A Message to the Graduates:

America is a land of opportunity. In our country each man can rise by his own bootstraps. You have had the advantages which an education in a good high school can give you and are now leaving this school to enter either college or the world of work.

Opportunities for all of you exist in every walk of life. But it is only in a democracy that you can have the freedom to seek opportunities in any field. So just as we have passed on to you the world of opportunity we ask that you will take advantage of those opportunities and will also make sure that your children will have a world in which each man has an opportunity.

Superintendent

Joseph A. Mason, B.S., M.S., Ed.M.

To the Class of 1952:

You are leaving the portals of N. T. H. S. to assume your place as citizens in this great country of ours.

As citizens you will have the opportunity to put into practice the lessons which you learned. Lessons dealing not only with the facts learned in books, but also lessons learned in the fundamental virtues of honesty, friendliness, and fair dealings with your fellows.

If these lessons have been well learned, then the future—your future and the future of our country—is in capable hands. The effectiveness of the educational program of this school can best be measured by the kind of people you are twenty years from now. If your community, your city, your state, your country are better places to live because of your efforts, then the education which you received has been worthwhile.

Cafeteria Staff

It is the job of these women to prepare speedily, as well as tastefully, more than 1000 lunches daily for our hungry Nilehi students.

Custodians

Matron

Miss Carrie Schoening's smiling face is well known to all the girls at Niles (especially on swimming days!).

Custodians

These women are a new addition to Niles this year. They help the custodians keep the classrooms neat Left to right: Martha Cordell, Margaret Henning.

Now that we are graduating from high school, we, the class of 1952, look back on our four years at Niles Township High School and recall the many joys as well as the work involved in reaching our goals of knowledge and good character. We remember with pride the strides we have made in this development since our freshman year.

Even more dear to us, however, are the friendships we have made and the associations with others. Many wonderful memories such as the dances, the plays, the water carnival, and the sports will remain with us all through our lives.

We can now look forward to the future with confidence that we have a solid foundation on which to build future successes. No matter where we go or what we do in our later life, we will always remember Niles Township High School.

Senior Cabinet

This group of seven members, one from each senior homeroom, is probably the most important small organization in school.

Among their numerous jobs are the Senior dance, the Homecoming dance, and commencement exercises.

National Honor Society

Classes

Junior Council

We are really upper-classmen now. The school seems so familiar to us—the teachers, rooms, even the clocks that are five minutes slow are like old friends.

There is a great feeling that goes along with our junior year. We have two years of experience behind us and a year to look forward to.

In February came that all-important event, ordering our class rings. Before we knew it, April rolled around and we were on our way to Washington. The end of May brought the Junior Prom, the final realization of many months of hard work.

Now graduation is almost upon us, and the seniors will be leaving at the end of the week. Odd, isn't it, to see them go? We'll really miss them. Hope we can make our senior year as wonderful as they made theirs.

Sophomore Senate

It certainly was fun to get back and see everyone in September. We really felt pretty big now with a new class below us to show the ropes to. The one thing we all said about the new freshmen was, "Did we ever look like that?"

We chose our Senate in September and began to realize that this year we would have more responsibility.

All the events had a little more meaning to us this year, especially the football and basketball games since we now had a team of our own to cheer for.

Now that spring is here and exams are coming up we are all anxious for summer vacation, but we know we will be glad to come back again next year as the "upper-classmen."

Freshman Board

Our freshman year furnished the perfect beginning for our four years at Nilehi, and when we look back in years to come, we will still think so.

No one can explain just how a freshman feels on that first day. We stepped into high school, a world where everyone seemed to be a part of a big, happy, hurrying crowd, and we all probably thought secretly to ourselves that we couldn't possibly memorize our programs or find our way around.

After a week or so of finding ourselves in the wrong classes and falling for the practical jokes of the upperclassmen we finally learned that the place wasn't so big after all, and we felt we belonged there.

In September we chose our representatives to the Freshman Board of Advisors, and in the girls' world of sports there was the traditional GAA initiation when all the new members had to dress in a new and different way.

Now that the year is almost over we know that we will never forget that first glorious, exciting year — our freshman year at Nilehi.

Annual Staff

While many of the other class doors were locked up at 3:11, in Room 219 you could usually find several students, under the supervision of Mr. Paul Eberhardt, typing, pasting layouts, writing copy, and planning the section pages for the '52 REFLECTIONS.

Pictured below are the editors for the '52 REFLECTIONS who worked as a guiding hand in putting out your yearbook.

Finance Staff

There is a lot more that goes into a yearbook than the actual pictures and copy. There are the finances behind it. The Financial Staff sees to it that the yearbook has "money in the bank" by putting on the magazine drive.

Top Salesmen

These top salesmen deserve an "A" for effort. It was through their efforts and the efforts of the other students who sold subscriptions in the magazine drive that this yearbook was able to be put out.

Senior - Faculty Section

This year a lot of the burden of producing a yearbook was lifted from the general staff by this group who put together the Senior-Faculty Section.

Golden Galleon Guild

Each year under the direction of Mrs. Parepa Rice the Golden Galleon Guild publishes the "Golden Galleon." This magazine consists of the best themes and poems that were written during the year by the students. Anyone who has had something published in the "Galleon" may become a member of the guild.

Fifth row: Nancy Grund.

Nilehilite Staff

Every other Friday you will find this busy group counting out NILEHILITES and rushing them down to your ninth period classes for all to enjoy.

Left to right: Carol Tiedman, Pat Linskey, Gail Westgate, Bill Carroll, Lynne Johnson.

Sixty words per minute and no errors is what really helps on a job like this since you are typing for the school paper where accuracy means so much.

