Score: Board? Teachers? Students-

School came to an abrupt halt on September 21st as teachers reported to the picket line instead of classes.

For two weeks turmoil reigned in District 219 as community members supporting either the Teacher's Union, the Board of Education, or the students took sides in a frustrating and emotional battle.

Teachers claimed that the board was denying them basic human rights in its proposed contract. The board, avoiding contract issues, took its stand denouncing the teacher's strike as illegal and holding the threat of dismissal over the teachers. Caught in the middle were students, fearing that qualified teachers and friends would be lost and the excellent standard of education in Niles Township gone with them.

Carter Defeats Ford

*Though baffled and filled with doubt,
we have the courage to make a change.*

Only the future can tell if our decision is wise.

Being walkers with the dawn and morning,
Walkers with the sun and morning,
We are not afraid of night,
Nor days of gloom,
Nor darkness-
Being walkers with the sun and morning.

Calliope . . . P.A. Announcers . . .

Calliope is a magazine made up of articles, stories, poems, and pictures, which are written by the students of the school and submitted to the Calliope staff who then edit and produce the Edition. Calliope is sold at Niles North and all are able to enjoy the creative works. Student announcers enlighten the students and faculty of the school as to what is going to happen and what has already occurred. They brighten up the Triple A period with their witty and informative announcements.

Current topics of importance challenge the people of the Forensics team. They can make any subject into an exciting and informative oratory. The students in Forensics compete against other schools and speak on certain topics already chosen for them. Categories of discussion are, prose reading, radio speaking, verse reading, and oratorical declamation. The National Forensics league is an honorary society in which, at their meets, students compete for points.

SPIRIT... ENTHUSIASM...

Displaying the award they received is the varsity football team.

Encouraging Viking support is guest speaker Bob Parsons.

Accepting the award for the Varsity Football team are Ken Blakey, Glen Norberg and Bruce Pivar.

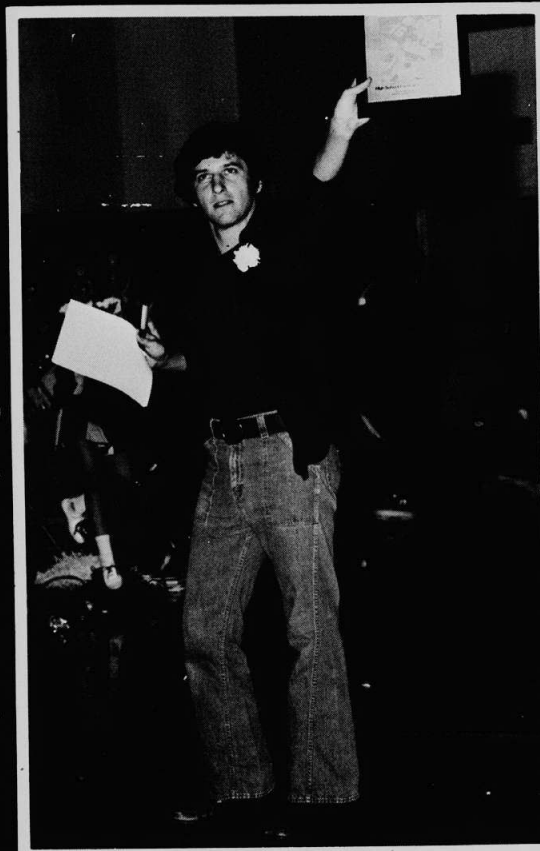

Members of the Court and their escorts: Mary Maday and Ken Blakey; Jodi Schallman and Dan Ley; Iris Greenberg and Pat McDade; Ruth Kost and Bruce Pivar; and Kim Brettner and Glen Norberg await to hear the results of the Homecoming elections.

Court member, Jodi Schallman congratulates surprised Mary Maday as Dan Ley and Ken Blakey look on.

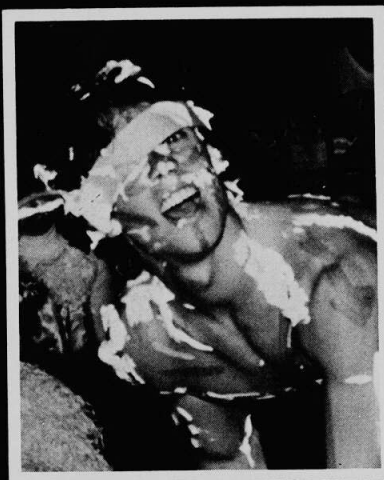

Adding some encouraging words is Dr. Weldy.

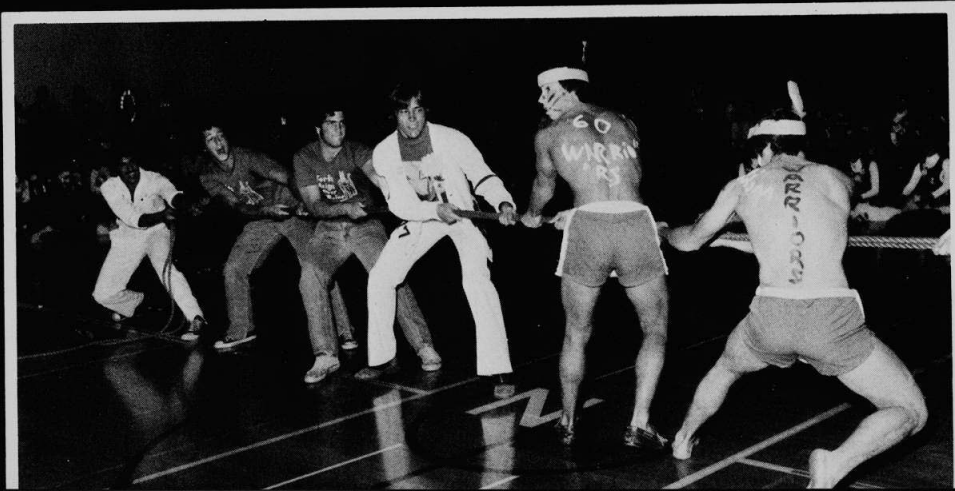

John Landecker holds the "Team of the Week" award.

What hit me?

Vikings vs. Warriors in tug-of-war.

Shrills of "Reign Over Maine" kept the spirit high for the start of Northi's Homecoming Weekend. The morning pep assembly included numerous skits, routines from the Vikettes and the cheerleaders accompanied by the marching band and the announcement of the Homecoming Queen, Mary Maday.

Guest speakers: Bob Parsons, Bear's tight end receiver and punter, wished the Vikings a victory in their homecoming game and John Landecker, WLS radio disc jockey, presented the "team of the week" award to the Varsity football players for their first season win against Deerfield.

Summing it all up was chairwoman Kathy Perelman when she said, "I feel that a lot of hard work was put in to make homecoming a success this year and by the spirit that was shown at the Pep Assembly it was well worth the effort."

A pep rally brought about real enthusiasm for the Homecoming games. A banana-eating contest, the burning of a warrior effigy and various speeches gave Niles North students an opportunity to take part in the Homecoming activities, in the hope of a victory over Maine West.

Former students who graduated in the class of '66 were invited back to the annual alumni brunch for their ten year reunion along with those graduates from the last two years to share memories and discuss their present interests and experiences.

In the evening, a successful dance sponsored by the senior class board added the finishing touch to Homecoming.

Co-chairman Laura Dribin says she "was very happy to see such a large turnout of students involved in the Homecoming activities."

UNITY... PARTICIPATION...

"Good times I remember ..."

Reading off the events to follow is Homecoming co-chairwoman Lori Schaffel.

With the Vikings on guard, the Warriors get much "heat".

A bunch of students go ape when it comes to the banana eating contest. The winner, Howard Hoffenberg (SECOND FROM RIGHT), consumed enough bananas to last him a year.

= HOMECOMING '76

Split end Barry Gold catches a key pass during the Homecoming game among many Maine West defenders.

Working dilligently on their float to enter it in the parade are some hard-working students.

The plan to exterminate the Warriors is projected through the Raid float.

Entertaining the crowd during half time are the Vikettes and the Marching Band

"You can't keep a good man down."

Half time is the perfect time for clowning around.

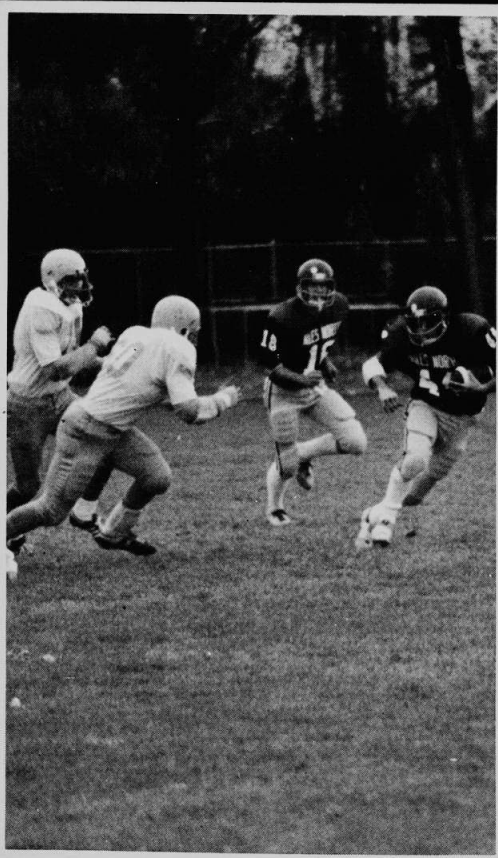

Sitting high atop the winning float is Queen Mary Maday and her court: Iris Greenberg, Ruth Kost, Kim Brettner, and Jodi Schallman.

