HE MAY ENTER THE NEXT GRADE LEVEL PATH, HE MUST CIRCLE THE REST OF THE BOARD. This applies to the Grade Level Paths ONLY.

HOW TO MOVE: Movement on the game board is accomplished in 3 ways. First, the basic movement on the Outside Track and in the Extracurricular Paths: a player may move 1, 2, or 3 square per turn, and he MUST move AT LEAST ONE SQUARE PER TURN. To enter an inside path (Grade Level or Extracurricular) a player loads on the entrance square and ends his turn. ON HIS NEXT TURN, he enters the path. The second method of movement is by use of the special die (with 1, 2, and 3 spots). This movement by die roll takes place ONLY WITHIN THE GRADE LEVEL PATHS. Upon entering the path, the player rolls the die and moves the amount indicated. Once he returns to the Outside Track, he resumes REGULAR (selective) movement. The third type of movement is governed by the following rule: every FIFTH turn, EACH player rolls the die TWICE, adds the sum of the two rolls, and refers to the DETOUR TABLE for the result. (see illustration on page 12) The player moves to the designated space, follows the instructions and then RETURNS TO THE SQUARE HE CAME FROM. (this rule also applies to deviation from the Grade Level Paths — the "Go to Counselor's Office," etc. squares — the player RETURNS to the track). The TABLE affects ALL players in ALL tracks.

GRADUATION: When a player finds that he has accumulated enough Grade points to meet Graduation Requirements (along with proper CURRICULUM) he may graduate. He does not have to if his goal is not yet achieved, as achieving the goal is the object of the game. To graduate, a player declares that he is graduating and moves to the center of the board. His score sheet is checked, and if correct, his marker is removed.

JUNIOR GRADUATE: At the beginning of the game, a player may decide to make as part of his goal Graduation after Junior Year; if so, he notes this on his score sheet. He CANNOT WIN unless he graduates THAT YEAR. If a player finds that, after completion of Junior Year he cannot fulfill this goal, he CAN change his goal with the penalty that he may not win UNTIL HE COMPLETES THE SENIOR YEAR. THIS IS THE ONLY INSTANCE WHERE A PLAYER CAN CHANGE HIS GOAL AFTER THE GAME BEGINS.

DROPPING OUT: If a player feels that he cannot achieve his goal he may drop out anytime after completion of SOPHOMORE YEAR. The player declares that he is dropping out, and moves to the DROPOUT square and follows the instructions there. If he wishes to return to the game he may, by beginning again his last COMPLETED year. His goal, however, remains UNCHANGED.

WINNING THE GAME: When a player achieves his goal, he may at anytime declare it. If no one else has met his goal at this time, he is the winner. If 2 or more players achieve their goal at the same time, they all win.

SPECIAL RULES: When a player is leaving a Grade Level Path and wishes to stop at a CURRICULUM square but his die roll will take him BEYOND it, he may end his move on the CURRICULUM square.

Quarterback Scott Zolke (Above), here handing off to Fullback Ray Lain, is valued by all coaches as "West's best quarterback ever." Zolke's predecessors include such greats as professional Jim Hart, the current quarterback for the St. Louis Cardinals. All Conference Mike Schreiber (Right) eludes tacklers at Niles East. Schreiber rushed for 862 yards, 10 TD's, and his offensive play was instrumental in the Tribe's undefeated season.