Nilehilite Editors

"But you've just got to get that story in before then!" "Why didn't you cover your beat?" "Who took the proofs off the desk?" These are just a few of the comments you might hear from journalism students if you happen to walk into Room 219, where the NILEHILITE, Nilehi's bi-weekly school paper is written and edited.

See Chicago Club

The motto that 'school isn't all work' is what the See Chicago Club believes in. The club takes several interesting trips throughout the school year, the big event being the annual spring trip to Washington.

This group of Seniors seem to be enjoying a snack at one of the various Chinatown restaurants. The See Chicago Club took a tour to Chinatown and along with eating at the restaurants, they saw many beautiful shops and trinkets.

Cafeteria Captains

Our school cafeteria has been chosen as a model by other schools in the area. We owe the efficiency of it to the monitors and their captains under the guidance of Miss Grace Harbert.

Orchestra

This organization, which is open to all classes, contains many aspiring young musicians who hope to go on in the field of music. Mr. Clifford Collins directs them.

Not Pictured: Elizabeth Hamilton, and Dean Winkler.

The Girls' Glee Club is the largest choral group at Nilehi. Practicing three hours every week aids them in putting on the annual Christmas Vespers and, later, the Spring Concert.

Girls' Glee Club (8)

Choir

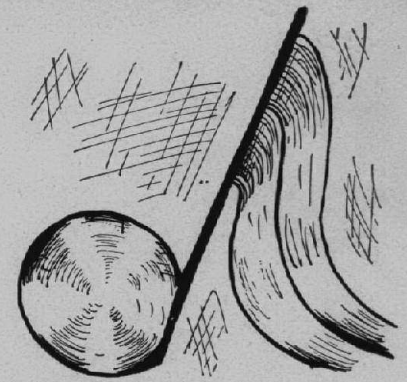

The Nilehi Choir, a group selected by their director, Miss Clara Klaus, display their talents at various school affairs besides some outside activities. Some of the functions they may be heard at are the Eighth Grade Night, Christmas Vespers, Spring Concert, Parents' Night, Commencement, and assemblies.

Madrigals

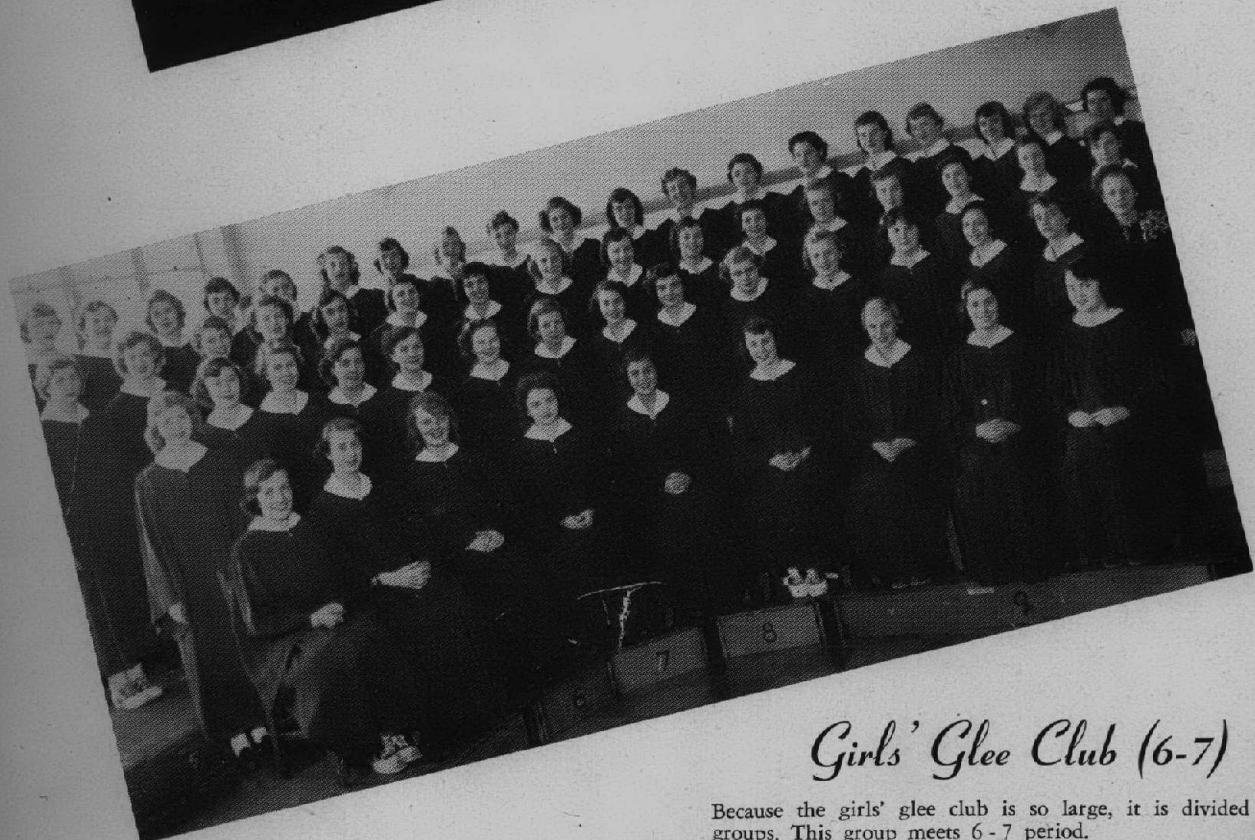

It is an honor to be chosen to sing with the Madrigals. These boys and girls are selected on the quality of their voice and their special ability to harmonize well.

Girls' Glee Club (6-7)

Because the girls' glee club is so large, it is divided into two groups. This group meets 6-7 period.

G. A. A. Initiation

Dressed in white blouses and black skirts, these girls receive their rose and pin. This is the last part of their formal initiation to the Girls Athletic Association.

