We are not chained by the past; we only begin there. We draw our inspirations from the ideas — the principles — that our forefathers handed down to us. From there we build. The freedom of choice is ours; but to build wisely we must know what it is we start with.

FOOTBALL

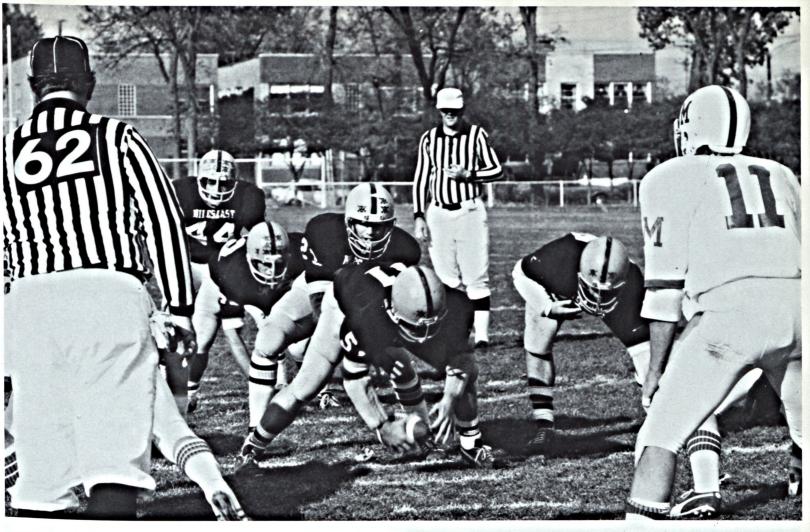

After defeating Niles North early in the season, the Varsity squad had good reason to set their sights a little higher. Though they were not to win another game, the Trojans showed dedicated fans an improved type of football.

Under the direction of Coach Ferguson, they performed with energy that has not been seen in recent years. The offense, led by Chris Klancic and Pete Christopoulos, was the best in years, and only an occasional lapse in defense kept them from being a top-notch team.

Coach Odlivak's Sophomore Team proved to be a first class squad in every department, losing only one game and winning the Central Suburban League title. Quarterback Tom Seimsen and others made winning look easy and prospects for next year even brighter.

SOCCER

Though a comparatively new sport at Niles East, soccer is becoming more popular as the Trojans build a strong team.

Varsity soccer players performed well all season due to the fine playing of the starting line. Senior Mark Brines showed great versatality as he moved from various positions. He excelled as forward, where he was able to score consistently. Brad Moss played well throughout the season. Other members of the starting line include Phil Heftel, Joe Decker and Woong Kim.

Coach Larson's sophomore team had an excellent season. There outstanding performances won them the Conference title.

GOLF

Golfers experience the same ups and downs as in any other sport. The Varsity golfers encountered these feelings this season. The team had an unusually slow start but made an excellent recovery to finish with a near 50-50 average by October 20th. Coach Oswald and Coach Richardson were always at their team's side ready to buy a dozen golf balls for the one who could shoot a 35. For the past four years Flip Gagerman, East's top golfer, has displayed superior sportsmanship and a deadly putting stroke. His 37.9 average this year was an appropriate finale. Junior Jordan Lohn shook off a slow start to shoot some sparkling rounds late in the season, eventually sending him down state; the first to go since 1943. The consistent playing of Rick Martini and Steve Nelson was a welcome addition. Both of them shot very good rounds in the invitationals held in September throughout the state. Scott Winkler, Marc Brown, and Bob Peterson all contributed fine scores when the team needed them most.

GYMNASTICS

On any day during the winter months the contest gym holds within it a group of hard-working and talented gymnasts perfecting their various routines. They know of only two reasons that could make them persist in their rigorous exercises; pride in keeping up with their previous team's record and a desire to improve themselves for personal glory.

