We were nostalgic.

The king of the sing-a-long in the 1950's, Mitch Miller, gave two performances at Niles East in February.

"Bring Back the Fifties" was the theme of a Senior Cabinet dance, which cashed in on the nostalgia craze.

1973

The history of rock music was traced at a November assembly by A. G. Grant. Also present were WLS disc-jockeys John Landecker and Bill Bailey.

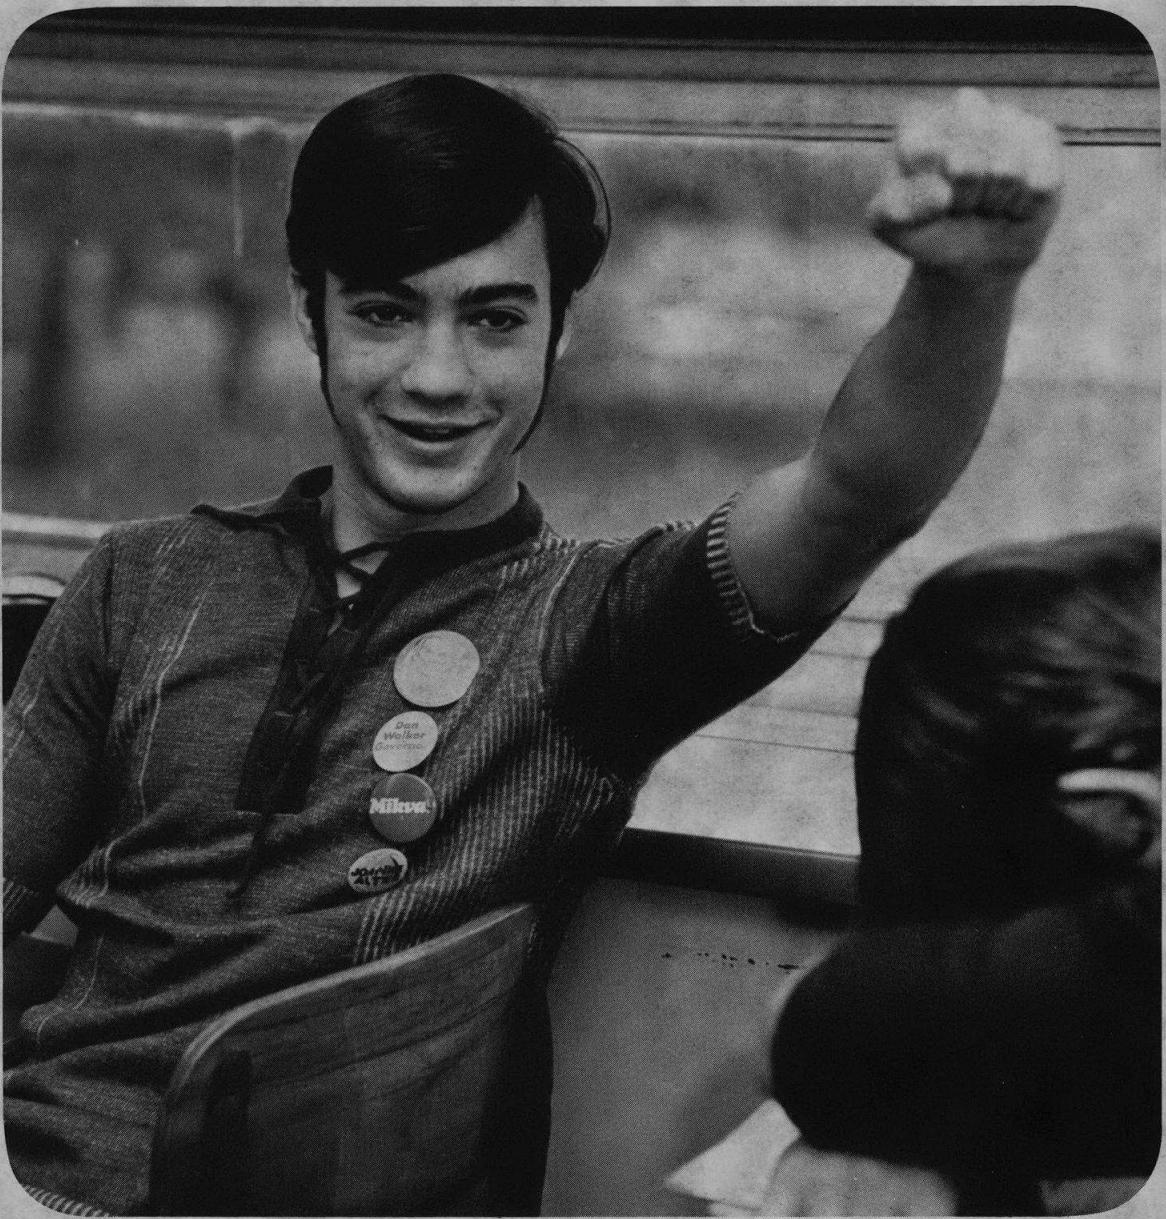

In order to capture the spirit of tradition and nostalgia for this yearbook, pictures were reproduced from past Reflections as far back as 1937.

Early in the year, the football field was dedicated in honor of Harold Isaacson, Niles East's first coach and athletic director.

We were political.