Sports Managers

Other members not in picture: Kathy Shea, points and awards; Gail Meuer, publicity; and Lynn Mattes, swimming.

Square Dancing

Turn to your left, turn to your right, swing your honey and hold her tight.

These square dancers are practicing for an exhibition at the formal initiation of the G.A.A.

Badminton

The swish of a racket and the sound of the birdie hitting the floor are familiar sounds on the badminton court. Badminton is an extra-curricular activity which meets every week during the fall.

Saddle Club

These girls ride once a week at a near-by stable. The head of the group is Pat Shannon, who divided the group into beginning and advanced classes. Horses are their business and they love it.

G.A.A. Board

Seated: Norma Throop.

◆ Tumblers

This group of tumblers are demonstrating just a few of the stunts such as tri-pods, pyramids, and handstands that they go through as an after school activity.

Basketball ◆

"Shoot, shoot!" or "That's a foul on the blue team!" are just a few of the familiar shouts that you could hear made by these ambitious girls that go out twice a week for basketball, one of the many G.A.A. after-school sports.

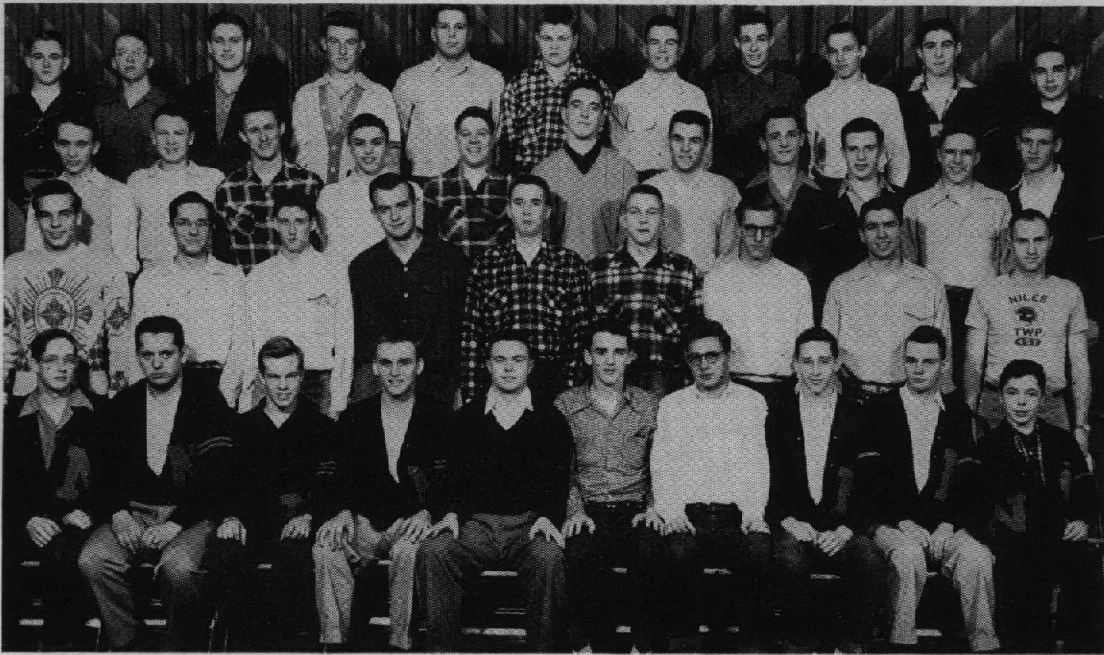

◆ Synchronized Swim Club

This group of girls learn various tricks such as dolphins, catalinas, kips and ballet legs. These girls have main parts in the annual water show.

Bowlers ◆

Strikes, spares, and turkeys are just a few of the terms familiar to these ten top bowlers of the girls' Tuesday and Thursday Leagues.

"N" Club

The blue letterman's hat and the traditional letter sweater with the orange "N" on it are the trademarks of this club. The requirements to become a member: You must have won a major letter and you MUST be a boy!

Student Council

The Student Council, made up of two students from every homeroom, handles problems that involve the whole school.

Freshman Girls' Science Club

These scientific minded girls meet two times a month after school with Miss Florence Harrison, their sponsor. For their programs freshman girls from the science classes give experiments or recitations on the work that they are at that time studying.

Freshman Boys' Science Club

This group of freshman boys meets twice a month after school with Mr. George Roth, sponsor. Their activities include such things as movies, field trips, and having speakers from the outside come and lecture in scientific matters.

V. A. Operators Club

"Seeing is believing" is a motto which is applied in many of Nilehi's classes such as science and history. The V. A. (Visual Aid Operators), who are sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Hind, show movies which are entertaining as well as educational, in the various classes.

Photography Club

This club meets in a little room that hardly anyone notices up on the third floor. In this room the members carry out their special projects connected with photography.

Scribblers

This group was formed in the freshman English classes to stimulate creative writing. The aim of a "Scribbler" is to become a member of the Golden Galleon Guild.

100 Per Cent Club

The 100 Per Cent Club is very active at Niles. This year, among other activities, they went to see "South Pacific" and "Guys and Dolls." To become a member of this club, all you have to do is type forty-two words without errors or have a perfect shorthand test. Sounds easy—but just try it sometime!

Library Staff

This efficient staff gives up a study period to work in the library checking books in and out and keeping the library shelves and room neat and orderly.

Varsity

Marching Band

A football game just isn't a football game without a band in the background. Besides supplying spirit for football games, the Varsity Band, which is under the direction of Mr. Parker, also plays for the basketball games and some of the school assemblies.

BAND

Band

Twirlers

The Twirlers did a great job of entertaining between halves at the football and basketball games. They worked up many new routines this year which they did with the Varsity Band.

