NOTICE TO MEMBERS.

If the resolution to be moved at the Meeting to-day should imply censure on the Committee. the following amendment will be moved on their part :—

“ That whilst this Congregation is perfectly willing to “ agree unanimously to a resolution expressing in the “ strongest manner possible its warmest attachment to “ Mr. Conway, and the deep regret which the loss of his “ invaluable services would cause them, it refuses to add “ to that resolution expressions which could only be “ taken as a vote of censure on the Committee, who they “ believe have acted in perfect good faith, and who still “ possess their entire confidence.”

If this amendment be lost when put to the vote a Ballet on it will be demanded.