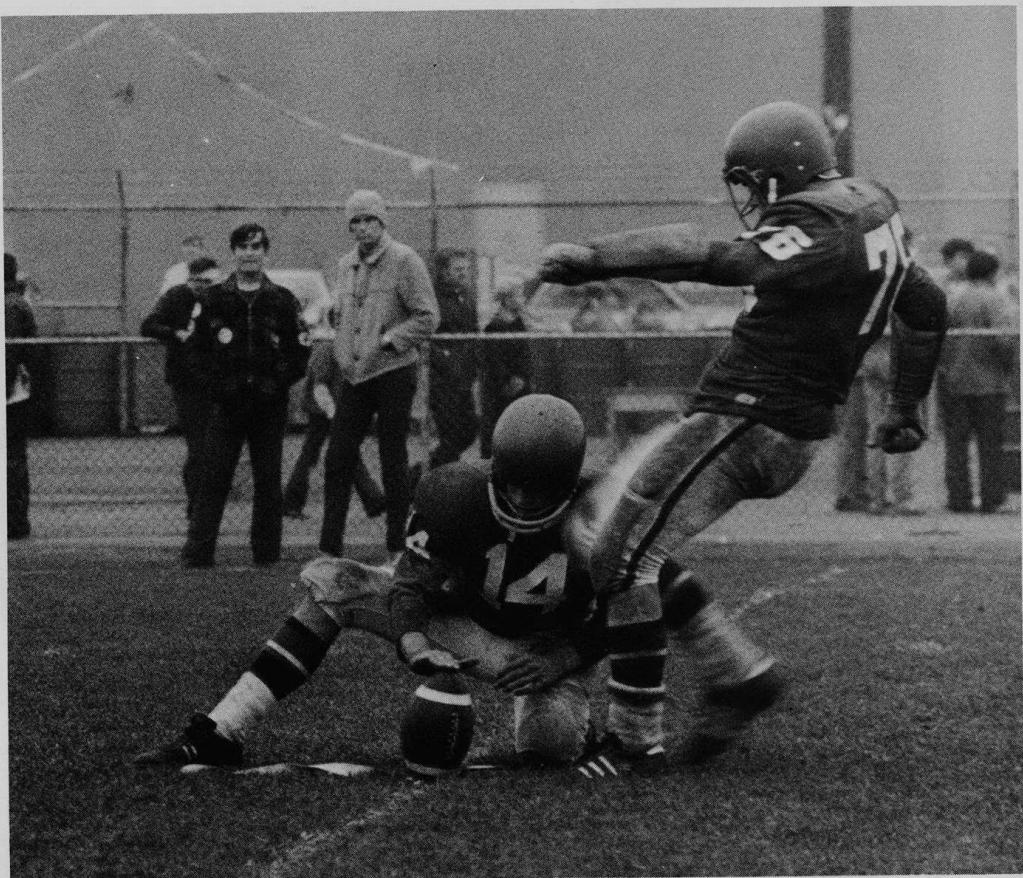

Behind the brainwork of West's head coaches Bill Schnurr and Mike Basrak (Left) the Indians amassed a total offense of 29.2 points per game — highest in the Central Suburban League. (Below right) in an attempt to gain yardage, Rich Lain reaches for the ball.

Forward Russell Frey neatly handles the ball past a defensive opponent and dribbles the ball downfield.

