

RACING
RESULTS-ENTRIES

Los Angeles Times

WEDNESDAY
MORNING
FINAL

VOL. 87, SEVEN PAGES, PART ONE 112 PAGES WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30, 1975 MORNING & FINAL DAILY 10¢

S. VIETNAM SURRENDERS

DEPARTURE—A group of South Vietnamese refugees is seen as they board a plane for evacuation from the city of Saigon.

ARRIVALS—South Vietnamese women and children arrive from Saigon to seek refuge in the United States.

Viet Cong Troops, Tanks Pour Into Saigon as Red Forces Take Over City

From Times Wire Service

SAIGON—South Vietnam today surrendered unconditionally to the Viet Cong. President Nguyen Van Thieu fled as government forces to save up their arms and thousands of men and women poured into the streets.

The South Vietnamese had long been and carried on a guerrilla war against the North. The Viet Cong, a communist force, had been active in the South since 1954. The Viet Cong had been active in the South since 1954. The Viet Cong had been active in the South since 1954.

Evacuation Ends: Ford Asks U.S. 'to Close Ranks'

WASHINGTON—President Ford announced today that the evacuation of South Vietnamese refugees from Saigon is over. He said that the United States will now close its ranks to the South Vietnamese.

Refugee Plans Draw Protests

LARGEST HUMAN AIRLIFT First of 18,000

S. Viet Soldiers