Clockwise: Jack Kirkby (drum major), Pat Troupe (majorette), Elaine Burgess, Edith Dally, Pat Nixon, Sharon Davis, Margie Kutz, LaVergne Kathe (majorette).

Freshman Band

The incoming freshmen who don't know how to play an instrument but want to belong to a band join this group. Here they are given an instrument and are taught how to play it.

First row, left to right: Helene Urich, Cheryl Grubb, Evelyn Siegel, Don Anthony, Bruce Debes, Gordon Grabow.

HI

First Semester Officers

These officers are the initiative behind which the club's organization and progress are determined.

Formal Induction Service

Speakers

Throughout the year outstanding speakers visit the Hi-Y meetings with their talks on "Life in India," "Behind the Iron Curtain," "Human Relations," "Career in the Naval Air Force," "The Work of the FBI," "Medicine as a Career," and many others.

Above center: Mr. Donald Simpson, who enjoys the sport of mountain climbing, spoke to the boys about his exciting and fascinating pastime. Some inquisitive Hi-Y'ers crowd around after the meeting to inspect some of his equipment and question him more about his hobby.

- Y

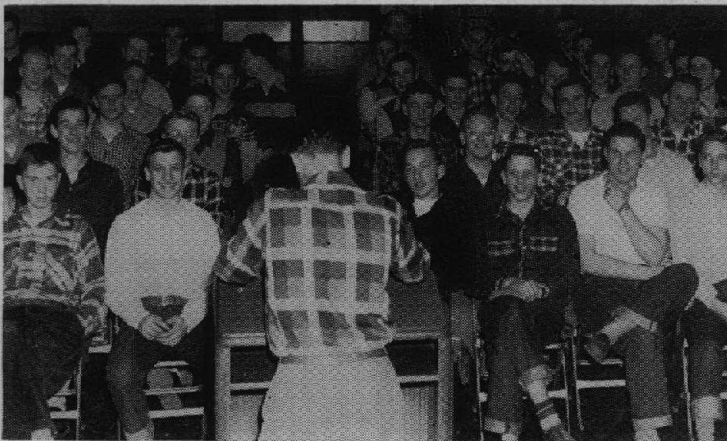

Second Semester Officers

These officers followed in the footsteps of the preceding officers, "to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian Character throughout the school and community."

Group Meeting

Al Mather (center) addresses the group in parliamentary procedure, discussing weekly business which occurs in one of the school's most active clubs. Some of the club's activities are: the Citizenship Award, Hi-Y Scholarship, Christmas Project to a needy family, Newspaper subscription drive, sponsors of Homecoming Parade, and the Hi-Y newspaper, the "Trojan Triangle," edited by Wes Marx. Each meeting is opened by the devotions and adjourned with the "Lord's Prayer."

Sports

Hi-Y offers an extensive sports program for its members. In the fall a touch football league was formed between the Trojans and the Hi-Y clubs from Evanston. As dribblers, the boys continued this league throughout the basketball season and the three Nilehi teams from the club participated. Just recently a water polo and a softball team have been organized. This group of cagers practicing in the gym after their meeting are: Al Mather, Bill Shaw, Dennie Harrod, Marv Farwell, Mr. Sinclair (coach), Jack Raveret, Jack Lagershausen, Bob Merrill, Wes Marx.

Drama

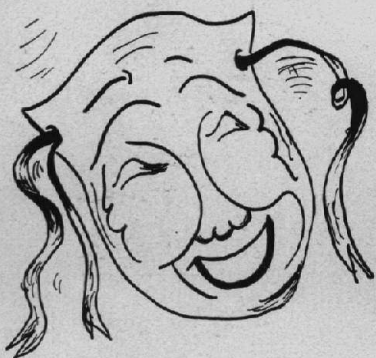

Taking the spotlight from the busy thespians of Nilehi are the "Spotlighters' " officers and sponsor.

Relaxing after all the rush of induction ceremonies, putting on plays, and counting up points for the members of the group to judge their eligibility are the Thespian officers.

All the hustle and bustle of pre-play preparations are portrayed in this picture of the make-up crew working on the actors and actresses of the fall play, "Arsenic and Old Lace."

Cold cream, powder, combs, eye shadow, and grease paint scattered around help to add to the confusion as these make-up artists give the final dab of powder to their masterpieces.

Oh dear, a body! Gary Krueger looks very amazed at finding the body of Greg Wold in one of the props for the production of the comedy thriller, "Arsenic and Old Lace."

Here's a hard working group of people. These five represent the stage crew that spends their spare time working on the scenery and back-stage business of any Nilehi dramatic production.

Drama

A collection of "corpses" fill the stage as the victims of the two old-maid aunts in "Arsenic and Old Lace" make a curtain call. They all took a sip of the two old ladies' favorite wine flavored with arsenic.

A body draped over one shoulder and one hand holding his explorer's helmet, this Nilehi "Teddy Roosevelt" stalks off to the lower regions of his home in "Arsenic and Old Lace." This so-called "Teddy Roosevelt" is John Pearson and the body is Bill Scanlan.

Smiling after their impressive induction service for new Thespians are the organization's officers.

At last! That's the gasp of these people who have finally gained their goal of becoming a Thespian. To belong to this group one must put in a certain amount of hours working in plays or the various crews connected with the Drama Department.

Eloise Reiter looks as though she's about to uncover something unusual from under that blanket. This was a tense, dramatic scene from one of the three plays in the "Night of One Act Plays."

"Stick 'em up!" growls this bandit as he tugs at his gun and the two pajama-clad girls seem bewildered at his fierce order. This hilarious scene is from the "Night of One Act Plays" put on by the dramatics classes. The play was "Nobody Sleeps."

Traffic Patrol

By keeping traffic running smoothly, the patrol keeps our parking lot from becoming like the corner of State and Madison.

