00:30	[Music]
00:45	good morning I think it's appropriate
00:49	on the sesquicentennial 150th
00:53	anniversary of the postcard
00:55	that we also acknowledge that it's the
00:59	sesquicentennial of Belvidere Plain	#belvidereplain
		Hunt_Village_Har_114
01:03	a real estate development from 1870	#1870
01:08	I believe it was completed around 1872.	#1872
01:12	so I want to draw your attention to uh
01:15	where it is located
01:17	on the shores of Vineyard Sound	#vineyardsound
01:20	nestled in between the beach
01:24	and what's known as what was known then
01:27	as Deacon's Pond	#deaconspond
		Gunning_Village_Har_0190

01:28	we now know it today as Falmouth Harbor	#falmouthharbor
		Hunt_Village_Har_103 through 120
		Gunning_Heights_Har_1320 through 1334
01:32	and you can see a lot of little postage
01:35	stamp sized
01:36	lots that were
01:40	planned out and really most of them
01:42	never
01:43	um wound up that way because
01:47	when people came in to buy properties
01:49	they bought several
01:51	at a clip so
01:54	my focus today is on the postcards
01:58	that depict uh various scenes from
02:00	around Belvidere Plain
02:03	and there are about 20 and
02:06	I've added a few photographs and I'll
02:10	even
02:11	finish off with a plug for my book
02:15	which hopefully
02:18	Jill Erickson and Kim DeWall can make
02:21	available
02:22	to you from the Falmouth Public Library
02:26	so let's go to the first slide
02:31	most people recognize this house

02:35	it was owned by
02:39	a family named Butler around the turn of	#butler
02:42	the century
02:46	fairly prominent on the point it sits
02:49	today just behind the Falmouth Yacht	#falmouthyachtclub
		Gunning_Village_Bldg_0385
02:51	Club
02:53	uh had a beautiful expansive lawn
02:56	right on the harbor overlooking the
02:58	ocean
02:59	a nice tennis court and I
03:02	found this picture in an old antiques
03:06	uh market in the Fenway section of
03:08	Boston
03:10	probably in the 1990s
03:13	and it hit my eye I recognized it right
03:15	away
03:17	but most importantly for me uh right
03:20	over here
03:21	on the right hand side um was an early
03:25	photograph
03:26	of Belvidere Plain which is on the west
03:30	side of the harbor
03:32	so I grabbed the picture and I expanded
03:35	this section
03:39	to what you see here and for those of

03:42	you familiar with the harbor
03:44	you'll recognize the home here that
03:48	once belonged to Bill Wyman	#wyman
03:51	and his family for
03:54	probably 75 years
03:59	and you'll be able to see by the time
04:02	we're done
04:05	various homes that are no longer
04:08	no longer there
04:12	particularly these two what we call
04:15	beetle houses
04:17	which I'll point out a little later
04:21	um this photograph
04:24	is about circa 19
04:29	20 I I would say
04:36	this photograph uh which I acquired
04:40	on eBay from an auction
04:44	in my mind is the oldest
04:48	known photograph of the Belvidere Plain
04:52	I don't want to say absolutely
04:55	positively
04:56	because
05:01	I don't have proof so I'll leave that to
05:06	a younger generation to figure out for
05:08	me but
05:10	the back side of this stereo card does

05:13	say Falmouth Harbor and
05:17	these this is a
05:20	windmill that drew water from the ocean
05:27	onto flats where it dried
05:31	in the 19th century
05:34	for salt and uh
05:38	this hill here um
05:42	I believe to be Falmouth Heights it	#falmouthheights
05:44	doesn't look that tall
05:46	but you know perspective is very
05:49	um a very tricky thing in the 1870s
05:53	1880s um
05:56	I believe we can also date it from this
06:00	man's hat
06:01	this man's hat so uh in time
06:06	one of you might be able to
06:10	research this to nail down
06:14	a date and these
06:18	two structures here might also
06:22	help us but um
06:25	I'm keeping my fingers crossed the
06:28	oldest
06:29	beach photo Belvidere Plain
06:35	now I'd like to tell you about a book
06:37	that I acquired from
06:39	my father's second cousin Rita Keckeisen

