Cleveland Hall,
CLEVELAND STREET,
FITZROY SQUARE,

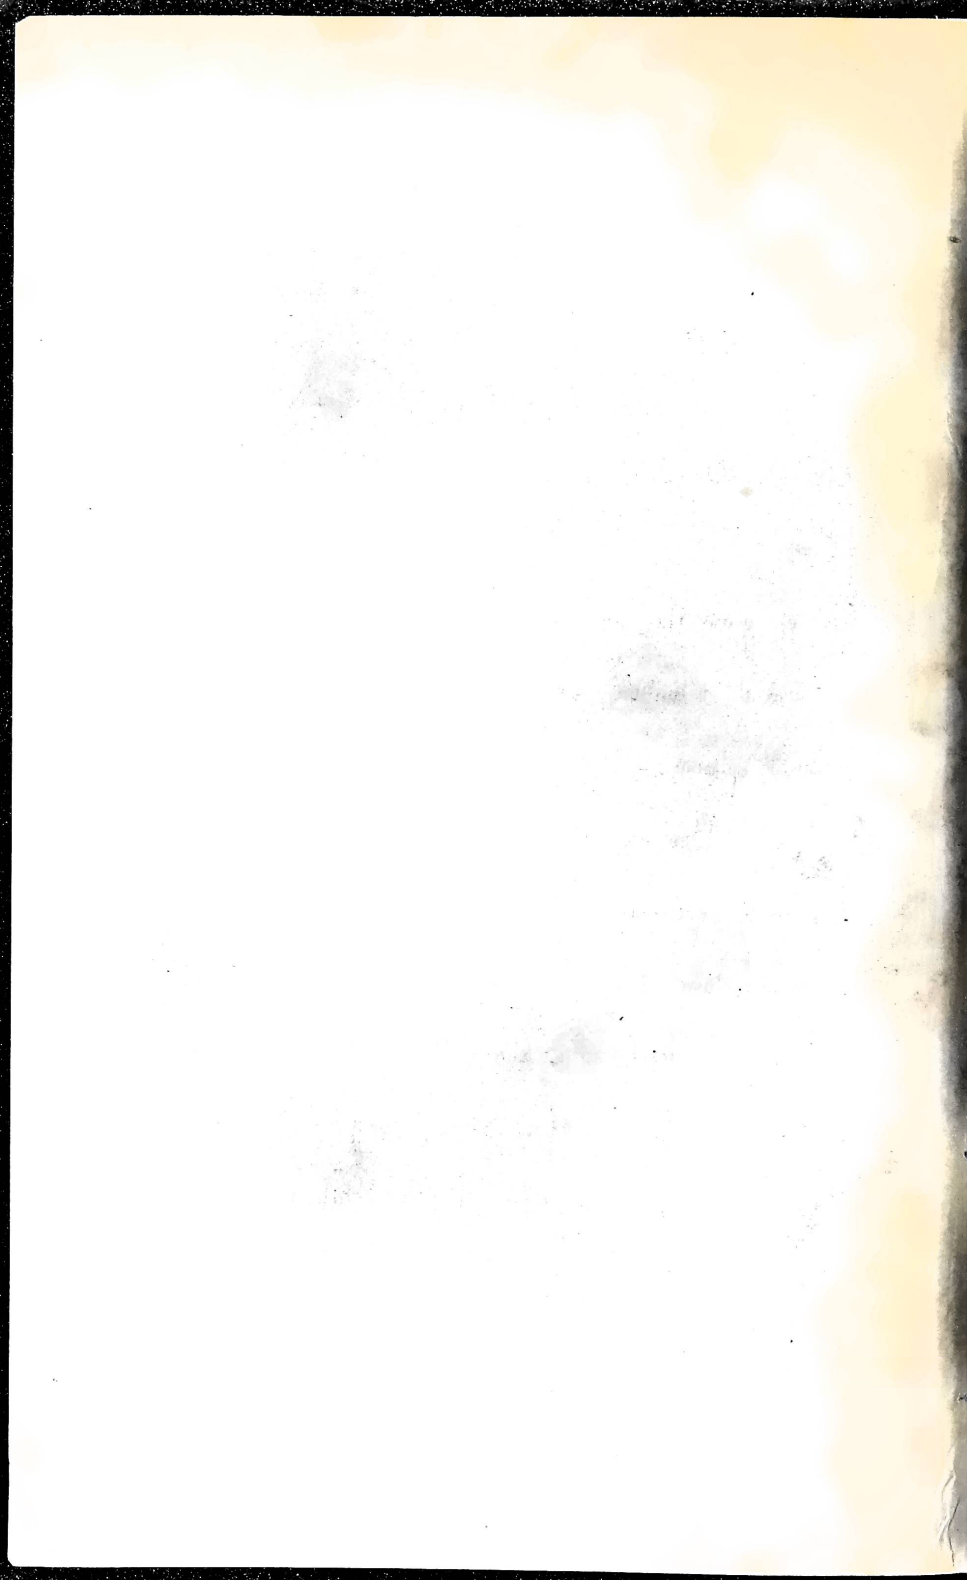

18th November, 1865.

Dear Sir,

Some Friends, desirous of giving Mr. M. D. Conway an opportunity of addressing the Working Classes on Sunday Evenings, have taken for a year the above commodious Hall, which is in a central situation, and will comfortably seat four hundred persons.

Mr. Conway will discourse upon a number of speculative questions, that in the opinion of many urgently claim further inquiry and elucidation.

The enclosed card shews the subjects that have been chosen for the first six evenings. By and by it is intended to treat of the Relations between Employers and Employed, Co-operation, the Elevation of Woman, National Education, Sanitary Reforms, &c.

The enumeration of these topics will give you an idea of the important subject in view.

M^r. J. G. Crawford, 44, Mornington Road, has kindly consented to act as Treasurer.

We beg to submit this scheme for your approval, and very respectfully solicit your kind assistance.

We are,

Your obedient Servants,

Mark E. Marsden.

R. W. Mackay.

William Shaen.

J. B. Langley.

Karl Blinde.

W. T. Malleson.