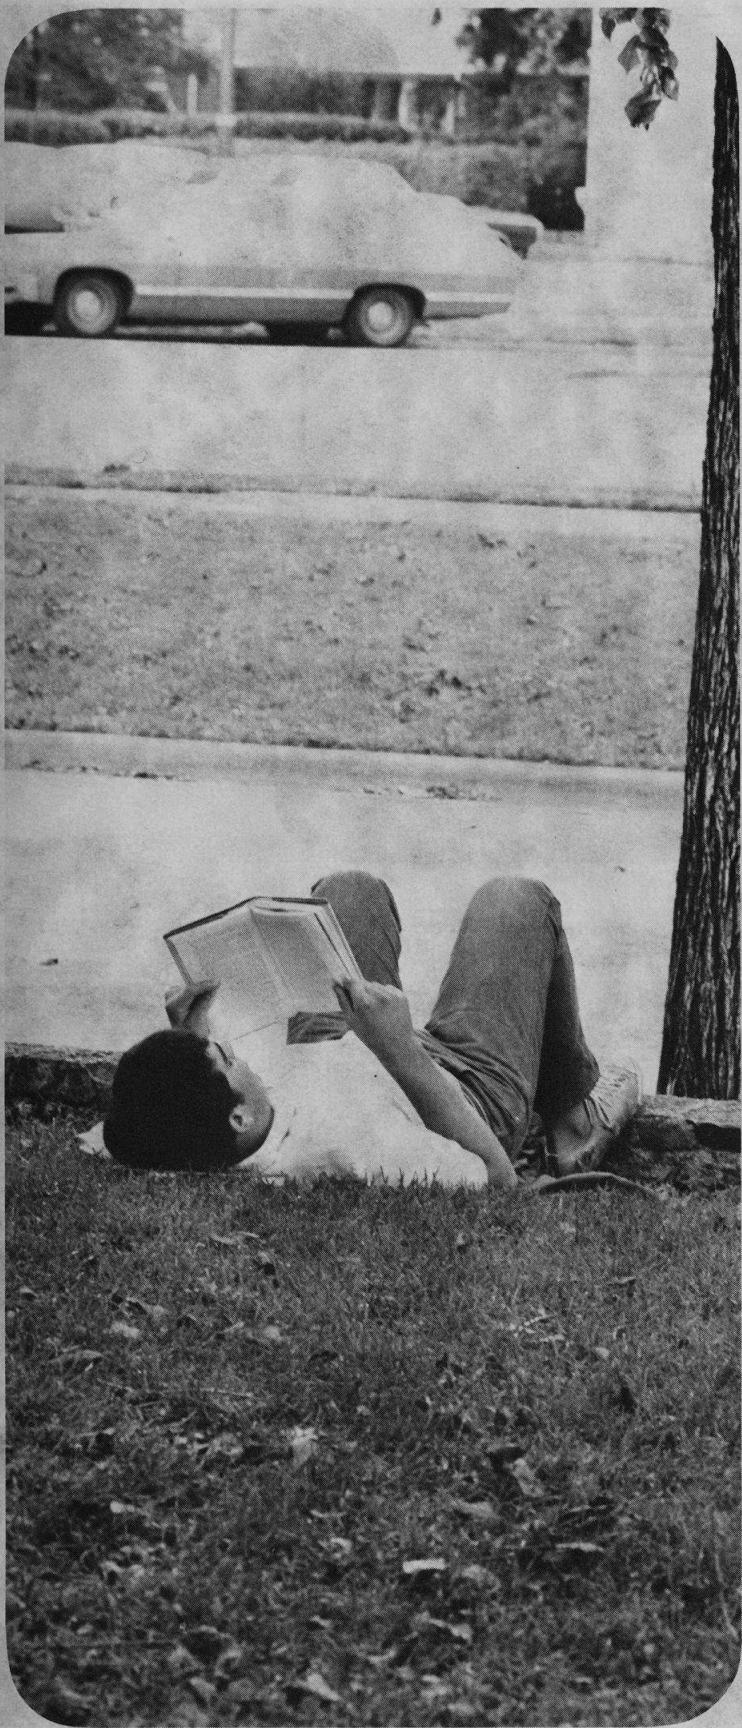

Governor Dan Walker's daughter, Kathy (top), visited Niles East in September to campaign for her father. State Senator Howard Carroll spoke to students here in October and November.

We were alone.

