Each class administrator is responsible for one class level. These men have the responsibility of developing a personal relationship with students and parents through group and individual contact. The class level administrator handles all discipline, attendance, educational, and emotional adjustment problems of the students referred to him. When necessary, he arranges conferences with parents. He also supervises faculty members by making class visitations, observing their work and preparing written evaluation reports for the principal.

The English department works to accomplish widely diversified aims. Teachers attempt to instill an appreciation of literature in their students through studies of great authors, such as Shakespeare beginning in the Freshman year, Dickens in the Sophomore year, Twain in the Junior year, and Thoreau in the Senior year. Composition, as well as specific techniques in creative and expository writing, are integral parts of a year's curriculum. The basic mechanics of English grammar are reviewed at each class level so that students viewed at each class level so that students will be able to write correctly when they leave Nilehi. Special interest courses, such as English Literature, Journalism, and Creative Writing, are offered to students interested in specific aspects of the study of English.

The Foreign Language department enables the willing student to develop a basic knowledge of French, German, Latin, Russian, or Spanish. This year the department is continuing its development of the ALM (Audio-Lingual Materials) program. Teachers are for the first time using the ALM books on the third level of instruction. In addition, students read supplementary books to increase their vocabulary and learn sentence structure. To enable the student to understand the roots and background of his respective language, the department shows movies to each class on an average of three a month. The language laboratory is still used to develop facility in speaking and understanding the spoken language. This facility is accomplished by playing tapes of native speakers or by using the equipment that enables the teacher to listen to each student in privacy. In all, the Foreign Language department is progressing in its efforts to improve the depth of existing programs and use the excellent facilities of the department with the greatest possible efficiency.

The Social Studies department continues to overhaul its curriculum as it strives to improve the quality of Social Studies education at Niles. This year thousands of dollars were spent to increase its film library. No longer does the department show dull, old-fashioned films. Instead, it has incorporated regular television documentaries and even Hollywood feature films into the curriculum. This year the Social Studies department, in overhauling its textbooks, eliminated outdated one and substituted five new ones. The department sent representatives to two national conventions, one in Miami Beach and one in San Francisco, to keep up with the trends of historical thought. In continuation with the practice commenced last year, major public figures, such as Mrs. Paul Douglas, Mayor Daley, and Charles Percy, were engaged to speak to the student body. Change remains the keynote of the Social Studies department.

This geometry student demonstrates a construction on the blackboard.

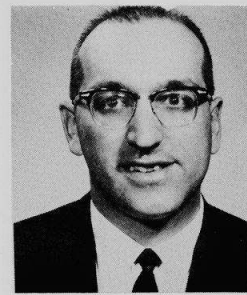

This year the Mathematics department added several new courses to its curriculum. For the first time, the department offered a two year sequence of general math courses. It covers one year of general math and one year of algebra. If he wants to, a student can take just one year of this sequence and receive credit for one year of general math. Another new course, open to Juniors, is advanced algebra including trigonometry, called Algebra-Trig. Next year the Mathematics department will introduce to Seniors AGIC, Analytical Geometry with an Introduction to Calculus. The activities of the Mathematics department are not limited to the introduction of new courses. One of the highlights of the year for math students is the annual math contest held throughout the state.

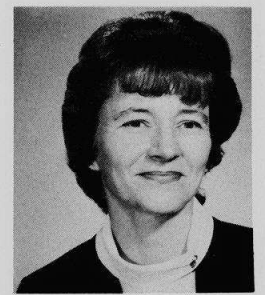

Learning the applications of mathematical principles is an important part of freshman algebra.

Laboratory experiments as well as textbook theory are important in chemistry.

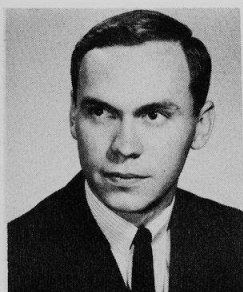

SCIENCE molds the future.

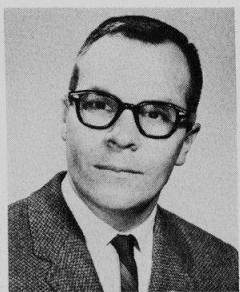

To satisfy the needs of its increasingly complex courses, the Niles East Science department recently purchased several pieces of new machinery. For the Science Seminar the department bought a calculator that has a memory unit used for storing the information obtained from the calculator. A linear air tract is now being used in the physics courses to study the dynamics of motion. There are two meter balances, capable of measuring to the 1/10,000th of a gram, which are available to advanced placement chemistry students. The biology classes recently acquired a "shaker" to agitate solutions. Biology students can now also use an electrophoresis for the study of chromatology. Science students at Niles thus have the opportunity to experience first hand the tremendous progress being made in contemporary science all over the world.

Mr. Burns supplements his biology lectures with the overhead projector.

The boys can participate in basketball, football, track, and baseball; the girls have interscholastic tennis and badminton. The opportunities in the intramural program are equally extensive. Gymnastics, recreational swimming, bowling, physical conditioning, checkers, and water polo are available to the boys, and girls through G.A.A., have an equally wide selection of activities, such as softball, badminton, basketball, volleyball, swimming, and modern dance.

Barbara Marcus gains true secretarial experience in listening to dictation.

The Business Education department offers courses not only for students planning to enter the labor market right after high school, but also for those who are planning to enter college in preparation for secretarial and business administration careers. The future accountant may start his training early by taking bookkeeping, while the future administrator and executive can learn the fundamentals of their careers in Business Law. An artistically inclined student can explore the field of advertising in the advertising course Niles offers. In addition, students may acquire marketable skills useable directly after high school. Secretarial practice thoroughly trains the future secretary in shorthand, typing, and the use of business machines, while clerical practice trains those who aren't interested in shorthand. The ambitious student can learn how to write accurate business letters and persuasive school reports in business communications and brush up on his spelling in sales.

The Industrial Arts and Home Economics courses fulfill two purposes: for some students, they supplement college preparations; for others, these courses begin vocational training. The Industrial Arts department, which offers such courses as architectural drawing, electricity, and photography, is helpful to future engineers, architects, and even consumers. Future engineers can benefit by learning engineering graphics; would-be architects learn about building materials. In these courses, the student uses both his hands and mind to create a work of craftsmanship. Girls also aim for a successful combination of manual skills and technical abilities. Girls learn not only how to sew, cook, and manage homes, but also how to budget, plan nutritional meals, and choose furniture with an eye towards color and price. Girls may take three different types of Home Economics classes: clothing, home management, and foods. In clothing courses, girls learn the techniques of sewing and the ways of choosing flattering clothes. Girls in home management courses learn about child care and selection of furniture. Besides learning how to cook and market wisely, girls in foods courses may begin their careers in the field of nutrition.

MUSIC

The Art and Music departments provide opportunities for interested and talented students to develop their natural abilities in these respective fields. Student interest in art has greatly increased over the years; in 1958, only 50 students were enrolled in art courses; today over 350 students are involved in such activities as oil painting, sculpturing, print and jewelry making, and theatre art. The highlight of the year is the art show held in the Assembly Room in May or June during which time 500 pieces of student art are exhibited. The Music department enables its students to participate in singing and playing instruments. Any student wishing to sing can join a glee club or mixed chorus, while selected students can participate in the Choir, Lorelei, or Barbershoppers. The three last groups perform outside of school as well as within. The budding instrumentalist can take Beginners' Band and progress to the Concert Band and Orchestra. To heighten the student body's interest in music, the Music department puts on a winter and spring music festival.

Passing the driving test is one of the long-awaited events in a teenager's life. To prepare these anxious students, Niles East offers to them a drivers' education program. This program is carried out in three phases. First, all Sophomores must participate in a 6 week classroom instruction period. The second phase of the drivers' education program enables the students to become familiar with driving situations by using the Aetna Drivo-Trainer machines. Finally the students get "Behind the Wheel" in one of the school's trainer cars. This phase of the program allows the students to experience real traffic situations and teaches them the fine points of handling a car. After this course, students are ready for their all-important test. They have been taught good judgment and driving skills, and the rest is up to them.