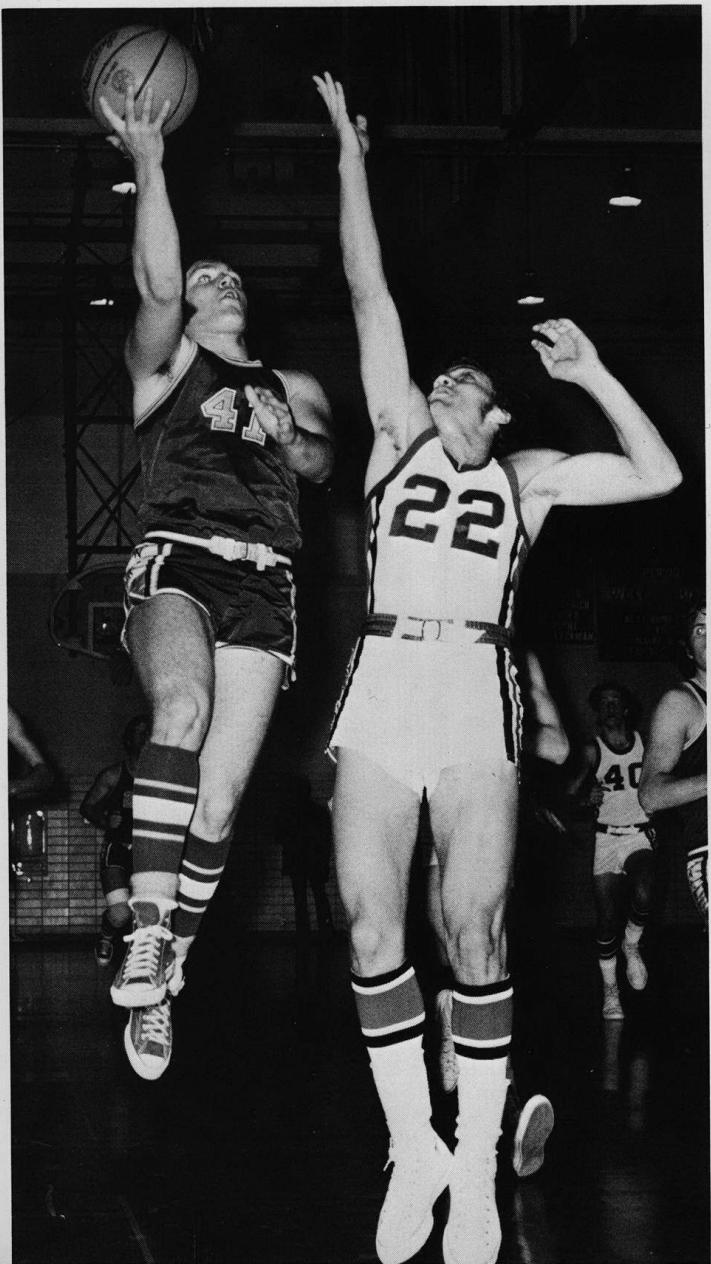

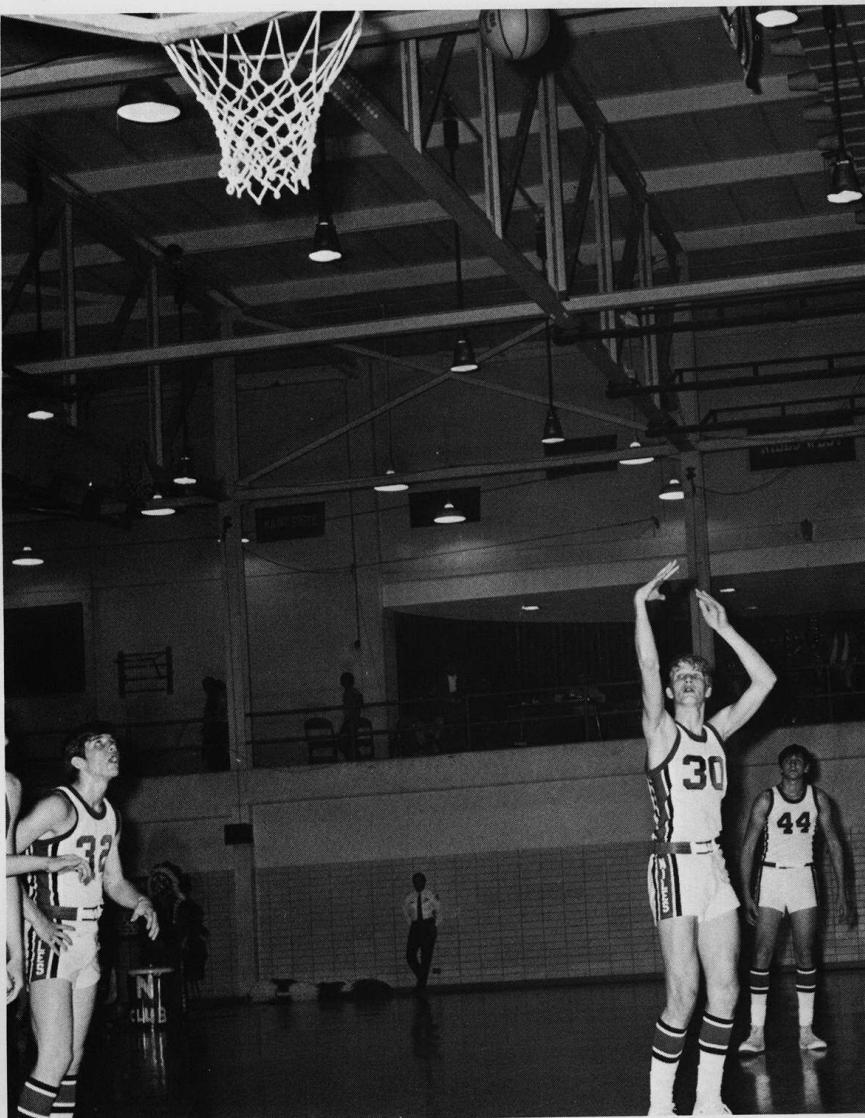

Niles West began the 1971-1972 season as conference contenders, winning their first eight contests. Especially noted was the early victory over an annual nemesis Evanston. Blake Lorenz (Above) was known for his backcourt talent while Dan Welter (Above Right) controlled the boards. Senior sixth man, Tom Amarantos (Right) was formidable at either guard or forward.

BASKETBALL

Depth was decisive in Indian Victories. Coming off the bench with a leg injury sustained in football, Senior Scott Zolke (Left) provided needed rebounding strength. Foul shooting proved a strong point on the squad as Brad Cartwright (Below) made over sixty percent of his free throws.