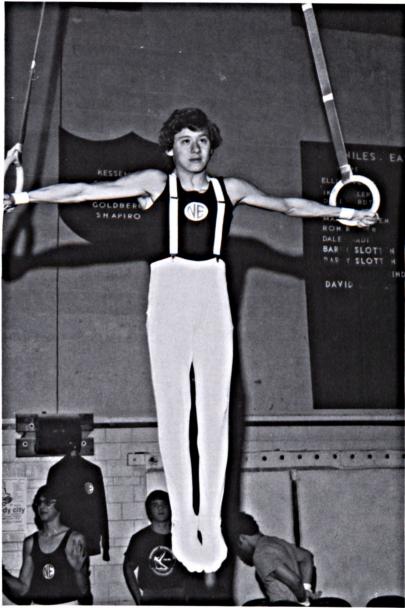

There was a feeling at the end of last year that the loss of many seniors would leave a large gap in the Varsity Team. Ring-man Leo Abramson and others went to work at filling that gap and started showing their full potential. From then on, Coach Sokalski and his followers set no limit on how far their team pride and personal satisfaction could go.

FENCING

Coach Gralewski had to say good-bye to his Seniors this year, but not without introducing to them a new weapon: the epee.

The conventional foil was also used, epee, thus splitting the team into two parts. Lane Schultz and Sam Rest stuck with the foil, along with Allen Tish, who is considered the best man technically on the team. Larry Labow and Jim Osness were two of the people who experimented with the new piece of equipment. Their expertice with both weapons earned them a third place finish in the Central Suburban League Championship — just two points out of second and four out of first. There remains plenty of good Sophomores and Juniors, including Tish, but the Fencing Team should feel the loss of their six Seniors next year.

WRESTLING

The past few years have treated East's Wrestling Team well. Recently there has been a steady rise in performance and this year began with both Frosh-Soph and Varsity Teams playing well within expectations. Due to injuries, Coach Richardi found himself without a number of seniors, including Pete Christopoulos. Richardi, who has been the major influence responsible for the improvement of the team, found that he had extras in his squad that could replace the missing men. Those substitutes went on to win more brilliantly than ever expected. This is one of the situations that only a stable, thoroughly powerful squad could endure.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Cross Country Team, under the direction of Coach Ristow, made progress in two departments. The 15-8 record improves upon even last year's fine season. Success can be attributed to the consistantly fine showings of Mark Lichtenstein and Ken Golub. Special mention should be made of Ed Santacruz, who went after many of our most coveted long distance records. With the reappearance of many of the best runners, the Cross Country Team should again display their winning ways next year.

TENNIS

In the past three years the Varsity Netmen have developed a consistent seasonal cycle: strong start, mediocre mid-year, and charging finish just in time for the district and state competition. Unfortunately, their weak period this year came when facing some of the tougher teams, thus marring what could have been a near perfect record. Coach Winans once again watched his team take the district title for the third year in a row. Junior Jeff Epstein won the singles, Senior Gene Guerrero doubled with Junior Tim Besser from the district tournament through the state competition, where they finished quite high in the standings. Junior Mike Guerrero and Sophomore Eric Robin were two of the teams more versatile players, performing well in three or four positions.

TRACK

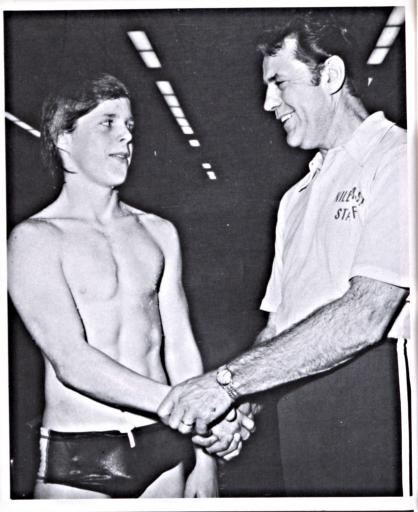

SWIMMING

The Varsity Swim Team made large strides toward improving their overall performance during the final half of the season. This can be attributed to some fine individual showings from veteran Seniors and first year Juniors. Coach Baker found Bob Torstenson indispensible. His fine showing at the Central Suburban League Meet was matched by many of his team mates. Ed Purcell presented himself well in the 50 and 100 yard freestyle. Mark Furtell proved very capable in both the individual medley and butterfly. These performances enabled the squad to finish 7th in the conference. Coach Odlivak's Freshmen and Sophomores are progressing well and should lift East into contention in coming years.