Tailback Ken Blakey runs with the ball after receiving a hand off from quarterback Dan Ley.

Paul Fischburg keeps "afoot" with his buddy, Arthur Stark.

"76 trombones led the big parade
 With 110 cornets close at hand
 They were followed by rows and rows
 Of the finest virtuosos
 The cream of every famous band

Don't tell me not to fly
 I've simply got to
 If someone takes a spill
 It's me and not you
 Who told you you're allowed to rain on my parade?
 I'll march that band out
 I'll beat that drum ...

76 trombones hit the counterpoint
 While 110 cornets played the lead
 To the rhythm of
 Harch, Harch, Harch
 All the kids began to march
 And they're marching still, right today!"

Posing for the photographer is the cast of "Reynard The Fox".

Last spring's children's theatre production "Reynard the Fox", brought the magic, fantasy world of talking animals to Niles North.

The play, directed by Erin Klei-field and Cindy Frankel tells the story of Reynard, a sly, young fox who wandered around the forest tricking and outwitting the other animals. Other characters included Tiecelein, the crow; Brun, the bear; Noble, the lion; Ysengrin, the wolf; Lendore, the marmot, and the Reverend Epinard, a porcupine.

Those participating in the play found it very rewarding as illustrated by William Ezrin:

"Portraying a non-human character gave me the opportunity to further expand my imagination and creativity. I also enjoyed the experience of performing for children."

Plotting her next move is Reynard the Fox (Caryn Tursky).

Wondering and waiting for Reynard is Noble the Lion (Bill Ezrin).

REYNARD COMES TO NORTH

Reynard confesses her sins to Lendore (Missy Shapiro).

Barb Poitras adds some last minute touches to Lendore's make-up.

Brun the Bear (Mitch Channon) realizes he has been tricked by Reynard.

Brun and Ysengrin (Claudia Brown) complain of Reynard's wrong doings to Tיעעלין (Rhonda Chorney).

MARIA & TONY

Lieutenant Shrank, (Paul Lisnek) backed by Officer Krupke, (Eric Feltman) threatens the gangs.

Tony and Maria fall in love the instant they glimpse each other during the Dance at the Gym.

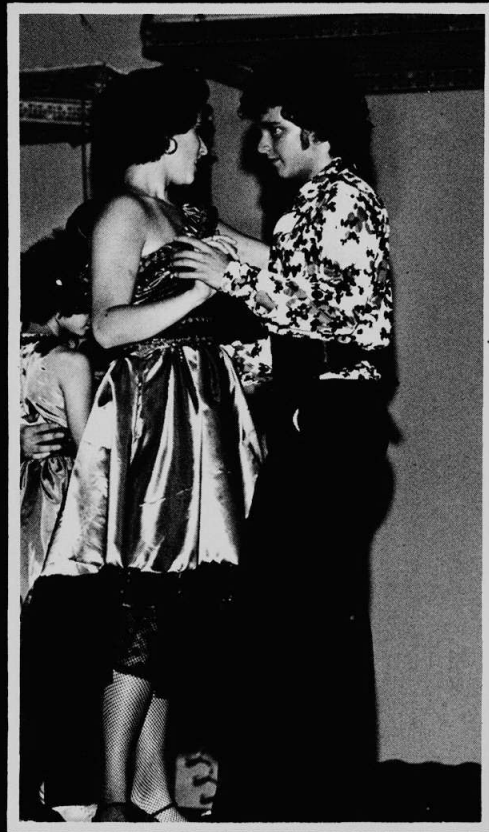

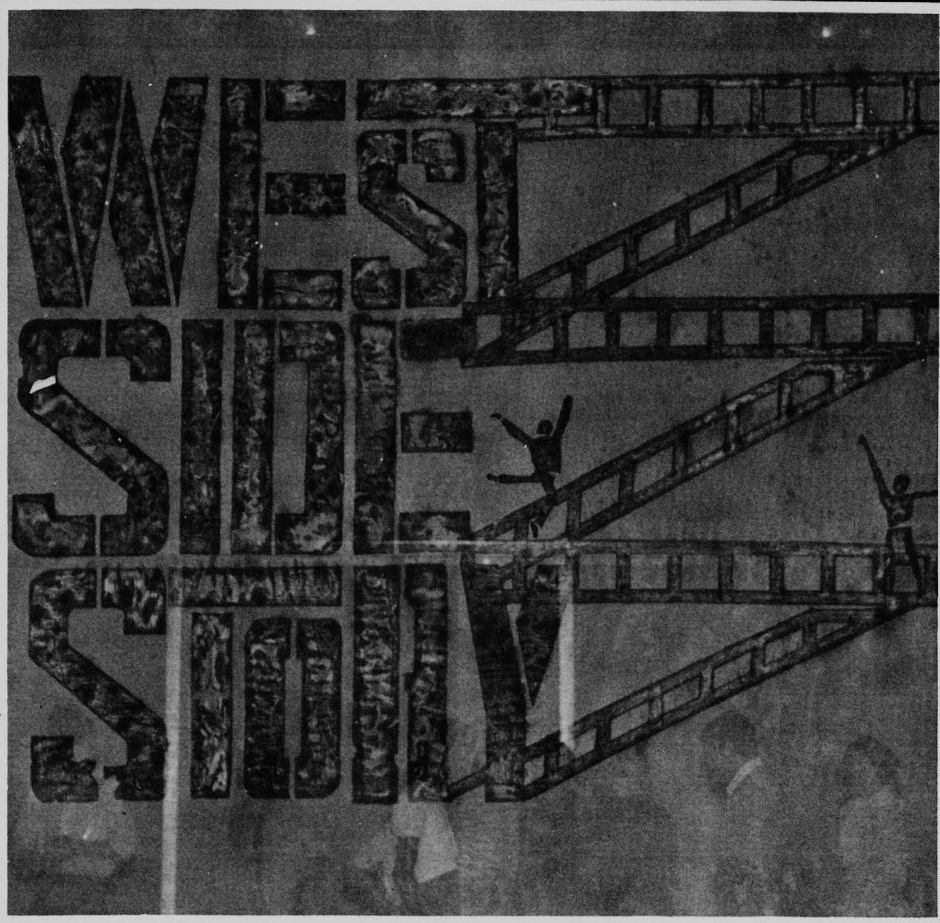

The two star-crossed lovers, Tony (Gregg Edelman) and Maria (Becky Wassel) engage in a secret meeting on her fire escape.

During the Quintet, five different desires are expressed for the evening's outcome.

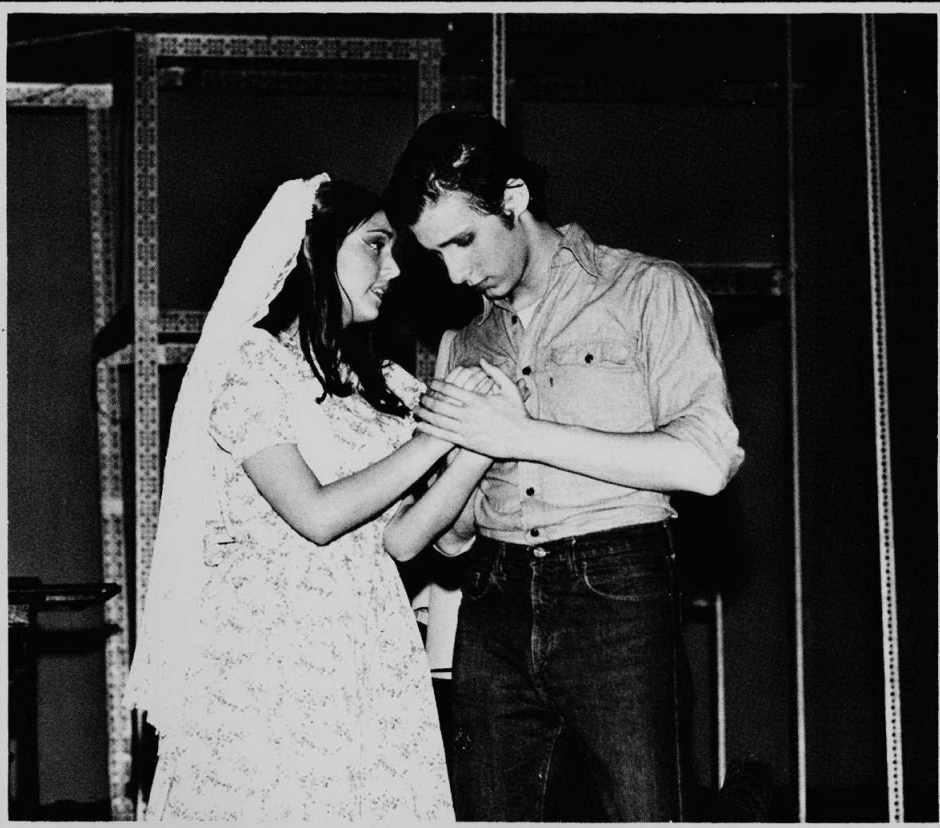

"West Side Story"

Shark leader Bernardo (Earle Greenberg) and his girlfriend Anita (Gail Jacobson) try to show up the Jets in a mambo challenge dance.