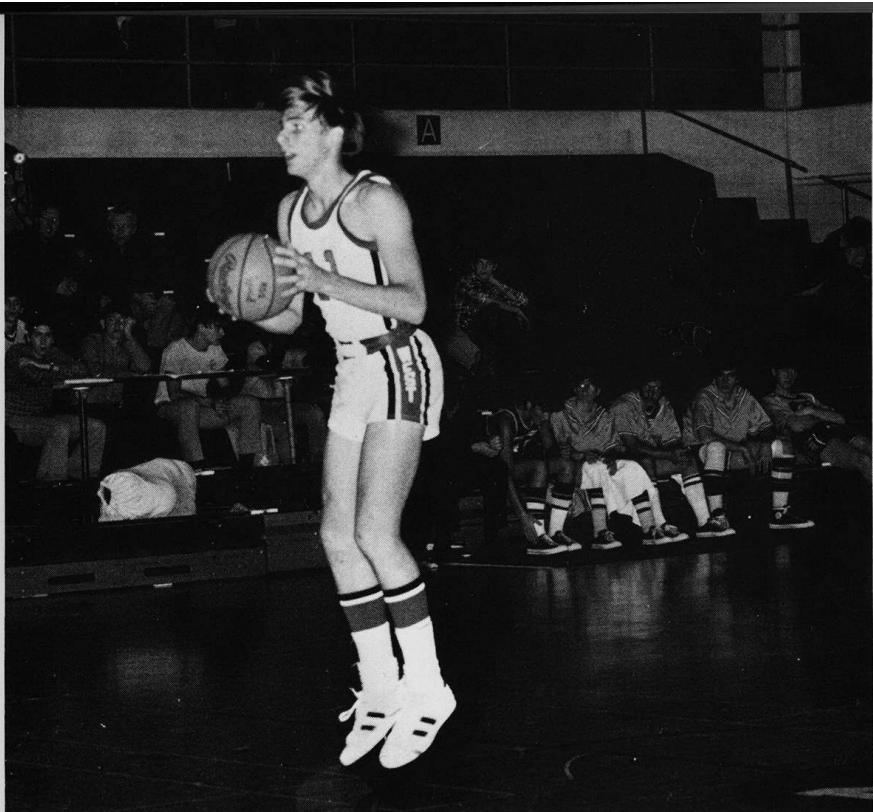

As Juniors prevailed, Captain Don Burrows (Left) was the only starting Senior. His play sparked the team with his combined offensive and defensive ability.

The prowess of West's outside shooters was an important factor in the tribe's early eight game winning streak. Six-foot four inch center, Brad Cartwright (Right) was consistent on his jump shot from the baseline. Senior guard Don Burrows (Below) boasted a sixteen point per game average, including a thirty point night in the victory against New Trier West.

COMING HOME

The cold weather does not daunt the spirit of the Indians as they defeat Thornwood 30 to 6 during the Homecoming game.

Opening Homecoming Day with a bang, the marching band leads the parade down Oakton Street.

The winning float declares doom for the Thornwood Thunderbirds in the upcoming game.

Colonel Sanders says, "What West wants, West gets," and West got it with a Homecoming victory.

Elated, Homecoming Queen Paula Housakos is congratulated by football co-captain Jim Thornton.

Max Tash and Debbie Erlebacher take a moment to rest before they return to the swinging '60's dance floor.

The Army nurse (Ellice Heyman) acts oblivious toward Marion Cheefer's (Gordon Rothman) complaints that he is too unhealthy and should not be inducted in "Next."

After succumbing to Gloria's (Renee Gott) gentle ways, Ben (Jim Sherman) lets her teach him French in the "Tiger."

