Top Secret Senior Breakfast Plans Are Well Under Way

Plans for the Senior Breakfast are well under way; and, as in previous years, everything is a top secret! The Breakfast will take place Thursday, June 12, at 9:30 a.m. in the Nilehi cafeteria, with a program of entertainment. At this time, also, awards from the various departments will be presented.

The Hi-Y, under the sponsorship of Mr. George Roth, will present a $75 scholarship award to an outstanding senior boy or girl.

A $100 SCHOLARSHIP will be awarded by the 100 Per Cent Club, sponsored by Miss Ada Immel, to an outstanding business student who plans to continue his studies in the business field.

The dramatics department, with Miss Virginia Stemp as teacher, will award to the senior who has done the most outstanding work in dramatics at Nilehi, whether it be acting or designing, a gold pearl

A Smith-Corona deluxe portable typewriter, provided by the Russ Brown Typewriter Service, will also be awarded at the Breakfast. The winner of this award must have typed four of the five tenminute timings with five or less errors.

As part of the entertainment, the Will and Prophecy will be read to the graduating class. The students on the Will and Prophecy committee are Barbara Hansen, Gloria Fogarty, Connie Creden, Gail Meuer, Gary Krueger, Carol Tiedman, Russ Krause, and Betsy Buell.

The Breakfast committee has een divided into two parts, with Barbara Heim, Joanne Peterson, Doris Smith, and Donna Rohden making up the menu committee.

Wishes 52' Grads Luck

The end of school is always a time which we approach with mixed emotions. We look back upon a busy year and wonder if we have done as well as we should have. We feel very proud of the record which our seniors have made, but we feel a little wistful that they are leaving us. We know that the things which they have accomplished will stand as an inspiration for the oncoming classes at Niles. They have been outstanding in many respects.

We look forward to new faces, to new experience, but we feel a trifle sad at having so many fine boys and girls no longer with us.

Life is change. For the seniors, leaving here means new ventures in school of work, new friends and new problems. For the others here in Nilehi, it means new responsibilities, new leaders, and many more new students.

You are finishing one phase of school, but education goes on Not necessarily education

The Golden Galleon Guild delivered the school's creative-writing magazine, the GOLDEN GALLEON to Nilehi students last week. The entire magazine was written, edited, and published by Nilehi stu-

On June 4, the Guild held its annual induction banquet in the high-school cafeteria.

Approximately 16 new members were inducted. These students had material published in the magazine, had aboveaverage marks, and were approved by various teachers.

These students include Tom Glass, Phyliss Garbo, Jeanne O'-Beorne, Anne Newton, Arlene Belfors, Arlene Naubrich, Carol Borchert, and Tom Walmsky, freshmen; Arlene Svoboda, Judy Wiebold, Richard Lewis, Roberta Linke, Kay Christiansen, sophomores; and Carol Collins, Diane Nelson, Ronald Kruchten, juniors.

During the banquet the new Tri-G board members for the year 1952-53 were announced. Included are Diane Von Eitzen, Sharon Bell. Marvelle Chandler, and Joyann Wright.

Congratulations to Cynthia Brock, Barbara Gunsaulus, Carol Rossmann on receiving Golden Galleon Scholarships in school, but education by daily living. Schools can only better prepare you for your daily living, not live for you. If you live a better, more satisfying life because of your school experience, then we have done a good job.

For the seniors, the best of everything. May whatever course you follow be the best for you. To the other students, enjoy your summer, and plan to take up next fall where our seniors left off this spring.

Gary Krueger Looks on More Serious Side of Life

You pick your way carefully among the dead and wounded. You hear only the wounded crying out for aid, for the dead cry no more. Here and there an arm or a leg or a headless corpse. Now and then a corpsman carries a wounded man away. You see a scene that grips you. A young man with a picture in his cold hand of a wife and a child, a last look, but he has a smile on his face. You put the picture in his bloody shirt pocket and bury him. You do the same all night and all the next day. You bury your best friends, your enemies, but for each, someone, somewhere is crying.

Seniors Ask Underclassmen To Forgive; Also Give Advice

TO THE FRESHMEN, SOPHOMORES, AND JUNIORS:

Soon the senior class will be taking another step up the great ladder of Life. We will be leaving Nilehi and our many friends behind us to carry on. But there are a few things we would like to say before we leave.

First, forgive us for all those cafeteria fines we monitors gave out to you. We were only doing our duty.