Maria (Becky Wassel) and Tony (Gregg Edelman) vow their love in the bridal shop where Maria works.

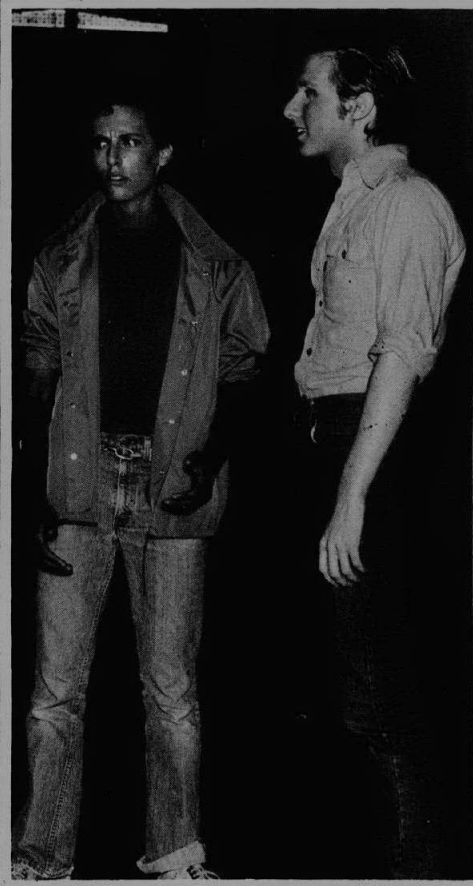

West Side Story takes place in the ghettos of New York between two gangs: the Jets, a white gang, and the Sharks, a Puerto Rican gang, who are in conflict over "territories." Additional problems occur when Tony, former Jet leader, falls in love with Maria, sister to the leader of the Sharks, Bernardo.

In a rumble, the Jet's leader, Riff, is killed by Bernardo while Tony tries to prevent a fight. When Tony sees his best friend killed he knifes Bernardo.

Anita, Bernardo's girlfriend, is roughhoused by the Jets and tells them to tell Tony that Maria is dead, shot by Chino, Maria's fiance. Hearing this, Tony wanders the streets in anguish, calling for Chino to "get him, too." In the second that he glimpses Maria running towards him, he is shot.

Amidst all the suffering, the gangs finally reach a hesitant peace in the end.

"The Jets are the greatest", extolls Riff in an effort to revive ex-Jet Tony's lost loyalty.

"This turf is small but it's all we got!" Riff rallies Jets to action against the Puerto Rican menace.

"Through the conflicts of West Side Story, the cast and crews managed to put together an excellent show; the quality of which has not been seen in any theatre in this district before."

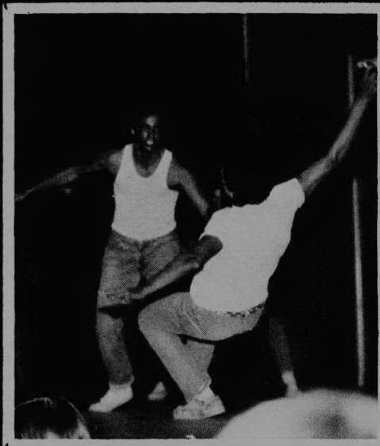

Jeffrey M. Guthman

"Aside from being a cast member, the knowledge gained working the technical aspects of the show heightened my understanding of the extreme amount of work put into a single production."

Eric Feltman

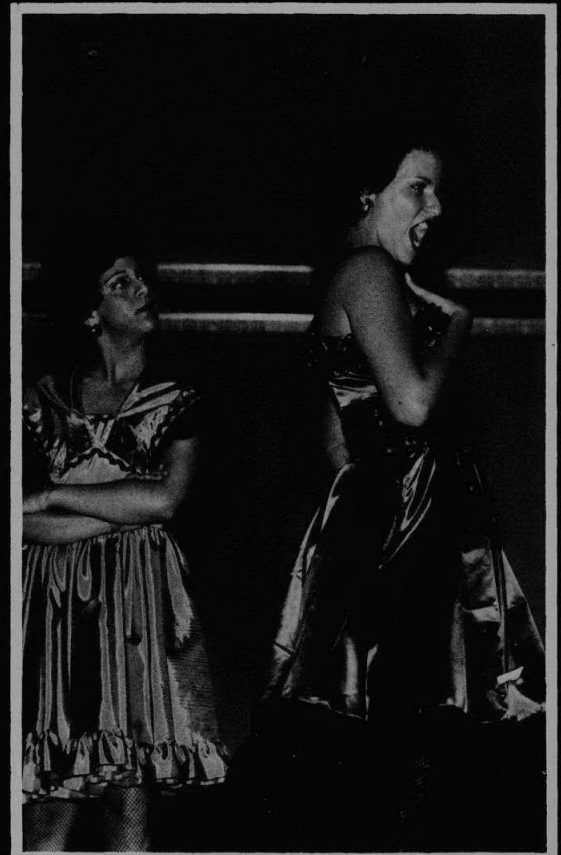

"West Side Story was great fun. Being a member of a gang on stage developed close friendships with my fellow gang members. These friendships lasted after the show ended and make memories of the show itself greater.*"

Mike Weisman

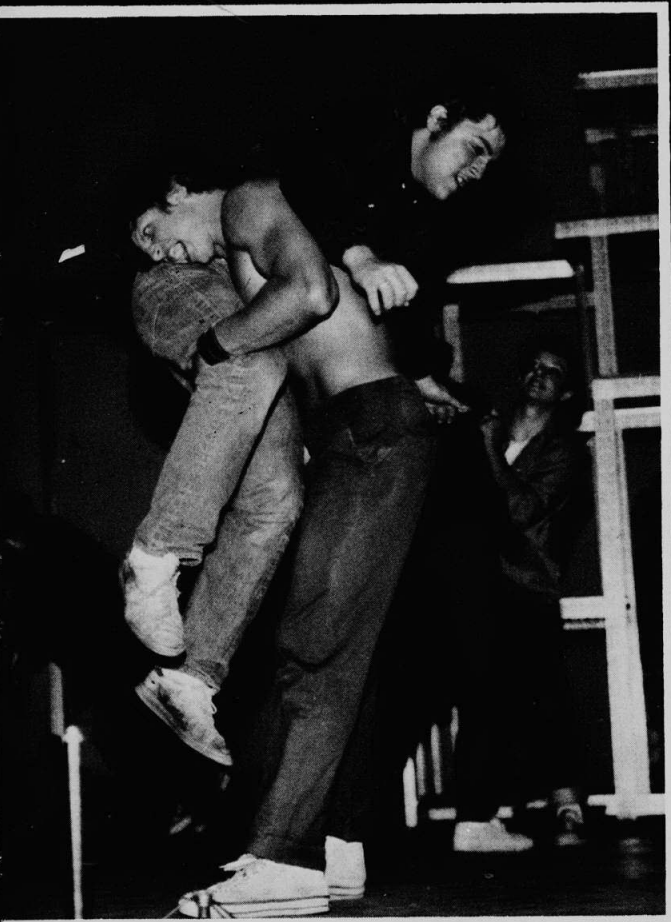

Bernardo deals Riff (Verne Noparstak) the fatal knife thrust.

"Hundreds of people in each room!"

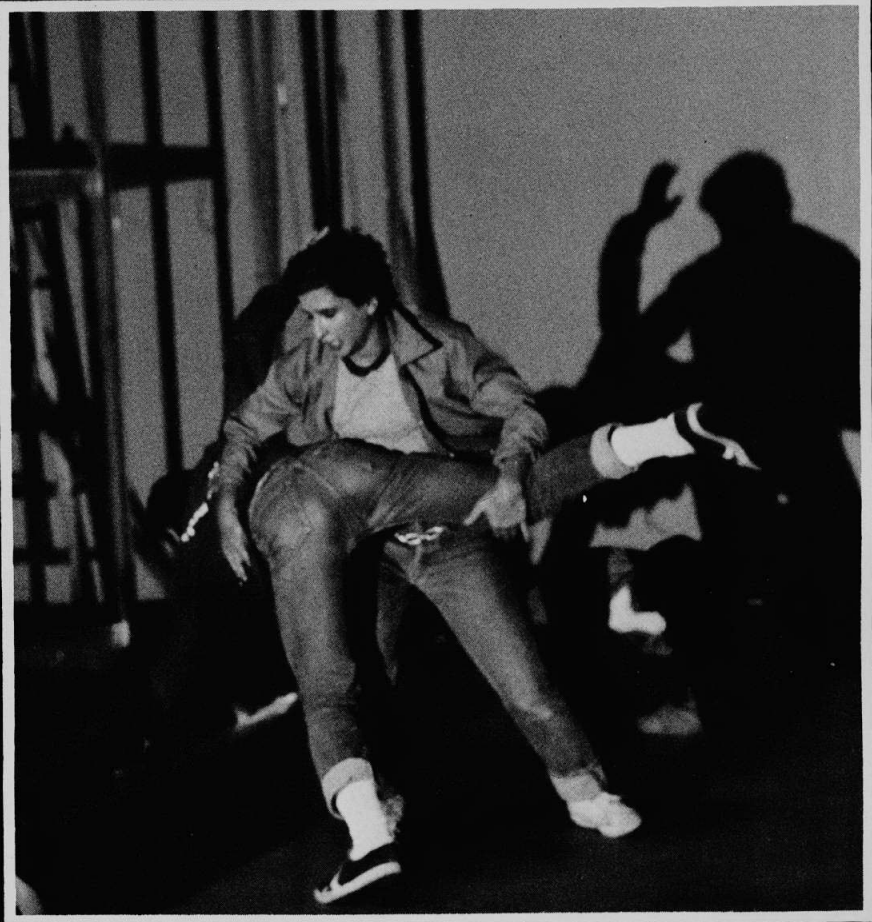

Bernardo's girlfriend Anita mocks the homesick Roasalia (Janice Silver) who desires to go back to San Juan.