BASEBALL

Leo Durocher once said "Nice guys finish last." Of late, the Trojans have proved his theory wrong. Under the keen eyes of Coaches Galla and Richardson, the Varsity squad played impressively and won decisively. Their 500 record was no doubt the result of the dedication of players and coaches alike. There seemed to be no great weakness in any department, so when one faltered, another would make up ground. In short, they worked well together, an indication of a first class team. All these fine athletes have much to look back upon. There is also much to look forward to next year with a number of fine Juniors returning, as well as the great potential in the Sophomore squad.

BASKETBALL

Coach Capitani and the Varsity Basketball Team had their share of troubles this year. Last year's spectacular showing was fresh in each players mind as the season began. Things didn't go as expected, though. Mark Brines and Bob Malcher were both benched with various injuries. Their record suffered somewhat, but there was still much to be said for the starting squad which was composed entirely of seniors. After Brines recovered from his broken foot, his passing and maneuvering ability was indispensible. Terry Greenberg continued his fine performances of last year and they were never more needed. His last second shot against Glenbrook North gave the Trojans their second conference win. Neil Schreiber led the team in scoring and rebounds and is considered by some the Most Valuable Player. The team needed a man like Art Isaacs to come in when someone faltered. He is an excellent defensive player and is deceivingly consistent with his rebounds. Another great asset to the team was Larry Fine, who not only was out there charging and hustling at all times, but was second leading scorer.

TENNIS

Tennis is enjoyed by many here at Niles East. This year, Coach Matlak picked a young team with great potential. Though the team was composed mainly of underclassmen, there were many bright spots during the season. Sophomore Mindee Epstein took first place in Central the Suburban League Singles Competition. With the talent and power this young team shows, coming years should be quite successful.

SWIMMING

Competitive Swimming is a sport needing self-motivation because of the repitition and endurance involved in training. The 1975 team, composed of girls new to the sport, was drilled by Coaches Berke and Trella. Hard work steadily improved the girl's times, and at this present rate, Niles East may have a strong team in future years.

SPRING MUSICAL

SPRING MUSICAL

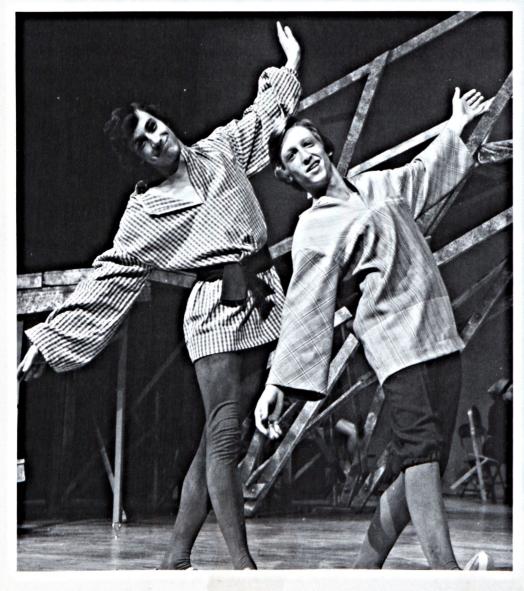

The Theatre Department broadened its horizons by presenting (for the first time) a rock musical. Adapted from the Shakespearean version, "Two Gentlemen of Verona," which appeared on March 13, 14, and 15, showed how the literature of yesterday can be transformed into the art of today.

The play centers around the various love triangles of Proteus (Marc Rush) and Valentine (Barry Kramer). Proteus meets Julia (Sue Ortman) and it is love at first sight. He is forced to go away from her when his father insists he seek a future in Milan.

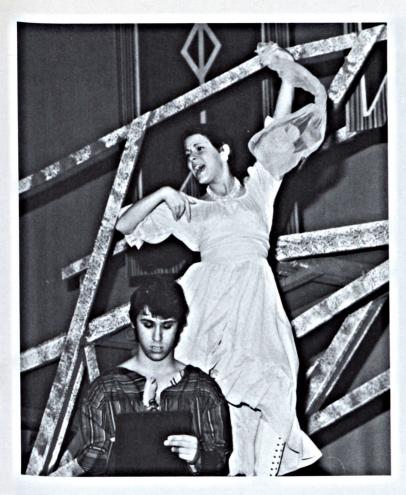

Proteus' manservant, Launce (David Pevsner) and Valentine's, Speed (Mark Flitman) unexpectedly meet in Milan where they exchange the gossip that Valentine has fallen in love with Sylvia (Ellen Pollack), the daughter of the Duke of Milan (Scott Hite). Hoping to find her love, Julia and her servant, Lucetta (Cheryl Esken) dress as two Gentlemen from Verona and go to Milan.