Forgive how snobbish we seemed to act before you. We just were not given the proper chances to become better acquainted with you.

Don't laugh at how "big" the seniors tried to be. When your time comes you'll get the same feeling as we did.

Take over where we left off. Finish whatever we left dangling. Take heed of our mistakes and make sure they are not repeated.

Give Nilehi a name that can be looked up to. Put your best foot forward in scholarship and citizenship.

Keep an eye on next year's incoming freshmen-they'll be con-fused and bewildered. Give them a helping hand when they need it. And, last, when things seem to be going rough, put on your best smile. You'll cheer your neighbor, too. Remember, "to err is human, to forgive divine" and we made plenty of mistakes, too THE SENIORS

To all battles there must be a winner and a loser. Those who died for a winning cause died well, for they too believed in what they were fighting for. The losers? You don't think about them, but pray to God you never lose. Arms, legs, blood, sweat and tears all in vain.

The future of America rests in your hands. You inherited it. With our heritage are things called freedom, liberty, and the rights of others. Also, the tsk of preserving these things. The task of keeping them safe for those who follow us. Protecting them as did our forefathers and theirs before them.

There will come a time when you will be called upon to make that decision. Did Lincoln speak the truth at Gettysburg? Is it worth fighting for?

If we take the road to war, our lot will be the lost arms, the shattered legs, and broken bodies. Ours will be the blood, the sweat, and the tears.

Bill Furman Clubs Revise Selves For More Efficiency'

Returning students next fall will find that some of Nilehi's top Clubs have changed.

Spotlighters, the N.T.H.S. dramatics club, will have undergone a complete revision in organizacion. Four new features will help improve the efficiency and widen the activities of the club.

Among these features will be a six-month apprenticeship of all interested students who will be formerly accepted as Spotlighters if they have earned the required number of points for attendance and participation in club activities.

A special meeting will be called at which a formal and decorative handbook of the rules, activities, and aims of the club will be given will be given and punch and cookto all attendinf freshmen. A skit ies will be served by masked drama glub members in the medieval tradition of the 'players.'

The Golden Galleon Guild, comsposed of those who submit writing to the annual publication, has provided, according to Mrs. Parepa Rice, faculty sponsor, for another organization - the Golden Galleon Auxiliary. The members will aid bers of the V.A. Operators Club. in reading and grading the anonymous material submitted. They will not, however, be a part of the Golden Galleon Guild. They need not have literary talent but need good judgement.

The new Ushers club members will be personally chosen by Miss Dorothy Lungmus, faculty sponsor. This will insure greater efficiency. A general chairman will also be selected to assist Miss Lungmus.

Furman Is Chosen By Red Cross

Bill Furman, freshman, was the recent recipient of the Red Cross nine-day summer training camp trip with all expenses paid by the Red Cross, to be taken at Lake Forest Academy on July 16 to 24.

According to Miss Alice Line, Red Cross sponsor, Bill was picked from the whole freshman class. Miss Line and Mr. Roth think Bill has commendable leadership ability.

Bill has been very active in school this year. He was chairman of the Freshman Board of Advisers from Homeroom 301. He is vicepresident of the Ni-Hi-Sci club, and a member of the chess club. He is also very interested in Red Cross activities.

The purpose of the summer training is to help the students to interpret Junior Red Cross and its program within their respective schools and to encourage and assist students to act effectively and intelligently in group activities.

George Krueger, senior was the Nilehi representative to the Academy last year.

Operators Are Mainstays Behind Scenes' Artists

We hear much about some activities within the walls of Nilehi, while other very important jobs are seldom heard of. Take, for example, the boys who operate the microphones and spot-lights for all the shows and concerts; who keep all the projectors, victrolas, tape recorders and films in good condition, and who deliver all these things to teachers before school starts in the morning. All these jobs are carried on by the mem-

Particular credit this year should be given to the Senior Chief Operator Vernon Jennetten, who, besides his many duties of the club, has helped teachers at almost every program, operating spot-lights and microphones for Water Carnivals, Concerts, the Variety Show, dramatic activities, P.T.A. meetings, and others.

Outstanding underclassmen who have worked along with Vernon are Don Cook, Lawrence Weber, Dick Simpson and Lawrence Brod, according to Mrs. Dorothy Hind.

Mr. John L. Betts was recently elected treasurer of the North Suburban Council for Social Studies. The council has just been organized this year, according to Betts.