JETS VS. SHARKS

Diesel (Bruce Pivar) grapples with an enemy shark (David Michaelson) during the rumble between the Jets and the Sharks.

Jet member, Sticks (Mike Adelson) flings an attacking Shark to the Ground.

Diesel, the strongest member of the Jets, receives a left to the jaw from Bernardo in a prearranged bout to determine which of the two gangs is supreme.

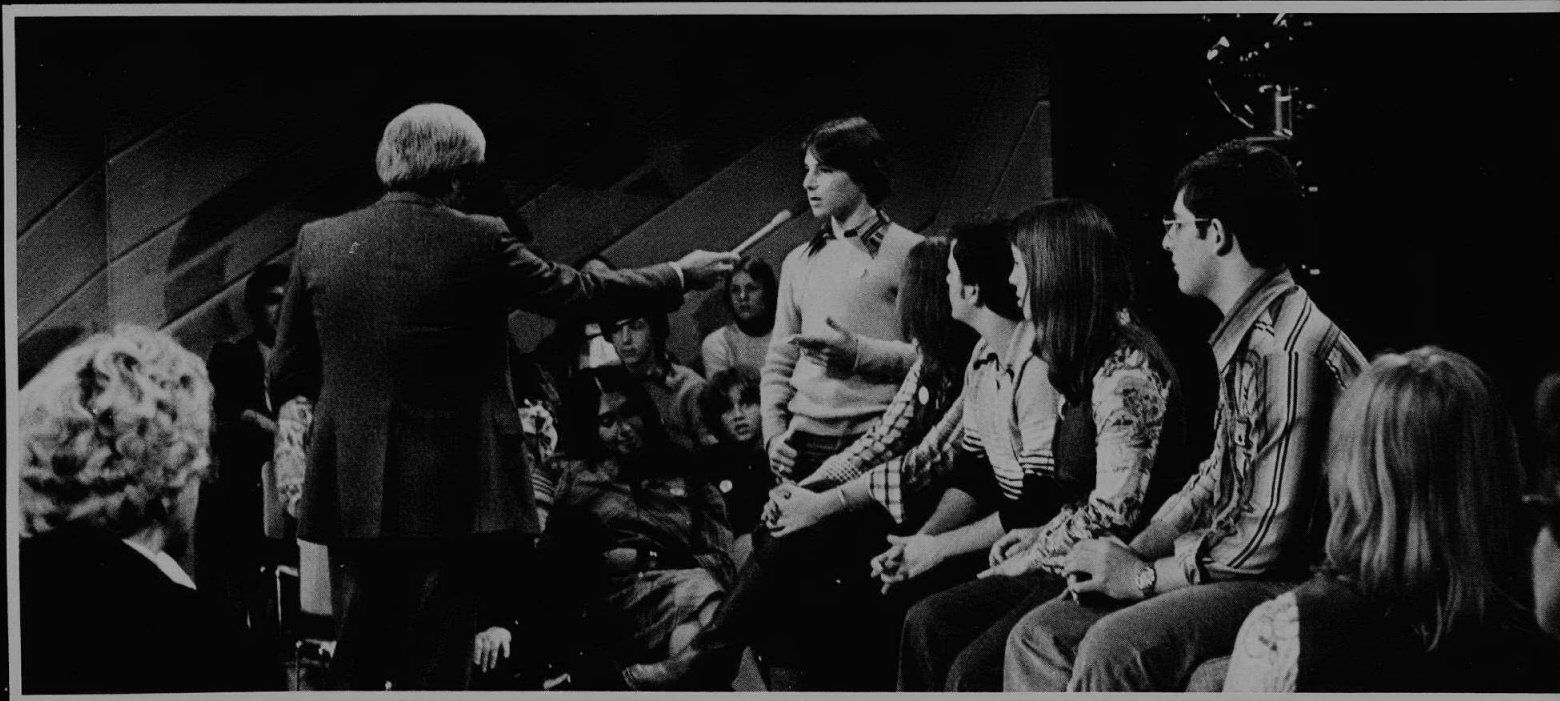

An anguished Tony lies over the body of his slain best friend, Riff killed by the Shark's leader.

“GETTING TO KNOW YOU”

Junior student leader, Doug Simons, responds to a question asked by talk show host, Phil Donahue.

Student panelists Jennifer Mikell, Steve Malone, Dena Brief, and Stuart Kramer listen attentively to the audience's questions.

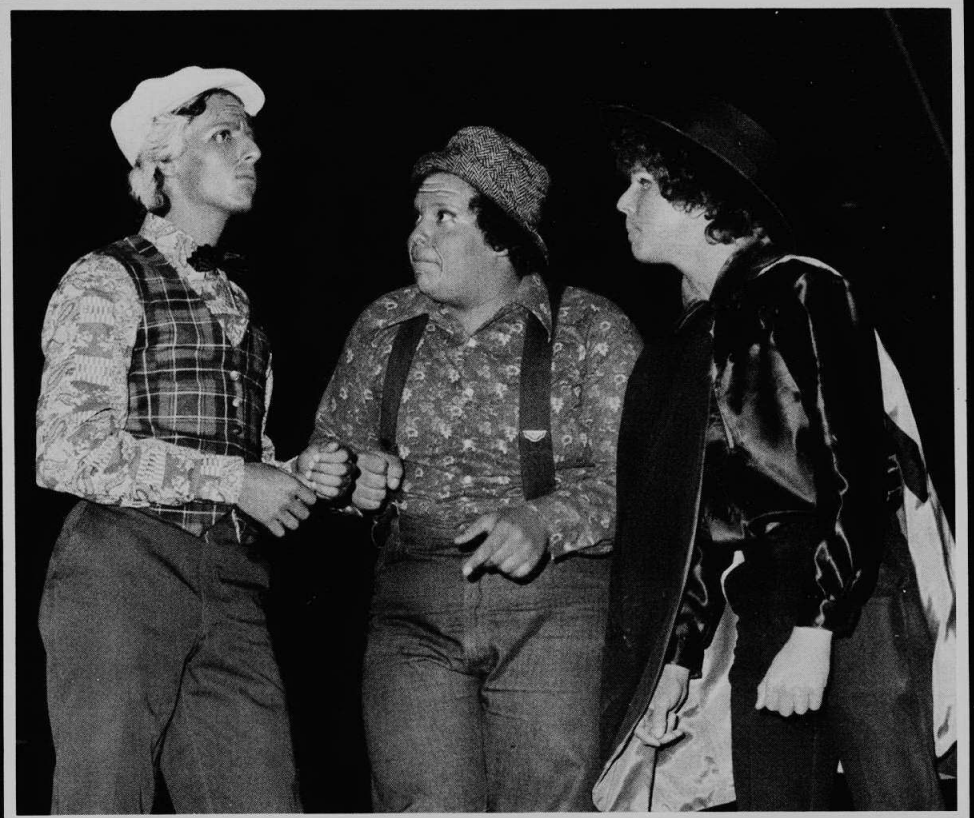

With time running out, Phil Donahue invites project SAGE leader, Mrs. Lorraine Rubin, with the comment, "We almost didn't get you in."

Luisa and Matt are stunned when El Gallo presents his bill for the attempted rape.

Discussing the price and quality of rape are Bellamy (Verne Noparstak), Hucklebee (Eric Feltman) and El Gallo (Bill Ezrin).

The Fantasticks, this year's fall production, is a play which takes place in both the real world and a fantasy world.

The first act takes us into the fantasy world where a fake feud between two fathers, a bandit named El Gallo, and a contrived rape, lead to the romance between the young Luisa and Matt.

The real world takes over in the second act by separating Matt and Luisa. They both suffer dissolution and in the end, reunite to find their love for each other has grown even stronger.

The play was uniquely creative in that it had a very simplistic set. This aided in transmitting the message of uncorrupted love between the two.