GUIDANCE

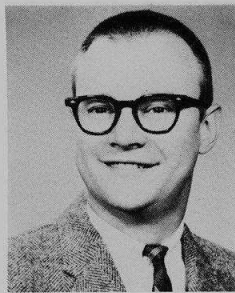

The duties of a guidance counselor, contrary to common belief, are not confined to the purely technical tasks of making out schedule changes and filling out college recommendations. A student can discuss with his counselor not only school matters, but also personal problems and feeling. A counselor is a person to be trusted, a person with whom a student can talk freely. But the counselor's office is never a place where a student can avoid the consequences of his actions. It is instead a place where students can bring their character into the open and examine it. A counselor will never condemn a student for his behavior, but instead will help the student to realize the nature of any situation he may find himself in and to figure out how to cope with it. Thus, a guidance counselor helps a student not only to get the most out of his high school years, but also to make the most of his life in general.

SPECIAL SERVICES

The duties of Special Services at Niles East range from assisting specifically handicapped student to aiding the student body in general. The speech correctionist and impaired hearing instructor aid students with difficulties so that they will be able to function better in their classes. The homebound instructors prevent seriously ill students from falling behind in their courses. An elaborately equipped reading laboratory is available for students wishing to correct a reading deficiency or increase their reading speed and comprehension skills. Compiling one book to represent the school year, including not only that which is new or unique, but also the daily basics of school life is the job of a yearbook staff. A yearbook must translate the joys, the disappointments, and even the routine of a school year into words and pictures. Through the tasks of planning layouts, choosing pictures, writing copies, the Reflections staff strives to maintain the highest standards and to produce a book satisfying both the students and the faculty. In these pages Reflections '66 presents the people, organizations, and events of Niles East from September of 1965 to June of 1966, structuring these elements to bring a recollection of the school year--today, tomorrow, or the night of the 25th class reunion.

Staff members Norm Leopold, Nancy Dunn, Eileen Klehr, and Sue Waysdorf select pictures for their section.

Golden Galleon

Golden Galleon, Nilehi's literary magazine encourages student writing and creativity. Contributions to the magazine may be essays, short stories, poetry, foreign language pieces, or artwork. A student who has had work accepted for publication becomes a member of the Golden Galleon Guild. The editorial staff of the Guild chose "Fire and Ice" by Robert Frost as the theme for this year's artwork and selected which contributions would appear in the magazine. At the Galleon banquet in May, the society initiates new members and awards the annual scholarship to a graduating member of the Guild. During the following week members of the Guild distribute the magazines in English classes and conclude their year's work.

Guild members Arlene Rotkin, Ellen Beaver, and Mike Alpern correct a manuscript.

Nilehilite

Niles East's bi-monthly publication, the Nilehilite, gives the student body a means of expression. The paper consists of four pages: page one is news, two is editorial, three is features, and four, sports. Special issues of the paper include the Christmas Issue, the Apprentice Issue, and the Senior Issue. The paper is organized and put together by 24 students, the largest staff in the paper's history, and is under the direction of a new sponsor, Miss Fran Morris. Only students who have completed the school journalism course can be selected to work on the paper. This year, the Nilehilite is competing for its tenth First Place Award from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

Student Council

Student Council, the only organization which represents the entire student body, has representatives chosen by each of the four classes individually. This past year Council took a more active part in student affairs than ever before. Student Council purchased and presented the school with a new flag, designed, chosen, and ordered by students. As service to those new to Niles East, Council sponsored a Freshman orientation day and a Freshman mixer. Student Council benefited the students by discussing the testing situation with the administration, piping music into the cafeteria, and making a study of the student lounge situation. Council members again ran the school store as a convenience for those who wish to buy school supplies and sold athletic passes which allowed the owner to attend all home games at a great savings. Student Council sponsored various pep rallies and assemblies which added to school spirit. By a week of canning for the United Fund Drive, Council was again able to support a Korean War orphan and to donate to various other charities. Through these and other activities and services, Council increased the say of the student body, as well as interest in the affairs of Niles East.

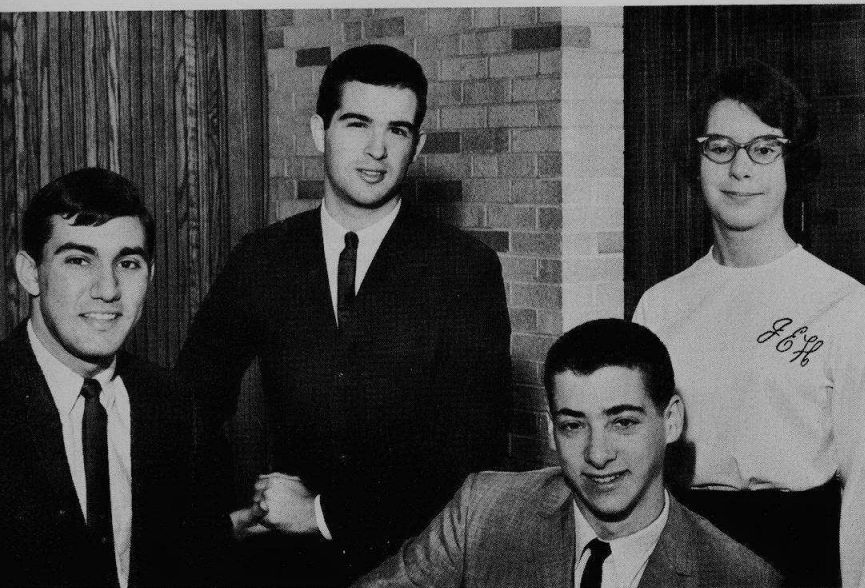

Admiring the new school flag are Sue Tarantur, Cliff Rudnick, and Barton Pearl.

Student Service Organization

This year the Student Service Organization celebrated its thirteenth birthday as an integral part of Nilehi. Operating under the belief that high school students are mature enough not to require teacher supervision every period of the school day, SSO enables students to do jobs that are ordinarily done by teachers at other schools, saving teachers' valuable time and giving more responsibility to students. This year the twenty SSO study halls included a freshman study hall, extending SSO to all four classes.

SSO is composed of the following three branches: Student Supervised Study Halls, Student Supervised Monitors, and Special Serviced Division. An executive board, including the head of each of the three branches of SSO, supervises and coordinates the organization's activities. The continued success of SSO at Niles is a tribute to our school and a responsibility for our students.

The instrumental department provides music for many school functions, ranging from the annual musical to all-school pep rallies. The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Auge, plays for the Spring and Winter Music Festivals and for the school musical. Mr. Provost directs the three different bands at Niles. The Cadet Band trains beginning players. The Stage Band, a small group that includes students from the other Nileses, meets Mondays after school and performs for such functions as Reflections Revelries. The Concert Band, for the more advanced students, plays for football games, assemblies, and pep rallies, in addition to meeting daily. Any student who has some knowledge of a musical instrument can join these instrumental organizations and increase his understanding and enjoyment of music.

Students with insight on their future careers can join a variety of vocational clubs to learn the different aspects of their particular field. These professional clubs provide the students with a realistic approach to their chosen fields. This year Niles had three vocational clubs: The Future Nurses Club, the Executive Club, and the Future Secretaries Club. The Future Nurses Club prepared its members for their careers by inviting guest speakers and touring hospitals. The Executive Club visited large factories and plants to explore all sides of the business world. The members of the Future Secretaries Club practiced their skills for office work. These clubs help to prepare the high school student for his role in the modern community when he embarks on his chosen career.