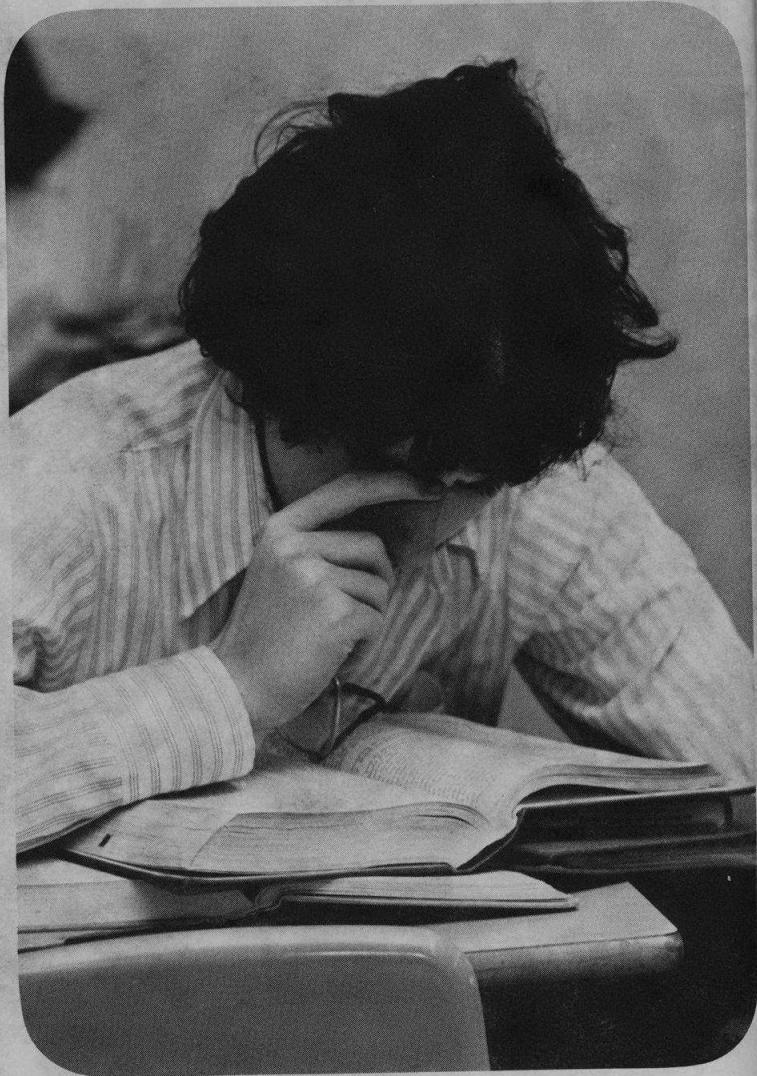

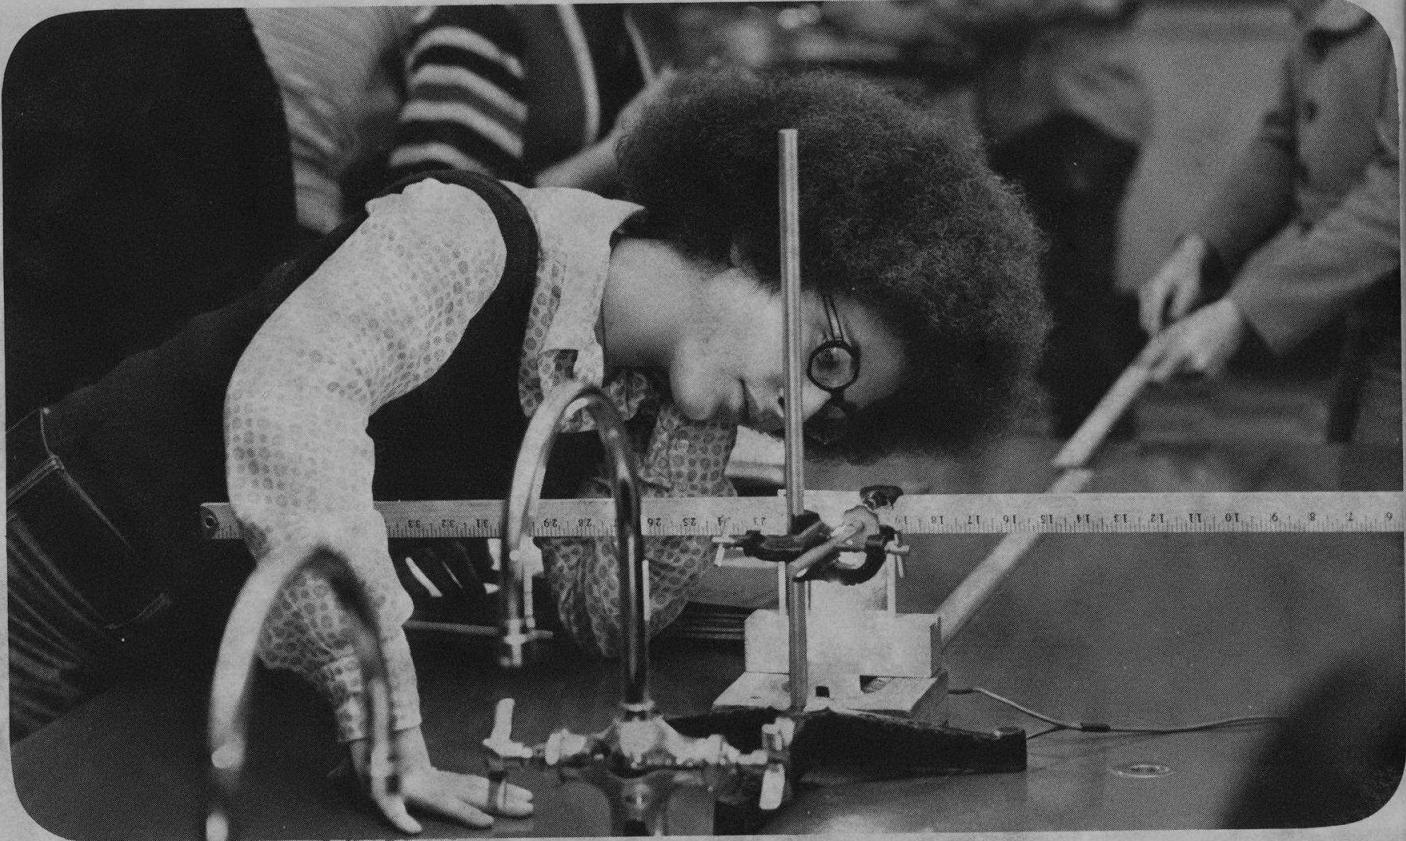

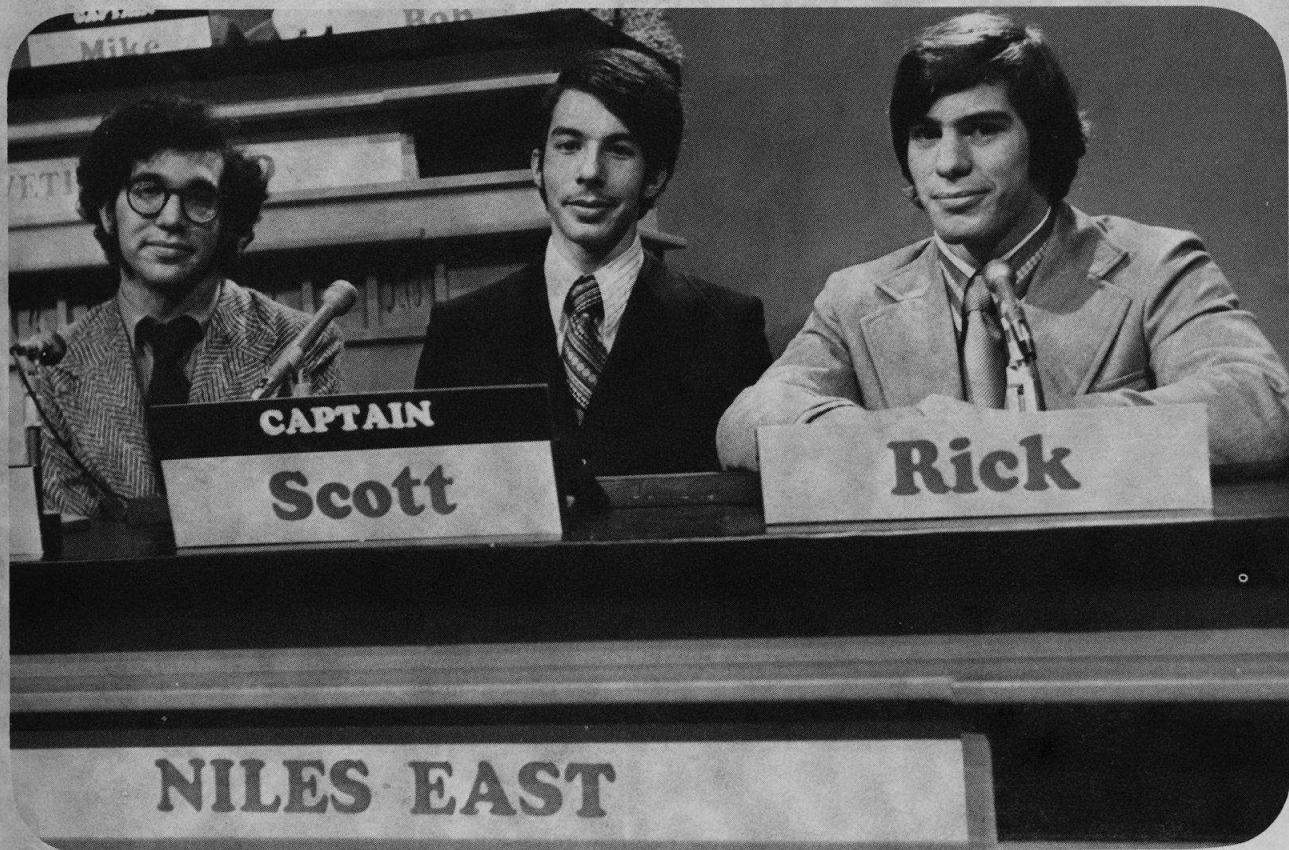

We were together.

We were educated.

Niles East's victorious It's Academic team included Seth Gold, Scott Bieber, and Rick Angell.

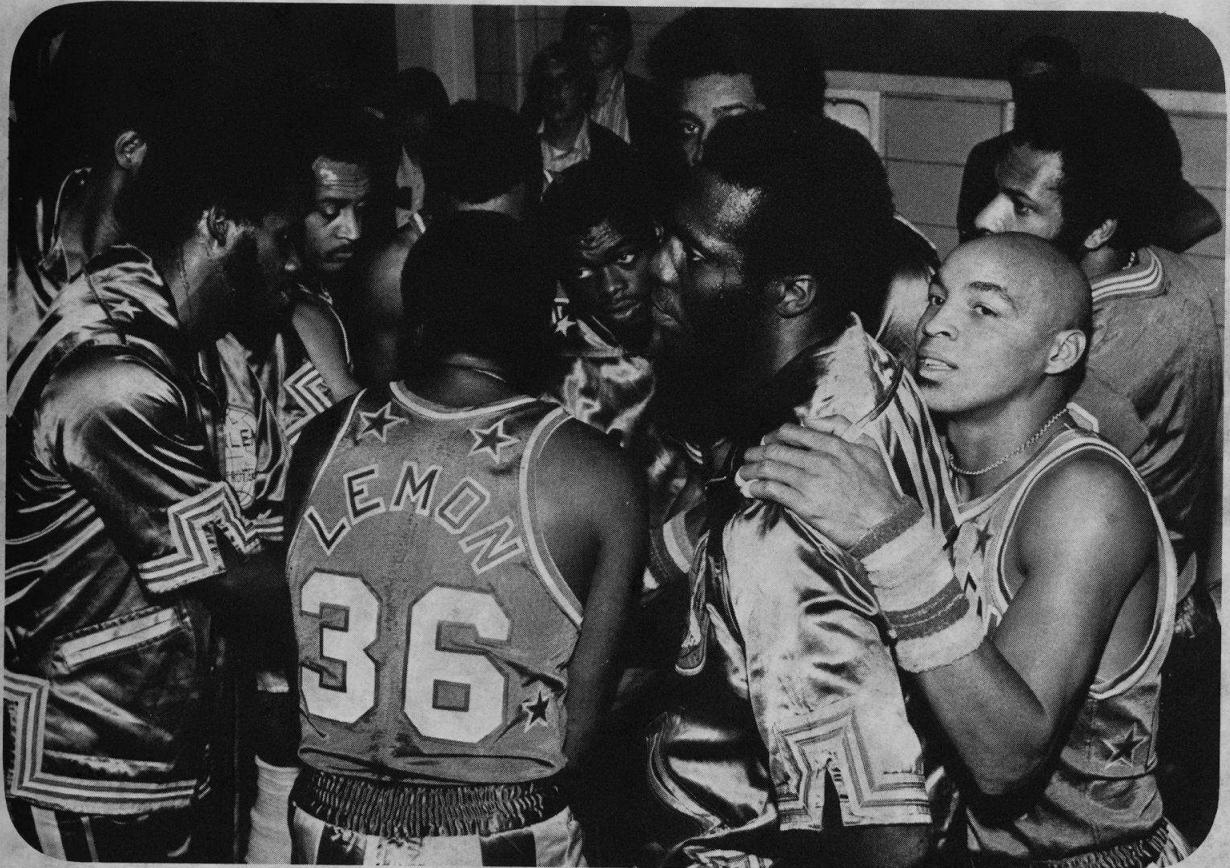

We were entertained.

