

CRANBERRY FESTIVAL PROGRAM

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1950

An All-Day Outing For The Whole Family

11:00 A. M. CRANBERRY QUEEN'S PARADE, Plymouth, Mass. (Route 3)

A mile-long parade to honor the Cranberry Queen.

Colorful floats and bands, including the famous Warren Indian Band in full costume. A real show!

Remainder of Program at Edaville, South Carver (Route 58)

12:30 * CHICKEN 'N CRANBERRY BARBECUE, $1.50 per person
to 1:30

Continuous Service - 12:30 to 1:30

For children, one dinner may be purchased for 2 children. Extra milk free.

Before or after the barbecue ride on the famous Edaville Railroad.

This is the last of the 2-foot gauge railroads in the United States. It travels over 6 miles of track, skirting 210 acres of cranberry bogs, cranberry reservoirs, woodland in its autumn glory. A stop will be made to view cranberry harvesting. Bring your cameras! Prizes for the best photos.

Before and after the barbecue, you will also have an opportunity to watch the sorting and packing of cranberries in the Edaville Packing House . . . and to visit the Tom Thumb Museum at Edaville.

2:00 * PROCLAMATION OF CRANBERRY WEEK by His Excellency, to 4:00

- * CROWNING OF THE NATIONAL CRANBERRY QUEEN.
- * "CRANBERRY DOXOLOGY" by Men's Chorus.
- * "ODDITIES OF 1950." Revue by the Warren Indian Band.

This band was heard by about 3,000,000 people last year, including President Truman and Governor Thomas E. Dewey. Members of the band are 11 to 21 years of age. They have won competition far and wide. Their intricate marching, their showmanship, their singing and their dancing provide a show which is tops.

 CUTTING OF THE CRANBERRY FESTIVAL CAKE by the Cranberry Queen.

FREE--CRANBERRY FESTIVAL CAKE AND COFFEE FOR EVERYONE with the compliments of National Cranberry Association and General Foods Corporation.

An All-Day Outing For The Whole Family