Seniors Plan Futures: Work, College, Marriage

Are more senior boys going to college than girls next year?

No! states a survey recently distributed in the senior class. There will be 70 girls and 64 boys attending a college or school in the fall. The other 11 boys and 27 girls will be working. These figures were taken only from the 172 returned surveys, although there are 213 students in the senior class.

The 134 college-bound students will be attending 50 different schools. Most popular is the University of Illinois in Champaign, where 15 students will be going, Next in line will be Northwestern. with 12. Five Nilehiers will each be going to the University of Colorado, Purdue, Eastern Illinois State Teachers' College, and Northern Illinois State Teachers' Col-

Four students each will be at Ripon, Lake Forest, and Beloit. Three will be at Bradley, the University of Denver, and St. Francis Hospital Nursing School.

Schools expecting two Nilehiers are Wright Junior College, Iowa State, Lawrence, MacMurray, Princeton, Augustana, Wheaton, and the University of Wisconsin. Twenty students are undecided as to which college they will attend.

Of the 37 students working in the fall, three will be employed by G. D. Searles, and two by Allstate Insurance and the Glenview Naval Air Base. Twenty are undecided as to where they will work. The others are employed in various places.

Nilehi will see seven brides within the near future, for seven senior girls are now engaged. Nearest ceremony will be that of Gerry Riggs and Marvin J. Lochinger in June; then Joyce Schwartz and Dick Bernardi in November. The other engaged couples who have set no date are Sandra Moberg and Paul Gauer, Arlene Meyer and Rich Summer, Barbara Toepfer and Dick Perryman, and Margot Mark and Edward Schwendau.

Don Walters, 1951 graduate, has completed his first year at Annapolis by finishing near the top of his class. With an enrollment of 2000 freshmen, Don was one of the top 20. While at Nilehi he was on ginning of his senior year, when violin numbers. Approximately 300 the National Honor Society, played football and basketball.

Some of the students only have their addresses next to their names because at the time of this printing, they were absent or other difficulties has come up. However, it seems that the majority of the seniors just want to be successful in life and happy.

Senior Moans Bout Memories

THESE ARE MEMORIES?

Remember when we were just little FROSH-

We sure were scared little runts then - by Gosh!

The SENIORS, then - how tall they seemed,

How good we felt, when on us they beamed -

That special - know it all smile that they have

Oh, so grown, so smart - chic and stave.

Then our heads swelled with pride, And from us, no FROSH could

We were SENIORS — the "big deals" of Nilehi;

But now we look back with a sigh, And to the future with hesitation-'Cause in a week-it'll be Graduation!

Pulling an "Irma"

Heard in the halls between two weary senior girls: "All this work is giving me a migrating headache."

Frozen Nylons?

The usual rousing pre-lunch period General Business class recently found themselves discussing care of the business worker's clothes. Mr. Napier expectantly asked, "How do you preserve nylon?"

One bright-eyed frosh looked up with "Freeze it?"

Daffynitions

Vacation — A system whereby the tired become more tired.

Prisoner — The only person who doesn't mind being interrupted in the middle of a sentence.

Graduation — A ceremony that marks the end of high school studies and the beginning of education.

Teacher — A person who swore he would starve before teaching and has been doing both ever since.

A Little Common Courtesy Goes a Long Way

A sophomore boy was having a great deal of difficulty with his Franch translation, but he was getting help from several who were seated near him. Noticing this, Mrs. Priscilla Baker said, "From now on, we will have no more promting!"

The boy looked rather pained and pleaded, "Aw, can't you at least wait 'til I'm finished?"

The Nilehi journalism class has really been busy this year. According to Mr. Paul Eberhardt, instructor, there have been 528 stories written for the news bureau only. These papers in which the stories appear are the SKOKIE NEWS, the SKOKIE LIFE, the LINCOLNWOOD LIFE, the GLENVIEW ANNOUNCEMENTS, the SKOKIE PRESS, the NILES SPECTATOR and the SPECTATOR OF NILES TOWNSHIP. The number of stories written this year has set a new record.

New Program Planned; Explanation Attempted

"Hey, how come homeroom period started five minutes early this morning? Is the Senior Cabinet calling an early meeting or something?" That's one of the seniors griping (class of '53, that is). Even though three years of hard labor at Nilehi has been guaranteed to do wonders, there are still a few problems left to race. The new school schedule is one of them.

Wearily our sunburned homeroom teacher starts all over again, explaining to his or her students the new schedule. Let's listen to what he has to say about the whole thing.