06:44	she was a librarian
06:47	in the Butler Library at Columbia
06:50	College
06:51	in New York City and when she passed
06:54	away
06:55	in 2003
06:58	her family distributed her possessions
07:01	and then asked me if I'd like to go in
07:05	to see if there was anything that I
07:07	wanted
07:08	because Rita and I had been
07:11	a 30-year correspondent uh
07:16	had been correspondents for 30 years she
07:18	more or less was my mentor
07:20	she taught me everything uh I needed to
07:23	know to be a good
07:25	uh thorough genealogist my hobby has
07:28	been
07:29	uh family tree research uh practically
07:32	all of my life
07:34	and uh it really inspired my
07:37	um interest in the history of Belvidere
07:40	Plain
07:42	so Mortimer J. Adler he	#mortimeradler
07:46	is um a well-known editor
07:49	in New York circles back in the day

07:52	and it struck me as very odd that he
07:56	wrote a book
07:58	entitled How to Read a Book
08:01	and uh I'd never seen anything like that
08:04	before so I read it
08:06	cover to cover and I'll give you the uh
08:09	I'll give you the cliff notes he
08:11	essentially
08:13	is um asking
08:16	us as as the readers to
08:20	imbibe every aspect
08:24	of every book that we read don't just
08:26	open it and start reading page one
08:29	start at the fly leaf on the cover
08:32	start uh with the um
08:36	publisher page publishing page
08:39	read every line in the table of contents
08:44	he really wants us to treat every book
08:46	like a fine bottle of wine
08:49	savor every sip and so
08:54	I thought that was appropriate for this
08:56	morning's talk because
08:58	the same uh rules can apply to postcards
09:03	we need to not just see them for
09:06	a picture or a quick note but
09:10	there's a lot more there's a lot more

09:12	behind it
09:14	and we can start with
09:18	postage stamps now
09:21	if a postcard is 150 years
09:25	old then
09:28	the first stamp that was designed for a
09:31	postcard
09:32	the one penny stamp in 1926	#1926
09:37	means that an awful lot of postcards got
09:40	shipped um before and after
09:45	for a penny and in fact it wasn't until
09:47	1952	#1952
09:49	that the rate went up so
09:53	if you see a postcard with a one penny
09:55	stamp on it
09:57	it's not going to be too too helpful
10:00	because
10:00	there's um there's a 75
10:05	year period there where where they
10:09	posted for one cents you get
10:12	luckier from 1952 on because
10:16	postal rates seemed to outpace inflation
10:21	and they kept going up and
10:24	in fact if you see for example
10:27	a postcard with seven
10:30	cents on the stamp you can actually

10:36	tell yourself you can actually date that
10:39	postcard to
10:40	three months in 1975.
10:44	so as you see the dating methodology
10:48	becomes much clearer
10:51	the later you get now at some point and
10:54	I don't know when this was
10:56	but probably in the 2000s
11:00	um these became these stamps became
11:04	forever stamps
11:05	so I don't know if 2006
11:09	is um applies but if you see a postcard
11:13	with a forever stamp
11:14	that's 24 cents it could have been
11:17	posted last week
11:19	I mean they last forever
11:22	um here's an example of
11:26	an early I think 1902
11:30	one cent Franklin stamp so you'll see a
11:33	lot of these
11:34	on postcards I think Lady Liberty is on
11:38	one
11:40	in 1952 it went to two cents
11:44	but uh this is an early two cent stamp
11:47	from 1902
11:49	which you would not have seen on a

11:51	postcard
11:55	so going by Mortimer J. Adler's
11:59	methodology what are all the ways that
12:02	we can
12:03	um partake of postcards
12:07	we know there's a picture on the front
12:09	side
12:11	if we're lucky we see a really beautiful
12:17	post mark on the back here's Falmouth
12:20	Mass
12:20	July 28th 1pm
12:24	1943. uh
12:27	you can't get any better than that um
12:31	another thing you can determine from a
12:33	postcard oh and by the way
12:34	see the one Lady Liberty stamp here
12:38	um obviously we've got until 1952 before
12:42	that goes up
12:43	to two cents published by E.D. West
12:46	Company
12:47	South Yarmouth Mass you can actually go
12:51	on eBay or you know your favorite flea
12:54	market
12:55	and collect postcards
12:58	that were published by E.D. West
13:01	there are a number of different