Officers of Future Nurses Club prepare for a busy and exciting future of healing. Officers are L. Witcher (President), D. Day (Treasurer), D. Stevens (Vice-President), B. Frank (Secretary).

Chess Club members practice each other as well as participating in Chicagoland tournaments. Members of the Radio Club show their interest in short wave and help those who do not already have an operator's license to work toward one. Art Council encourages its members to express themselves through various art mediums. The number of hobby clubs at East is limited only by student interest and the availability of sponsors.

SERVICE GROUPS

increase efficiency and benefit others.

Niles students enjoy the year's first mixer, "Union-a-go-go."

Five Saturday nights this year the Student Board transformed the Girls' Gym into a lively dance room. The board is comprised of a select group of 13 Seniors, two Student Council representatives, and one member from each class cabinet. Student Unions, fulfilling the board's purpose to unify the student body, enabled students from all four classes to meet socially.

The Student Union Board organized mixers with first-rate combos and chose a theme for each Union. The first social mixers of the year were "Union-a-go-go," and the "After the Game Union" following the East-North basketball match. The outstanding season also included a Western Union, a casual evening of fun, and a more formal Valentine Dance. This year the board did not show movies as part of the Unions. The traditional May Student Union, a bermuda shorts mixer, brought the year to a close with the announcement of Prom King and Queen.

German Club sponsored a Christmas party, a booth at Panic '66, and a banquet. One of the highlights of the year for the members of French Club was building their winning Homecoming float. French Club also planned parties and a banquet for the spring. Russian and French Clubs sponsored a collection of clothing for refugees from Hurricane Betsy. Latin Club's service project was collecting canned goods for the Association House at Thanksgiving. Latin Club climaxed its year with the traditional spring banquet, complete with togas and unusual food.

Hartstein (Social Co-chairman), A. Mathews (Secretary), and seated, I. Hauland (Vice-President), J. Heinsimer (President).

HONOR SOCIETIES recognize merit.

M. Swider and J. Gordon earned membership in Quill and Scroll Society at the end of their Junior year.

To become a member of Thespians, a student must put in one hundred hours of theater production work, thus earning ten Thespian points. The National Thespian Society works towards helping young people with their drama careers. Thespians work in front of and behind the scenes, and put on performances for the school. Quill and Scroll is the national honorary society for journalism. By working on the newspaper or yearbook, a student writes a sufficient number of "inches" of published work to earn membership in the society.

Thespians explore the art of the theater. Officers are K. Wanaski (Treasurer), G. Kurc (President), R. Revzen (Secretary), L. Polakoff (Vice-President).

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society recognizes scholastic achievement, service, leadership, and character. At the end of each school year, lists of all Juniors and Seniors who have at least a "B" grade average are sent to all teachers, who then recommend the students they consider most qualified for this honor. Students who receive a sufficient number of teacher recommendations are then chosen for National Honor Society. The National Honor Society may not exceed 3% of the Junior class, nor 9% of the Senior class. Instead of the traditional candlelight ceremony, the 1965 induction ceremony was held at the first annual academic awards assembly, where academic achievements at all grade levels were recognized.

As part of the induction ceremony, National Honor Society members, led by Mr. Bothof, pledged to uphold ideals of scholarship and citizenship.

Homecoming gets a new look in the "Year For a Change."

The combined efforts of the Homecoming Committee, Senior Cabinet, and members of the faculty made possible Homecoming '65--the "Year For a Change"--the weekend of October 9. The festivities began Friday afternoon with a colorful pep rally, at which the student body showed its school spirit for a Trojan victory. The weekend activities continued all through the night as many students worked feverishly to complete their float entries for the Homecoming parade. As the sun came up Saturday morning, the floats were assembled for judging at the Orchard Twin Bowl parking lot, and the parade wound its way through Skokie to the school. That afternoon, the Varsity footballers met the Oak Park Huskies, and, unfortunately, the "Year For a Change" remained unchanged as the Trojans once again felt defeat. However, the success that was Homecoming '65 will always remain a fond memory for the many who were there and for those who worked so hard to make it a success.

Op Art Frolics frolics at "Pop Op Hop"

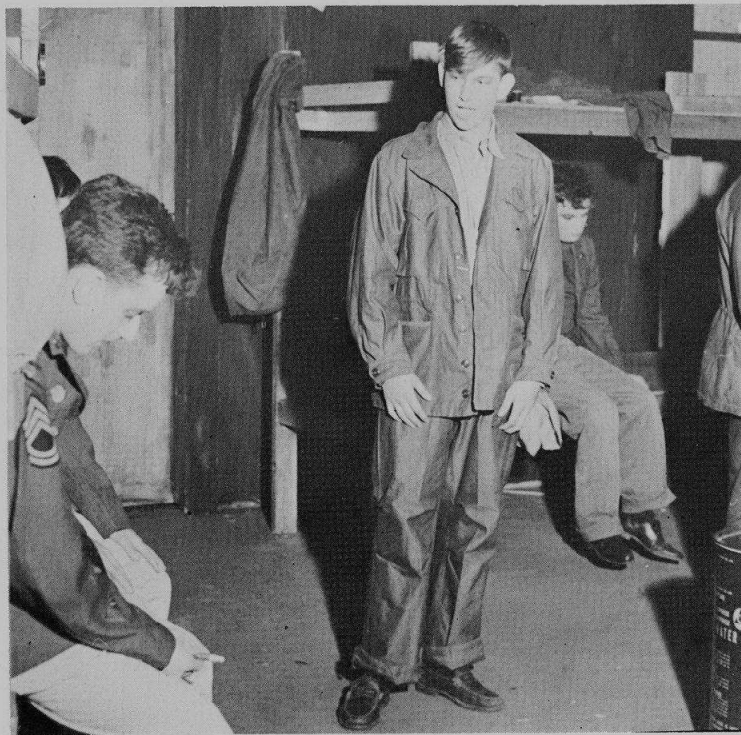

At 8:30 p.m. on October 9, the exciting weekend of Homecoming '65 was climaxed by the Pop Op Hop, the annual Homecoming dance. The theme of this year's dance, inspired by the current craze for optical designs in art in this "Year For a Change," was well carried out in the black and white illusionary decorations of the Senior Cabinet dance committee. These modern decorations provided a backdrop for the "pop" sounds of the King Jaros Band. Presiding over the dance were the Homecoming Queen and her court. The Pop Op Hop was the final event in a weekend of rallies, floats, football, and dancing, and it brought to a close Homecoming '65--"The Year For a Change."

reality of World War II.

On December 3, and 4, 1965, the reality of World War II was brought to the Niles East stage as the annual fall play was presented. "Stalag 17" told the sometimes humorous story of an American prison barracks in Nazi Germany, and of how its inmates plotted their escape. These men knew that among them was a German spy who foiled their plans by informing the SS guards of their strategy; however, they could not pinpoint who the spy was. All signs pointed to Sefton, a secretive, ill-humored man, but no one ever caught him in the act. A domineering man named Price was elected barracks security officer, and he offered to take a condemned British agent over the border to freedom. Sefton, suspicious of Price's actions, pressured the officer into admitting that he was indeed the spy. The other prisoners were told of how Price would leave notes for the guards in a hollow chess piece with a knotted lamp cord pointing to it. Price was thrown out of the barracks, and he met his death at the hands of his unknowing fellow Germans. Sefton led the British agent to freedom, and the men of "Stalag 17" went on to plan their own escape.

Winter Music Festival highlights the sounds of the season.

The combined vocal and orchestral groups perform the traditional finale, the "Hallelujah Chorus."

