House SITE

This lot was part of the Thomas Truslow estate when he died in 1654. His widow Elinor died in 1655 leaving it to her son Edward Phelps of Newbury, Mass. who conveyed it to Thomas Robbins in 1657. He died before 1694 and it came to his niece Rebecca Pinson whose husband died in 1695 leaving it to his wife. She married again in 1696/7 Joseph Boobier (Bubier) of Marblehead and they conveyed it to Rebecca, daughter of William Pinson and wife of John Beckford of Marblehead in 1698/9, it being then in possession of George Hacker, a tenant. The Beckfords removed to Reading and conveyed it to their son John Beckford in 1739. The house probably disappeared soon after. He may have built the existing house in or after 1739. He died in 1788, at 85 or 86, leaving it to his son Ebenezer, born in 1737, who died in 1816 leaving it to his daughter Mary (Polly), born in 1774, who married Joseph Osgood jr, born in 1771, in 1796. He died in 1808 and she is said to have sold it to Henry Whipple in 1826; however she died in 1822 and perhaps her administrator sold it at the later date. It is still owned by the family but has been vacant for years as the two daughters of George M. Whipple have lived and died in California. Andover street was laid out in 1802.