The School Spirit Committee sponsored a Faculty Men vs. Faculty Women basketball game.

The Up With People entourage performed at Niles East and recruited new cast members.

The world famous Harlem Globetrotters played for students and parents.

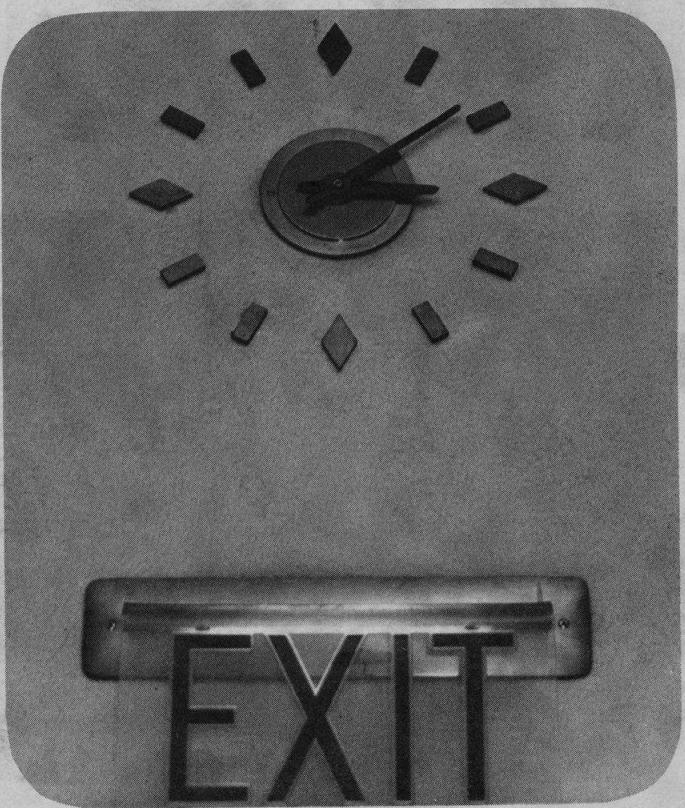

Cubs catcher Kenny Rudolph and WLS disc-jockey John Landecker assist Lori Greenberg during Special Ed Club's telethon for Orchard Center.

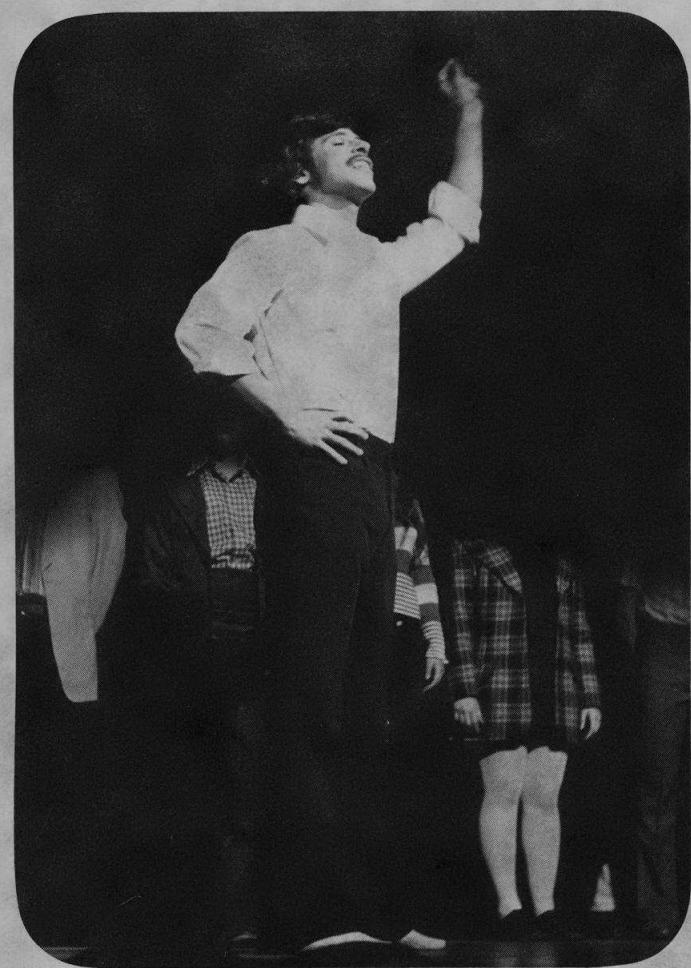

Styx and Reid Goldstein performed in concert at Niles East.

We were ourselves.

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF

"Without our traditions our lives would be as shaky as . . . as a fiddler on the roof."

"Fiddler on the Roof" takes place in 1905, on the eve of the Russian Revolutionary Period. It is the touching drama of Anatikva, a small village in Tzarist Russia. Niles East presented "Fiddler" on March 16, 17, and 18, 1972.