As the play progresses Julia, Proteus, Sylvia and Valentine keep falling in and out of love with one another. But the show ends on a happy note when the four main characters end up with their true loves.

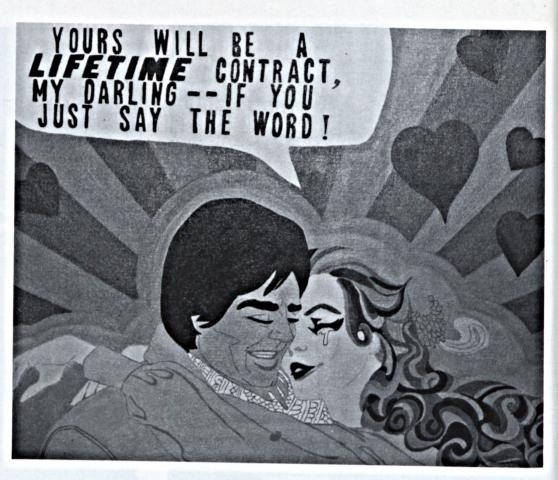

ART SHOW

The second week of May proved to be an artistic week as the art teachers put in much time and thought when putting together the annual art show. Displayed in the Student Lounge was the work of various individuals, ranging from the work of novices to that of advanced students.

The art show enabled students to display their work. Various art mediums allowed the students to express their feelings. Interpretations of the works provoked laughter, tears and satisfaction from the onlookers.

SPRING PLAY

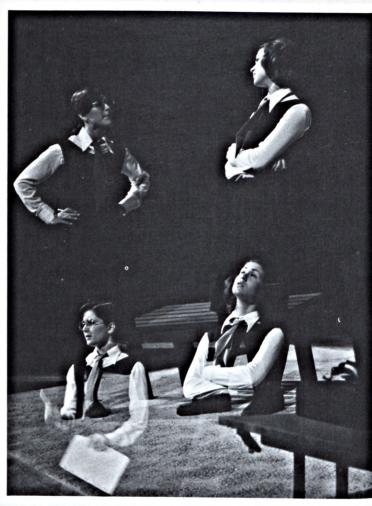

Last year's spring play, "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie" premiered on Thursday May 22 and closed after four performances on Saturday May 24. For the first time director Jerry Proffit double casted the show, giving twice as many students the opportunity to perform.

"Give me a girl at an impressionable age, and she is mine for life . . . "

These are the powerful words which both start and end one's acquaintance with Miss Jean Brodie. As a teacher at the Marcia Blane School, she has her special girls, — Sandy, Jenny, Monica and Mary. She will do anything for them; they are her life.

PROM

On May 29, dressed in tuxedos and gowns, the students attending Prom '75 brought life to the ballroom of the Sheraton O'Hare North. "Days of Future Past," the theme of last year's Prom, helped to bring back fond memories of old school days. After enjoying dinner, the guests danced to the music of "Chapter 4" conducted by Howard Pfeifer, a Niles East Alumni. Highlighting the evening was the announcement of the 1975 Prom King and Queen, Eugene Guerrero and Cristina Lomboy. The organization of the Prom by the Junior Cabinet was greatly appreciated.