First row, left to right: Ronald O'Beirne, John Rouse, Jack Thirty.

Spanish Club

Language can be fun, and the Spanish Club proves this at its annual Christmas Party. Everyone comes in costume and the traditional "pinata" which is filled with tiny gifts and candy is broken:

Latin Club

Have you ever dreamed of attending a banquet and having slaves wait on you just as they waited on the old Romans? Take Latin and you'll get your chance. Each year this club puts on a Roman feast complete with slaves (freshmen, of course!) and everything.

Seated, left to right: Laura Sitowski, Sarah Axell, Betty Mengarelli.

Ushers' Club

The members of this club don't have to worry about whether or not they'll have enough money for that play ticket. They hand out programs and they seat people at all the plays, concerts, and other activities. Miss Lungmus (top) is their sponsor, and their officers (left to right) are: Darlene Whitehead, Anna Riccio, Gaile Dimmick.

Debate Club

This year the Debate Club took part in seven debate tournaments and two speech contests. Their subject in the tournaments was "Resolved, that all American citizens should be subject to conscription for essential service in time of war." Jerry Cornell and Jerry Weissburg made up the Varsity Affirmative while Phil Stone, Pat Shirling, and Betty Mengarelli composed the Negative.

Red Cross Council

Every year in the fall Niles has its annual drive for the Red Cross. This year we finished with a grand total of over $400, with the freshman heading the list as the top donators.

Chess Club

Chess has been called one of the hardest games ever invented. Perhaps this accounts for the fact that the Chess Club has the quietest meetings held at Nilehi. Anyone who has the power of concentration and a free afternoon a week may join.

Code of Ethics

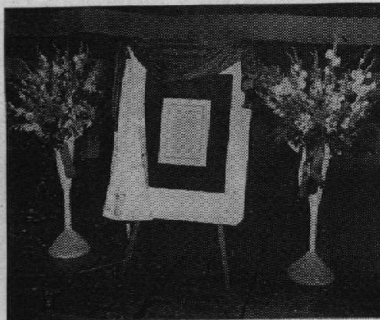

This year in the problems classes the idea of having a code of ethics originated. Two people from each problems class were chosen to make up a committee that would draw up a rough draft. This committee met in the evenings and after school with the two problems teachers, Miss Grace Harbert and Miss Lois Lamberg. After submitting the rough draft to the Golden Galleon Guild for English corrections, the committee gave it to the students themselves in December for any necessary additions and criticisms. After the code committee was enlarged by including two members from each class, the students' suggestions were put into the code. This March in a formal assembly the final code was accepted and a copy of the code was placed in a bronze case in the front hall for all students to see, reminding us that the high ideals expressed in it will not only be our guide while we are at school but all through our lives.

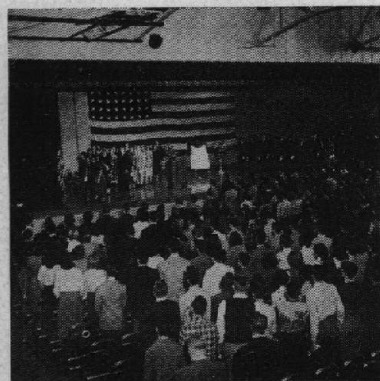

This committee worked many hours to write our Code of Ethics.

The most solemn moment of the code assembly: the gym was hushed, the code was unveiled, and the work of nearly a whole year was realized.

The code committee, two members from each class, and a representative from every club in school sat on the stage during assembly.

STUDENT CODE OF ETHICS NILES TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL

AS a foundation for better citizenship, we, the students of Niles Township High School, desire to preserve our tradition and to encourage the advancement of our ideals.

We regard a person's individuality as one of his most priceless possessions. We believe in scholarship, which represents openmindedness toward knowledge and ideals; leadership, which undertakes the obligations of living in a democracy; service, which fosters personal responsibilities; friendliness, which recognizes no barriers of race, color or creed, and respect for authority, which is a necessity in an organized society.

As American citizens we realize the need to develop character, to promote better government in defense of democracy, and to accept honesty and spiritual values in every day living. In an effort to attain these ideals, we, the students of Niles Township High School, submit this code.

By the acceptance and practice of the following principles, we shall recognize a student of Niles Township High School.

He is honest in all his dealings with others, respecting their rights to private property and acquired knowledge.

He always displays a loyal school spirit by his acts of good sportsmanship as participant or spectator.

He strives to attain high standards of cleanliness of person, thought, speech and behavior.

He observes all rules of safety for himself, as well as for others.

He avoids damaging and disfiguring any public or private property.

He is respectful, well-mannered and courteous to everyone.

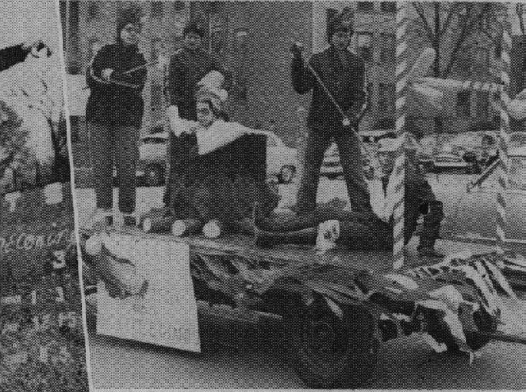

If he smokes, he will do so only in places permissible for a student to smoke.