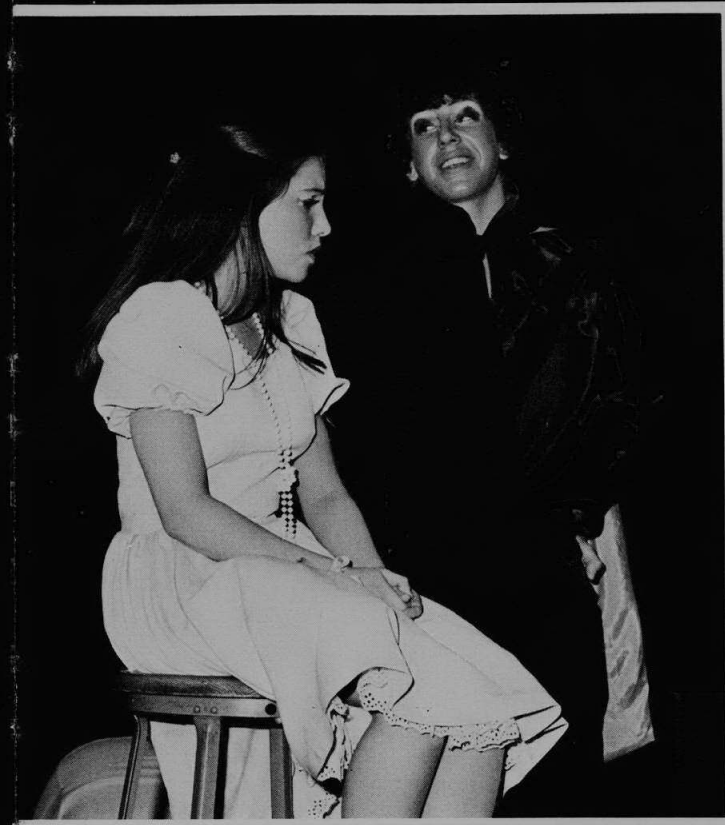

Matt (Lee Smolen) expresses his love for Luisa (Cindy Frankel) over an imaginary wall represented by the mute (Ida Ginsburgh).

A PARABLE ABOUT LOVE

After their experiences in the real worlds, Matt and Luisa reunite once more, just before a snowstorm.

Responding to the call for a couple of extra actors are Henry Albertson, Steve Malone and his indian side-kick, Mortimer (Mitch Speck).

El Gallo attempts to persuade Luisa to travel with him all over the world.

"My back ain't what it used to be", complained Matt's father to the relief of Matt and Luisa who were interrupted in a secret meeting.

"FASTEN YOUR SEATBELTS..."

Singing "I'd do anything" are soloists Cathy Baldasso and Verne Noparstak as the cast looks on.

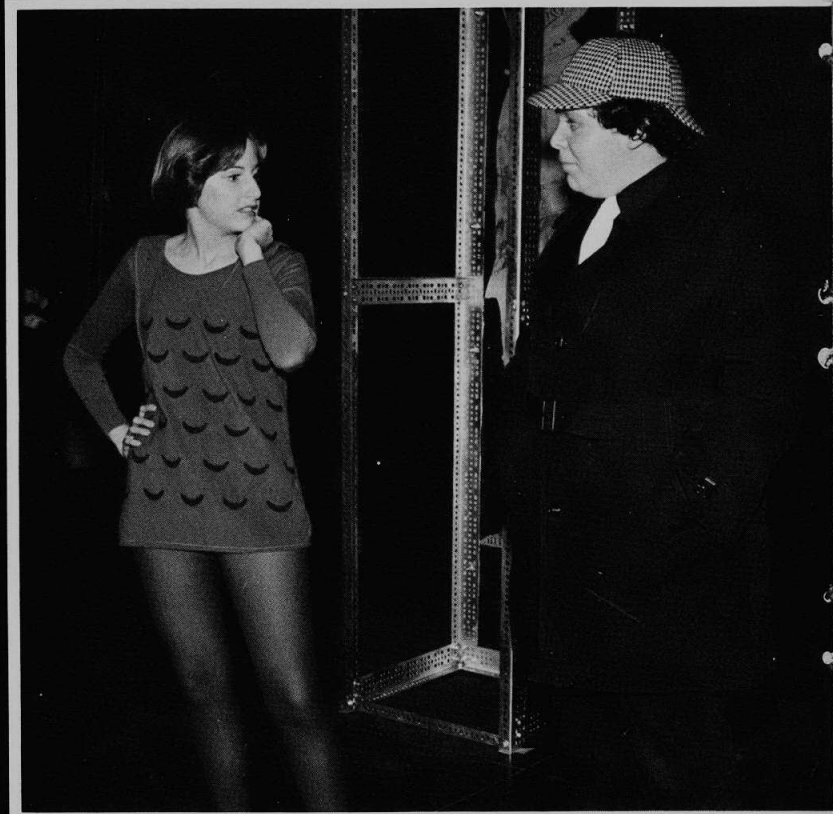

"Alms, alms . . . Here you go, my man!"

Charging the dragon (Caryn Turski) with overacting is St. George (Eric Feltman).

The 50's are brought back by members of the company in "That's how young I feel."

It's AAA and the voices of Bill Ezrin and Steve Brody deliver the P.A. announcements.

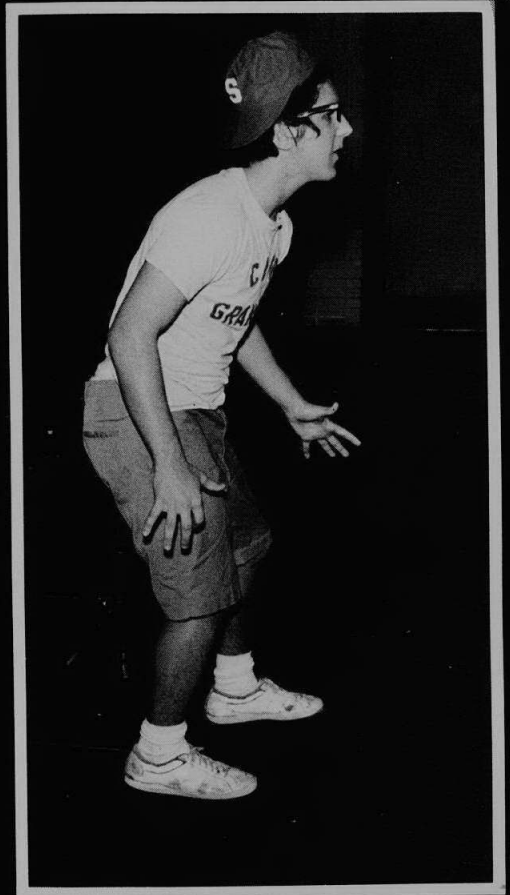

Unveiling the cast for "Beautiful City" is the clown (Arthur Stark).

Camp Granada has camper, Mitch Speck, writing home of his horror stories.

"Fasten Your Seatbelts" was the title of this years Norsecapades. The annual student written variety show featured more dance and musical numbers than it has ever had in the past. Such numbers included a Fifth Dimension Medley, Oliver Medley and a tune by Neil Sedaka, That's When The Music Takes Me. Other numbers such as: I Hope I Get It, What I Did For Love and Everybody Rejoice, were taken from the Broadway Musical Productions of A Chorus Line and The Wiz.

Original comedy was also performed with skits poking fun at the school in P.A. Announcements, a satirical look at the Channel 2 news team and once again, Art Fern.

Summing it all up was cast member Melanie Berg when she said, "Being in Norsecapades enabled me to get close to such a large amount of people in such a short amount of time."

Eric Feltman sings a solo to "Corner of the Sky."

Cast members visit the South Seas.

Cast members Ken Serota, Mitch Speck, Paul Finkel, Pam Greene and Ken Shapiro "warm up" before the show.

"What would we do without you?"

"Norsecapades was my first show. I worked with some of the greatest people in the world. Even though our schedule was very hectic, we came through and put on a great show."

Brian Walter

"After spending the summer on the Norsecapades Materials Board, it was a great pleasure to see how the show turned out. I enjoyed the experience of meeting new people, along with the different things I learned. If I had the chance to do it again, I would."