The sounds of traditional Christmas and Hannukah songs filled the auditorium at Niles East as the combined groups of the Music Department presented the Winter Music Festival on Sunday, December 12, 1965. Performing in this annual event were the Concert Choir, the Girls' Glee, the Concert Orchestra, and the Lorelei Girls' Choir, a select group of female vocalists. The songs in the program ranged from the contemporary gaiety of LeRoy Anderson's "Sleigh Ride" to the majestic grandeur of Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus." The concert was presented again for the student body the following Friday as the winter vacation began. Thanks to the capable leadership of Mr. Earl Auge, the holiday season was made even brighter and merrier by 1965's outstanding Winter Music Festival.

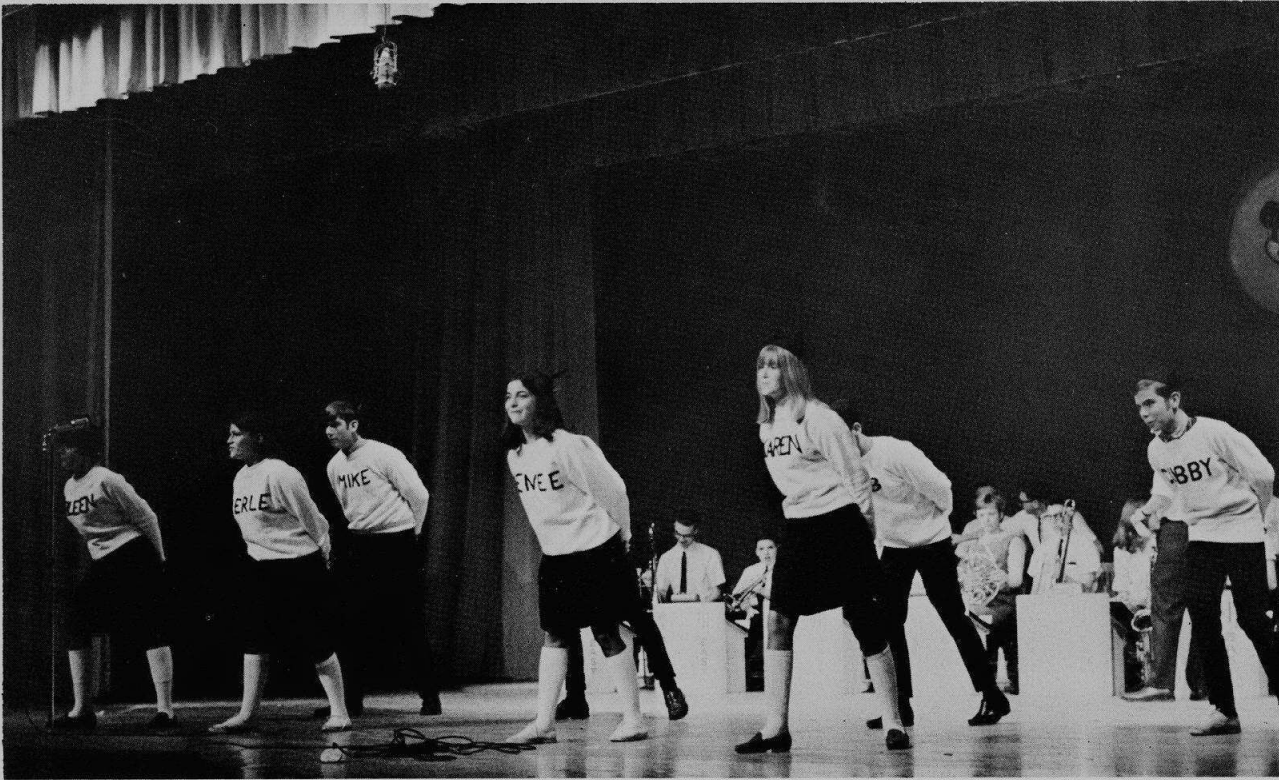

The Lorelei Girls' Choir, led by Mr. Earl Auge, sing a traditional Christmas melody.

A chorus line of "Second-Hand" beauties await their curtain call.

Reflections Revelries, the annual talent show, was presented on February 25 and 26 in the auditorium. "Abstractions," this year's theme, was introduced by a fantastic display of lights in the opening scene. The first act combined singing, dancing, and instrumentations of modern songs and hits from the past. A barbershop quartet sang such old favorites as "Melancholy Baby," and the Stage Band provided accompaniment for the singing groups.

The second act presented three bands: Len Schaeffer, The Ryells, and Ken Karlson and the Creations. Trudi Galnick did a modern dance jazz solo. "Abstractions," under the supervision of Miss Faurot, Mr. Messerschmidt, and Miss Rochotte, aided by student directors Karen Kabot and Ed Sucherman, was a big success popularly and financially.

Gail Henich and Linda Brown purr their way through a jazz interpretation of "The Pink Panther."

The Hullabaloo girls dance to the beat of the Ryells' "Walking the Dog."

An old-fashioned Barbershop Quartet (Phil Brushaber, Jerry Berger, Roger Kimball, and Bruce Brown) adds a nostalgic touch to the show.

onto the Niles East stage.

On the nights of April 2, and 3, the audiences at Niles East were transported to Sweet Apple, Ohio, where things were happening quickly in a usually average small town. Conrad Birdie, the current teen-age idol had just been drafted into the Army, and Kim McAfee, one of Sweet Apple's teens, had been chosen to give Birdie the last farewell kiss from his fans. Normally, this would have been the most thrilling event in Kim's life, except that she had just become pinned to Hugo Peabody, who became furiously jealous of Birdie kissing Kim. Accompanying Birdie to town were his manager, Albert Peterson, and Albert's ever-faithful secretary-girlfriend Rosie, who wanted him to choose between her and his domineering mother. A great tumult followed, caused by the arrival of TV cameramen to shoot the farewell kiss scene for the Ed Sullivan Show, Hugo's surprising reaction to the kiss, and Albert's final choice. The result was an hilariously funny musical comedy with a memorable score that will be long remembered at Niles.

During the telephone hour, the Sweet Apple teens spread the word that Hugo has just pinned Kim.

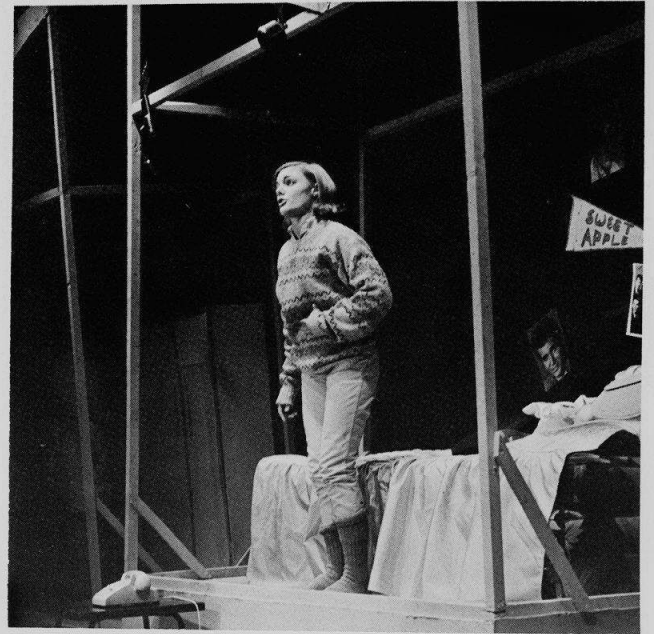

Three adoring fans (Renee Vlad, Sheila Weisman, and Pat Morrow) sing the praises of their idol, Birdie.

Rose Alvarez, (Carole Propp) tells the local bartender (Chuck Schwartz) of her decision to leave Albert and start a new life.

As he arrives in Sweet Apple, Conrad Birdie (Lorey Comitor) "graciously" accepts the tributes from his loyal followers.

Thinking herself grown-up, Kim McAfee (Carolyn Dewlin) sings about how lovely it is to be a woman.

