

Ron Cisar will entertain Earth Fair participants at 2 p.m. in the outdoor amphitheater at Hartman Reserve Nature Center. The Earth Fair begins at 1pm and continues through 5pm with activities for the whole family. Parking is limited at Hartman Reserve Nature Center so people are encouraged to be "fossil fuel free" by biking and walking to the Earth Fair.

For more information call Hartman Reserve Nature Center, 277-2187, Monday-Friday 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Earth Fair Schedule of Events

1 p.m. Earth Fair Opening
Flag raising
Invitation
Introduction of Mayors

1:15-5 p.m.

Activities:

Bird Hikes
Bubble Making
Canoeing- $1 per person
Check-it-out Backpacks
Cherokee Leaf Printing
Earth Mask Making
Fishing
Junk Art
Orienteering
Paper Making
Pond Exploration
Recycle Art
Silkscreen - bring own t-shirt or $2
Wildflower Walks
Information Booths
Refreshments

2 p.m. Dedication of "Sacred Circle" by Bev Doolittle
Performance of "Earth Music" by Ron Cisar

3 p.m. Earth Work Awards Presentation and performances

5 p.m. Closing