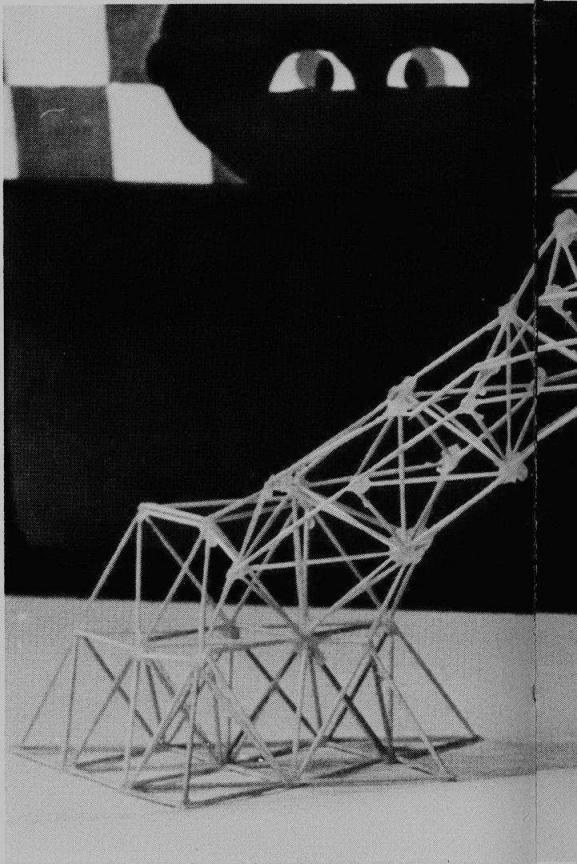

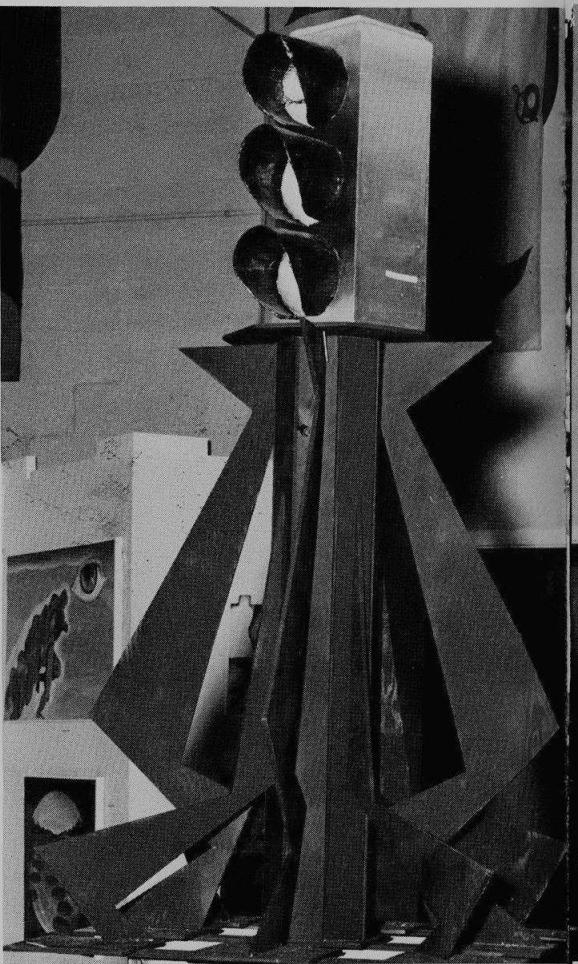

Robert Feder portrayed Tevye, a pious dairyman clinging to tradition in a changing world. Golde, his wife, was played by Judy Fields. In a time of unrest, his traditions topple down. His daughters, Tzeitel (Cheryl Frazes), Hodel (Karla Rosenzweig), and Chava (Cheryl Palles), refuse to have their marriages arranged by their father and the Matchmaker (Karyn Esken), and they marry against their will. Tzeitel marries a tailor (Andrew Rosenson) so poor he must sew by hand for lack of a sewing machine. The second daughter, Hodel, marries a penniless student (Jeff Ortmann) sprouting revolutionary ideas. Lastly, Chava weds a Gentile (Daniel Malfar). Gail Pinsky and Denise Feldman portrayed Tevye's younger daughters.

"Fiddler on the Roof" was a story of love, of hardships . . . of life. Tears were shed by actors as well as onlookers as the curtain fell on the destroyed village.

ART FAIR

There was something for everyone at the Art Fair which began on May 22, 1972. The four day show was open to the public and had numerous exhibits throughout the school. Students' work ranged from photographic art, silk-screen prints and soft sculptures to macramé hangings and geodesic domes.

---

PROM

A decor of gold and blue greeted the eighty couples in the Bal Tabarin Room of the Sherman House Hotel in Chicago.

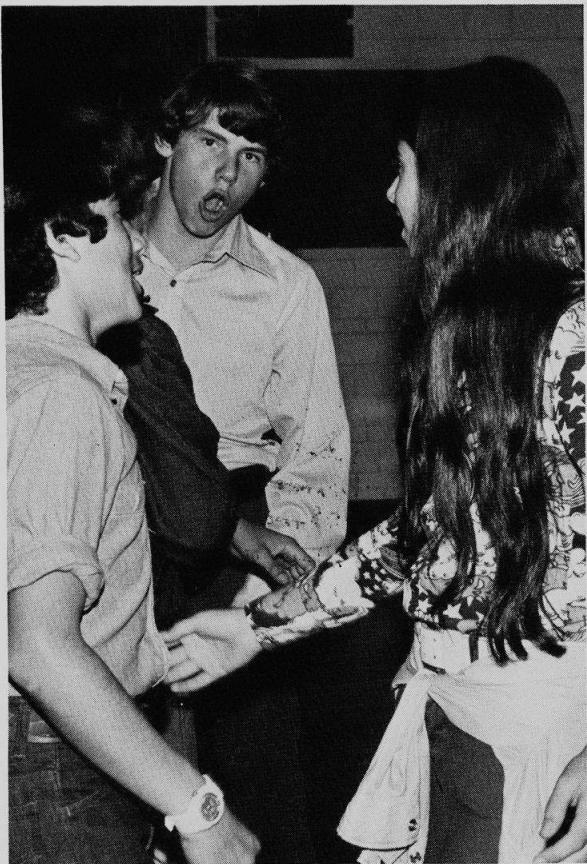

This was the 1972 Junior-Senior Prom, "Days of Future Passed," held on May 26.

All the traditions of prom were there: a ten-piece band, gowns and tuxedos, corsages and boutonnieres. Guests of honor included (below, center): last year's King and Queen Ira Levy and Monica Moses, with newly crowned Kings and Queens Ken Chemers, Carole Goldberg, Julie Simon and Rob Feder.

FRESHMAN MIXER

"I expected the mixer to be a dance, and I guess that's what it was," said one freshman girl.

On Saturday night, September 23, the corridors of East were filled with the sounds of rock music. This was the Freshman Mixer, the first social event for the Class of '76.

A sea of unfamiliar freshman faces came together at 8 p.m. By 10 p.m., with the aid of dancing and conversation, many new and lasting friendships had formed.

HOMECOMING

The age-old traditions of the Nilehi football game, East vs. North, and the crowning of a Queen were mixed with the exciting changes of a community-wide car caravan and a professional dramatic performance.

This was Homecoming '72: the familiar and the unconventional.

Homecoming night traditionally means music and entertainment and this year was no exception. The only difference was that students were watching, not actively participating. The Jane Addams Hull House players presented an original musical entitled "It's an Election Year." Thus concluded the festivities of Homecoming, October 28.

REFLECTIONS

"The purpose behind this production was to show that fantasy is essential if you want to survive in our complex society," commented Brad Bentcover, student director of "Reflections on Fantasy." Reflections is the annual, all-school variety show. Performances were given the nights of November 9, 10, and 11.

JOURNEYS

UPPER LEFT: "Someday . . ." LOWER LEFT: "O.K., so I do rescue more men," admits Superman, alias Clark Kent, Alias Bob Satoloe? LOWER MIDDLE: "Woke up it was a Chealsea Morning and the first thing that I heard was a song outside my window and the traffic wrote the words," sings Cheryl Politzer while strumming her guitar. In the spirit of the 1950's, sock hops, the "Summer Nights" scene provided the "Reflections" audiences something extra special. Bobby Soxer Lisa Blacker (UPPER MIDDLE) explains, "we stayed out till ten o'clock." Meanwhile, Greaser Steve Solar (UPPER RIGHT) boasts of his summer love. Together (LOWER RIGHT) they realize, "It turned colder that's where it ends . . . summer dreams, ripped at the seams."

OFF THE MIND

WINTER FESTIVAL

Melodious sounds of the choral groups and the instrumental sections ushered in the holiday season. A joyous spirit pervaded everywhere as the music department presented the Winter Festival on Sunday, December 17. The performance consisted of traditional religious selections as well as contemporary songs.