Chateau D'Or revives the splendor

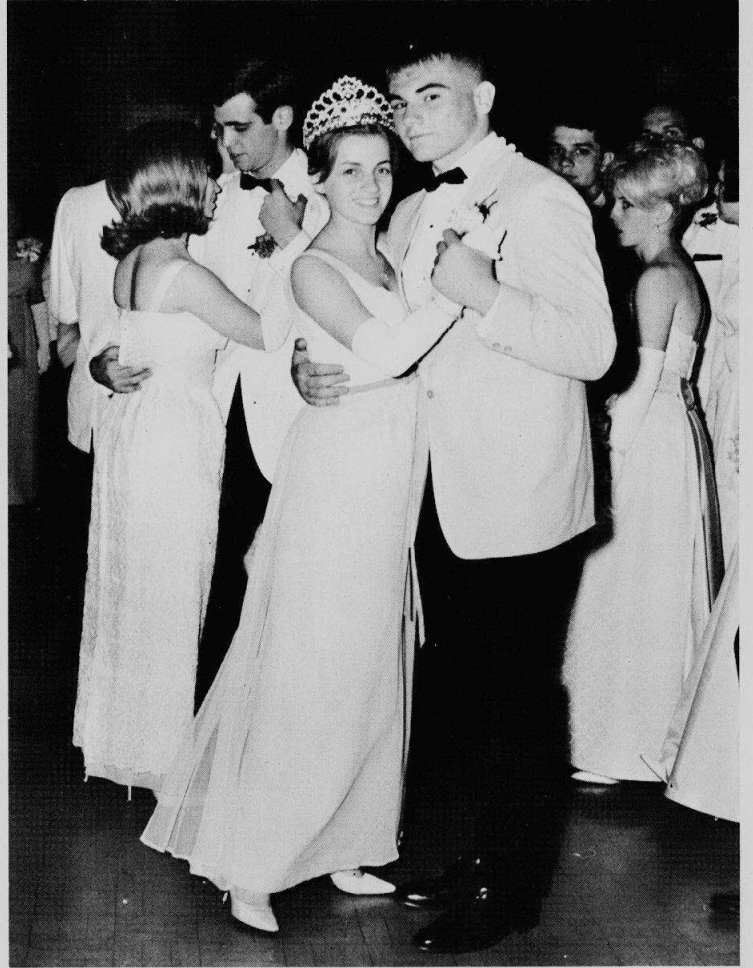

In the prom parade, Ira Upin displays his physical prowess to the delight of the assembled student body.

On June 4, 1965, the Gold Room at the Pick Congress Hotel was transformed into a Chateau D'Or. On that evening, Niles East held its first out-prom in seven years. The dance itself was the culmination of many months of hard, fund-raising work by Junior Cabinet, beginning with the Chad Stuart-Jeremy Clyde concert in January, participation in the all-school carnival in March, presentation of the candidates for King and Queen in the Prom Parade in May, and finally, the Prom night at Chateau D'Or, the palace of gold. From 8:00 to midnight, the Dick Long Orchestra provided romantic music to add to the regal French atmosphere of the ballroom. The high point of the evening was the coronation of Glenn Paul and Janis Kamps as Prom King and Queen. After the dance, the traditional prom weekend with its many events began, and Chateau D'Or was only a wonderful memory to those who attended this night of splendor in old-world France.

The Trojan secondary closes in to hold a New Trier halfback to a short gain.

For the first time in five years, the Niles East Varsity Football Team finished its season out of the Suburban League cellar. Although the team managed to climb only to seventh place, because of their one win over Morton East, it was markedly improved over its previous seasons.

The Trojans' lineup included mostly Seniors, including Captain Stu Widman and All Suburban League Fullback Jim Degraffenreid. This does not mean that the team will be completely weakened by the Seniors' graduation, because of the determined play of Juniors Dave Kroon and Neal Kamin and Sophomore Nate Stahlke. It looks like the era of mediocracy in Trojan football had ended. Head Coach George Yursky hopes this year will be the start of building the Trojans into a winning team in the Suburban League.

Quarterback Steve Pate discusses the next play with Coach Ewing.

This year's Sophomore Football team's weakness was due to lack of experience. Also, two Sophomores, Nate Stahlke and Tom Nigut played for the Varsity Football Team. The team had the usual problem of lack of depth and size compared to the other Suburban League teams. Three or four members of the team may help the Varsity next year. Coaches Van Cleave, Collien, and Burns are anxious to begin working with next year's Sophomores and are looking forward to a winning season.

Despite a lack of height and depth, this year's Freshman Football team's record of three wins and four losses was the best of any Frosh team in the last eight years. Led by Al Mormelstein and Rick Rice, the team posted wins over Morton East, Highland Park and Oak Park. The impressive showing gives great promise for next year's Sophomore team. Yet, even with this good showing the team still had the problem of not enough boys coming out to field the usual A & B teams.

The 1965 student body saw a truly successful Cross Country season this fall. The "Harriers" finished 2nd in the Ridgewood Invitational and 5th in the Suburban League. The strong league competition made the distance from 5th place to first place a thin line.

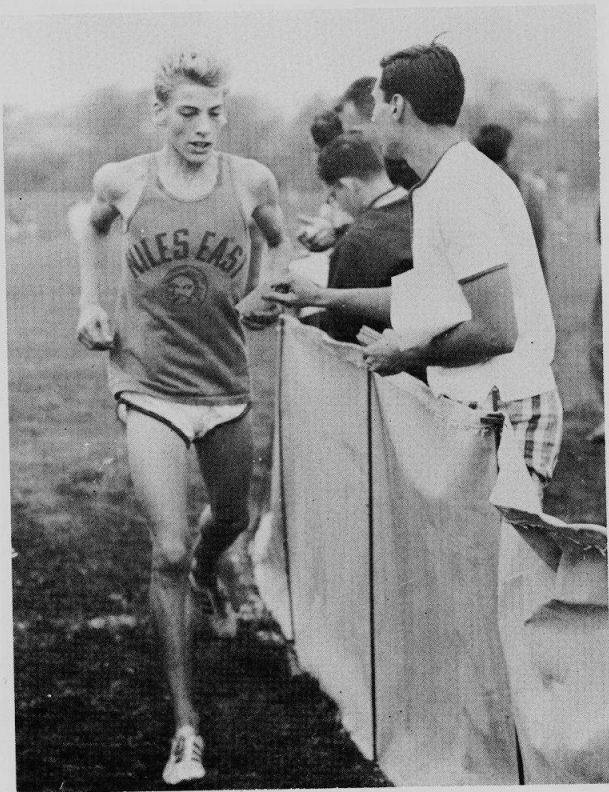

The Harriers won 5 out of their first 6 meets. Captain Pete Lanners, Bob Schabillion and Cliff Rudnick, who made up the backbone of the team, continued to set a speedy pace, although the remainder of the team lost momentum as a result of injuries. The high point of the season came when Pete Lanners placed 3rd in the District Meet entitling him to compete in the State Meet. Pete, the first Trojan eligible to compete at the Illinois Cross Country meet in 18 years, ran ninth in a field of 300 downstate.

The Frosh-Soph Cross Country squad has not done as well as it has in the past. It can be said, however, that the team's Suburban League record of 1 win and 6 losses does not give an accurate picture of the team's ability. The squad does have great potential with such promising runners as Don Schubert and Arnold Rotkin. Improvement is expected next year and in the years to come. The team's future is encouraging, and it could become one of the finest teams in the Suburban League.

beat Highland Park twice.

The Varsity Basketball team had a disappointing season this year. As a whole, they had a record of three wins and eighteen losses. The wins came against Niles West and twice against Highland Park. In the state tournament, the hoopsters were eliminated in their first game by only two points. In the winter tournament at Grayslake, the team won their first game against Highland Park, but went on only to lose to Lake Forest. The team wound up in the cellar of the Suburban League.