13:03	companies you can collect all of them
13:05	and they oftentimes will
13:08	number them so you can
13:11	collect them in sequence once in a while
13:15	you can also
13:16	identify the photographer
13:19	that's a little bit tricky you sort of
13:21	have to
13:22	find his body of work first and then
13:26	tie it in to a postcard
13:30	the other things that postcards tell you
13:33	are
13:34	the sender and
13:37	the recipient those are sometimes
13:42	fascinating and this particular one
13:46	tells you that is that the vacationer
13:50	stayed at the Catalpa Cottage on Shore	#shorestreet
		Gunning_Village_Sts_0080 through 0084
		Hunt_Village_Sts_171 & 172
13:52	Street
13:53	in Falmouth um in July of 1943
13:59	so uh if you happen to
14:02	live at that address you might
14:05	know Cokie and
14:08	Mrs. Carl Gulchmark

14:12	Riverside Drive New York City
14:16	so as you can
14:20	see there are many many interesting
14:22	aspects
14:23	to a postcard
14:28	this is the earliest postcard	Variant from the Hunt collection: Hunt_Village_Har_113
14:31	in my collection um
14:36	I date it to 1905.
14:39	it shows Belvidere Plain in the
14:41	foreground
14:42	these um these
14:46	beetle shaped roof lines
14:50	they were probably practical to
14:54	have wind off the beach go right over
14:57	the house
15:00	though not very successful because
15:03	in 1938 these two	#1938
15:06	were knocked off their foundation by the 15:10	hurricane	#hurricane
15:10	this one still stands at the tail end of
15:13	Spinnaker Lane	#spinnakerlane
15:16	one thing you'll notice about early
15:17	postcards 1900 maybe to 1910
15:22	is that the um the pictures
15:26	do not extend to the boundary of the

15:29	paper
15:30	that's a function of the technology they
15:33	once they got very popular they quickly
15:36	learned how to print these
15:40	by bleeding the photograph off the edge
15:43	of the of the
15:44	card
15:48	and this is another trick that you can
15:51	try
15:52	with I use a photo editing software
15:56	called Adobe
15:57	Photoshop and I can take that same
16:00	postcard
16:02	get rid of the arrow where the sender
16:05	was staying
16:06	get rid of an ink mark
16:10	clean it up brighten it up and
16:15	make it presentable for and in my case
16:18	for the book that I was
16:20	publishing
16:23	you need a good scanner and you need a
16:24	good software program
16:26	I highly recommend Adobe products
16:31	here is a postcard taken from the Old	#oldstonedock
		Variant from the Gunning collection: Gunning_Village_Har_0180

Other postcards of this site: Gunning_Village_Har_0173 through 0188 Hunt_Village_Bch_0089 through 0095 16:34 Stone Dock 16:35 in Falmouth which used to be Falmouth's 16:37 harbor 16:38 at the end of Shore Street and you see 16:41 the same view	ıgh
0188 Hunt_Village_Bch_0089 through 0095 16:34 Stone Dock 16:35 in Falmouth which used to be Falmouth's 16:37 harbor 16:38 at the end of Shore Street and you see	igh
16:34 Stone Dock 16:35 in Falmouth which used to be Falmouth's 16:37 harbor 16:38 at the end of Shore Street and you see 16:35 in Falmouth which used to be Falmouth's 16:37 harbor 16:38 at the end of Shore Street and you see 16:37 harbor 16:38 at the end of Shore Street and you see 16:38 at the end of Shore Street and you see
, and the second
16:41 the same view
16:42 the um the
16:47 houses here along the beach in Belvidere
16:49 Plain you can see
16:50 Falmouth Heights in the distance
16:54 a couple of young boys running down the 16:57 jetty
16:58 and some sailboats again this would need
17:01 to be heavily cleaned up
17:03 I don't think I used this one in the 17:05 book I used another
17:06 copy that I found that was much cleaner
17:11 oh this must be it
17:14 and what I would do is just brighten it
17:16 up so that when it's printed in the book
17:18 it's um it's uh
17:22 it becomes clearer and