THE CRUCIBLE

Arthur Miller's, "The Crucible," was staged by Niles East students on January 19 and 20. The plot of the story focuses on the Salem witch trials of 1692. Richard Watts, Jr. speaking on "The Crucible . . . an eloquent case on the universal subject of intolerance . . . and free man's courageous and never-ending fight against mass pressures to make him bow down in conformity."

ORGANIZATIONS

SPIRIT OF '72

Spirit of '72 was an all school assembly, organized by the School Spirit Committee, in order to initiate student interest and participation in the extracurricular activities at Niles East. Representatives from almost every organization were present, furnishing information for interested students. Adding to the fun were demonstrations of activities such as gymnastics, basketball and chess. The overall atmosphere of school spirit was accentuated by the lively music of the Pep Band and Ken Golden masquerading as the Niles East Trojan.

SOPHOMORE AND FRESHMAN CABINETS

Freshman Cabinet leaders include (BOTTOM): Nancy Susslick, Suzie Soltan, and Paula Lishinsky.

HOMECOMING COMMITTEE

STUDENT LEGISLATURE

Student Legislature engaged in much conversation during the year, but proved otherwise nonproductive. By second semester, it was realized that something had to be done to restore student interest and involvement in school government. Accordingly, the whole Niles East student government structure — cabinets and legislature — were studied and revitalized.

THESPIANS

Thespians is an international organization which includes students who have worked over 100 hours on school productions. The Niles East chapter includes: Robin Abeles, Ron Alport, Jill Aronovitz, Alice Baer, Keith Baker, Judy Balter, Brad Bentcover (Vice-President), Mary Berman, Elysa Blacker, Laura Black (President), Robin Bezark, Michelle Block, Linda Brantman, Scott Chan, Teri Chapnick, Marla Corush, Lisa Davis, Cheryl Esken, Karyn Esken, Sharon Eskoff, Faye Estrin, Allen Feldman, Denise Feldman, Stew Figa, Cheryl Frank.

The officers of Audio-Visual aids include (LEFT TO RIGHT): Lee Levin (President), Jeff Burman (Secretary-treasurer) and Brad Mankoff (Vice-president).

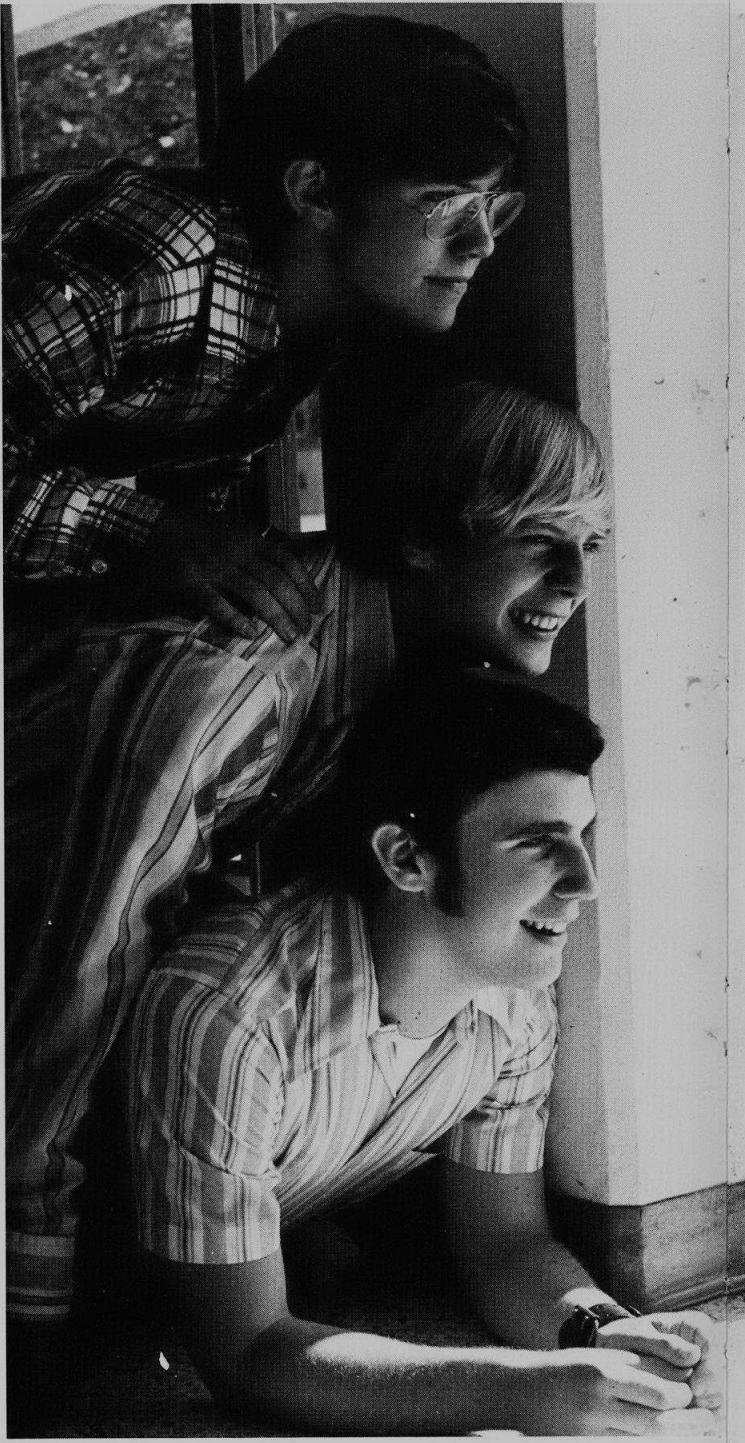

Ushers Club members include: Karen Alban, Jacey Aronovitz, Sylvia Box, Mirella Campoli, Arlene Cosgrove, Karyn Gold, Barbara Heche, Eileen Kaplan, Sheila Kobritz, Karen Lee, Debbie Martorano, Cheryl Newman, Janet Ross, Anita Simkovich, Sharon Stolleberg, Thresa Yang, and Debbie Zabin.

Student Accounting Office aids include: Holli Doniger and Maureen Sullivan.

SPECIAL SERVICE CLUBS

The officers of the Distributive Education Club, which helps organize the work-study program, are (LEFT TO RIGHT): Lisa Jeremias (Vice-President) and Faye Estrin (President).

SCHOOL SPIRIT COMMITTEE

The Special Education Club was another new group which received much attention and support from the student body and the community in its efforts to raise funds for mentally handicapped young people. Members include (BOTTOM, LEFT TO RIGHT): Ronna Nessenson, Lori Greenberg, Felice Lewin and Don Millard.

DEBATE CLUB

Last fall, Niles East broke with the past and made two changes. On October 7th, the football field was named Isaacson Field for Harold "Ike" Isaacson (see page 118), the school's first football coach and athletic director, who probably did more for Niles East's athletic department than any other person in the school's history. The second change was the switching of Niles East from the Suburban League, of which it was one of the original members, to the Central Suburban League, where, due to reduced travelling time, the cost to the school would be less. It was also hoped that the school's teams would be able to compete more successfully in the new league.