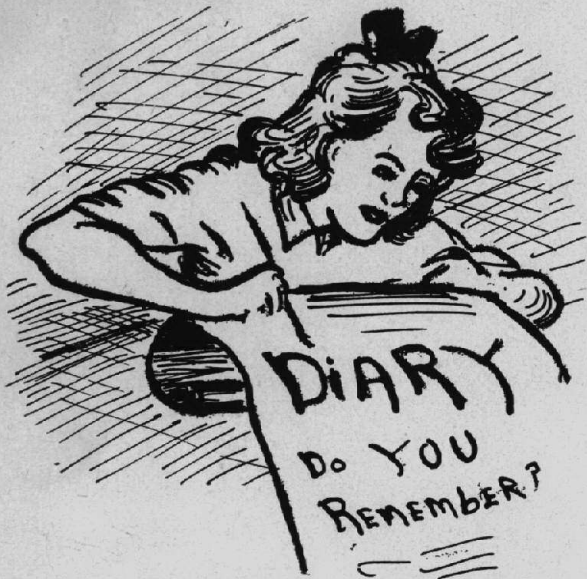

He abstains from drinking alcoholic beverages where it would reflect upon the school and himself.

He refrains from organized or open gambling.

This code was adopted by the 1951-1952 student body of Niles Township High School as a guide toward high ideals of character and citizenship, and to serve until additions may prove necessary.

Homecoming

September 4—Freshman Day

We played "big brothers and sisters" to the incoming frosh—a nice but bewildered bunch.

September 5—First Day of School

Oh no! /!  #! $ — all kidding aside, we were really glad to get back.

September 14—G.A.A. Informal Initiation

Are these the latest fashions from Paris?

September 14—First Home Football Game (Niles vs. Waukegan)

We kept the bleachers jumping at this opener, but in vain—we lost the game, 13-0.

September 17—See Chicago Club Trip, Tribune Tower

We all managed to get some printer's ink on our little "paws" plus a peek at the Sunday comic strips.

October 4—Magazine Drive Assembly

"Mr. Van" and Mr. Murdock gave us a pep talk and we all turned salesmen for a while to reach the goal of $12,000.

October 18—Magazine Drive Ends

With callouses on our fingertips from ringing so many doorbells, we filled the old thermometer up to the $8,600 mark.

October 20—See Chicago Club Trip, Brookfield Zoo

Wonder who had the most fun—the monkeys staring at us or we staring at the monkeys!

November 3—Homecoming Parade, Game, and Dance

Boy, was it cold on those floats! We watched the game, which we tied 6-6, while sitting in a blizzard. That night we thawed out at the "Varsity Drag".

November 6—Parents Night

Mom and Dad sympathized with us after following our confusing schedules for a night.

November 10—Jean Jump

This year we all went western at the "Hop-a-Long" where we drank apple cider and square danced the night away.

November 16—Fall Play, "Arsenic and Old Lace"

Two old maid aunts, a Dr. Einstein, and a Frankenstein—We really learned the true character of some of our friends!

November 18—See Chicago Club Trip, Maxwell Street and Chinatown

Just what we'd been looking for all our lives—a tuxedo for 25¢! In Chinatown our eyes were bigger than our stomachs.

November 22—Thanksgiving Recess

All the girls forgot their diets and we swore we'd never touch a drop of food again, but lunch lines were big as usual when we returned.

November 30—First Basketball Game of the Season (Niles vs. Evanston)

Heading into the basketball season, we faced our "neighborly rivals" and though the Trojans were in good from, we lost, 60-41.

December 9—Christmas Vespers

The familiar "Vesper Hymn" and other Christmas songs gave us that "old Christmas feeling" and reminded us of that shopping that wasn't done.

December 19—First Day of Christmas Recess

Ah! Blissful slumber for some of us. Others worked at the post office and other various jobs.

December 22—Christmas Dance

We danced in an enchanted forest of pine trees covered with snow. It was sure swell to see some of the old seniors home from college.

January 2—First Day after Christmas Vacation

"Don't know why I'm so tired," was the sleepy murmur of all.

January 8—"Breakfast Club" Broadcast from Nilehi

Got up at 6:45 to see this show, and they didn't even serve us breakfast!

January 23—Semester Exams

"Oh, I don't have to study that course is a snap . . . I hope!"

February 12—Lincoln's Birthday

Abe did a lot for the country but his best contribution yet was this holiday!

February 22—Washington's Birthday

"Why can't we have a holiday on every president's birthday?" we asked. But our victory over New Trier (55-54) that night made up for it.

March 5—First Game of Regionals (Niles vs. Waukegan)

The hoopsters really started off with a bang as they defeated the Bulldogs, who finished the game with only three players. Score was 54-46.

March 6—Second Game of the Regionals (Niles vs. Evanston)

We did it again! 51-39.

March 7—The Regional Finals (Niles vs. Lake Forest)

It was a once in a lifetime game as we defeated L.F., 49 to 47 by a sensational Trojan shot. "Virg" and "his boys" couldn't see enough of the trophy, and Cooley's thought that we'd never go home!

March 8—Senior Dance, "Fifty-Two Fathoms"

We were all "bubbling" with joy over our "Cinderella" triumph in the Regionals as we danced or we should say "swam" that night.

March 12—Presentation of the "Code of Ethics"

After nearly a year's work, the Code was presented to students in an impressive assembly. It was then placed in a bronze case for all to see.

March 13—Waukegan Sectionals (Niles vs. DeKalb)

The 12:00 bell rang for the "Cinderella" team as we lost to DeKalb, 42-36.

March 29—Reflections Revelry

"Variety Time" was a huge success thanks to Miss Stemp and the many students who participated.

April 3—Water Carnival

Whisk! Alladin's "Magic Lamp" carried us to the land of sultans, sultanas, magic lamps, and Oriental dancers.

April 6—Spring Recess

Excited juniors and seniors went to Washington to help Congress run the government for a week.

April 14—First Day after Spring Recess

. and the teachers wondered why we fell asleep in class!

April 25—Spring Concert

"America, the Beautiful" was the theme and we all traveled across the country on a musical train.