"All the classes this year are 16 minutes shorter than they were when school got out last summer. Therefore, these 40-minute classes allow time for one extra class period or Period 10.

Period 10 is Homeroom, the same as in past years. Periods 2, 3, and 4 are regular class periods. Period 5 is a homeroom-study hall period for the whole school. Periods 6 and 7 are both 56 minutes in length. These periods are cut in half for the purpose of lunch. This year there are four 26-minute lunch periods.

In order to receive full major credit for certain laboratory courses offered, a schedule is fixed so that each student can take the required seven hours of laboratory class each week. The student will take five hours in regular class time, the other two hours being held during the class period immediately following. Therefore this schedule for this particular class is followed two days of the week. The other three days, the student reports to study hall."

"Oh," (that's a senior again)
"Yea, now I kinda understand what you mean—uh—thanks for the help."

"Anytime" smiles Mr. Teacher, thinking that maybe something he said is at last getting through to somebody. As he sits back and watches his students, he thinks to himself, "I wonder when I eat lunch today! Is it 6- first half, or 7- second half?"

Miss Ruby K. Marr, Nilehi's speech Correction Teacher, spoke to two Northwestern University classes about Speech Correction and Speech Education, May 28.

G. A. A. Activities

Baumann G.A.A. President

Kay Baumann, president; Judy Borchert, vice-president; Barbara Berner, secretary; and Joanne De-Love, treasuerer. These were the results of the G.A.A. election of officers for the 1952-53 school year.

The seniors on the present board and the new executive board will meet with Miss Helen Heitmann; sponsor of the G.A.A., to choose the new sport managers. The sports which may be chosen are soccer, badminton, basketball, square dancing, volleyball, tumbling, softball, track, golf, synchronized swimming, and publicity (a girl who takes care of the bulletin boards and publicity for the social events) and manager of the points and awards.

G.A.A. Letters Are Awarded

The annual G.A.A. Awards Assembly was held Thursday, June 5.

A school letter was awarded to each girl who was a member of the G.A.A. and who had qualified for the letter by earning the required number of points.

A minor letter of 500 points was awarded to Kay Baumann, Barbara Berner, Lois Borchers, Sally Brewbaker, Nanzy Browall, Jean Flowers, Lenore LeClaire, Pat Perrett, Donna Rohden, Katherine Shea, Shirley Steward, Carol Tiedmann, and Cathleen Cleven.

Barbara Heim, Carlene Sistrom, Shirley Swinyard and Duane Peterson received a major award (1,000 points.)

The First State Award went to Norma Throop, senior and president of the G.A.A. who earned a total of 1,300 points.

It there was an award higher than the Second State Award perhaps Ginny Bell, senior, would have been able to earn that also. But as she has earned over 2,000 points, she is eligible for the Second State Award. Ginny has been an active member in all G.A.A. sports during her four years at Niles and plans to major in physical education at the University of Wisconsin.

Introducing . . .

Junior Citizen

Kay Baumann. Does this name sound familiar? It should, for the Nilehi spotlight has fallen on Kay quite often.

You've seen her at all the games, for she's a cheerleader. You saw her on the stage April 16, for then she was one of the juniors inducted into the National Honor Society. You've seen her name in the papers for, among other things, being chosen by the Skokie American Legion Auxiliary to go to Girls' State this summer.

You've seen her at concerts, for she's in the choir. She also was inducted into 100 Per Cent Club recently. Kay is an active member of the G.A.A.; in fact, she was elected president for next year.

Kay's most recent honor was receiving the coveted Citizenship Award, an award presented by the Hi-Y to the most deserving junior girl and boy.

Orators Speak to Legion

At a regular meeting of the Skokie Post No. 320 of the American Legion, Tuesday, May 27, the three winners of the Nilehi oratorical contest held May 15, gave their winning speeches. Mr. Ronald Van Arsdale was sponsor of the pro-

New Leaders Chosen For 1952-53 Season

As the 1952 school term draws to a close, many of Nilehi's clubs must elect new officers to replace graduating students who this year headed the organizations.

One of the clubs which has selected its new officers thus far is the Lettermen's Club, sponsored by Mr. James Phipps. The new officers, selected at the annual spring banquet: president, Richard Meier; vice-president, Sonny Carroll; secretary; John Krueger; sergeant-atarms, Charles Tawse.