Unfortunately, neither a new name nor a new league could help this year's football team. Once again having the smallest enrollment in the league, as well as being hampered by injuries and pre-season "retirements," the varsity could never quite put it all together. Because of the small number of players, the Trojans lacked the depth necessary for a good team. But, Coach Pugliese had no complaints. "They all worked very hard and the spirit was always good. We just seemed to be a step away. But we'll definitely be better next year." He will be without graduating seniors Jeff Johnson, who made all-conference, John Hasmonek, who made the all-division team, and Bill Wirth, who was given an honorable mention to the division team. But the entire backfield, including Ron Hagen, who, as a junior was named to the all-division team, Rich Short, and Bob Sommerman will be returning, as well as line stalwarts Ross Pollack, Bruce Brantman, Chris Churchirillo, and Fred Albrecht, along with the mighty toe of Rich Rubin. Although the team will be depending a great deal on the improvement of boys who won minor N's this year, Niles East definitely has something to look forward to next year.

1. Harold Isaacson, as he addressed the crowd on Isaacson Day, and as he appeared in 1937.
2. Up, up and through!
3. Rich Short is brought down after a sizable gain.
4. Get rid of it quick, Craig!
5. It's always nice to have an escort when you're going somewhere.
6. He went that-a-way!
7. Some people just naturally draw a crowd.

CROSS COUNTRY

Despite finishing the season with a record that was slightly below the five hundred mark, this year's cross country team won the Niles Township Cross Country championship, defeating sister schools Niles West and Niles North. Lead by Steve Sussman, who broke the township record, and by Tom Kropf, the varsity surprised quite a few opponents this year on just hard-nosed determination and desire. The legacy which these two graduating stand-outs leave behind is sure to be improved by returning varsity harriers Omar Hernandez (pictured lower right) and Terry Lee and sophomore speed demons Bob Schuett and Barry Hartman. Along with the steadily improving freshmen, next year's Cross Country team seems destined for success.

BASKETBALL

As in the more recent past, this year's basketball team lost more games than it won. Hampered by the inexperience found in all young teams and certain problems early in the season, the cagers found it difficult to get off on the right foot. They lost a number of close ballgames, some by just two or three points. But, as the season progressed, the team showed definite improvement and went on to beat sister school Niles North twice, 74-63 and 78-72.

The same youth of the team that caused the inexperience this year should be a sign of hope for next year. Coach Cook is only losing one player, Jeff Johnson, through graduation. Leading scorer Don Diamond and leading rebounder Len Weinstein will be back, as well as two quick defensive players, Jim Cohn and Kurt Kiesel, Corey Levens and Paul Mandell, who both came on strong during the second half of the season, and Ross Pollack, who ably filled in at the "big man" spot. Therefore, next year may be more of a return to the Niles East teams of old and a great season for the Trojans.

SOCCER

This year, soccer made its debut at East, and was well accepted. Through excellent performances by Ian Main, Bob Frank, and Bill Bro, the varsity team ended the season with an 8-2-2 record.

Although the team had little experience, they put forth tremendous effort in the state tournament, tying Evanston, this year's 6th-in-state team. Other highlights of the season included a victory over Niles West, 2-0, Bro's 5 shut-outs, and Main's 16 goals, making him one of the high scorers in the state.

FENCING

The 1972-73 season was a disappointing one for the Niles East fencing team. The fencers never seemed to be able to get on tracked for any length of time, winning one meet and then dropping the next. "I always thought that the members of the team had the ability," Coach Keen said, "and they worked hard. But fencing is an individual sport. A fencer is all by himself when he gets out there. So it's hard to know why you don't win more often." He won't have seniors Phil Spitz, Bill Osness, or Paul Schultz back next year, but he will have juniors Ron Rovner, who has "perfect form" according to Coach Keen, Kurt Leipold, Dennis Abeles, and Reid Sigman, as well as underclassmen Larry Labow, Larry Nelson, and Joe Jans, who all came on strong towards the end of the season. So, Coach Keen and Niles East may have something to look forward to from next year's fencing team.

This year's fencers were: *BACK ROW. # G Y M N A S T I C S

This year's varsity team had one of its finest seasons by taking second place in the Central Suburban League, setting an all time total team point high with 137 points against Deerfield, and ending the season with a 12-2 record. Other highlights of the season were taking second in the Niles North Invitational, and beating York, one of the top ranking state teams.

The varsity squad will lose quite a few seniors including ringmen Eric Nagel and Keith Kreitman, Joel Sher in free-exercise, Al Ross and Rick Powers on side horse, trampoline performers Steve Levitt and Howard Deutsch, and Kenny Golden on high bar. They will also find themselves without the fine all-around performance of Rich Robbin. Next year's varsity team will really be tough to beat with returning juniors Barry Scher, Dave Mayer, Steve Kozub and Gary Siegel, along with sophomores Steve Irsay, Neal Sher and Steve Pollice, who led their sophomore team through an undefeated season.

This year's freshman team led by Jon Stavin ended their season with a 10-3 record. All in all Coach Sokalski was very pleased with all three teams performances.

WRESTLING

In the three years that he has been at Niles East, Coach Fred Richardi has completely changed the complexion of wrestling. He has taken a hapless Trojan team and built them into real contenders for the Central Suburban League crown. Coach Richardi is pictured upper far left.

This year, the varsity grapplers finished second in their division, behind the outstanding talents of Seniors Rick Angell (pictured upper near left) and Kip Weissman (pictured lower near left), the incredible quickness and power of Juniors Len Upin (pictured upper middle left), Fred Albrecht (pictured far bottom left), and Phil Cech (pictured middle near left), along with the dazzling performance of Sophomore sensation Jeff Rock and the superior strength of Juniors Daryl Michaels and Larry Yale.

The Sophomore wrestlers grabbed a division title, while the Freshmen had to settle for a second place finish. Sophomore standouts who seem destined for varsity success next year include Bill Hall, Henry Rollick, George Christopolous, and Dave Mamot, while Freshman Joe Colucci appears bound for an awesome wrestling career.

With the resurgence of wrestling at Niles East, grappler fans can look forward to many more triumphal seasons.

TRACK

Indoor track consists of a variety of events: shot put, high jump, hurdles, long jump, pole vault, and sprints and longer running distances. This year's squad turned in a number of fine performances despite its relatively small size. Mr. Huskey, who became head coach this year, along with assistant coaches Mr. Ristow, Mr. Ferguson, and Mr. Becker, did a fine job with the team to make them a winner. They did have some excellent individual talent to work with. In the past tradition of Niles East teams, this year's had some great hurdlers. Senior Dave Gronski (pictured lower right) will be gone next year, but waiting to take his place are sophomore Mike Tepp and freshman Sol Parenti (pictured lower middle). Steve Sussman became the first senior to run 1800 miles, Monti Matlock, the first junior to log 1000 miles (both pictured upper left), and Mark Scherfling, the first sophomore to go 700 miles. There is also a fine freshman, Mark Lichtenstein, who is also going to be a fine long distance runner. Niles East's future looks very bright indeed.

WEIGHTLIFTING

The Niles East weightlifting team had a spectacular season this year. Starting last summer at the Illinois Valley Powerlift championships, the team took 3rd place of 16 teams. Individual honors went to Eric Nagel (pictured middle right), who won 1st place in the 132 pound class, and Bob Somerman (pictured lower middle), and Al Kulwin, who each took a second in the 165 and 148 lb. classes, respectively. Not to be outdone, Coach Capitani placed third in the 181 lb. class. The Trojans then went on to take first place in the Illinois State Novice Weightlifting championship in October. Coach Capitani took first, Nagel a second, and Jon Stavin a third in his 123 pound class. Then, in November, 44 boys from 15 schools competed in the Niles East Bench Press Contest. Nagel won a first place, setting a meet record of 215 lbs. in the process. Other winners included Rick Angell (pictured lower left), who took a first in the 198 lb. class, Bill Schloss (pictured upper right), a second in the 132 pound class, and third place for Len Upin (pictured lower right), Jay Simon, and Steve Meister. All in all, it was quite a rewarding season for the team.