April 26—G.A.A. Turnabout

Taking the boy's place was a well-timed switch 'cause it's leap year.

May 31—Junior Prom

It was perfect! Jean Flowers and Ken Howard led the Grand March. Stayed up all night and the next day there was the traditional picnic at the beach. What a week end!

June 12—Senior Breakfast

We all had smiles on our faces as we heard the class prophecy read.

June 12—Commencement

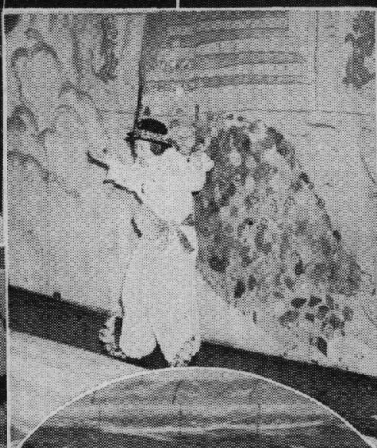

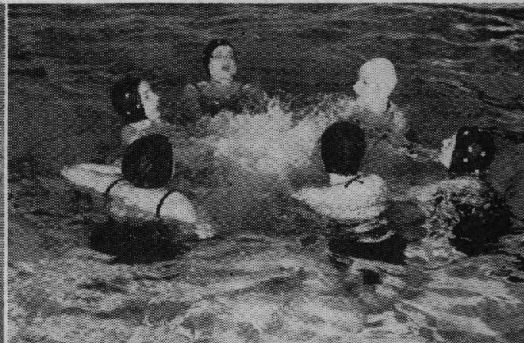

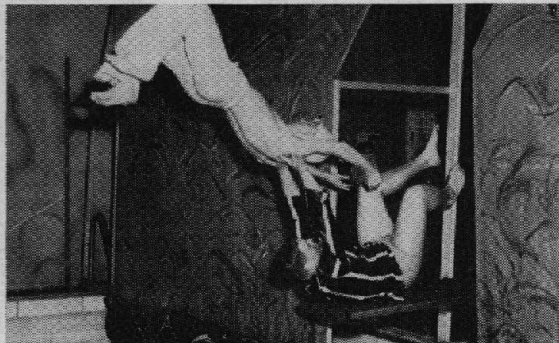

We were all smiling through our tears as we received that treasured diploma and realized that we were leaving dear old Nilehi, with all the rush of homework, school dances, football games, the Regional victory, and last of all, the many true friends we were leaving.

Sprinting around left end is Nilehi quarterback Ken Howard for those all-important six points, but several Waukegan Bulldogs were anxious to halt the pigskin before it ended its journey. This was the Men of Troy's first game and the Bulldogs captured it after a furious battle, 13 to 0.

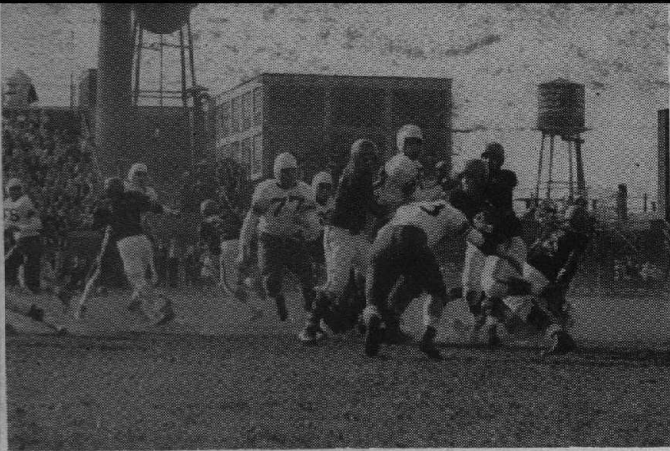

Trojan fullback Ed Trausch (33) drives off left tackle for a sizable gain before several New Trier defensemen manage to bring him down when the Nilehi gridsters played host to the New Trier Green Wave. Although the score was tied at the half, the Trojans were overpowered by the Green Wave to the score of 18 to 6. Trojans to the left, right and back of Ed, respectively, are Chuck Lind, Ron Lehman, and Ken Howard.

Larry Bueder (94) and Ken Howard (11) rush to the assistance of Nilehi center Russ Krause (forward) and Chuck Lind (on ground) who is tackling an unidentified Proviso ball carrier during a contest on the Nilehi home gridiron. Coach Virgil Van Cleave's boys lost to the strong Maywood team 33 to 0.

Nilehi fullback Don Eastman drags three Marmion defenders with him for a few extra yards. This kind of fighting apparently paid off as the Trojans won the battle 34-6. It was the Men of Troy all the way as they took an early lead never to be headed thereafter. It was the local lads' first win of the year.

Keyed up for their annual Homecoming game, the Mustangs of Morton were too much for the Trojan gridsters, as they rolled over the Men of Troy 26-0 at Morton.

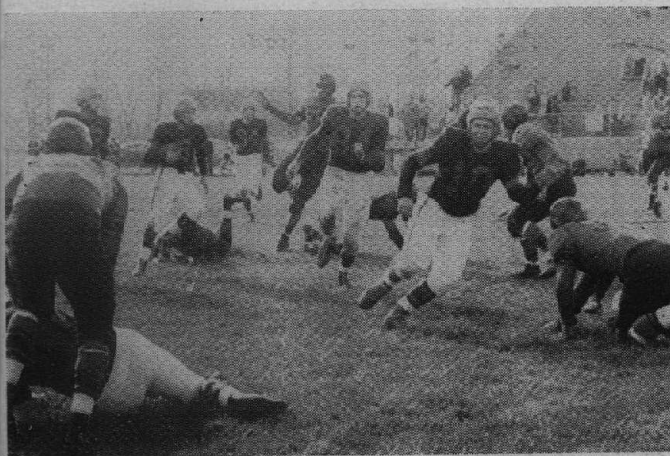

Many injuries which occurred in the first half and a hard-as-rock field put the Trojans to a great disadvantage as the Mustangs took an impressive half-time lead.