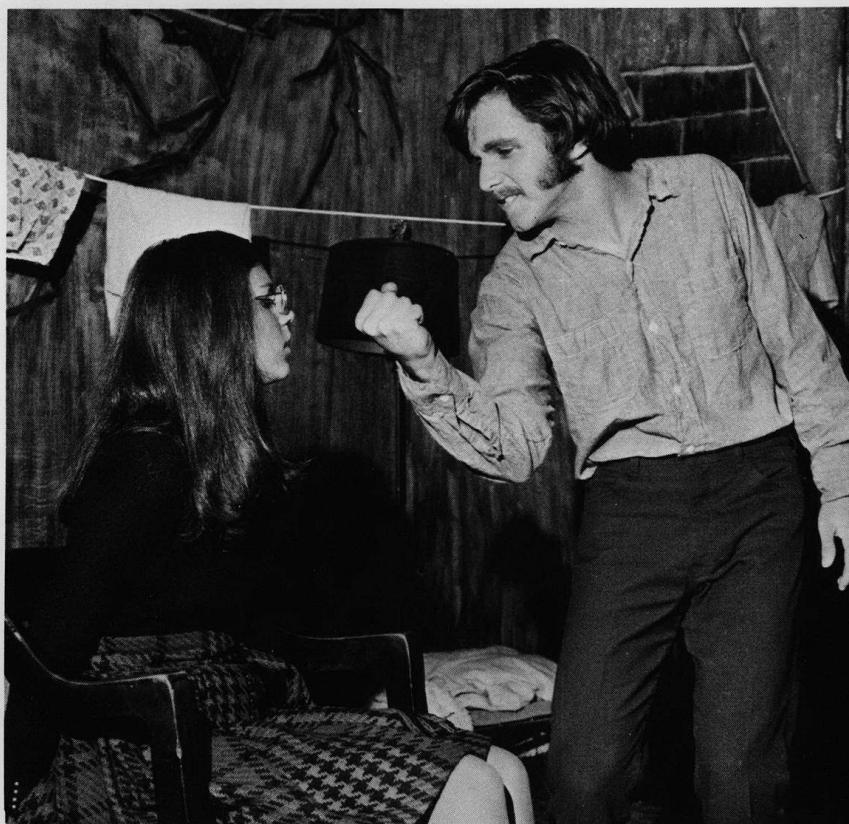

Confronted with emotional problems stemming from his new marriage, Phil Benson (Ken Piontek) looks perplexed after his wife Doris (Nancy Leonchik) names his son Doree (Dave Boylan).

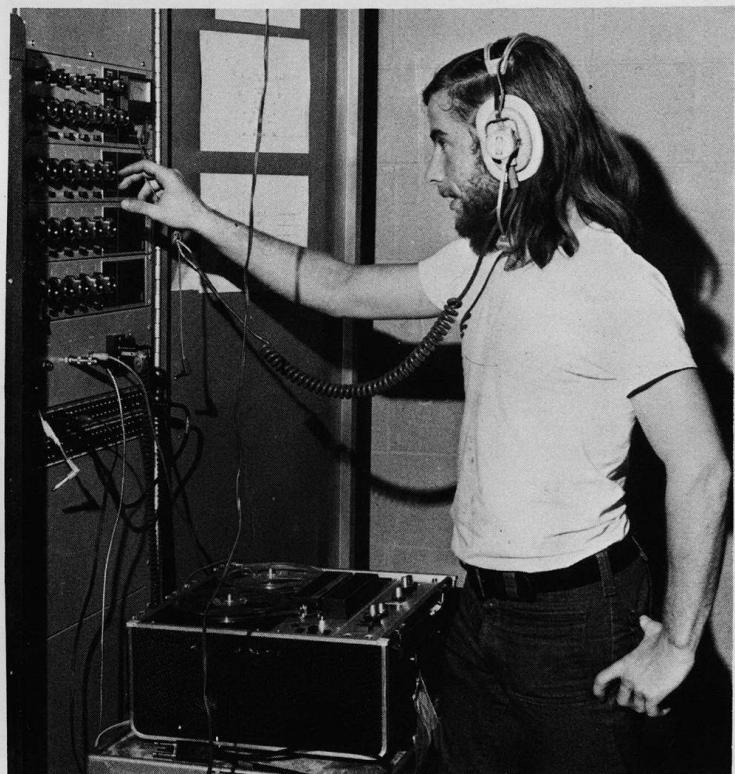

Dave Boylan, portraying the psychiatrist, attempts to help Phil understand his high school problems in "Adaptation."