17:26	black and white versus this is scanned
17:29	in color
17:37	this is a picture of the old harbor
17:41	from the other side and oops and
17:46	there's a nice little um
17:50	note here please send as usual to last
17:53	address
17:53	by Tuesday if possible E.B.
17:58	Salandin he was probably looking for a
18:01	rent
18:02	of his on his summer cottage
18:08	I include this photograph of the 18:11	Heights from around the same time period
18:14	19
18:15	1905 because uh you can see
18:19	from uh perspective from a different
18:23	perspective
18:24	at the end of this long wooden wharf
18:27	the Butler house that was in the first
18:30	photograph that I shared with you
18:33	this is the Tower House Hotel	#towerhousehotel
		Gunning_Heights_Bldg_1207 through 1210, 1217 through 1223
		Hunt_Heights_Bldg_244 through 251
18:37	which I think came down in about 19
18:41	50 Jill Jill'll know better

18:44	on that excuse me
18:49	excuse me for a minute I had to get a
18:52	drink of water
18:53	so in this photograph you can see
18:56	the windmill
19:00	that was on the old Waterside estate	#waterside
19:04	and you can also see
19:07	the Weinberg house here so	#weinberg
19:10	that was built in I think 1914
19:14	and it looks pretty new the wood looks
19:16	clean
19:17	so I would date this postcard to
19:22	1914.
19:26	let's take a look at the next one
19:29	it is the mouth of the harbor being	Variants from the Hunt & Gunning collections:
		Hunt_Village_Bch_084,
		Gunning_Village_Har_0190 & 191
		Similar cards: Gunning_Heights_Pnd_1311 &
		1312
19:33	dredged by the
19:35	barge Wollaston and
19:38	it was colorized obviously and
19:41	we can also see that by 1910	#1910
19:45	the pictures are bleeding
19:48	off the edge of the postcard there's

19:52	our focal point that always tells us
19:55	where we are
19:56	the Butler house on the uh
20:00	on the end of Falmouth Heights
20:03	this by the way was Clinton Road
20:07	Clinton Avenue used to uh run right	#clintonavenue
20:10	across
20:11	here and that's essentially what they're
20:13	digging away
20:14	is the spit of land
20:18	across which was Clinton
20:23	this is a really great photograph that
20:26	shows
20:27	in perfect detail
20:30	that activity in 1919 you can see the	#1919
20:34	name on the
20:35	barge here the Wollaston and these two
20:39	were dredging the harbor there are a
20:42	number of
20:44	aspects to this photograph that
20:47	helped to date it this is the William
20:50	Wyman
20:51	house on the edge of the harbor
20:54	this is the tower on
20:58	11 Wheeling Avenue which	#wheelingavenue
21:01	came down in

21:09	I believe around 1913
21:12	so we know that
21:15	this was taller this used to be taller
21:20	in its day um this house number four
21:24	Wheeling Avenue
21:25	burned to the ground I'd have to look up
21:28	the actual
21:29	year that that happened number one
21:31	Wheeling Avenue
21:34	this is 20 Tim Nye's Cartway	#timnyecartway
21:38	16 Tim Nye's Cartway those
21:41	are the houses in which I grew up as a
21:43	boy
21:46	and this is the
21:50	back end of 151 Clinton Avenue which
21:54	sits on the
21:54	edge of Tim Nye's Cartway and this
21:58	is the house on the at the foot of
22:00	Sheridan Avenue	#sheridanavenue
22:01	on Clinton Avenue on the corner of
22:04	Clinton
22:05	and Sheridan and you can see how all of 22:08	this
22:08	land was vacant at that
22:12	time so when the family who lived
22:15	in our family homes

22:22 up until 1925 they had 22:26 a beautiful uninterrupted view of the 22:29 harbor this 22:32 house here 22:39 is 22:45 um I can't think of the family's name 22:48 but this is also gone 22:50 and has been replaced by 22:53 a new house if I think of it I'll 22:56 mention it 22:57 later postcards were 23:00 also made from 23:03 pictures from photographs that you could 23:06 mail into a company and they'll return 23:10 back to you 23:11 a set of 10 or 20. 23:15 this happens to have been a photograph 23:29 Mrs. Lowry was Bill Wyman's mother 23:25 and this house front and center is 23:29 43 Harrisburg it's now been moved right #harrisburgavenue 23:33 up to the water 23:33 this is the Tim Nye Cartway house that 23:38 my family moved to in 1967.	22:18	was here in 19
22:29 harbor this 22:32 house here 22:39 is 22:45 um I can't think of the family's name 22:48 but this is also gone 22:50 and has been replaced by 22:53 a new house if I think of it I'll 22:56 mention it 22:57 later postcards were 23:00 also made from 23:03 pictures from photographs that you could 23:06 mail into a company and they'll return 23:10 back to you 23:11 a set of 10 or 20. 23:15 this happens to have been a photograph 23:29 Mrs. Lowry was Bill Wyman's mother 23:29 43 Harrisburg it's now been moved right #harrisburgavenue 23:32 up to the water 23:34 this is the Tim Nye Cartway house that	22:22	up until 1925 they had