The game was the fourth loss for the Trojans in their first five games played during the season.

Big Ed Trausch, Trojan fullback, plunges over the goal line to rack up six more points for the Men of Troy in their conquest of the Cadets of Morgan Park. The local lads won the contest 14-12 in the last twenty seconds.

Guard Jack Thiry (14) helps clear the way as tackle Ron Lehman (23) looks on. Ed Trausch and Jack Thiry were elected Most Valuable Player and Captain, respectively, by their teammates on the Trojan varsity.

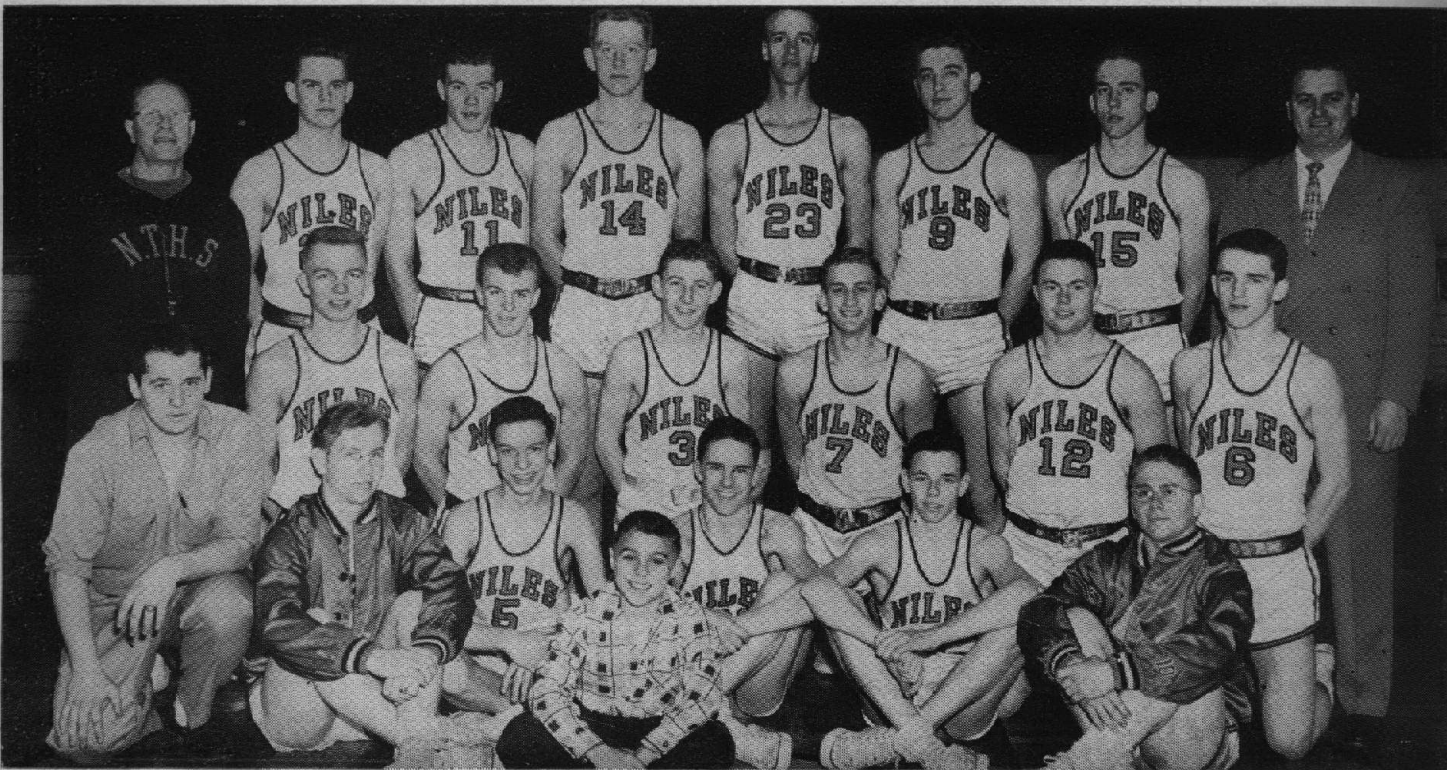

Bob Stoothoff, Nilehi halfback, heads for clear ground during the Evanston tilt, which the Men of Troy lost 38 to 13. Leading Bob's interference are Dave Petrie (10) and Larry Bueder (94). Fullback Ed Trausch flanks Stoothoff while Harry Krueger (34), end, observes the action.

The fighting men of Troy ended their 1951 football season in a snow storm which kept both the Little Giants of Highland Park and the Trojans to a near standstill throughout the game.

The many frozen fans who came to see this annual Homecoming game saw the score end in a 6-6 deadlock as the hard-charging Trojans had to fight back from almost the beginning to gain this well deserved tie.

Acknowledgments

In appreciation for the co-operation received in the planning and production of this book, we, the General Staff, wish to express our sincere thanks to the many persons who helped and advised us. To Mr. Paul Eberhardt, sponsor of the book; Mr. Ronald Van Atsdale and his entire Financial Staff for their work in raising funds and distributing the book; Miss Lucille Ronalds and Merle Haas, together with the Senior-Faculty staff; and the student body for their support of the book.

Credit must also be given to Ken Nordlof and Dave Hansen for their special photography throughout the book.

May we also thank Root Studio for the regular photography, J. Joseph Meier for the composition and printing, and all others who made this REFLECTIONS of 1952 possible.
