Introduction

11 Warren Street would not be what it is today without a rather significant donation from 28 Chestnut Street. 28 Chestnut Street was built in 1800 by Sims Brothers for Ichabod Tucker. Tucker, at the time, was 35 years old and married to his first wife, Maria Orne Tucker. Thought to be the second residence set up on Chestnut Street, it was built in a federalist style, as was typical for the time.¹ Chestnut Street has become an exemplary neighborhood for its architectural styles represented, with the Federalist style being perhaps most noteworthy.² Soon after the house was built, the Greek Revival came into vogue. This is the origin story of the house at 11 Warren Street.

In 1846, the year of Ichabod Tucker's death, the front part of the house was removed to be remodeled into the aforementioned Greek Revival Style. The facade was placed at 11 Green Street, now known as 11 Warren Street. This, subsequently, makes 11 Warren Street a Federalist style building.

Family Histories

Cabot/Tucker Family

Ichabod Tucker was born in Leicester, Massachusetts on April 17, 1765. His first wife was Maria Orne Tucker and after her death, he married his second Esther Orne Paine, the mother of Joseph Sebastian Cabot, on October 13, 1811.³ He moved to Salem, where he was Clerk of the Courts of Salem, and made his residence at 28 Chestnut Street in 1800. He died on November 3, 1846.

Joseph Sebastian Cabot was born in Salem on October 8, 1796, to Joseph Cabot and Esther Orne Paine.⁴ His father died on November 17, 1799⁵ and his mother married Ichabod Tucker, after which he moved into the house at 28 Chestnut.⁶ He had one sibling, a brother named William Paine Cabot.

He served as the 4th mayor of Salem from 1845 to 1849. Prior to this position, he was president of the Asiatic Bank, with the building currently being occupied by the Ledger Restaurant at 125 Washington Street. He was also president of the Salem Savings Bank, the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, Harmony Grove Cemetary Corporation, and was the Massachusetts Bank State Commissioner.⁷ A relative, Elizabeth Orne Paine later published the following in "Old Tucker House" regarding his affinity for horticulture:

"They went through the garden and called to see Cousin Becky Cabot, a cousin of the "Little Visitor's" father, and if it had been summer-time, would have met Cousin Joe Cabot, (see footnote), admiring and caring for his flowers. He was learned in botanical lore and was made President of the Horticultural Society in whose hall hangs his portrait."⁸

Joseph S. Cabot likely rented out this house at 11 Warren Street as he owned properties elsewhere in Salem.⁹

Chambers Family

James Chambers was born in Ireland around 1824. His wife, Ellen Chambers, was born in Ireland around the same time.¹⁰ All of their children were born in Massachusetts, insinuating that they had both emigrated prior to that year, though it is unknown whether that was together or not.¹¹ They had seven children together: Margaret (1852-c.1865¹²), Catherine/Kate (1853¹³-1923¹⁴), Mary (1856- ?¹⁵), Joanna/Annie/Anna (1857¹⁶- ?), Ellen/Nellie (1859- ?),¹⁷ John J. (1861¹⁸-1938¹⁹), and George A. (1868²⁰-1900²¹). The Chambers were a large working-class family: James Chambers was a laborer;²² Catherine and Annie were shoe stitchers;²³ Ellen was a shoe operative;²⁴ John worked as a carrier,²⁵ bartender,²⁶ and clerk;²⁷

The Chambers family resided at 11 Warren Street for 30 years. James Chambers lived with his children and wife until his death between 1870 and 1880.²⁸ Ellen Chambers operated as head of the house until her death in 1883.²⁹ Upon Mrs. Chambers' death, Annie Chambers assumed the role as head of the house.³⁰ Annie likely died around 1895, at which point her brothers, George A. and John J., inherited the house and sold it to their sister, Catherine. The house remained under Catherine's ownership until 1910, at which point the Chambers' family occupancy of the house ended.

Healy Family

Ellen Healy and John Healy were born in Ireland. Ellen was born in March of 1875 and John was born on June 24, 1868.³¹ John, born in Mallow Cork, immigrated in 1879 and Ellen immigrated in 1895.³² They married in 1900, providing evidence that they met in Massachusetts.³³ They had three children: Edward John (1901-1977³⁴), Margaret (1904-1973), and Katherine (1910-1982). Both Edward and Katherine moved to the Philadelphia area with their respective spouses while Margaret remained in Salem.³⁵

John Healy died in 1930.³⁶ Nearly 25 years later, the house was briefly sold to Mildred A. Coffey before Ellen and Margaret reacquired it. Ellen died a year later in 1954 and Margaret died in 1973.

WE, Michael Carney and William Gambell of Lanham in the County of Essex native citizens of the United States of America, severally depose and say, that we are well acquainted with James Chambers who came from as we have been informed and verily believe, to the United States, on or about the twentieth day of April A.D. 18*89*

and do know that he has resided in and under the jurisdiction of the United States, for five years last past, and for more than one year within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and that to the best of our knowledge he has behaved during all said time as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

Michl. Carney
William Gambell

I, James Chambers do swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States of America; and that I do absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to Victoria, Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, whose subject I am or was before I came to reside in the United States. So help me God.