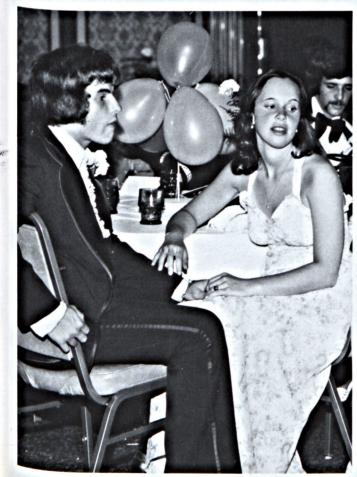

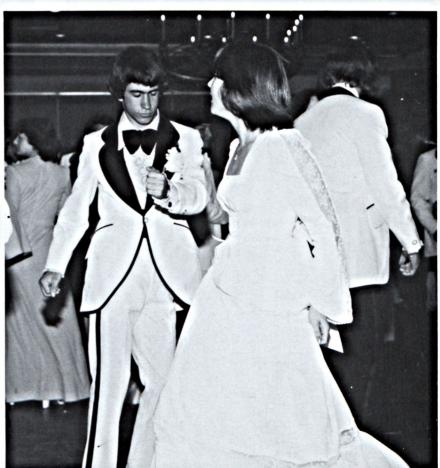

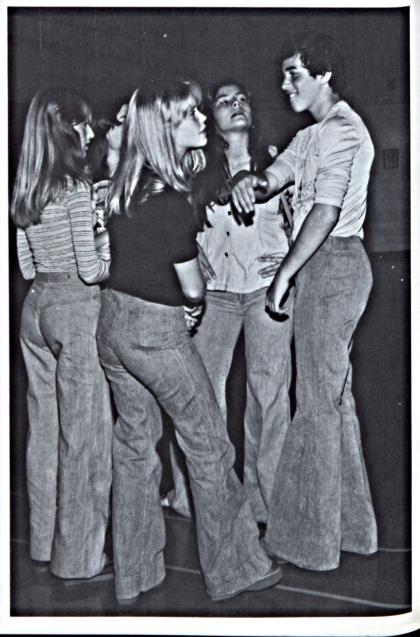

FRESHMAN MIXER

At the beginning of each year it is customary at Niles East to hold a freshman dance so that the new class may have the opportunity to meet and make new acquaintances. This year was no exception. On Saturday night, September 13 at 8:00 p.m., hundreds of freshmen gathered in the girl's gym for this year's Freshman Mixer. Surrounded by many new faces, the class of 79 listened and danced to the music of "Nobody", a local rock group. As the evening progressed the students became more at ease and by the end of the night many new friendships had been made. All in all, the dance was truly a success.

FALL PLAY

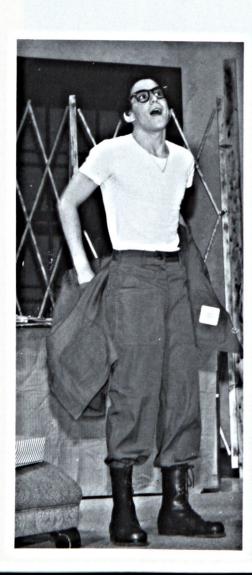

This year's fall play took place on October 23-25. Directed by Jerry Proffit and student directed by Jane Lettick, the play consisted of a small cast and a single scene set.

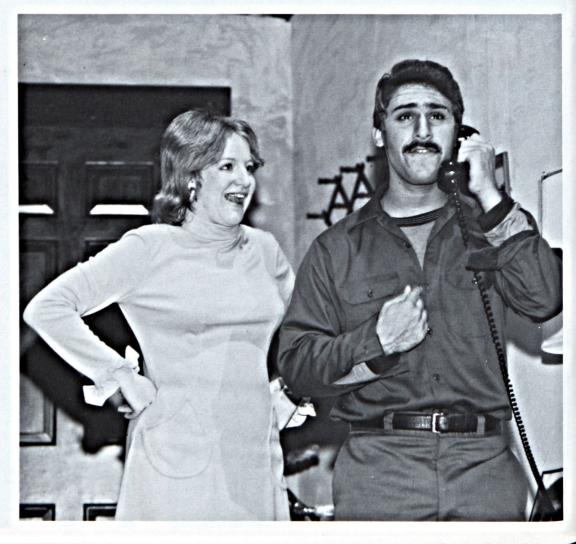

The story centers around Artie Shaughnessy (Barry Kramer) and his high hopes of moving out to California to work together with Billy Einhorn (Mark Blackman) in show business. Artie had been held back by his wife, Bananas (Sue Feldman) and his son, Ronnie (David Pevsner) who were both somewhat insane. Thus it was Artie's intention to leave them in an institution and marry Bunny (Patty Sucherman) who had been tempting him by her unique quality, her cooking, for two months.