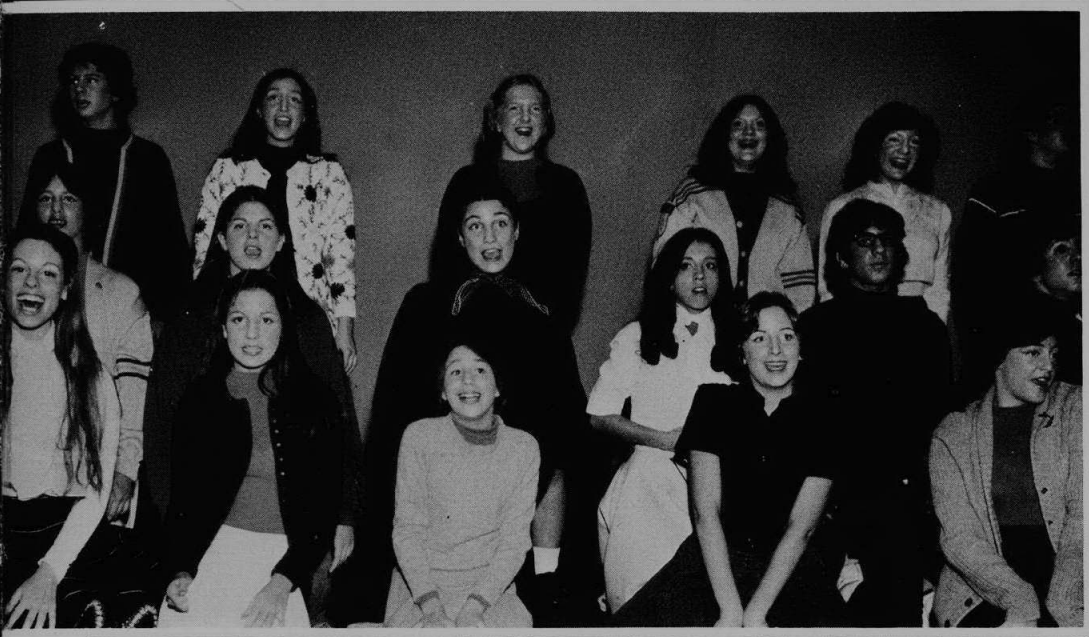

Pam Greene

"Being in Norsecapades '76 was quite a unique experience for me. I went with the show from beginning to end; from choosing the numbers and acts to performing them on the stage. The people I met and the people I knew made it all worthwhile."

Lee Smolen

...FOR NORSECAPADES '76

Cast members bring back the 50's in "That's How Young I Feel."

Lee Smolen and Dale Libkin do a take off on the Clorox Bleach commercial.

"God I Hope I Get It, I Hope I Get It."

Doing a tap number to "I Want to be Happy" is Lee Smolen. Diane Varga, Lori Amstader and Dale Libkin while others join in.

Imitating a puppet in "Puppet Man" is Diane Varga.

DO RE MI FA SOL LA TI

Presenting the Niles North Concert Band.

To add to the spirit of the season the Combined Chorus performs a Christmas Medley.

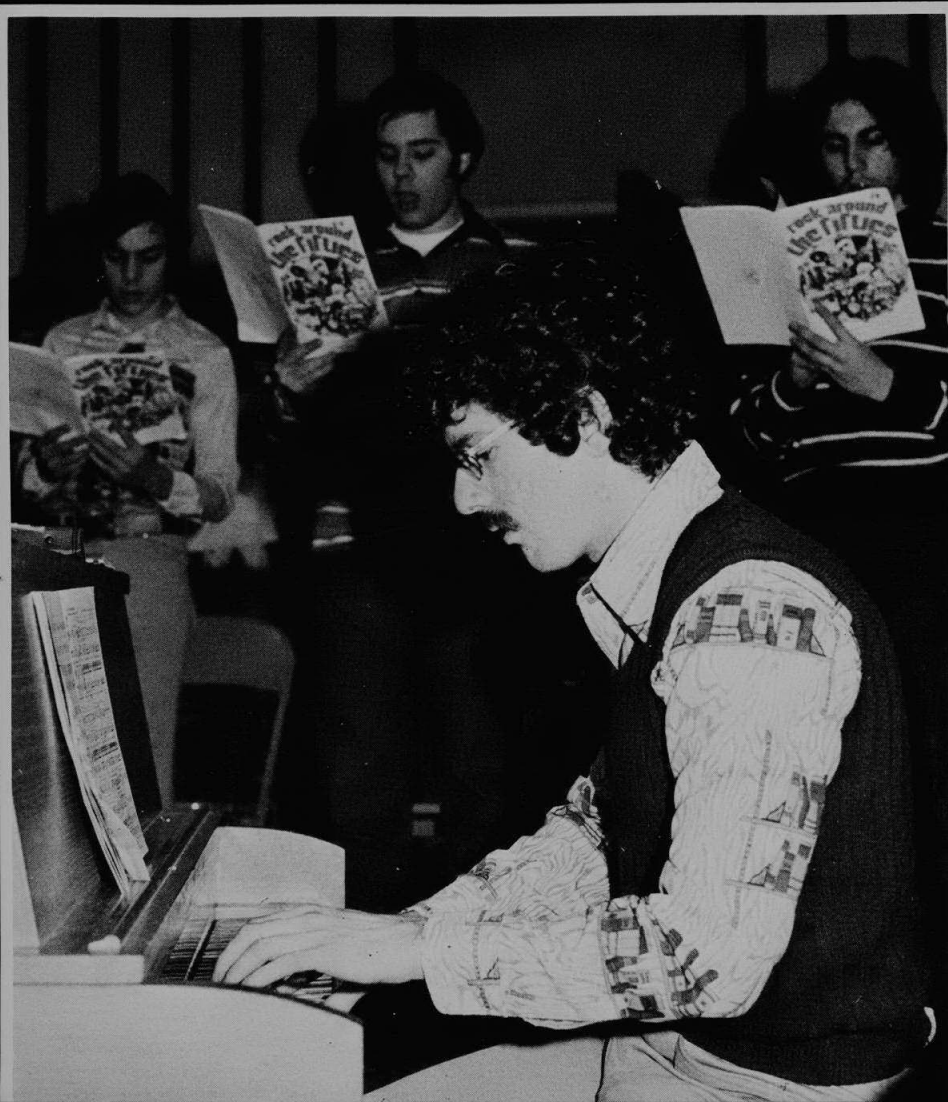

Concert Band plays "Slavonic Dances" under the direction of Mr. Kasperick.

Mr. Rich Green directs the Chamber Choir in "Amahl and the Night Visitors."

Practicing for their performances are the Choral Orchestra members. BOTTOM: Accompanying choral members on the piano is Music Director Rich Green.

This year's Holiday Concert was a combination of Choral Union, Chamber Choir, Girl's Glee, Viking Male Chorus, Concert Orchestra and Concert Band.

The festive sounds echoed throughout the auditorium filling the audience with Holiday Spirit. Some of the numbers were the Shepard's Chorus, Cum Sancto Spiritu, Life is What You Make It and a Christmas Medley.

Junior Eric Feltman reflected on the mood of the concert when he said, "This year as before, my musical appreciation grew by leaps and bounds. Singing the Shepard's Chorus from "Amahl and the Night Visitors" definitely tested the ability of the choruses and I know we did it. I'm proud to be a member of the Niles North Chorus."

Romeo reads the invitation to the Capulet feast.
Romeo (Dan Fey) and Juliet (Lori Seffren) meet.

Tybalt (Cary Coplon) exchanges angry words with Benvolio (Jordan Bayer) over crossed swords.

Lord Capulet chastises his fiery cousin Tybalt (Eric Feltman) as Juliet's nurse (Janice Silver) listens in.

Romeo threatens his servant Balthasar (Mitch Speck).

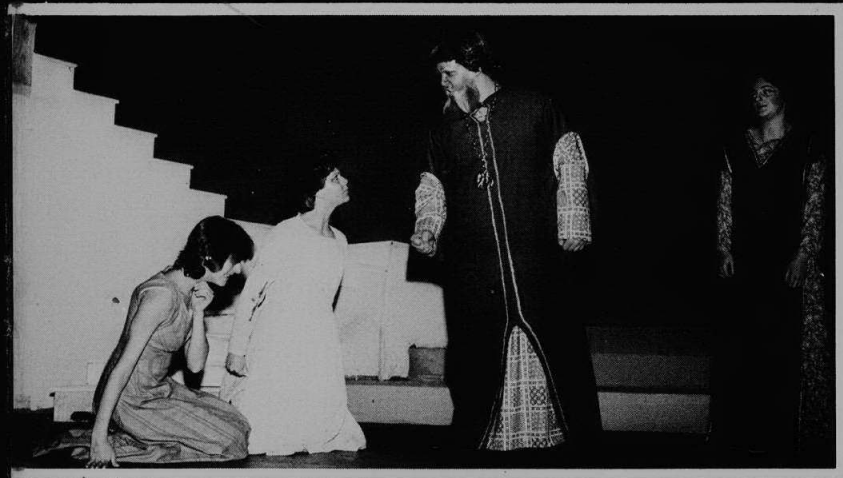

Niles North's Theater Department attempted its most difficult undertaking to date by putting on William Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet", the story of a pair of "star-crossed lovers" from two feuding families of Verona. As if the serious nature of the play was not enough, the tongue-twisting language provided added difficulties. However, everyone involved in the show worked long and hard hours, which resulted in a fine production.

According to Janice Silver, "The part I had in Romeo and Juliet was my first major role and definitely the most challenging thing I've ever done in theater. There were times amidst all the hard work when I really felt like giving up, but the end result and the rewards of working and having a riot with other cast members made everything more than worth it."

"A PAIR OF STAR-CROSSED L O V E R S"

Lord Capulet threatens to cast his daughter Juliet out of his house if she refuses to marry, while Lady Capulet and the Nurse stand by helplessly.

Lady Capulet (Cathy Baldasso) finds Tybalt (Cary Coplon) slain.