But despite the many setbacks of the team as a whole, one of the biggest surprises came at the close of the season, when Jeff Gendelman, the team's highest scorer, was selected only for honorable mention by the Suburban League coaches. No player from East was chosen for the first two All-Suburban squads.

Thus because of injuries to such players as Dennis Bailen and Captain Stu Widman and because of the perennial height disadvantage, this year's team could not achieve its great potential.

Soph Guard Mark Bishop leaps high in the air to block a jump shot by a Northi player.

The Sophomore Basketball team's record of nine wins and five losses was good for third place in the Suburban League. Including an extra-league record of four wins and no losses, the year's mark of thirteen and five is the best for any Soph team in the past decade. This record is even more amazing, since the tallest man on the team was 6'2" Gary Minkus. Led by Guard Mark Bishop and Forward Earl Wolf, the team out-shot and out-played almost all opponents without using their second string men. The fantastic record of this year's Sophs seems to hint that next year's Varsity and Junior Varsity teams will be very much improved.

Although the Frosh "A" had a losing six and ten record, with a few more years of experience they should prove to be the second Nilehi team to break out of the S.L. cellar. The most exciting game of the season was a victory over Morton East. Both Alan Pollack and Rick Rice scored over 30 points. Both boys are expected to be valuable additions to the varsity teams in coming years.

The Frosh "B" team attribute their winning season to team work and fine individual efforts by Rick Shapiro and Mark Koppel. Included in the team's record of ten wins and six losses are three losses by only one point. As with their "A" team counterparts, these boys will have to work hard to fare well in the Suburban League as upperclassmen.

It has been a great year for Coach Byram's Varsity Wrestlers both in regular season play and tournament play, as a team and as individuals. Top laurels went to Bill Pauss, who took the state championship at 154 pounds. The team as a whole placed eighth in the state finals, fourth in the sectionals, third in the districts, which were held at East, and sixth in the annual Waukegan Tournament.

Other outstanding wrestlers included Ron Pontecore, Tim Cech, and Vic Mittleburg. These boys, along with the rest of the hard-working team, managed to bring fame to a school which has not in the past been known as a wrestlers' school. With the return next year of Juniors Vic Mittleberg, Tim Cech, Barry Kite, and Dave Kroon, among others, the team should again place high in state.

Frosh-Soph Wrestling

Vic Mittleburg receives congratulations from Coach Byram after winning the District heavy-weight championship.

The Sophomore Wrestling team failed to win a meet this year, but inexperience and not inability was the major handicap. Since there was no Freshman team last year, only four of the Sophs had previous experience. The season's record was no wins and thirteen losses. The most consistent members of the squad were Ira Robinson at 103 pounds and Mike Tanner at 133 pounds. Alan Krockey, a sophomore, wrestled in the varsity ranks most of the year at 95 pounds. The Sophomores have a team and they should contribute greatly to the varsity squad next year.

Despite a fast start this season, the Frosh grapplers had to settle for a Suburban League record of 6-5. Injuries to key members account for the rather poor finish. The Frosh team can be proud of their victory over Waukegan, for they were the first Nilehi Frosh wrestling team to accomplish this feat. Undeclared members were Phil Figa at 103 pounds and Bill Staplefeld at 120 pounds. Steve Meyers took a first at the Deerfield Invitational Tournament. Both individual accomplishments and team effort make the Frosh a squad to reckon with in the future.

The Niles East Varsity Swimming team tied for seventh place in the Suburban League and for eighth place in the State District Meet. Their season's record was five wins and eight losses.

But despite all these dismal statistics, the team consistently broke school pool records, some of which were long standing and some of which they themselves had set earlier in the season. Among the record-breakers were Don Wichert, Al Greene, and Ed Chalfie. Other outstanding swimmers were Senior Rich Liebman and Junior Bob Simon. None of the swimmers, however, managed to place high in the state meet. Next year's team is expected to top this year's team's record.

The 1965-66 Sophomore Swimming squad had a disappointing Suburban League record. It must be noted, however, that they were handicapped because a key member, Tom Harrington, swam Varsity most of the season. Tom Nigut was voted the most valuable player and should be expected to do well in Varsity competition. The team did improve over last year and can be expected to represent the Trojans well in the future.

The Frosh tankmen showed great promise as they finished fourth in league competition. The highlight of the season was the Suburban League meet where Paul Katz and Jim Hawkins both finished fourth. With all the Frosh coming back next season East should have one of the strongest Soph teams in the school's history.

Even though the Varsity Gymnastics team had a dual meet record of 4 wins and 12 loses and finished 6th in the Suburban League, the Gymnasts maintained their tradition of outstanding individual performance. Seniors Lorey Comitor and Steve Alleman, Junior Barry Slotten and Sophs Steve Kite and Lee Sandler all qualified for the state meet. Slotten went on to be the 1966 state champion tumbler.

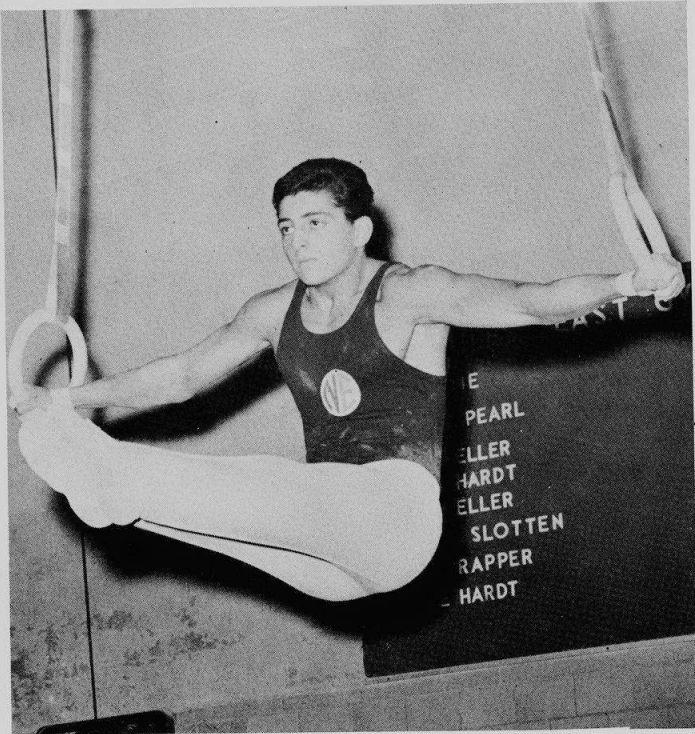

After the loss of Mark Lazar in the earlier part of the season, the Varsity was left with little depth. Many boys had to be brought up from the Frosh-Soph level. Yet, all the boys worked hard and their 4th place finish in the District and 10th in the State meet shows that they never stopped trying. With a strong Frosh-Soph team and the return of Slotten, the outlook for next years Varsity is excellent.

Despite the loss of Sophomores Mike Zissman, Lee Sandler, and Steve Kite to the Varsity team this years Frosh-Soph Gymnastic team came on strong to finish 2nd in the Suburban League and have a winning record for the season. This result may have been caused by the improved gymnastics program in the elementary schools in the high school district. The team has improved and should help the Varsity to once again be the top team in the state. By compiling a 6-2 Suburban League record, the Varsity track team had one of its best indoor seasons in recent years. The Varsity cinderman can also be proud of their fifth place finish in the Suburban League meet and third place in the Evanston Relays.

The success of the indoor season can be attributed to several individuals who had consistently fine performances. Bob Barys took a first place in the Suburban League meet in the high hurdles and also broke the school record with a 7.7 timing in the same event. Rich Gershenzon took second in the pole vault in the same meet and also broke the school record with a jump of 13 feet, 6 inches. Bill Lemonds and Neil Baskin did very well in the shot put.

The indoor season with a well-rounded team and individual stars has been called very successful by Coach Collien. Yet, with the loss of Gershenzon because of injury, the outdoor season may not be as good.

