The Finance Committee wishes to call attention to the pledge subscription cards, which were distributed two weeks ago. Most of the subscribers have replied, stating the amount of their pledge and for what period; but there are several who have not answered as yet. We can not hope for an authoritative financial system without these personal pledge cards and we would ask everyone irrespective of their method of paying to sign their card and hand it to the Financial Secretary.

The Altar flowers today are given by the Misses Moody in loving memory of their mother.
