

R E S O L U T I O N

WHEREAS, large numbers of Nazi war criminals who have committed the most horrendous crimes in human history remain unpunished; and

WHEREAS, the Statute of Limitations of the German Federal Republic is about to expire with the result that the said Nazi war criminals would not be brought to trial; and

WHEREAS, this result would be an outrage to millions of victims of the Nazi holocaust and to the residents of the Village of Skokie, many of whom are survivors or families of the survivors of the Nazi holocaust;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

Section 1: That the Mayor and Board of Trustees of the Village of Skokie call upon Helmut Schmidt, Chancellor of the German Federal Republic and other officials of that Republic to extend the Statute of Limitations in order that the Nazi war criminals shall not remain unpunished.

Section 2: That all citizens and residents of the Village of Skokie be urged to communicate with the officials of said government and convey to them their earnest desire that such Statute be extended.

PASSED this 9th day of April, 1979.