When to Graduate? '52 Seniors Tell All

For the benefit of future senior classes, we present senior journalists who would like to give some pointers to look for-sure signs of spring, so to speak!

When ninth-period senior girls throw their swimming teacher in the pool no less than four times When lazy heads rest on desks in English class . . the odors on the third floor get extra heavy from overworked kit-chen stoves and bunsen burners ... When the hero of the team is seen in the library, checking out a book of poetry When homeroom periods are soooo long (underclassmen busy figuring out next year's schedules when seniors wonder when the period will end) When teachers forget tests ... When freshmen start planning various tortures for next year's greenhorns . . . When everyone's either planning for the Prom, studying for exams, or get-ing married . . . When the juniors start taking over the school . . .

Then it's time to graduate.

No longer do you have to "fold junior, second; and Phil Stone, your own." A paper-folding masophomore, third; received a gold, chine has recently been acquired silver, and bronze medal respectful- by the print shop. It is being used ly at the contest held two weeks to fold programs and the NILEHI-LITES.

Introducing . . .

Junior Citizen

"It was the greatest honor I've ever had," said John Krueger, when asked how he felt about receiving the Citizenship Award for the boys. "I didn't think I'd get it and I told my parents not to bother coming to the assembly. I called my mother after I found out I had won the award but had a hard time convincing her I wasn't kidding."

When John was asked about his likes, his interests, and his hobbies. track headed all three of the lists. This 6'1" Nilehier is second-highpoint man on the team and races in the 200 and the 400-yard races and the 880 relay. He has received most of his tallies in the 400 race by gaining two firsts and one second. John said he hoped to qua!ify in the district and travel downstate. To do this he must race the 400 in 53 seconds.

Follows Dad's Footsteps

Following in his father's footsteps is Roland Kenning, freshman.

Twenty-one years ago when Coach Harold Isaacson took over the athletic program at Nilehi, which was then in Lincoln School building, he had on his first football and basketball teams a boy by the name of Roland Kenning.

Now 21 years later, the son of this boy is a student at Niles, who played on Mr. Phipps's freshman football team this year and also played basketball.

This is the first son of a former student to come to Nilehi.

Juniors Will Fill Vacant Varsity Posts

In varsity football a well-rounded squad of juniors were represented and lettermen to return to next year's team include—in the backfield—Ray Riha, Ron East-man, Bob (Bo) Butterworth, Jim Foran, and Rich Meyer. Mainstays in the line will be Bill (Sonny) Carroll, Dave Petrie and John Krueger. One of the outstanding

Along with the coming of winter came jayvee basketball competition. Under the auspices of Coach Harold Isaacson the jayvee cakers had a respectable four-win and two-loss record. Mainstays of the team were Butterworth (who averaged 10 points a game), Jim Foran and Ray Riha. Many of the junior cagers doubled in varsity competition. Next year Dave Baylor, six-feet five-inch center, will be back to police the backboards, while Connie Bartels, Butterworth, Rich Meyer, and Riha will couple with next year's juniors to make a swift varsity five.

"Tom Yocum's supremacy among divers and the great number of firsts captured by George Lockwood and Don Larson were main reasons this year's squad were so good battery combination next little since then," hastened 'Ike.'

'Ike' Reviews 22 Years at Nilehi

For its subject of discussion the Introducing Column turns to Nilehi's athletic director, Harold Isaacson, who now is in his twenty-second year of directing high school sports at Niles.

After an assortment of odd jobs Ike traveled to Lawton, Michigan where he began his career as a teacher and an athletic instructor. In 1931 he journed to Niles Center, Illinois where be accepted the position of athletic director of Lincoln Grade School. Introducing sports at Lincoln was an easy job, for the kids in those days were amidst the depression, and competing in athletics was the only thing that seemed worthwhile. The first team to don football jerseys at Lincoln School came under his tutelage in 1932.

The active sportsman racked up a total of 68 wins, 54 losses, and 14 ties, over an 18-year span of football directory. His best season in the league appeared in 1942 when the blue and gold recorded seven triumphs in an eight-game schedule. The near perfect record

A light lanky kid, that "Ike" recalls as a good athlete, especially on the gridiron, is the first lad he ever coached that is going into pro sports. The ex-Trojan referred to is '48 grad Ed Soergel, who has signed a contract to play with the Cleveland Browns this fall.