	23:32	up to the water
23:38 my family moved to in 1967.	23:34	this is the Tim Nye Cartway house that
	23:38	my family moved to in 1967.
23:46 this is number one Wheeling Avenue on	23:46	this is number one Wheeling Avenue on

23:50	the corner of Girard	#girardavenue
23:52	this is the old Lowry house with the
23:55	tower
23:56	this uh house is number four Wheeling
23:59	Avenue that burned
24:00	to the ground and it's gone you can
24:03	still see some
24:05	you can still see some concrete
24:07	foundation
24:08	markers there unless they've been
24:11	removed recently
24:13	and this is one of the 24:17	uh beetle shaped homes that
24:20	was knocked off its foundation by the 24:24	hurricane in 1938 so that
24:27	is now gone and it's a private private
24:29	community beach
24:32	here are the two homes that were knocked
24:34	off their foundation
24:36	they're both uh they're both gone they
24:39	must have been beautiful
24:41	beautiful homes right on the beach again
24:46	this is a photograph that was turned
24:47	into a postcard
24:49	there are notes and stamps on the back
24:56	this is a similar view probably

25:00	around 1914 you can see
25:04	some familiar structures these are the
25:06	two
25:08	Wheeling Avenue homes that were
25:11	destroyed
25:12	and this is the Weinberg
25:16	house on Girard Avenue
25:19	um brand spanking new I would say
25:23	the uh the wood looks still looks bright
25:25	and clean
25:27	it hasn't aged so this postcard is very
25:31	likely
25:32	1915 1914
25:36	and uh there's a nice wooden pier here
25:39	that
25:41	that is no longer there
25:45	same view um showing a better
25:49	perspective
25:50	on the houses on the at the end of
25:54	Harrisburg um this is the Drummond house	#drummond
25:58	now
26:01	this is the Burns house again the homes	#burns
26:05	on Wheeling Avenue the two
26:07	I don't know why I want to call them
26:08	eyebrow houses but the two
26:11	beetle beetle houses on Wheeling Avenue

26:15	and the Weinberg home
26:20	it's a beautiful beach my father loved
26:22	this beach
26:24	he used to this is the uh now
26:27	this is now the the neighborhood
26:32	beach where this house used to be and my
26:34	father would sit there and
26:36	say to me where he said to me one day
26:40	how could you believe that God doesn't
26:42	exist when
26:43	he created such beauty as this beach
26:48	he was he was enraptured
26:53	this is a fascinating shot it took me a	Variant from the Hunt collection: Hunt_Heights_Har_314
26:56	while
26:57	to stare at this photograph
27:00	to understand what exactly I was looking
27:03	at
27:05	but it clearly says Deacon's Pond Harbor
27:08	the fleet at anchor Falmouth Heights
27:11	Mass so here's the harbor um
27:14	it has access to the ocean but
27:17	it doesn't really look like this is
27:20	where
27:20	Falmouth Heights should be and it took
27:24	me

27:25	a little while to determine that the
27:27	publisher had reversed the shot
27:30	so when we turn this around
27:34	you will see this makes sense
27:37	here are the two beetle houses on the 27:41	end of Wheeling Avenue
27:42	here is the Wyman house the jetty at the
27:46	end of the harbor
27:47	here's the where the Clam Shack is
27:51	at the tail end of Clinton Avenue
27:55	and um this is the
27:58	house that I'm trying to remember the
28:00	name of
28:02	and it will come to me
28:06	this house I don't recognize but
28:09	uh one of you may or Jill might be able
28:12	to help us out
28:13	a house with two little outbuildings
28:17	a little further down on Scranton	#scrantonavenue
28:21	so I wouldn't be as familiar with it but
28:24	I'm sure
28:26	I'm sure we'll get it identified and in
28:29	in the uh
28:31	in this shot you can see the same house
28:34	with the two out buildings
28:36	somewhere down along Scranton Avenue