The story took place on the day the Pope was coming to New York City. Thus the Shaughnessys were visited by a good many people, including three nuns (Jane Lettick, Sue Ortmann, Janis Cohn), Corinna Stroller (Donna Kulwin), a military policeman (Bill Daitchman), and a man from the institution (Scott Gothelf).

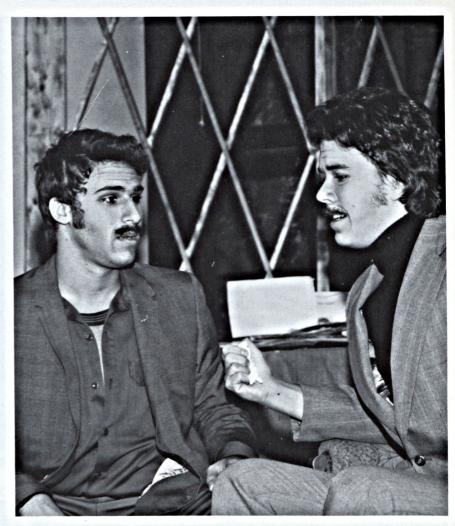

The play, which was both humorous and dramatic, stressed the feeling that there is a bit of insanity in everyone's life.

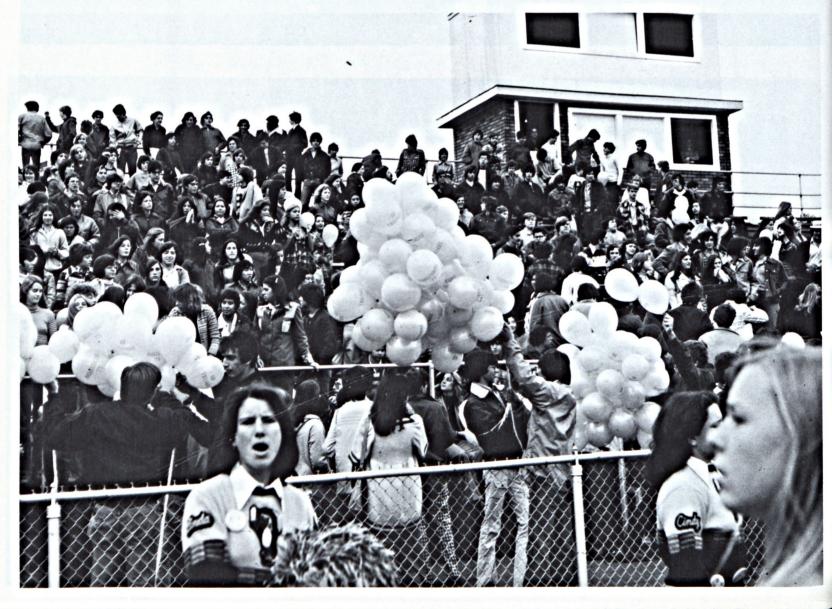

HOMECOMING

Homecoming '75 will no doubt long be remembered for years to come. This year's festivities began on Friday, October 17, when Niles East students gathered in the football stadium for the daytime Pep Assembly. Besides a lot of cheering and shouting, students listened to a pep talk given by guest speaker Johnny Morris. Afterwards came the announcement of the Queen Anne Marie Groh and her court Sherry Brodacz, Lynne Coleman, Taryn Levin, Carmen Lomboy, Renee Bielinski and Ann Morton. Bringing the assembly to a close was the most spirited class contest which the Class of '76 won for their fourth year in a row.

After school, students returned to various houses where they worked until early Saturday morning completing their floats for the Homecoming parade.

HOMECOMING

6:30 A.M. Homecoming morning, eleven colorful floats and six decorated cars met in the teacher's parking lot for one of the best parades Niles East has had in a long time. The theme of Homecoming was "We're On Top Of The World" and each float represented a different country. The winning floats were announced at the conclusion of the parade. Senior Cabinet placed first with "Fry 'Em In GREECE" and Senior Independent held a close second with "Niles East WALES The Demons".