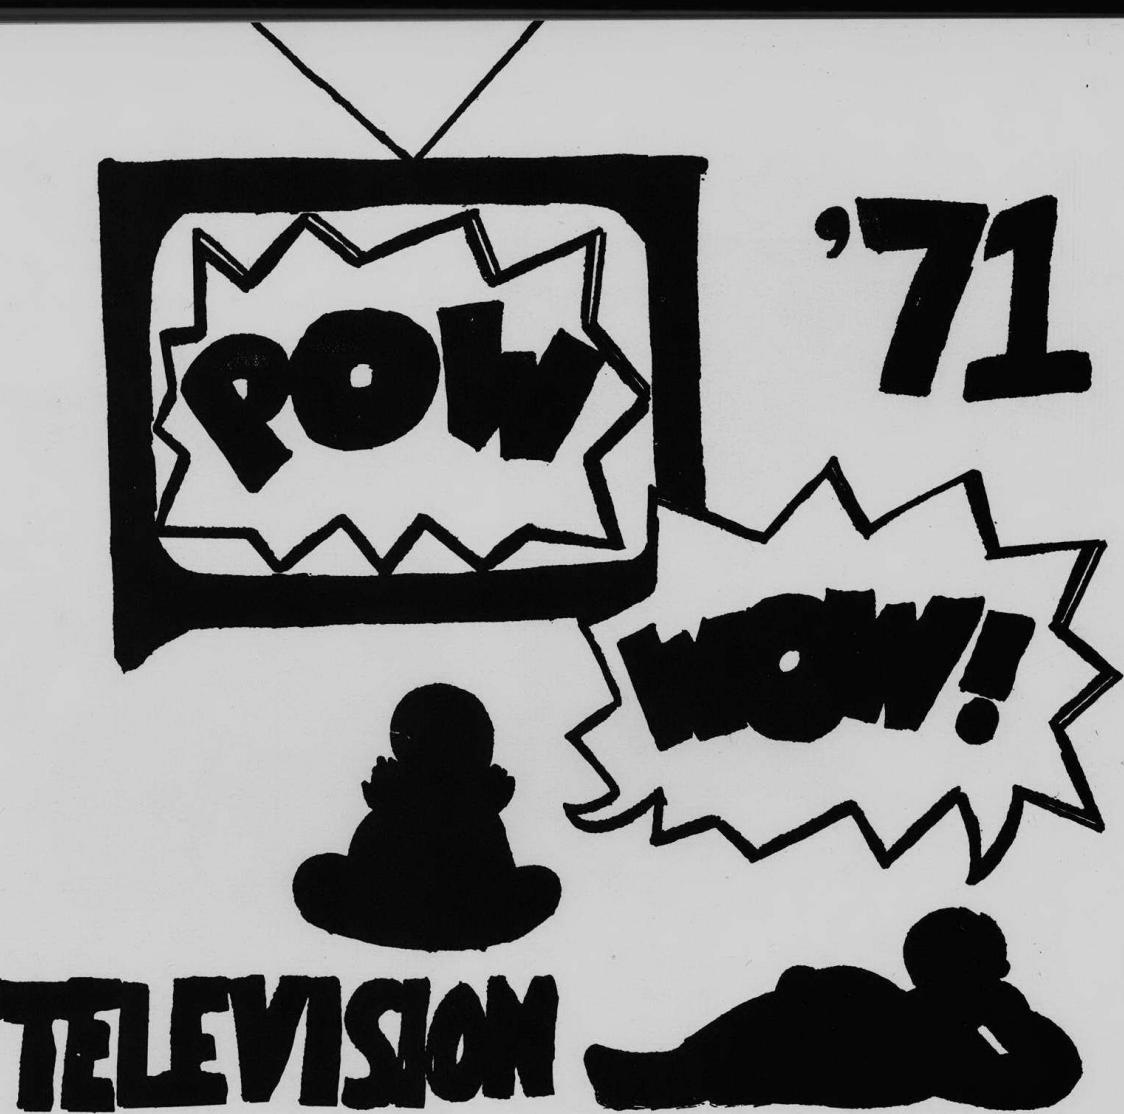

Ben violently attacks Gloria's middle-class-suburban-housewife values.

Embarrassed, forty year old Cheefer refuses to submit to the Army physical.