28:44 let me know I'd like to know who that is 28:47 I skipped past this one but I do want to 28:51 point out that this is Waterside 28:54 at the end of Shore Street at the beach 28:58 where you turn that 90 degree turn 29:03 along the public beach there I don't 29:06 quite 29:07 recognize these homes but 29:10 with a little further analysis I'm sure 29:12 we could figure them out 29:15 and this home here is across Hunt_Village_Bldg_068 & 69

29:19 Shore Street on the other side and it
29:21 belonged at the time
29:23 to an old Navy man named Richard Olney #richardolney 29:27 there's probably quite a bit written 29:29 about him
29:31 that you can look up at the library
29:35 it's a nice shot colorized obviously 29:43 I love this shot it must have been taken
29:46 right after the harbor was dredged 29:47 because these two jetties look brand new 29:50 they still look like piles of rock
29:52 and uh the beach is still kind of taking

29:56	the contour
29:57	of where the old spit of land used to be
30:02	this is all fill very clearly all
30:05	fill um
30:08	this house someone
30:12	can identify for us on Falmouth Heights
30:16	I don't recognize it but I'm sure it's
30:18	been gone for a very long time
30:20	and just out of frame here would be the
30:25	Butler house our our point of reference
30:29	on on Falmouth Heights
30:32	oh and it even says new harbor so that's 30:35	a brand spanking new
30:37	photograph 1919 in 1919
30:44	um this
30:47	is a photograph not a postcard but a
30:51	photograph
30:52	that a neighbor sent to me taken from an
30:56	airplane
30:57	you can see Falmouth Harbor
31:02	Clinton Ave Clinton Avenue has been cut
31:05	so this is uh post 19
31:09	19 1920 maybe and you can see Clinton
31:13	Avenue here
31:15	uh this house on what is now Settlers	#settlerspath
31:18	Path

31:20	is brand new so I'm guessing 1920s for
31:25	sure
31:27	and this is the little inlet
31:30	at the mouth of Falmouth Harbor I
31:35	blew it up a little to get a better view
31:38	but obviously the plane was shaking so
31:41	whoever took the photograph
31:42	had to contend with a little vibration
31:48	you can see the columnated building here
31:52	which I forget what that
31:55	was but we'll be able to identify that
32:06	this is Harrisburg this
32:09	is Timothy Nye's Cartway
32:12	Clinton Avenue this house
32:16	um uh Vivian Center lived in for years	#viviancenter
32:20	and years and I interviewed
32:22	her
32:22	for my book as I did
32:26	um many of these residents
32:30	and you can see the Butler house right
32:33	here
32:35	and the Tower Hotel
32:39	it's too bad it's really too bad that
32:41	this wasn't clear
32:42	because it's just an amazing old shot
32:44	that you just wouldn't see

32:46	otherwise
32:51	this photograph um was taken about 1920
32:55	by Theodore	#gerloff
32:57	Gerloff the father of Miss Anna Gerloff
32:59	who was quite
33:00	elderly when I uh knew her
33:04	in the late 1900s
33:09	but it was probably taken um right after
33:12	this house was built
33:14	on Harrisburg Lane
33:17	you can see the roof line of the 33:21	two beetle-shaped houses that were blown
33:24	down in 1938
33:27	you can see the tower here on the Lowry
33:30	house has been
33:31	brought down in height
33:38	this is one of my favorites again um	Variant from the Hunt collection:
		Hunt_Village_Har_111
33:42	1920 these two big sloops here you can
33:45	see a couple of old
33:48	Model T's that were still hanging around
33:51	and this house which is the big
33:55	yellow mansion that belonged to
33:58	to [Dr. K Leland] for many years	Sp. unknown. May be "Kay" for Dr. Katherine Leland.
34:03	I believe that went up in 1920
34:09	so

