

Holocaust service held on Sunday

A MASSIVE open-air interfaith prayer service will launch a series of public programs in response to the threat of a proposed Nazi march.

The service is planned for 3 p.m., Sunday, April 16 at the Niles West high school stadium, Oakton and Edens highway, Skokie.

The program is being held under the auspices of the Niles Township Clergy forum and will be the first of several events on the holocaust remembrance week agenda.

The area-wide observance is being coordinated by the public affairs committee (PAC) of the Jewish United Fund. PAC is the umbrella group for 34 major Jewish groups in the Chicago area.

See editorial

Page 4

Both houses of the Illinois legislature have issued resolutions in recognition of the event commemorating the slaughter of six million Jews, six million Christian civilians and hundreds of thousands of American soldiers during World War II.

And according to Sol Goldstein, chairman of a PAC committee on individual liberty and Jewish security, it is expected that Illinois Gov. James Thompson, Chicago Mayor Michael Bilandic, Skokie Mayor Albert Smith and other local officials will officially proclaim the week of April 16 as "Holocaust Remembrance Week."