

Pisgah Church

In the open area before you are the unmarked graves of approximately thirty former residents of the Centerville community. During the spring and summer of 1841 a yellow fever epidemic raged across northern Leon County. Pisgah Church had the only cemetery in the area and was used as a common burial site.

Sleep With The Angels