34:12	let's see I've got my I believe that one
34:16	up in 1920 so we can date
34:20	we can date the postcard
34:23	if it didn't have a postmark on the back
34:26	to about that period
34:36	and this is a similar shot this was one
34:38	where
34:39	um you know I mentioned that all aspects
34:43	of the postcard are
34:44	are fascinating and this one was 34:48	kind of fun because it was from
34:51	one young sailor to a friend back home
34:56	and uh he's he
34:59	says he wrote dear Newbold
35:02	we're having a fine time up here and
35:05	wish you were near us
35:07	will you come to lunch when we get home
35:10	Bayard Kane Fox posted 1935
35:16	and addressed to Master
35:20	Newbold Black
35:23	two school school chums keeping in touch
35:26	with one another
35:32	and um I wanted to show this
35:36	circa 1952 aerial shot
35:39	of Falmouth Harbor
35:43	this is the Butler house this is the

35:47	Yacht Club the Tides Motel	#tidesmotel
35:50	Belvidere Plain pretty much encompasses
35:54	this entire
35:55	flat land uh
35:58	and you can see even even by 1952
36:02	standards
36:03	quite a lot was not yet developed
36:05	there's a lot
36:06	of open land and in
36:10	in the early days in the 1800s
36:14	people would buy lots along
36:17	Clinton Avenue that stretched in long
36:20	rectangles
36:21	all the way back to Main Street so a lot
36:24	of these lots if you follow their
36:26	history they go back
36:29	from Clinton Avenue to
36:33	Main Street and the Belvidere Plain
36:38	as we saw from the early development map
36:41	probably stopped at King at	#kingstreet
36:45	Queen Street and everything	#queenstreet
36:48	beyond would fall under the
36:52	classification of Falmouth Center
36:58	this is a closer view you can start to
37:00	see some of the houses
37:02	that are familiar in

37:06	on Belvidere Plain this is the Robertson	#robertson
37:08	house
37:11	this is the um
37:14	Regatta the Regatta
37:17	Hotel this is the Regatta restaurant	#regatta
37:24	it's a nice clear shot I'm not sure
37:26	where I got it I probably bought it on
37:27	eBay
37:30	and then that this is a close-up Clinton
37:33	Avenue
37:34	this is Sheridan Avenue
37:38	this is the Wyman house
37:49	and then I wanted to uh just add in this
37:52	um
37:53	later view probably 1950ish 1945
37:57	maybe shows the Butler house um
38:01	the the uh
38:05	oh the old sailor what is this name
38:07	begins with the letter g
38:10	Gallagher Gallagher used to live in this	#gallagher
38:12	house next to the Yacht Club
38:14	and the um
38:18	Tower House Hotel
38:24	so in 2003
38:28	I believe I published
38:32	the stories of the various families

38:35	who lived on Belvidere Plain
38:38	and I included photographs and chapters
38:41	on each of their houses
38:43	and I did research on a lot of the
38:48	titles land titles the deeds that passed
38:53	and put it all together into uh
38:56	into book form published it
39:02	I was very uh very happy to get it
39:05	in print because I had talked to a good
39:09	many neighbors and had scraps of paper
39:13	you know from my various interviews
39:17	with them it really was a fascinating
39:19	hobby I started when I was
39:22	probably 13 or 14
39:26	and I loved just loved hearing
39:29	stories of the history of the
39:32	neighborhood
39:36	oh and I want to show you this postcard
39:38	because the cover of my book
39:40	see these green shutters and red roof
39:43	uh comes from this postcard	Variants from the Hunt & Gunning collections: Gunning_Village_Har_0172 Hunt_Village_Bch_079
39:47	so obviously I oh and you know I think
39:51	the back cover
39:52	this extends to the back cover this

39:54	would be the spine
39:56	and this is the front cover of the book
39:59	this is a
39:59	this is another one of my favorite
40:02	postcards
40:05	um this book is
40:08	out of print there are no there are no
40:11	more copies although you can
40:16	read it at the Falmouth Public Library
40:18	they have they have a copy
40:21	but I I expanded it
40:25	and re-published it
40:29	in 2018
40:33	with this cover
40:36	um no slip cover
40:39	just a hard cover book and called it The	#thebelvidereplainrevisited
40:43	Belvidere Plain
40:44	Revisited it's approximately
40:48	twice the number of pages
40:51	quite a few more photographs and a
40:53	number of new stories
40:55	from people who um
40:58	who let me know that I forgot about them
41:02	in the first
41:04	in the first printing so we got him in
41:08	to this one and I think that's