Because of a knee injury, Stuart Widman, who started in left field last year, will not be able to play. However, Jeff Gendleman, who broke his leg last season, should add quite a bit of strength. This year's team also has a good deal of depth in the hitting department, which could be a factor in making the team as strong or stronger than the teams of the past.

TENNIS

This year's Tennis team will be a formidable contender for a first division berth in the Suburban League. The Varsity team is composed of such outstanding racketmen as Al Rosenfeld, Barry Lempert, Dave Kalis and Ken Batko. The success of the team will also depend heavily on the performance of Soph Mark Bishop who placed fourth in the state last year. Varsity Coach Morrison and Frosh-Soph Coach Winans are instilling in the team members the spirit of aggressive tennis playing which characterizes a good team with a will to win.

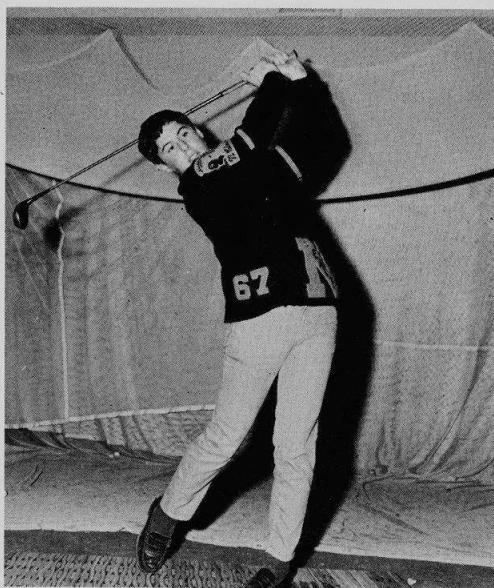

Retraining lettermen Barry Lempert, Ken Batko, Al Rosenfeld, Dick Galen, Dave Kalish, and Dave Kritzler watch as Coach Morrison goes over the rough schedule.

Junior letterman Ron Adelman displays the correct form for the followup on a tee shot.

GOLF

The prospects of this year's golf season look very high due mainly to three returning letterman. They are: Andy Gutter, Senior, Ron Adelman, Junior, and Mark Muzio, Junior. Competition this year is stiffer than ever before with seven men fighting for the five positions.

With the sophomore ranks looking very bright, and a strong varsity team, the Niles East linksters should be a team to reckon with in the near future.

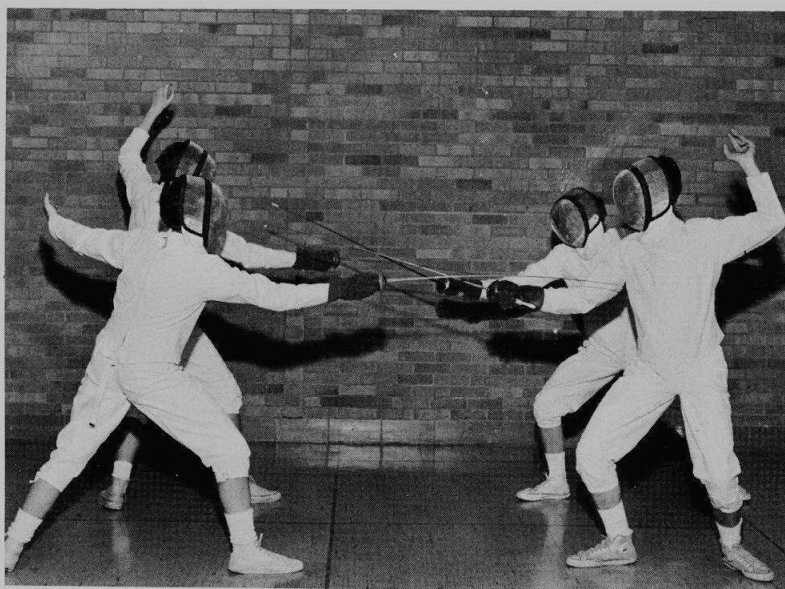

Fresh-Soph Golf. BACK ROW: M. Sonkin, R. Harris, G. Mamlok, A. Manassa, R. Gossman, G. Garbo, B. Davis, B. Baker. FRONT ROW: C. Rodin, D. Chaiken, J. Letzkus, R. Harling, B. Bruch, B. Gats, D. Clevon.

FENCERS take first in state!

Fred Huss and Steve Winer try to block offensive attacks by Fencers Joe Howard and Sheldon Berman.

The 1966 Fencing became the first team in Niles East sports history to win a state championship. Led by Harvey Harris, Steve Winer, Shel Berman and Captain Pete Trobe the team easily whipped Marshall High 56 to 37 in the finals. Harris was the individual winner in the tournament with 19 wins in 20 bouts. The championship ended a successful season of 7 wins, 1 loss, and 1 tie and gave the Fencers a five year record of 18-9-1. Winer, Berman, and Joe Howard will make up the nucleus of next year's squad, which could possibly once again bring home the championship.

N Club. BACK ROW: S. Alleman, M. Sawitz, L. Sandler, N. Paugoulatos, B. Lutz, B. Blitstein, T. Harrington, A. Gutter, S. Bachman, J. Tripp, A. Rosenfeld, L. Comitor, P. Gustafson, H. Harris, P. Upin (President), R. Pontecore (Sargeant at Arms), S. Siegal (Treasurer), D. Nielsen (Secretary) B. Lempert, S. Epstein.

N Club goes down to defeat again.

As many people do not realize, the N Club is a very important service organization. It performs such functions as selling programs at football games and ushering at all home basketball games.

Thanks to the help of sponsor, Mr. Meles, this year's N Club vs. Faculty game was a success. The N Club had hopes of beating the faculty but the "Batmen" went down to defeat 62-45. The first game this year was between the Juniors of the N Club and the women teachers. This innovation was a big win for the Juniors. With this game the N Club has built up school spirit and brought the faculty and students into a closer relationship.

The Batmen of the N Club, Lorey Comitor and Garry Buzil, find it hard to get a rebound from Coach Richardson.

Working on this year's G.A.A. activities are Board Members, BACK ROW: T. Benas, C. Baldassano, J. Jungwirth, K. Ullberg, C. Lodal, E. Miner, J. Meltzer. SECOND ROW: S. Krauze, K. Weinberg, L. Neidorf, K. Guerrero. FRONT ROW: A. Fechter, B. Sudak, D. Ricci, S. Kabiller, J. Staland.

G.A.A. displays co-ordination and sportsmanship.

G.A.A. sponsors after-school activities to more than three hundred girls for the development of athletic skills and good sportsmanship. The girls may participate in any of the sports scheduled seasonally by the G.A.A. Board. These sports include swimming, tennis, badminton, bowling, gymnastics, and softball.

For a number of team sports, girls are chosen on the basis of their skills. Because the Girls' Gymnastic team can't compete against other schools as a unit, each girl develops skills as an individual. The team presents a demonstration before the school body. Another team is the Ripplettes, the swim club. The girls who belong to this group exhibit their talents in an annual water show.

The major activities sponsored by G.A.A. this year were the Co-Ed Sports Nights. A number of sports activities are offered to all those who wish to attend.

Miss Barbara Ray and Junior Karen Weinberg eagerly collect the entrance fee for a G.A.A. Co-Ed Sports Night.

Developed in tumbling and apparatus skills are, BACK ROW: K. Weinberg, D. Settler, M. Brutzkus, H. Brakman, K. Guerrero, B. Ryback, B. Frank, S. Krauze, D. Roth. SECOND ROW: R. Bauer, C. Zack, V. Klein, J. Lange, R. Bernat, C. Johnson, P. Koch, K. Stender. FRONT ROW: M. Look, C. Lavin, E. Harrold, M. Yelner, E. Somerman, S. Kabbler, H. Marinello, J. Lerner, members of the G.A.A. Gymnastics team.