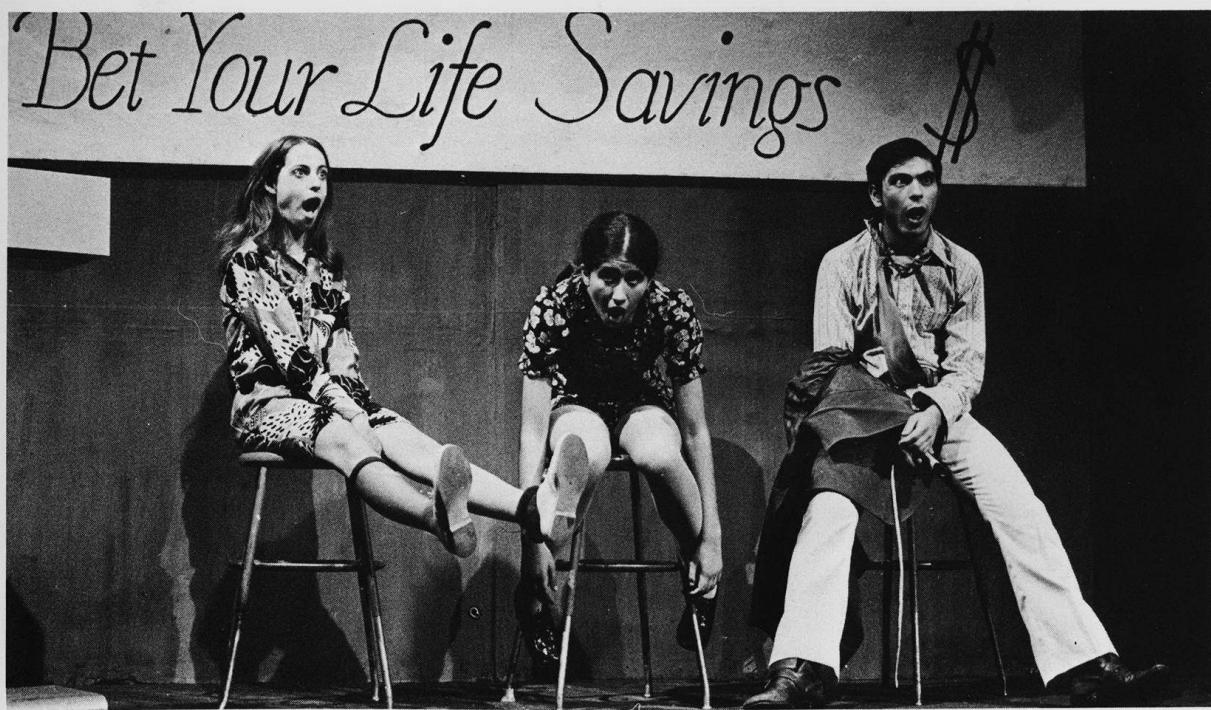

Crew member Bruce Miller listens for his cue before adjusting the music for the three fall plays.

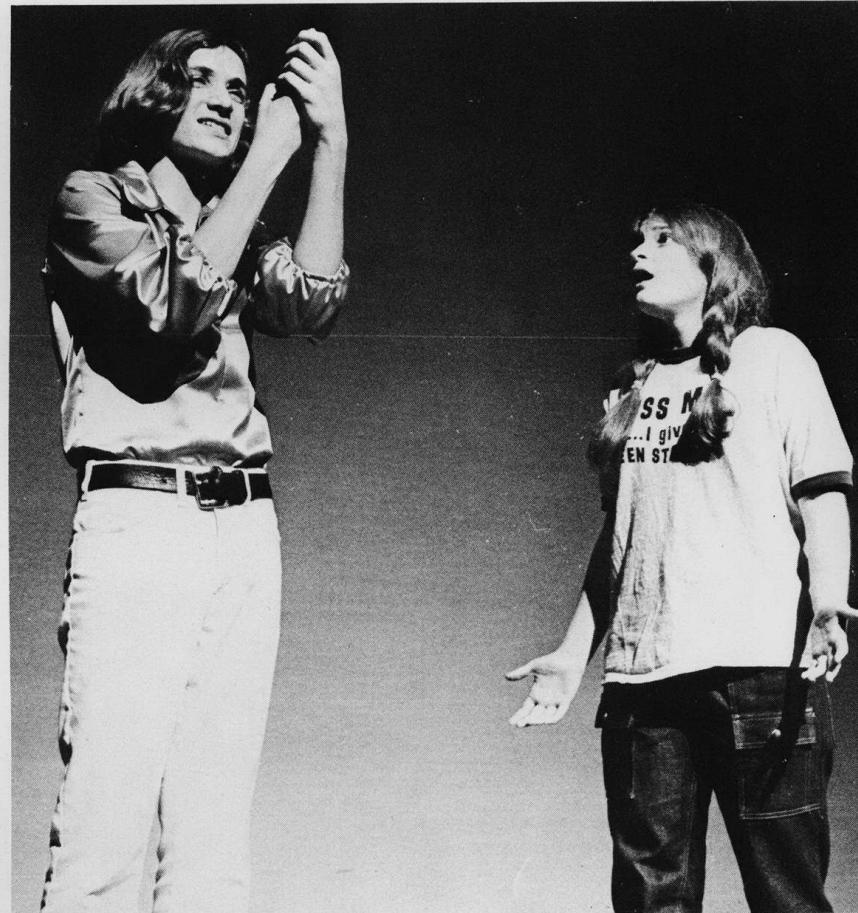

Right: Opening Pow Wow '71 — "Vast Wastelands for Fun and Profit" — is Lance Rightguard (Ken Rubenstein) and the entire standing company with the "Greatness of Me."

Left: The game show "You Bet Your Life Savings" is momentarily interrupted by a newsbreak during which Raquel Welch does a strip-tease act for contestants Debbie Nudelman and Michelle Abrams and host David Boylan.

Above: Clarifying and distinguishing the true irrelevance of television was this year's theme for "Pow Wow '71" and was exemplified in a satire on "Marcus Welby, M.D.", with Ami Kornel as Carcuss Smelby and Debbie Potash as his assistant.

Left: The highlight of the show, Gary Simon, utilizes the effectiveness of an original script in several humorous "Goldbatt's" commercials.

Right: Pow Wow crew members paint the sets for the show on Saturday afternoons and after school. Below: Melissa Mills (Nancy Stone) interrupts the Professor (Steve Lewis) to allow for "station identification."

Host Bill Homer provides questions to team members Terry Hoffman, Steve Lewis, Donna Stone, Glenn Berman, Debbie Pines and Bruce Neuman on "It's Egocentric."