"Why I even remember a hard-Foran pitched a no-hit, no-run working athlete in the early thirgame against Evanston on the ties that is so popular at Niles Wildkits' diamond. Jim will match today—none other than Virgil Van with Bernie Edwards to form a Cleave. Of course he has grown a

Ken Howard Ed Trausch Chuck Lind Ralph Wenk

THE SPORTS SCENE OPENED in fall with the Nilehi varsity eleven under Coach Virgil Van Cleave, plagued by injuries to key players, managing only two wins and one tie against five losses. Out on the sidelines at some time during the season were first stringers Ken Howard, Chuck Lind, John Budai, Chuck Thompson, Bill Peterson, and Paul Byrd. For victories the Trojans swamped Marmion 34-6 as Lind tossed for two touchdowns and scored another and, with the Nilehi frontline opening holes for Howard and Ed Trausch to score TD's and erase an early 12-0 lead, squeezed past Morgan Park 14-12. Below freezing temperatures and a snowstorm blotted out previous high hopes for a victorious homecoming as the school's gridsters had to settle for a 6-6 tie with Highland Park. Teammates chose backfield man Trausch, whose hard running and good defensive play was outstanding, Most Valuable Player, while lineman Jack Thiry was made Honorary Captain The cross country squad failed to gather in a win although Bruce Bartleson, a senior out for the sport for the first time, finished among the top runners in each meet.

THE SPORTS MOVED INDOORS as winter weather approached. Towards the climax of basketball it appeared as if the varsity five was going to suffer a gloomy season. In regular competition the Van Cleave charges netted only four wins while losing 14 contests. A bright spot during this slump was sharp-shooting Ken Howard who was busy bagging a school record of 389 points, finishing second in SL scoring, and being named to two All-Suburban League quintets. But then, three weeks from the regionals, the Trojans showed signs of strength with a 58-57 triumph over New Trier topped by Connie Bartel's last second scoring jump shot. The Nilehi lads traveled to Waukegan for the regionals and easily defeated Waukegan and then Evanston. In the finals the fans saw a thriller to the finish with Dick Meyer's field goal scoring in the wanning minutes and spelling victory for Niles over Lake Forest, 49-47. Happy Nilehi spectators that night carried off the court such tourney favorites as Howard, Meyer, Chuck Thompson, Ray Riha, Dave Baylor, and Bill Pohlson.... Meanwhile the Nilehi mermen of Anton Schubert were turning in the most successful season in the school's history. Taking share in breaking seven of the school's eight records were Jack Raveret, George Lockwood, Don Larson, Phil Smiley, Dick La Veau, Dean Ness, and Fred Bussey. The swimmers scored a real surpriser when they stunned the state swim champs, New Trier, with a 38-37 setback. Lockwood, Larson and Raveret combined to capture enough points to finish fourth in the SL meet and tie for eighth in the state meet . . . Coach Carlo Traficano directed the initial wrestling season at Nilehi on the largest high school mat in the country. Although the school's varsity matmen were eager, inexperience with the new sport halted chances of victories. Bill Carroll learned the mat sport quickly enough though to turn in some exceptional performances.

SPRING BROUGHT OUT ATHLETES for four different sports. Coach Thomas Kiviluoma's golf squad had back four returning lettermen, Bruno Dal Corobbo, Charles Tawse, Art Muskat, and Don Carnall, and added as number five man, Dennis Harrod. This quartet won 10 of 14 of their regular season matches. In the SL their record was 4 won and 3 lost which placed them in the first division. Brune and Don fielded the low averages of the team, hovering in the 80's The Nilehi tennis team received another start after first beginning in 1940. A large number of seniors came out for the net sport, and two boys, Al Mather and Dean Winkler, developed good enough games to each defeat an opponent. Coach Carlo Traficano, who introduced both wrestling and tennis to the Trojan athletes and gave a good start to both, is leaving Niles and the Nilehillite sports staff wishes him good fortune wherever he goes The track squad lacked depth forcing many thinclads to double and triple their events. Pole vaulter George Simmons and runner John Krueger scored a good share of firsts to be top pointmakers for Coach John Harmon A slow start hurt the expectations of the varsity nine under Coach James Phipps. But in their last four SL contests the stickmen beat Morton, Evanston, Waukegan, and Oak Park. The fast finish put the Trojans in the first division with six wins and eight losses. Hurlers Chuck Thompson and Ralph Wenk each won three SL games while Jack Thiry, Ken

Howard, Ron Jeurn, and Bernie Edwards proved to hitters.