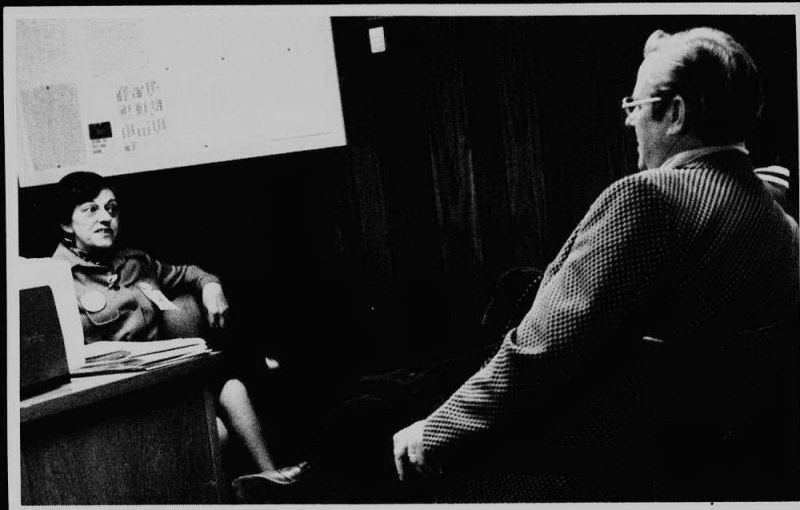

The death of Mercutio (Verne Noparstak).

Romeo mourns over Juliet, who is actually is not dead, but has taken a sleeping potion in order to avoid marrying Paris.

LEFT: Friar Laurence and Lord Capulet find the dead bodies of Romeo, Juliet and Paris (Jack Kohn).

The donkey takes a bow.

Part of show "biz" includes signing one's "John Hancock" for the autograph seekers.

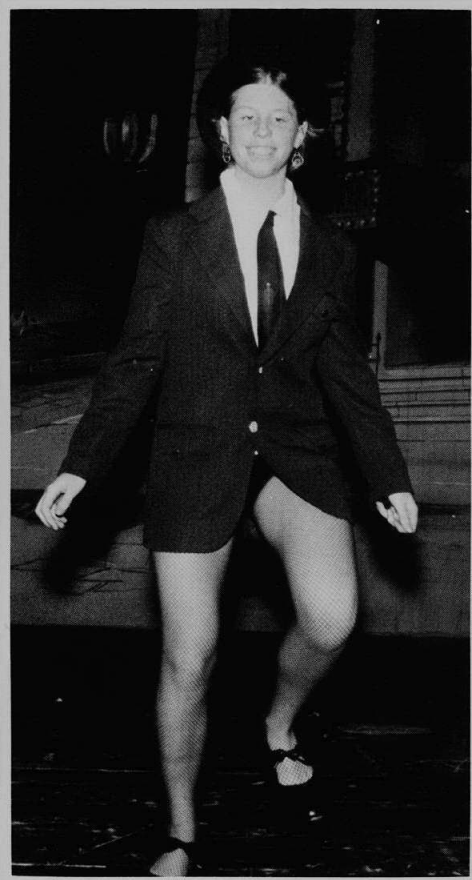

Open house enabled parents to acquaint themselves with their child's teachers and understand the curriculum offered. Parents even had the opportunity to experience a modified schedule similar to that of their child's "school routine."

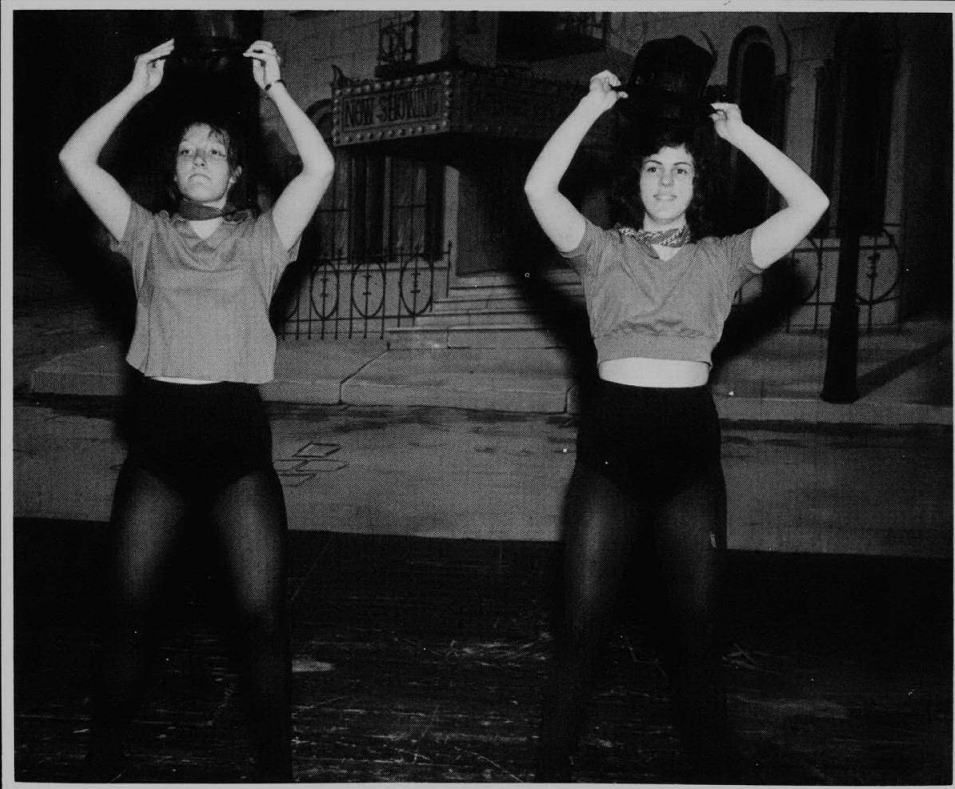

The recent national elections included the appointment for the 10th congressional district in the suburbs. The incumbent, Abner Mikva, visited the school to inform students of his plans and answered students' questions.

Towards the end of the first semester, Sammy Cahn, songwriter and singer, gave a performance for students and faculty.

And Christmas came to the "forgotten children" when members of student congress raised $2,230 for the Forgotten's Children's Fund through an auction, raising money in AAA, and from donations.

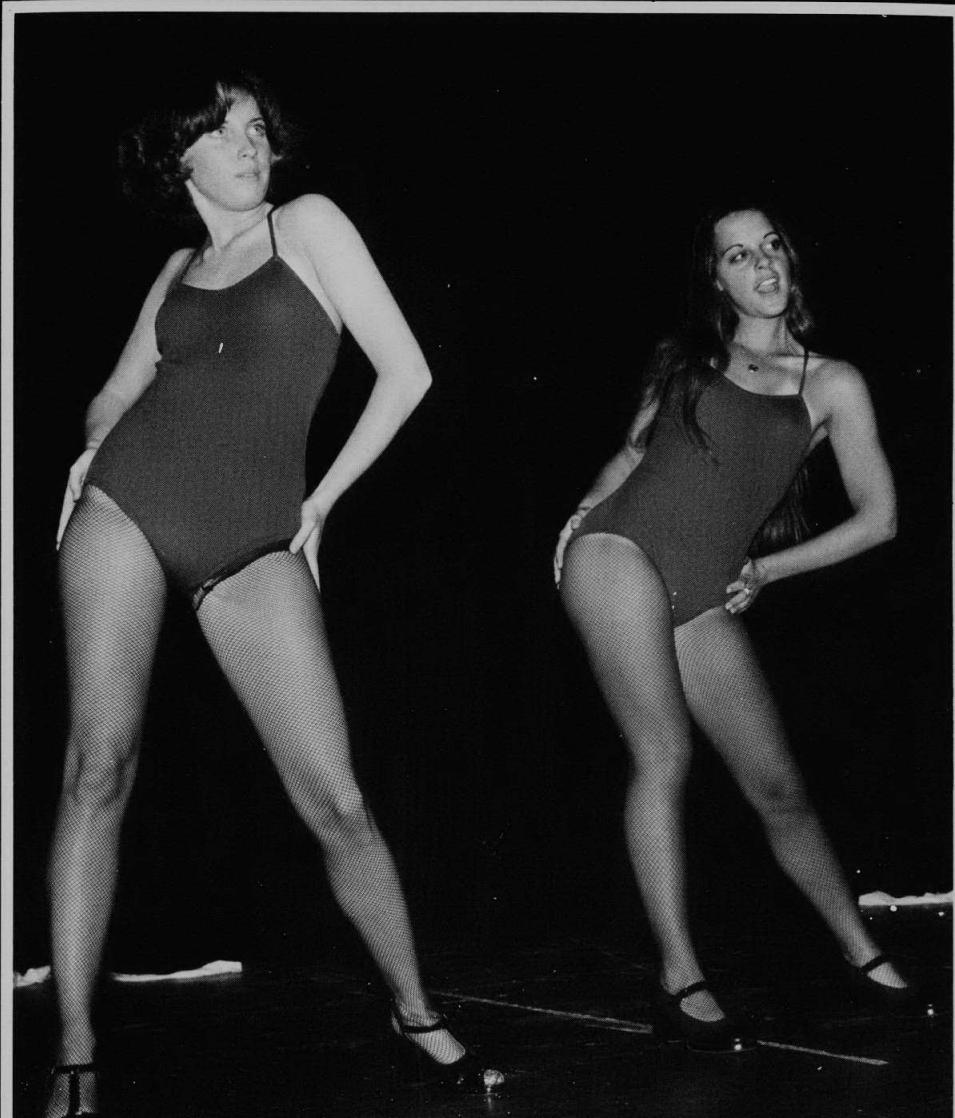

Doing a tap number to "I've Got The News" is Linda Olsen.