Children's

Right: Toad (Audrey Hirsch) attempts to explain to an uninterested Rat (Jill Franklin) his reasons for being so conceited. Below: Lucy Rabbit (Monica Levin), Mama Rabbit (Lori Mangurten) and Harold Rabbit (Robyn Harold) hop merrily onto the stage despite Mama Rabbit's insistence that Lucy and Harold must go to school.

This year's Children's Theater production of "Toad of Toad Hall" delighted and interested the many children that came to watch the play.

Theater

Left: Toad struts about proudly, trying to prove that he is indeed the greatest. Below: Toad gloomily awaits his trial for speeding and calling the Policeman (Sarinda Weitz) a "Fat Face."

Music

Concert band members rehearse their selections for the May Festival.

Forums

Right: Encouraging student involvement is the musical group "Up With People", who sing about people "because they're the best kinda' folks we know."

Right: Playing the role of the underdog, Daniel Walker, Democratic candidate for governor, speaks on legalizing abortion, more money for better education, improving state mental hospitals, and the Democratic slatemakers' new proposal for the most expensive expressway in the country. Above: Dr. Preston Bradley, Senior Pastor of the People's Church of Chicago, states his views on the state of American society, during an assembly in the auditorium.

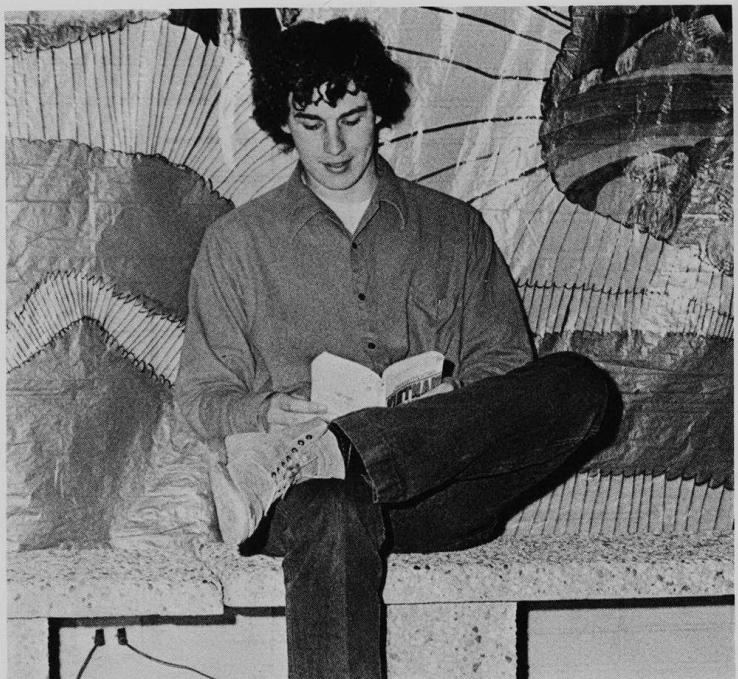

Left above: Congressman Abner Mikva is disappointed over the small turnout of student voters registering and comes to Niles West seeking help.

STUDENT EXCHANGE

(Right): The students from Phoenix Indian High School participating in the six week exchange program include Bill Miller, John Davis, Ronald Mote, Melvina Harris, Amelia John, and Marieta Siowman.

IT'S ACADEMIC

(Above): Troubled by a late start, Jeff Epstein, Jay Mandell, and Sanford Levin lacked the necessary time for a successful victory in the primary elimination.

PROJECT '70

While some marchers rest, the others continue their walk on this year's Project '70 hike.

Hello Dolly

(Right): Dolly Levi (Audrey Holzer) receives a joyous reunion with the Harmonia Gardens Restaurant in this year's spring musical, "Hello Dolly!" (Below): Minnie Fay (Andi Landsman) and Barnaby Tucker (Ken Piontek) join Irene Malloy (Carol Berman) and Cornelius Hackle (Jay Hackin) in the finale of "Hello Dolly!"

(Right): The patrons of the Harmonia Gardens gather together in the courtroom to hear the verdict on Vandegelder's charge of disturbing the peace.

(Above): Dolly proceeds to cut Horace Vandegelder's meat (Paul Smedberg) with the assistance of the headwaiter Rudy (Bruce Newman). (Right): Rudy and the Harmonia Gardens cooks (Bruce Kravitz, Mark Stein, Ami Kornell, and Ken Rubenstein) join in to welcome back Dolly with the song "Hello Dolly."

Dolly listens patiently to Ambrose Kemper's (Dahl Rask) explanation of why he and Ermengarde (Jill Schlan) must be married immediately.

Prom

Graduation