Actively participating in inter-scholastic tennis are, BACK ROW: C. Glenn, N. Wilhelmson, C. Lodal, K. Ullberg, R. Bauer, T. Benas. FRONT ROW: K. Guerrero, B. Sudak, L. Berliant, of the G.A.A. Tennis team.

As fish out of water are the Ripplettes, BACK ROW: A. Cheriavskiy, E. Miner, C. Horvitz, J. Lange, B. Ohlson, C. Lodal, L. Bain. SECOND ROW: E. Weisman, H. Lubo, S. Sapoznik, B. Crain, R. Briskman. FRONT ROW: K. Weinberg, K. Wolters, K. Seedorf, B. Ryback, H. Dragon.

Practicing their grace and form as modern dancers are Orchesis officers Shelly Cohen (Pres.), Nan Harris (Sec.), and Penny Bloom (Vice Pres.).

Orchesis dancers gain experience and grace.

Orchesis is a growing organization of graceful and skilled girls who are interested in modern dance. They are under the supervision of Mrs. Burns, who sees that they meet at least once a week to work on dances, learn new movements, better their dance technique, and make their own costumes. The members are classified into either Junior or Senior Orchesis according to the length of their membership and the development of their skill. Each year these girls display their talents in an hour dance program of dexterity, originality, and exciting modern dance.

Displaying form, co-ordination, and grace are Junior and Senior Orchesis members, BACK ROW: E. Daily, N. Harris, S. Cohen, N. Kariolich, L. Zabore, N. Holland, K. Wanaski, M. Hartman, G. Schandler. SEC-OND ROW: T. Galnick, S. Mevora, S. Krauze, C. Melas, D. Rebhan, E. Schaver, M. Washington. FRONT ROW: E. Skaltesky, M. Quintanales, G. Estrin, L. Bandy, P. Bloom, J. Lerner, K. Barach.

School spirit is sparked by the Sophomore Cheerleaders, Linda Mandell, Carolyn Anderson, Judy Schoeller, Sue Kempton, Ellen Panitch, and Cincy Billian.

Cheerleaders promote school spirit.

Niles cheerleaders, always full of pep and enthusiasm, are among the most ardent promoters of team spirit at our school. They are loyal to the teams and lead the school in spirited yells at pep assemblies and all football and basketball games.

There are three cheerleading squads: Freshman, Sophomore, and Varsity. In order to become a cheerleader, a girl must attend a clinic which is held every spring before try-outs. At these clinics, aspiring cheerleaders learn some of the school cheers and various jumps. When they try out, they must perform an original jump and a required school cheer. They must also do a straight jump, an arch jump, a flex jump, and a tumbling stunt, such as a round-off, a cartwheel, or the splits. These girls are judged on their skill, their pep, and their spirit.

Cheerleaders meet three times a week after school to improve their cheering techniques and to learn new cheers and formations. Recently, they have established a rigorous code of "Cheerleading Ethics," which they follow loyally.

Despite the continual choosing of new teams and the changing of cheers, the purpose of Niles' cheerleaders is the same every year: to promote good sportsmanship and school spirit, and to cheer our teams on to victory with smiling faces and enthusiastic voices. Niles East is very proud of its lovely and talented cheerleaders.

Transition is the watchword of the Freshman class. Each year a class of confident, yet shy, Frosh enter Niles. Each year a new class, trying desperately to fill the awkward gap between being the leader on the junior high campus and the follower at Niles, enters, adjusts, and assimilates into the flurry of faces, classes, and activities that make up Nilehi.

Early in the year, class cabinet and council elections are held to give the class leadership, direction, and an equal voice in school government. Through academic courses, athletic teams, and extracurricular clubs, the Class of '69 gains experience, and prepares to succeed as heir to the leadership and achievement which Niles East has built up over the years.

CLASS OF '69 embarks upon a high school career.

Adjusted and ready to assume its role as a responsible and integral part of school activities is the Sophomore class. The Sophs, as the largest class in the school, have made their presence known by participating in school activities.

A Sophomore may be the SSM monitor down the hall, a reporter for the school newspaper, a co-chairman of a Student Council committee, or a member of an athletic team. The Sophomore has demonstrated his ability to follow and to lead.

By selling class rings and beanies and by collecting class dues, the Sophomores begin saving to finance next year's prom.

Too young for college worries and too old for Freshman anxieties, the Sophomore can settle down to a program of personal enrichment.

CLASS OF '68 demonstrates ability to lead.

In the classroom, on the athletic field, and in the club room after school, the Juniors have adapted themselves to the responsibilities and freedoms which are assigned to the title of "Upperclassmen." The Junior finds himself being pressured by the approach of college. He takes the PSAT and the National Merit Exam.

He shoulders the responsibility of arranging for and paying for the prom. At the same time, he unsuccessfully tries to prevent a premature case of senioritis.

Junior year hurries by with Homecoming floats, the annual concert, class dues and buttons, a booth for the school carnival, the task of providing next year's Student Council president, and the Junior-Senior prom. Through active participation in all aspects of school life, the Juniors prepare to assume the responsibility of leading the school next year.

CLASS OF '66 achieves ascendancy.

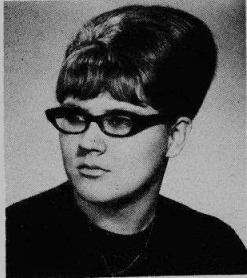

The Class of '66 through its cabinet had planned to make this, the last year, an exciting end to a hectic high school career. The first duty of the Senior Cabinet in the fall was to organize the Homecoming dance, "Pop-Op-Hop." They decorated the gym with blue and white modern art murals. During the winter, Panic '66, the annual senior carnival, was held in the same gym as the Homecoming dance, but the decorations were changed drastically. In place of the murals were concession stands and where the band had played, a ring-toss booth stood. Also during the winter, the cabinet collected dues and passed out class buttons. The money collected was used to defray the costs of the picnic and breakfast in the spring. When graduation comes, the Class of '66 will try to maintain its ties to the school and its internal ties to the class itself.

Seniors Renee Porter, Marcia Jacobson, Steve Kadish, Paul Gustafson, and Kathy Jones coax Ron Rabin to strike a serious graduation pose.

Acknowledgement

A yearbook is the product of many minds and many hands. In acknowledgement of this fact, we wish to thank Miss Irene Deneen and Mrs. Jean Schaeffe, our sponsors, for their countless hours of invaluable supervision. Our thanks go out to Mr. Jeffrey Josephson too, our past sponsor, for his assistance and moral support.

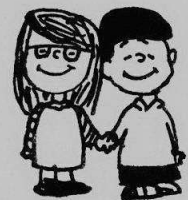

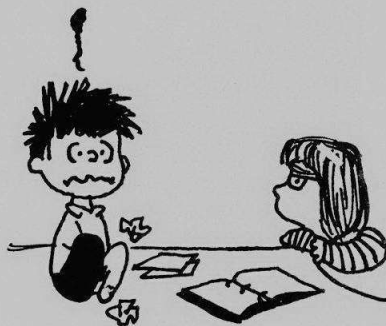

We would also like to express our gratitude to Mr. Charles M. Schultz, cartoonist and creator of the "Peanuts" comic strip, for allowing us to make use of his drawings and the format of his books.

For their technical assistance in publishing the yearbook, we gratefully appreciate the work of Mr. Norman Koenig of the King Company, which printed the book, and Root Studio, which provided us with all the photographs used in the book.

Finally, we wish to thank Ellen Aprill, Mark Davis, Vicki Dunn, Susan Goldberg, Janis Schectman, Wendy Schuman, and Fern Zucker for the time and effort they expended in editing their sections and the staff members of Reflections '66 who aided these editors.

Gratefully,

Joe Gordon