SWEET SWIMMING

The 1972-1973 Trojan swim team demonstrated improvement over last year. The freshmen and sophomore teams in particular provide hope for a return to the glory years of 1953, when Niles East placed fourth in the state swim meet, and 1968, when the tanksters grabbed ninth place.

The varsity struggled to a 2-11 record, but outstanding performances were provided by Andy Ruttenberg, a junior, in the 50 yard freestyle, and Junior Jeff Milstein, a diver. It must be noted, however, that many boys on the varsity were swimming for enjoyment or to stay in shape rather than to become champions.

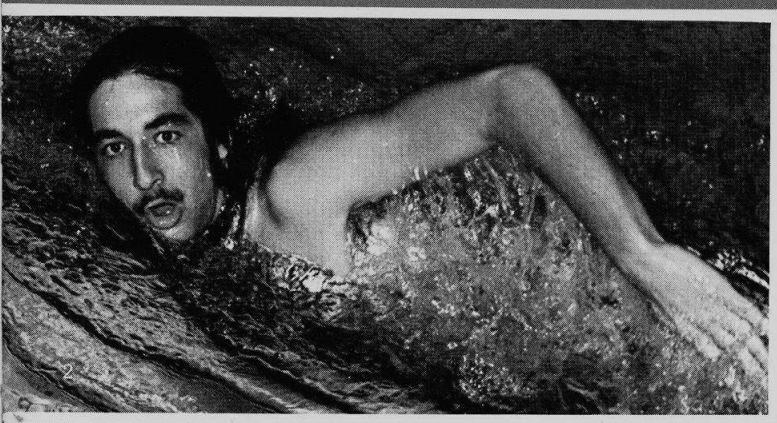

The addition of sophomores Ed. Naumes, a freestyle performer, butterfly specialist Rich Berkowitz, and breaststroker Danny Baigelman to Ruttenberg and Milstein should help the varsity to continue to improve. The sophs managed a 4-10 record this season.

Any real hope for a state powerhouse in the future lies with the freshmen, who posted a 3-2 Central Suburban League record, and flirted with .500 overall. Jeff Slater in the backstroke and individual medley, and Bob Torstensson in the long distance freestyle events helped the frosh break three school records. Continued improvement by them and others may bring a state contender to Niles East in the future.

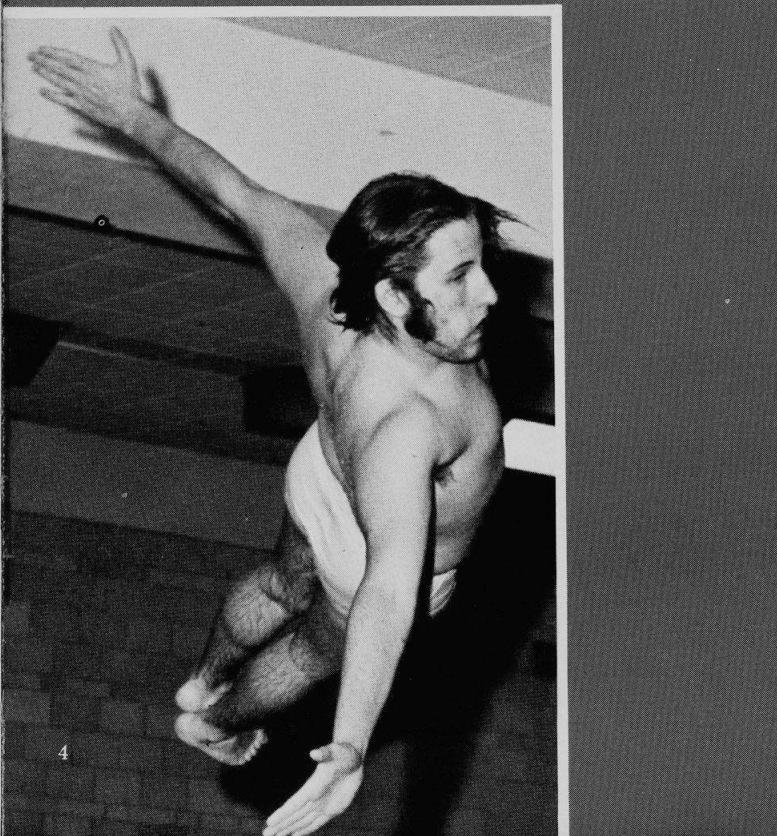

1. Keith Baker exerts himself at the start of a race.
2. Jeff Milstein looks at his destination, the water, while preparing to soar into orbit.
3. Breaststroker Harry Borovik glides through the water with the greatest of ease.
4. Butterflyer Dave Cohen shows perfect form as he rises out of the water.
5. George Argus prepares to lower his head back into the water after getting some air.
6. Terry Katz looks stunned as he churns toward the finish line.
7. Reaching for the finish line, Rick Williams lets out a scream.
8. Diver Jeff Milstein performs a half twist, heading for a soft landing in the water.

TENNIS

The backbone of this year's tennis team was Pete Stearns, who qualified for State in his Junior Year. There was a strong possibility of a doubles team going this year also. This was the Trojan net men's first year in the Central Suburban League and they set a goal of finishing in the top half of the 12 teams. The Frosh-Soph team was strong again as they were last year.

Members of the Frosh-Soph team include Marty Avers, Arie Fishman, Sherwin Korey, Paul Milstein, Tim Besser, Jeff Epstein, Mike Guerrero, and Steve Merkin.

GOLF

BADMINTON

Rackets, birdies and new uniforms greeted the girls' badminton team. The girls worked toward winning the Central Suburban League Title, but more important goals included team unity, good sportsmanship and school spirit.

Paula serenades her prey with a short chorus of "Bye, bye birdie."

Sharon kneels to retrieve the bird.

BASKETBALL

1973 was the first competitive year for girls' interscholastic basketball. The season promised success, fun and the opportunity for the girls to work together.

"Hey, girls, get that jump ball."

Cindy demonstrates her formula:
Smile + Concentration = Basket.

For most people, a yearbook is not thought of until the final weeks of school, and its sentimental value is not realized for years after graduation.

But for a small group of dedicated individuals, this book has meant many hours of work spanning almost a year's time. Often, their only impetus was the faith that their efforts would contribute to a finished product worthy of its readers.

To these extraordinary people, I am ever grateful and deeply indebted:

Assistant Editor (and good friend) Kathy Zimbler.

Associate Editors Scott Bieber, Barb Morrison, Jill Goldberg, Jill Aronovitz, Lori Simon, Sherrie Friedman, and Melinda Metzger.

Art Director Robert Satoloe and Chief Photographer Richard Fantus.

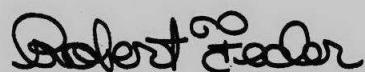

Publisher's Consultant Dennis Eder, American Yearbook Company, and Root Studios.

Assistant Advisor Marjorie Stevens.

Advisor and friend Mel Pirok who travelled with me to Topeka, Kansas, to plan this yearbook with our publisher 10 months in advance.

The real success of our endeavors cannot be measured in a matter of days, or even weeks.

But if, many years from now, you look through this book and a picture or word brings back a nostalgic memory of your years at Niles East, then I will be satisfied that it was all worthwhile.