We've got "Steamed Heat" Says Cheryl Johnson and Debbie Wechter.

Putting some "oomph" into their dance is Karin Benson and Nancy Harris.

Skill and creativity were the key notes of "Auroris '76," last year's dance show.

Auroris club members and their sponsor, Miss Nancy White, spent many long hours choreographing original routines to tunes that ranged from fantasy to jazz. Characters such as wind up toys, a jack in the box, and fifties teenagers emerged through artistic costumes and make-up. Creative dancing techniques added a touch of humor to the show in scenes like the "Sugar Plum Fairy" and "Sons".

The hard work that was incorporated into the show was appreciated and applauded by the audience as they enjoyed an evening of fine dancing.

“TO DANCE IS TO LIVE...”

Bringing back the days of the 50's are Sharon Cooper and Stacy Feldman in "Bandstand Boogie".

Susan Hankin and Pam DeCarl strike a pose to end their dance.

Auroris members dance to the music of the "Bugle Boy".

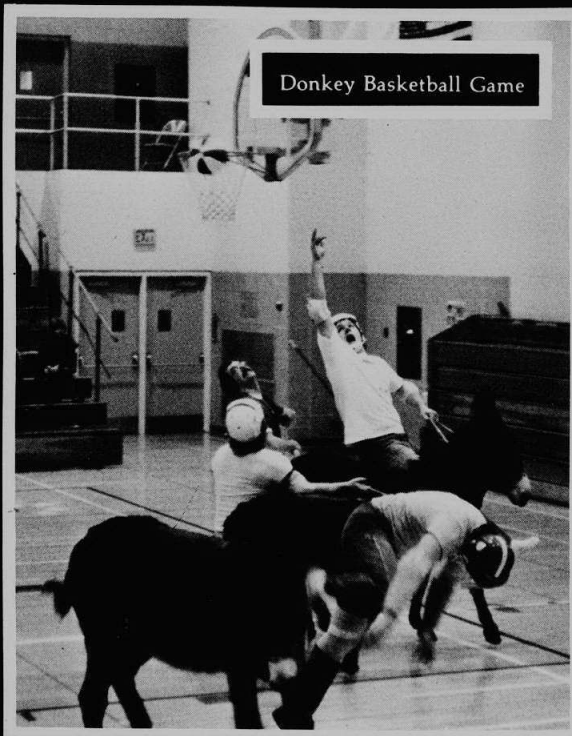

Cheryl Johnson, Linda Gorov, and Sharon Cooper do an original routine to "Fly, Robin Fly".

Prom '76 was indeed a magical experience for couples who attended. The music of "Chamelian" in the luxurious Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton North Shore of Northbrook set the atmosphere.

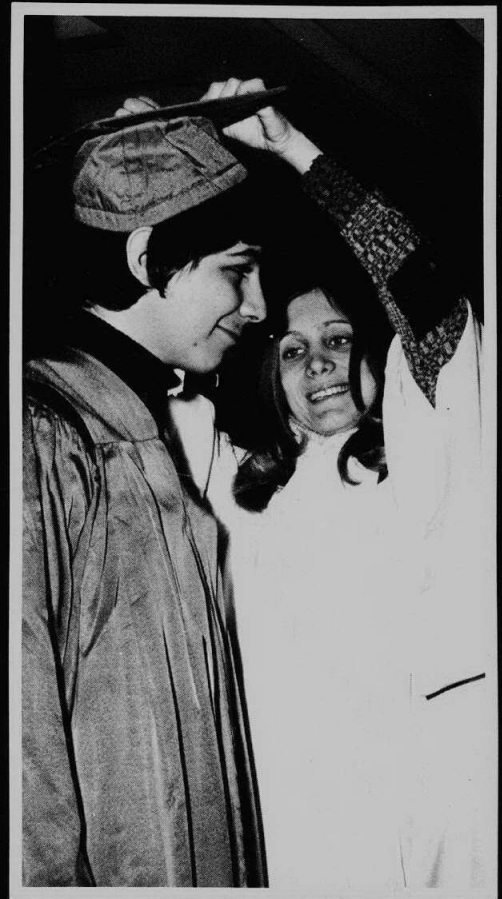

Could It Be Magic? It certainly was at the highlight of the evening for graduates Evan Poulakidas and Debbie Saffer as they were named Prom King and Queen.

Junior Class Board did a wonderful job in arranging beautiful centerpieces, hors d'ouvres and memories for all. The feeling of being swept off your feet with that "Special Someone" was one that will never be forgotten. It was really a magical end to years at Niles North.

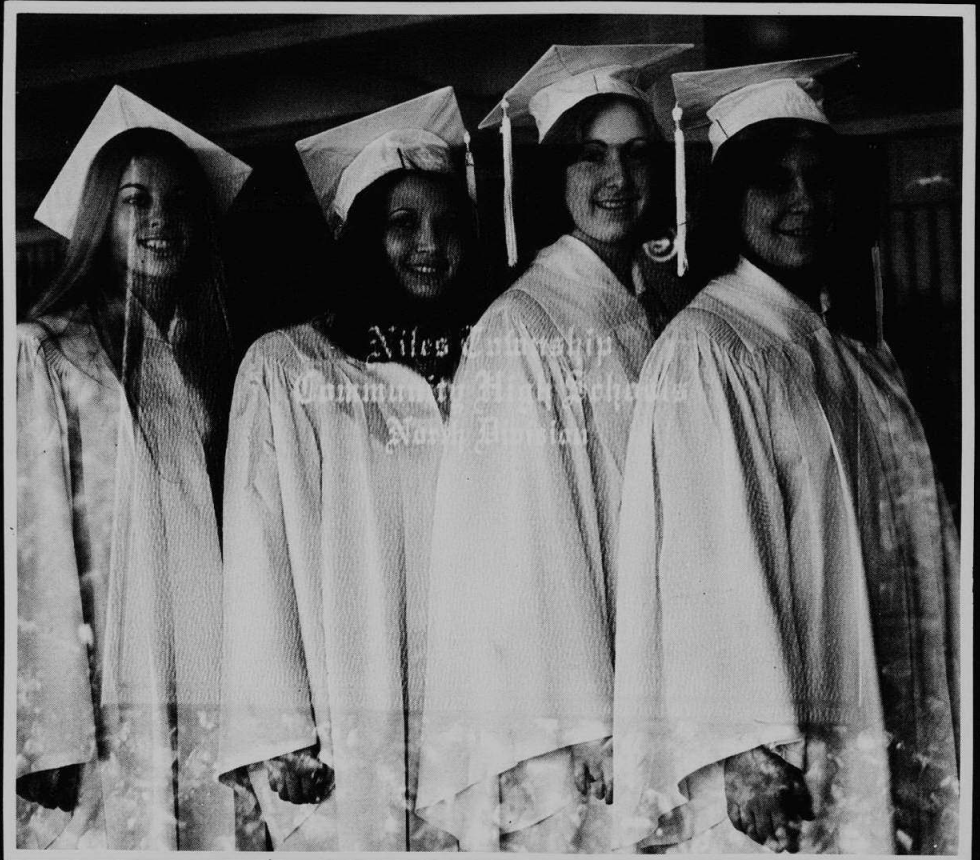

A feeling of happiness and good cheer are shared by graduates: Eydie Barttanes, Mark Roter, Steven Solomon, and Pamela Greene.

Let me not defer or neglect it, for
I shall not pass this way again.

*“Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away our fears
And all the years will come and go
And take us up - always up”*

Seals & Crofts

We will strengthen the mighty structure of our future with hope, dreams and the courage to pursue our goals.

Saga 1977

Selfawareness: Searching inside ourselves to discover who we are. Still, to be fully aware of ourselves, we must look at our relationship with the world outside. Saga '77 has explored this relationship we have with the world out side, emphasizing the dreams and courage we all must possess if we are to take what the world offers, and form its gifts into a meaningful existence.

Putting a yearbook together is never a simple task; layouts must be drawn, pictures cropped and copy typed and retyped. This year included the frustrations that a new and inexperienced must face, and scheduling problems that forced some students to leave the staff with incompleted sections. Yet, with all of these difficulties I feel that the 1977 Saga is a book that the entire staff can look at with pride and a feeling of accomplishment.

I would like to thank all those who aided the staff in producing this yearbook:

Mr. Dennis Eder, our American Yearbook representative who helped with the books design, answered all of our questions and gave me support whenever I was in need of it.

Root Studios for their prompt and reliable service.

Honey Goldberg and Rhonda Liebman, former editors, who did their best to prepare me for my position as editor-in -chief.

Miss Maureen Armbruster, whos support and journalistic knowledge was always welcome.

And a special thanks to Mr. Stanely Carey, the staff advisor, without whom this yearbook could not have been completed.