That afternoon the stadium was filled once again with students and friends who came to root the Trojans on to victory. Although they played well, the Varsity lost to the Maine East Demons 29 to 12.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming Weekend came to a successful end Saturday when 375 students gathered at the Evanston Holiday Inn at 8:00 P.M. to help bring back the "traditional" Homecoming dance. Dressed in semi-formal attire the students, as well as chaperones, danced to music by the group Demo-Flash and enjoyed refreshments catered by Baskin Robbins 31 Flavors. By the end of the evening only sore feet and the fond memories of Homecoming '75 lingered on.

REFLECTIONS

"Reflections on a Rainbow of Emotions," this year's student directed variety show appeared on January 15-17. A writing committee of students worked together to form a show based on seven emotions — joy, sadness, jealousy, fear, love, hatred and hope — with each emotion corresponding to a color of the rainbow.

Reflections '76 tended to elaborate on the traditional student directed show. A cast consisting of only 87 students worked under the stage direction of Mark Blackman and Susi Fleischman. This small number helped bring about a feeling of unity. Accentuating the dance talent in Niles East, choreographers Sally Saber and Suzie Soltan were responsible for a show filled with more dancing than ever before. Musical scores and conducting were done under the musical direction of Debbie Feldman and assisted by Leslie Ament, Celeste Ashley and Linda Pastron. Because of the theme, the show opened with colorful lights and large-scale sets designed by Paul Scherfling and interesting costumes designed by Judy Veis. Directors, cast, band and crews worked as one and each had for himself a "Rainbow of Emotions."

Just as at the end of a rainbow there is a pot of gold, at the end of this rainbow was hope and a lot of love.

In this Bicentennial year of 1976, we recognize our country's beginnings and our history as the world's longest surviving democracy. Education has played a significant role in our development and in preparing us for the opportunities that only a free people can enjoy. We hope that Niles East has served the principles of our democracy well and that our students stand ready to face the challenge of leadership in the future.

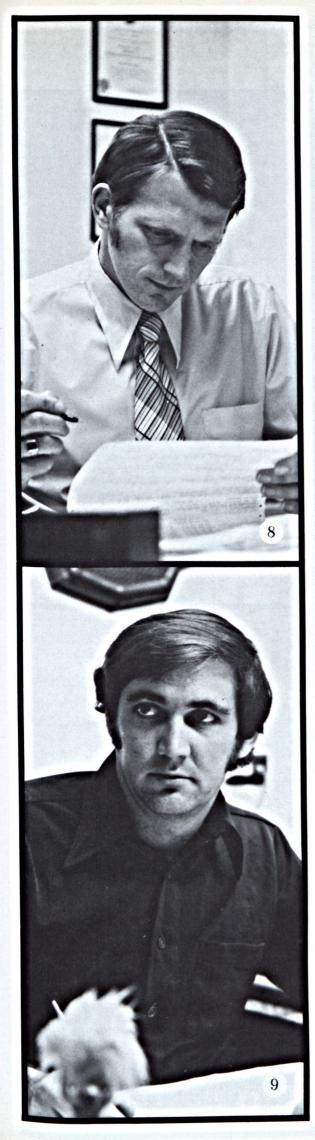

The graduating members of the Class of 1976 will carry a special distinction in this year and we honor them in this Bicentennial edition of our Reflections.

Reflections is more than a recap of the year's events. It is a reflection of our high school years and it reflects months of work done by dedicated staff members. We want to express our thanks to all those who contributed to this year's book and a special thanks to outstanding individuals:

Organization Editor Deby Bernard, Occasions Editor Suzie Soltan, Education Editor Donna Kulwin, Boys' Athletics Editor Rick Martini, Girls' Athletics Mary Krier, Underclassmen Editors Laura Defratus and Renee Render, Graduates Editors Debbi Gutman and Pam Mohr, Art Editor Gloria Price and Student Photographer Andy Goldstein;

American Yearbook Publishing Company and Publisher's consultant Dennis Eder and the Root Studios;

Dennis Grabowski whose artistic opinion and guidance in layout was an asset to the book:

Assistant Advisor Marjorie Stevens, whose help and assistance was indispensable.

We especially want to thank Advisor Mel Pirok for his constant patience and guidance and for letting us do things our way and being there when it was important. His guidance and dedication has made Reflections 76 a memorable experience.

Judy Greiman and Paula Lashinsky Editors-in-Chief
